“shooting club permit” means a shooting club permit issued under section 87.

“shooting gallery” includes a place used for paint-pellet sports.

“slingshot” means a device designed for use with, or a component of which is, a brace that fits or rests on a person’s forearm or another part of the person’s body to support the person’s wrist against the tension of elastic material used to propel a projectile.

Example—

A Saunders ‘Falcon’ Hunting Sling.

“State” includes Territory.

“temporarily inoperable” see section 8.

“temporary protection order” means a temporary protection order under the Domestic Violence (Family Protection) Act 1989, section 3, and includes an interstate domestic violence order corresponding to a temporary protection order.

“theatrical ordnance supplier” means a person who, wholly or partly, carries on the business, whether or not for reward or benefit, of supplying on a temporary basis weapons for use in theatrical, film or television productions where the supplying involves no change in the ownership of the weapons.

“unloaded” firearm, means the firearm contains no ammunition in its breech, chamber, magazine or muzzle.

“vehicle” includes any aircraft or vessel.

“weapon” means—

- (a) a firearm; or
- (b) another thing prescribed under a regulation; or

- (c) a thing that would be a weapon mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), if it were not temporarily inoperable or incomplete;

but does not include an antique firearm.

“weapons register” see section 71(1).

Meaning of “heirloom firearm”

6. An “heirloom firearm” is a firearm, other than a category R weapon, ownership of which has passed to a person by testamentary disposition or the laws of succession.

What is a “replica”

6A.(1) A “replica of a weapon” is—

- (a) a reasonable facsimile or copy of a weapon, even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile or substance; or
- (b) a category A, B, C or H weapon that has been rendered permanently inoperable; or
- (c) a hand grenade that is inert.

(2) A “replica”—

- (a) of a particular weapon—means a reasonable facsimile or copy of the weapon, even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile or substance; or
- (b) of a spear gun, longbow or crossbow—means a reasonable facsimile or copy of a spear gun, longbow or crossbow even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile; or
- (c) of a thing prescribed under a regulation—means anything prescribed under a regulation to be a replica of the thing.

Meaning of “security guard”

6B.(1) A “security guard” is a person who patrols, protects, watches over or guards (“protects”) the person’s property or other persons or other person’s property—

- (a) in the course of carrying on a business; or
- (b) in the course of employment.

Example—

A jeweller transporting jewellery in the course of carrying on a business who does not engage someone else to guard the jewellery while it is being transported is a ‘security guard’.¹⁰

- (2) However, the following persons are not security guards—
 - (a) a person who protects property if the protection is carried out in the course of primary production;
 - (b) a person, other than a security organisation, who engages someone else to protect property for the person.

How a firearm is made “permanently inoperable”

7.(1) A firearm is made permanently inoperable if the firearm is modified in the way prescribed under a regulation to make it incapable of being discharged.

(2) However, a firearm is not taken to be permanently inoperable unless a licensed armourer or a person approved by the commissioner for this subsection certifies, in the approved form, the firearm as being incapable of being discharged.

(3) The commissioner may approve a person for subsection (2) only if the commissioner is satisfied the person has the necessary expertise or experience to certify that a firearm is incapable of being discharged.

How a firearm is made “temporarily inoperable”

- 8. A firearm is made temporarily inoperable—
 - (a) for a firearm designed to allow its bolt, breech block, firing pin or other integral part of the firing mechanism to be removed—if the part is removed and securely stored separately from the firearm; and

¹⁰ Section 123 provides that a person must not, in performing duties as a security guard, physically possess a weapon unless the person holds a security licence (guard).

- (b) for another firearm—if the firearm’s trigger is secured by a trigger lock and the lock’s key is securely stored separately from the firearm.

PART 2—LICENCES

Issue, renewal, endorsement and alteration of licences

9. A licence may be issued, renewed, endorsed or altered only by an authorised officer.

Limitations on issue of licence

10.(1) A licence may be issued only to—

- (a) an individual under subsection (2); or
- (b) a body under subsection (3).

(2) A licence may be issued to an individual only if the person—

- (a) is—
 - (i) for a licence other than a minor’s licence—an adult; or
 - (ii) for a minor’s licence—at least 11 years and otherwise within the age group prescribed under a regulation for the licence; and
- (b) has an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of the weapon or category of weapon the possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
- (c) has access to secure storage facilities for the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
- (d) is not prevented under this or another Act or by an order of a Magistrates Court or another court from holding the licence; and
- (e) is a fit and proper person to hold a licence; and

Weapons Act 1990

(f) has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess the weapon or category of weapon; and

(g) resides only in Queensland.

(2A) Subsection (2)(g) does not apply to a person who—

(a) for a person who resides in a State adjoining Queensland—

(i) satisfies the authorised officer that the person has a genuine reason for possessing a weapon for which a licence is required under this Act; and

(ii) is not disqualified from obtaining a similar licence in the adjoining State; or

(b) for a person who resides in a State other than an adjoining State but whose main place of residence is Queensland—is not disqualified from obtaining a similar licence in the other State.

(2B) Also, subsection (2)(g) does not apply to a person who—

(a) resides outside Queensland and intends visiting Queensland to engage in an activity that is a reason for possession of a weapon under section 11; and

(b) is entitled by law (whether or not under a licence) to possess and use a firearm or type of firearm in the State or country where the person usually resides; and

(c) applies for a licence prescribed under section 12(1)(k) for visitors to Queensland.

(3) A licence may be issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—

(a) for a licence to be issued to an approved shooting club, only if it is endorsed with—

(i) the name of an individual, who is a member of the club's governing body and satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (e), as the club's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and

Weapons Act 1990

- (ii) the names and addresses of the individuals who are responsible for the safekeeping of the weapons or category of weapons possession of which is to be authorised by the licence when not in use by members of that club; or
- (b) for a licence to be issued to another body, only if—
 - (i) the body has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess a weapon; and
 - (ii) it is endorsed with the name of an individual, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (e), as the body's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.

(4) For this section, a person has an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of a weapon or category of weapon if the person satisfies the commissioner the person has satisfactorily completed, within the 12 month period immediately before the day the person applies for the issue of a licence—

- (a) if possession of the weapon is to be authorised under a security licence (guard)—
 - (i) the training course approved by the commissioner for section 124;¹¹ or
 - (ii) a course in safety training for weapons conducted in another State that the commissioner is satisfied is at least equivalent to a course approved by the commissioner for section 124; or
- (b) if possession of the weapon is to be authorised under another licence—a course in safety training for weapons approved by the commissioner.

(4A) Also, if possession of the weapon is to be authorised under a licence other than a security licence (guard), it is enough for the commissioner to be satisfied that a person has an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of a weapon or category of weapon because—

¹¹ Section 124 (Training courses for security guards)

Weapons Act 1990

- (a) the person is authorised to possess and use a weapon of that category in another jurisdiction; or
- (b) the person has, within the 12 month period immediately before the day the person applies for the issue of a licence, satisfactorily completed a course in safety training for weapons at least equivalent to a course approved by the commissioner under subsection (4)(b).

(5) For this section, in deciding whether a person is a fit and proper person to hold a licence an authorised officer must consider, among other things—

- (a) the mental and physical fitness of the person; and
- (b) whether a domestic violence order has been made against the person; and
- (c) whether the person has stated anything in or in connection with the application for the licence the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; and
- (d) the public interest.

(6) However, a person is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence if, in Queensland or elsewhere within the 5 year period immediately before the day the person applies for the issue of a licence—

- (a) the person has been convicted of, or discharged from custody on sentence after the person has been convicted of, any of the following offences—
 - (i) an offence relating to the misuse of drugs;
 - (ii) an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence;
 - (iii) an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
- (b) a domestic violence order, other than a temporary protection order, has been made against the person.

(7) A licence enabling the licensee to carry on a business may be issued only if it is endorsed with the place at which the business is to be carried on.

(8) If the business is to be carried on at more than 1 place, a separate application for each place must be made and a separate licence for each place issued.

(9) In this section—

“similar licence”, for a weapon in an adjoining or other State, means a licence, permit or authority issued under the law of the other State entitling the person to possession of the weapon.

Genuine reasons for possession of a weapon

11. The following are reasons for possession of a weapon—

- (a) sports or target shooting;
- (b) recreational shooting;
- (c) an occupational requirement, including an occupational requirement for rural purposes;
- (d) collection by a collector of weapons;
- (e) another reason prescribed under a regulation.

Licences

12.(1) Licences are of the following classes—

- (a) armourer’s licence;
- (b) blank-fire firearms licence;
- (c) collector’s licence (heirloom) or (weapons);
- (d) concealable firearms licence;
- (e) dealer’s licence;
- (f) firearms licence;
- (g) firearms licence (instructor);
- (h) minor’s licence;

Weapons Act 1990

- (i) security licence (organisation) or (guard);
- (j) theatrical ordnance supplier's licence;
- (k) another licence prescribed under a regulation.

(2) A licence may authorise possession of a particular weapon or a category of weapon.

(3) Subsection (2) is subject to sections 76 and 77, a regulation or condition.

Application for licence

13.(1) An application for a licence must be—

- (a) made in the approved form and state the applicant's reason for wishing to possess a weapon (the "reason"); and
- (b) made personally, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—
 - (i) if the licence is for an individual—the person; or
 - (ii) if the licence is for a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
- (c) accompanied by—
 - (i) the fee prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (ii) proof of identity to the satisfaction of an authorised officer; and
 - (iii) other particulars prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (iv) the other relevant particulars the person to whom the application is made reasonably requires.

(2) If the reason is sports or target shooting, the applicant must provide proof the applicant is a current member of an approved shooting club.

(3) If the reason is recreational shooting, the applicant must produce—

- (a) written permission from a landowner authorising the applicant to shoot on the landowner's rural land; or

(b) proof of current membership of a body prescribed under a regulation for this subsection.

(4) A body may be prescribed for subsection (3)(b) only if—

- (a) it is a landowner of rural land; or
- (b) it holds written permission from a landowner authorising members of the body to shoot on the landowner's rural land.

(5) If the reason is an occupational requirement, the applicant must state why possession of a weapon is necessary in the conduct of the applicant's business or employment.

Inquiries into application

14.(1) Before the application is decided, an officer in charge of police or authorised officer with whom an application for a licence is lodged may—

- (a) make an inquiry or investigation about the applicant or the application; and
- (b) require the applicant to give the officer further information the officer reasonably needs to be satisfied about the applicant's identity or physical or mental health including—
 - (i) in relation to the applicant's physical health—a report from a doctor about the applicant's physical health; and
 - (ii) in relation to the applicant's mental health—a report from a doctor or psychologist about the applicant's mental health; and
- (c) inspect the secure storage facilities for the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
- (d) supply, for this section, information or a document relevant to the applicant's identity to an officer or member of a State or Commonwealth police service; and
- (e) require the applicant to display an adequate knowledge of the safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of the weapon or category of weapons the possession of which is to be authorised under the licence; and

- (f) make a report about the applicant or the application; and
- (g) make the recommendation about the application the officer thinks appropriate.

(2) If an authorised officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the applicant's stated identity is false, the authorised officer may require the applicant to provide an identifying particular to verify the applicant's identity.

(3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within a stated reasonable time, the applicant—

- (a) refuses to provide the information reasonably required under subsection (1)(b); or
- (b) refuses to allow the inspection under subsection (1)(c); or
- (c) fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2).

(4) If information about the applicant's mental health given under subsection (1)(b) is provided in a doctor's or psychologist's report, an authorised officer may—

- (a) make information in the officer's possession available to the doctor or psychologist; and
- (b) ask the doctor or psychologist to provide a further report.

(5) The authorised officer may make the information available only if the officer considers, on reasonable grounds—

- (a) the doctor or psychologist was not aware of the information; and
- (b) the information may influence the doctor's or psychologist's opinion about the applicant's mental health.

(6) The authorised officer must also advise the applicant of the information being supplied to the doctor or psychologist.

(7) The authorised officer may make the information available under subsection (4) despite the provisions of any other Act.

(8) Unless the authorised officer considers that it is currently required for the investigation of an offence, the authorised officer must, after deciding the application—

- (a) return to the applicant any identifying particular obtained in the course of inquiries into the application; and
- (b) destroy any record or copy of the identifying particular.

(9) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide the application or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any other purpose.

(10) In this section—

“applicant” includes, for a body, an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.

Authorised officer decides application

15.(1) An authorised officer must decide an application for a licence (other than renewal of a licence) as soon as practicable after the end of the period prescribed for this section under a regulation.

(2) However, the authorised officer may decide the application within the prescribed period if the applicant is the holder of an existing licence of another class.

(3) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer’s disposal.

(4) The authorised officer must—

- (a) approve the application and issue the licence subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide, including conditions limiting the use or possession of a weapon; or
- (b) reject the application.

(5) A person whose application is rejected because the person is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence is not entitled to reapply for a licence—

- (a) if the person’s application was rejected because the person was not a fit and proper person under section 10(6)—until the day section 10(6) stops having the effect that the person is not a fit and proper person under that subsection; or
- (b) otherwise—until the day 3 years after the day the application was rejected.

Issue of licence

16.(1) A licence must be—

- (a) in the approved form; and
- (b) endorsed with—
 - (i) the weapon or category of weapon the possession of which is authorised by the licence; and
 - (ii) any conditions decided under section 15(4)(a); and
 - (iii) if the licence is an armourer's, collector's or dealer's licence or a security licence (organisation)—the place approved for the secure storage of the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is authorised by the licence.

(2) A condition or any other information to be endorsed on a licence may be endorsed on the licence, or a certificate issued for the licence, by a word that is given a meaning by a code prescribed under a regulation.

(3) A regulation may prescribe things that must be provided for on the approved form of licence.

Uses permitted under licence

17.(1) A licence authorises a licensee to use a weapon or category of weapon possession of which is authorised under the licence for any lawful purpose.

(2) If use of a firearm is authorised under another Act, a licensee does not contravene this Act merely because the licensee uses the firearm in the way authorised under the other Act.

Renewal of licences

18.(1) A licensee may apply for the renewal of the licence within a period of 46 days starting 60 days before the day the licence expires.

(2) An application for renewal of a licence must be—

- (a) made in the approved form; and
- (b) made personally, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—

- (i) for a licence issued to an individual—the licensee; or
 - (ii) for a licence issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
- (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) If an officer in charge of police receives the application, the officer must refer the application to an authorised officer.
- (4) An authorised officer must decide the application before the licence expires.
- (5) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer’s disposal.
- (6) The authorised officer must—
- (a) approve the application and renew the licence subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide; or
 - (b) reject the application.
- (7) A licence may be renewed by—
- (a) endorsing the existing licence; or
 - (b) cancelling the licence and issuing a fresh licence.
- (8) Section 10(2) to (6) applies to the renewal of a licence with any necessary changes.

Notice of rejection of application to issue or renew licence

19.(1) If an authorised officer rejects an application for a licence or renewal of a licence, the authorised officer must give the applicant a notice of rejection in the approved form stating the specific reasons for the rejection.

(2) The notice may be given to the applicant by sending it to the applicant by security post at the address shown on the application.

Term of licence

20.(1) A licence, other than a replacement licence, remains in force for the term, not more than 5 years, stated on the licence.

(2) A replacement licence remains in force for the unexpired term of the licence which it replaces.

(3) An existing licence stops being in force if a replacement licence is issued instead of the licence.

(4) Also, a licence, including a replacement licence, stops being in force if—

- (a) it is suspended, cancelled, revoked or surrendered; or
- (b) the licensee dies or is disqualified from holding the licence; or
- (c) for a minor's licence—the licensee turns 18.

Certain licences transferable

21.(1) A licence is transferable only in the circumstances mentioned in this section.

(2) The following licences may be transferred on a sale of a business to which the licence applies—

- armourer's licence
- dealer's licence
- security licence (organisation)
- theatrical ordnance supplier's licence.

(3) The proposed purchaser of the business must apply for the appropriate licence under section 13.

(4) If an authorised officer is satisfied the proposed purchaser is otherwise entitled to be issued with the licence, the authorised officer may approve the transfer of the licence subject to the sale of a business being finalised.

(5) If an authorised officer approves the transfer, the purchaser is taken to be the holder of the licence from the time the sale is finalised until the licence is formally transferred or a fresh licence is issued in the purchaser's name for the balance of the original licence's term.

Reporting loss, destruction or theft of licence

22. A licensee must report the loss, destruction or theft of the licence to an officer in charge of police immediately after the licensee becomes aware of the loss, destruction or theft.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Replacement licence

23.(1) This section applies if an authorised officer is satisfied—

- (a) a licence is lost, destroyed or stolen; or
- (b) any writing or endorsement on a licence is illegible and the licence is surrendered to an officer in charge of police.

(2) The authorised officer may issue to the licensee a licence (the “replacement licence”) instead of the existing licence on—

- (a) application by the licensee in the approved form; and
- (b) payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation.

Change in licensee's circumstances

24.(1) It is a condition of each licence that a licensee must, within 14 days of the happening of an event mentioned in subsection (2) (the “change”), advise an officer in charge of police of the change and deliver the licence to the officer.

(2) The events are—

- (a) any of the following that happen to the licensee or the licensee's representative—
 - (i) a change of address;

Weapons Act 1990

- (ii) a change in the licensee's or the licensee's representative's mental or physical fitness;
 - (iii) the conviction of the licensee or the licensee's representative of an offence mentioned in section 10(6)(a)(i) to (iii);
 - (iv) the making of a domestic violence order against the licensee or the licensee's representative; or
- (b) a change in the licensee's—
- (i) reason or need for possessing or using a weapon; or
 - (ii) access to secure storage facilities for the licensee's weapon; or
- (c) the revocation of the licensee's permission to shoot on a landowner's rural land; or
- (d) another event prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) The officer in charge must advise an authorised officer of the change.
- (4) The authorised officer must—
- (a) if the change is to a particular on the licence and the authorised officer is satisfied of the correctness of the change—endorse the licence with the change; or
 - (b) otherwise—take the appropriate action in relation to the licence.
- (5) In this section—

“representative” of a licensee means a person who is endorsed—

- (a) on the licensee's licence as the licensee's representative; or
- (b) on a permit to acquire issued to the licensee as the licensee's representative.

Authorised officer may amend licence conditions

- 25.(1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions of a licence—
- (a) on the licensee's application; or
 - (b) on the authorised officer's own initiative.

(2) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—

- (a) give written notice to the licensee—
 - (i) of the details of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that the licensee may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a stated day, not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the licensee; and
- (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the licensee before the stated day.

(3) If an authorised officer decides to amend the conditions of a licence, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the licensee.

(4) The amendment takes effect—

- (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the licensee; or
- (b) if a later day is stated in the notice—the stated day.

(5) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the licensee stating the reasons for the refusal.

Change of approved place

26.(1) This section applies to an approved place endorsed on a licence under section 16(1)(b)(iii).¹²

(2) On application by the licensee, an authorised officer may change the approved place to another place if the authorised officer is satisfied the other place fulfils the requirements of this Act.

(3) The authorised officer may endorse the licence with the change.

¹² Section 16 (Issue of licence)

Surrender of licence

27.(1) A licensee may surrender the licence by—

- (a) giving written notice of surrender; and
- (b) surrendering the licence.

(2) The notice must be given and the licence surrendered to an authorised officer or officer in charge of police.

Suspension of licence

28.(1) An authorised officer may, by a suspension notice given to a licensee, suspend the licence if the authorised officer—

- (a) is satisfied that the licensee—
 - (i) has been charged with an offence against any law in force in Queensland or elsewhere—
 - (A) relating to the misuse of drugs; or
 - (B) involving the use or threatened use of violence; or
 - (C) involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
 - (ii) is temporarily unable to comply with a condition of the licence; or
- (b) considers, on reasonable grounds, that the licensee may no longer be a fit and proper person to hold a licence.

(2) The licence is suspended until—

- (a) if subsection (1)(a)(i) applies—
 - (i) the proceeding for the charge ends; or
 - (ii) the suspension is lifted by an authorised officer; or
- (b) if subsection (1)(a)(ii) applies—the authorised officer is satisfied the licensee is able to comply with the condition and lifts the suspension; or

- (c) if subsection (1)(b) applies—the earlier of the following days—
- (i) the day the authorised officer is satisfied the person is a fit and proper person to hold a licence and lifts the suspension;
 - (ii) the day 30 days after the licence is suspended.

(3) If a licensee whose licence is suspended under this section holds a permit to acquire, the permit is also suspended.

Revocation of licence

29.(1) An authorised officer may, by a revocation notice given to a licensee, revoke a licence if the authorised officer is satisfied of any of the following things—

- (a) the licence has been obtained through fraud or deception;
- (b) the licensee has been convicted of an offence against any law in force in Queensland or elsewhere involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon;
- (c) the licensee has contravened a condition of the licence;
- (d) the licensee is no longer a fit or proper person to hold the licence;
- (e) the licensee no longer has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess a weapon;
- (f) for an armourer's licence, dealer's licence or theatrical ordnance supplier's licence—
 - (i) the licensed armourer, licensed dealer or licensed theatrical ordnance supplier is not in charge of the premises stated in the licence; or
 - (ii) the premises stated in the licence are no longer satisfactory for carrying out the business to which the licence applies;
- (g) for a collector's licence—
 - (i) the licensed collector is no longer a genuine collector or is not in charge of the premises where the collector's weapons are usually kept; or
 - (ii) the premises where the collection is usually kept are no longer satisfactory for the safekeeping of weapons.

(2) If a licensee whose licence is revoked under this section holds a permit to acquire, the permit is also revoked.

(3) This section does not prevent an authorised officer reinstating a licence that is revoked by the authorised officer because of a mistake of fact.

Examples for subsection (3)—

1. J was charged with an offence and although no conviction was recorded for the offence, police records indicated a conviction had been recorded.

2. A was required to be a member of a pistol club but the club failed to tell the commissioner that A had joined the club before the revocation happened.

(4) A licence reinstated under subsection (3) is taken not to have been revoked.

(5) The licence may be reinstated by—

- (a) returning the licence; or
- (b) issuing a fresh licence.

(6) The authorised officer must also ensure any entry made in the firearms register because of the revocation is corrected.

Suspension or revocation notice

30.(1) A suspension or revocation notice must—

- (a) be in the approved form; and
- (b) state the specific reasons for the suspension or revocation of the licence; and
- (c) direct the licensee to surrender—
 - (i) the licence and any relevant permit to acquire to a stated police officer at a stated reasonable time and place; and
 - (ii) the weapon held by the licensee under the licence in a way prescribed under subsection (4) or (5) at, or by, a stated reasonable time.

(2) A suspension or revocation notice may have effect immediately only if it, or a copy of it, is given personally to the licensee or a person endorsed on the licence as representing the licensee.

(3) A person who is given a suspension or revocation notice must comply with the directions in the notice.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(4) A weapon to be surrendered under a suspension or revocation notice may be surrendered by delivering it to any police officer.

(5) A weapon may also be surrendered by—

- (a) delivering it to a licensed dealer or other person authorised under this Act to possess the weapon; and
- (b) obtaining from the person to whom the weapon is delivered a receipt in the approved form for the weapon; and
- (c) giving the receipt, within the time stated in the notice for the surrender of the weapon, to the police officer mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(i).

(6) An authorised officer may extend the time for compliance with a suspension or revocation notice (the “compliance time”) if the person to whom the notice is given applies to the authorised officer for an extension before the end of the compliance time.

Licensee’s representative

31.(1) This section applies to—

- (a) a licensee who holds a licence to enable the licensee to carry on business; and
- (b) an applicant for a licence to enable the applicant to carry on business.

(2) The licensee or applicant may apply for the licence to be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper individual as the licensee’s or applicant’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs at the place stated in the application.

(3) A licensee may apply for the licence to be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper individual instead of another person already endorsed as the licensee’s representative under this or another section.

(4) An application under subsection (2) or (3) must be made in the approved form in the way prescribed under a regulation.

(5) In this section—

“fit and proper individual” means an individual who, if the person applied for a licence, would be a fit and proper person under section 10.

Temporary recognition of interstate licences for particular purposes

32.(1) This section applies if a person who holds a licence, permit or authority issued under the law of another State entitling the person to possession of a weapon visits Queensland—

- (a) to participate in a shooting competition conducted by an approved shooting club or approved by the commissioner; or
- (b) for another purpose specified under a regulation for this section.

(2) The person’s licence is taken to authorise possession and use of the weapon in accordance with this Act—

- (a) for the purpose of participating in the competition; or
- (b) for the other purpose specified under the regulation—if the person complies with any conditions specified in the regulation for the purpose.

Interstate residents moving to Queensland

33.(1) This section applies if a resident of another State who is the holder of a licence under the law of the other State authorising possession of a category A, B, C, D or H weapon gives written notice to the commissioner of the person’s intention to reside permanently in Queensland.

(2) The person’s licence is taken to be the corresponding licence under this Act in force for the period mentioned in subsection (3) or until the day the person’s application for a licence under this Act is approved or rejected, whichever is the earlier.

(3) The period is—

- (a) for a licence authorising possession of a category A or B weapon—3 months; and

- (b) for a licence authorising possession of a category C, D or H weapon—7 days.

(4) The period mentioned in subsection (3) starts on the day the person notifies the commissioner of the person’s intention to reside permanently in Queensland.

(5) If the holder of a licence authorising possession of a category C, D or H weapon notifies the commissioner and makes application for a licence under this Act within the time allowed under subsection (3)(b), the person does not contravene section 50¹³ while the person’s application is being decided merely because the 7 day period has passed.

(6) In this section—

“corresponding licence”, to a licence held under the law of another State, means—

- (a) a licence under this Act declared under a regulation to be a corresponding licence; or
- (b) if no regulation is made under paragraph (a) or the regulation makes insufficient provision—a licence under this Act that most closely corresponds to the other licence.

Contravention of licence condition

34.(1) A licensee must not contravene a condition of the licence.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units or 1 year’s imprisonment.

(2) The penalty under subsection (1) may be imposed in addition to revocation of a licence or seizure of a weapon because of the contravention.

¹³ Section 50 (Possession of weapons)

PART 3—ACQUISITION, SALE AND DISPOSAL OF WEAPONS

Division 1—Preliminary

Definitions for pt 3

34A. In this section—

“firearm” does not include a barrel, breechbolt or top slide of a firearm.

“weapon” does not include a barrel, breechbolt or top slide of a firearm.

Division 2—Acquisition, sale and disposal of weapons

Acquisition of weapons

35.(1) A person may acquire a weapon only if—

- (a) the person is a licensed dealer; or
- (b) the person is the holder of a permit to acquire the weapon and acquires the weapon—
 - (i) from or through a licensed dealer; or
 - (ii) through a police officer in circumstances prescribed under a regulation; or
- (c) the person acquires the weapon under other lawful authority, justification or excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a category D, H or R weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; and
- (b) for a category C or E weapon—60 penalty units or 1 year’s imprisonment; and
- (c) for a category A or B weapon—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Weapons Act 1990

Example 1—

J wishes to sell J's weapon to S. S holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. J and S agree on the sale price, but the sale may only be completed through a licensed dealer who must provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2) and is entitled to a brokerage fee under subsection (3).

Example 2—

J wishes to give J's weapon to S. S holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. The gift of the weapon may only be made through a licensed dealer who must provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2) and is entitled to a brokerage fee under subsection (3).

Example 3—

J sells J's weapon to G, a licensed dealer. G later sells the weapon to S who holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. G must still provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2), but in this case is not entitled to a brokerage fee.

Example 4—

J pays a deposit on a firearm J is buying from G, a licensed dealer. J has applied for a permit to acquire, but the application has not been finally decided. If J takes possession of the firearm before the permit to acquire is issued, J acquires the weapon and commits an offence against subsection (1).

(2) If the weapon is acquired from a licensed dealer or the acquisition happens through a licensed dealer or police officer—

- (a) the acquirer must give the dealer or police officer a copy of the permit to acquire; and
- (b) the dealer must give to an authorised officer the copy of the permit to acquire and the information prescribed under a regulation within the time and in the way prescribed under the regulation.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(3) If the acquisition happens through a licensed dealer, the dealer is entitled to a brokerage fee from the acquirer in the amount prescribed under a regulation.

(4) The dealer is not entitled to any other payment for brokering the acquisition.

Weapons Act 1990

(5) If the acquisition happens under other lawful authority, justification or excuse, the acquirer must, unless the acquirer has a reasonable excuse, take immediate action—

- (a) to comply with this Act; or
- (b) to surrender the weapon under section 30(4) or (5).

Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(6) This section does not apply to the acquisition of a weapon, if the acquisition consists only of a person taking possession of the weapon—

- (a) to repair it; or
- (b) to store it, if the person is an armourer storing it for someone else; or
- (c) on a temporary basis for not more than 3 months without giving consideration for the acquisition or for the weapon; or
- (d) in performing duties as a security guard under a security licence (guard); or
- (e) under section 52, 53, 54(2), 55 or 55A.¹⁴

(7) In this section—

“acquire”, a weapon, means purchase, accept or receive or otherwise take possession of the weapon.

Sale or disposal of weapons

36.(1) A person must not sell or otherwise dispose of a weapon to anyone else unless—

- (a) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon to a licensed dealer; or

¹⁴ Section 52 (Physical possession and use of weapon sometimes allowed for the purpose of training a minor), 53 (An unlicensed person may use a weapon at an approved range), 54 (Possession or use of weapon by unlicensed person in primary production sometimes allowed), 55 (Use of weapons by particular unlicensed person at shooting gallery allowed), 55A (Possession of weapons supplied by theatrical ordnance supplier).

Weapons Act 1990

- (b) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon to another person who is the holder of a permit to acquire the weapon and the sale or disposal happens—
 - (i) through a licensed dealer; or
 - (ii) through a police officer in circumstances prescribed under a regulation; or
- (c) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon under other lawful authority, justification or excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a category D, H or R weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; and
- (b) for a category C or E weapon—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment; and
- (c) for a category A or B weapon—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(2) If the sale or disposal happens under subsection (1)(c), the person must give to an authorised officer the information prescribed under a regulation in the way and within the time prescribed under the regulation.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

(3) This section does not apply to the disposal of a weapon to a person, if the disposal consists only of a disposal—

- (a) for repair; or
- (b) to an armourer for storage by the armourer; or
- (c) on a temporary basis for not more than 3 months without receiving consideration for the disposal or for the weapon; or
- (d) to a person performing duties as a security guard under a security licence (guard); or

- (e) authorised under section 52, 53, 54(2), 55 or 55A.¹⁵

Advertising sale of firearms

37. If a person advertises the sale of the person's firearm, the person must state in the advertisement the firearm's serial number.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Division 3—Permits to acquire

Issue etc. of permits to acquire

38. A permit to acquire may be issued, endorsed or altered only by an authorised officer.

Limitations on issue of permits to acquire

39.(1) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued only to—

- (a) an individual under subsection (2); or
- (b) a body under subsection (3).

(2) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued to an individual only if the person is licensed to possess the weapon and—

- (a) is an adult; and
- (b) is not prevented under this or another Act or an order of a Magistrates Court or another court from holding a licence; and
- (c) is a fit and proper person to possess a weapon; and
- (d) for a category B, C, D or H weapon—has a need to possess the weapon; and

¹⁵ Section 52 (Physical possession and use of weapon sometimes allowed for the purpose of training a minor), 53 (An unlicensed person may use a weapon at an approved range), 54 (Possession or use of weapon by unlicensed person in primary production sometimes allowed), 55 (Use of weapons by particular unlicensed person at shooting gallery allowed), 55A (Possession of weapons supplied by theatrical ordnance supplier).

Weapons Act 1990

- (e) if the weapon is an heirloom firearm—is the owner of the firearm because of a testamentary disposition or the laws of succession.

(3) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—

- (a) for a permit to acquire to be issued to an approved shooting club—only if it is endorsed with the name of an individual member of the club’s governing body, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c), as the club’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
- (b) for a permit to acquire to be issued to another body—only if—
 - (i) the body has a need to possess the weapon for which the permit to acquire is sought; and
 - (ii) it is endorsed with the name of an individual, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c), as the body’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.

(4) For this section, in deciding whether a person is a fit and proper person to possess a weapon an authorised officer must consider, among other things—

- (a) the mental and physical fitness of the person; and
- (b) whether a domestic violence order has been made against the person; and
- (c) whether the person has stated anything in or in connection with the application for the permit to acquire the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; and
- (d) the public interest.

(5) However, a person is not a fit and proper person to possess a weapon if, in Queensland or elsewhere within the 5 year period immediately before the day the person applies for the issue of a permit to acquire—

- (a) the person has been convicted of, or discharged from custody on sentence after the person has been convicted of, any of the following offences—
 - (i) an offence relating to the misuse of drugs;
 - (ii) an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence;

Weapons Act 1990

- (iii) an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
 - (b) a domestic violence order, other than a temporary protection order, has been made against the person.
- (6) A permit to acquire must—
- (a) be issued in the approved form for a single weapon; and
 - (b) state the name of the person from whom the weapon is to be acquired.

Application for permit to acquire 40.(1) An application for a permit to acquire must be—

- (a) made in the approved form; and
- (b) made personally, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—
 - (i) if the permit is for an individual—the person; or
 - (ii) if the permit is for a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—the individual endorsed on the body’s licence as the body’s representative; and
- (c) accompanied by—
 - (i) any fee that may be prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (ii) proof of identity to the satisfaction of an authorised officer; and
 - (iii) other particulars prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (iv) the other relevant particulars the person to whom the application is made reasonably requires.

(2) If the application is for a permit to acquire a category B, C, D or H weapon, the applicant must state why the applicant needs the weapon and why the need can not be satisfied in another way.

(3) If the application is for a permit to acquire an heirloom firearm, the application must also be accompanied by proof, to the satisfaction of an authorised officer, that the applicant is the owner of the firearm because of a testamentary disposition or the laws of succession.

Inquiries into application

41.(1) Before the application is decided, an officer in charge of police or authorised officer with whom an application for a permit to acquire is lodged may—

- (a) make an inquiry or investigation about the applicant or the application; and
- (b) require the applicant to give the officer further information the officer reasonably needs to be satisfied about the applicant's identity or physical or mental health including—
 - (i) in relation to the applicant's physical health—a report from a doctor about the applicant's physical health; and
 - (ii) in relation to the applicant's mental health—a report from a doctor or psychologist about the applicant's mental health; and
- (c) inspect the secure storage facilities for the weapon for which the permit to acquire is to be issued; and
- (d) supply, for this section, information or a document relevant to the applicant's identity to an officer or member of a State or Commonwealth police service; and
- (e) make a report about the applicant or the application; and
- (f) make the recommendation about the application the officer thinks appropriate.

(2) If the authorised officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the applicant's stated identity is false, the authorised officer may require the applicant to provide an identifying particular to verify the applicant's identity.

(3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within a stated reasonable time, the applicant—

- (a) refuses to provide the information reasonably required under subsection (1)(b); or
- (b) refuses to allow the inspection under subsection (1)(c); or
- (c) fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2).

(4) If information about the applicant's mental health given under subsection (1)(b) is provided in a doctor's or psychologist's report, an authorised officer may—

- (a) make information in the officer's possession available to the doctor or psychologist; and
- (b) ask the doctor or psychologist to provide a further report.

(5) The authorised officer may make the information available only if the officer considers, on reasonable grounds—

- (a) the doctor or psychologist was not aware of the information; and
- (b) the information may influence the doctor's or psychologist's opinion about the applicant's mental health.

(6) The authorised officer must also advise the applicant of the information being supplied to the doctor or psychologist.

(7) The authorised officer may make the information available under subsection (4) despite the provisions of any other Act.

(8) Unless the authorised officer considers that it is currently required for the investigation of an offence, the authorised officer must, after deciding the application—

- (a) return to the applicant any identifying particular obtained in the course of inquiries into the application; and
- (b) destroy any record or copy of the identifying particular.

(9) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide the application or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any other purpose.

(10) For this section—

“applicant” includes, for a body, the individual endorsed on the body's licence as the body's representative.

Authorised officer decides application

42.(1) An authorised officer must decide an application for a permit to acquire a weapon as soon as practicable after the end of any period that may be prescribed for this section under a regulation.

(2) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer's disposal.

(3) The authorised officer must consider the following things when deciding whether the applicant has a need to possess the weapon—

- (a) whether the applicant's requirements can be adequately met in a way not involving the use of a weapon or by using a weapon of another category or type;
- (b) whether the applicant possesses other weapons, and in particular other weapons of that category or type;
- (c) another thing prescribed under a regulation.

(4) To remove any doubt, a collector may have a need for a particular weapon even though the collector already possesses a weapon of the same category or type.

(5) The authorised officer must—

- (a) approve the application and issue the permit to acquire subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide; or
- (b) reject the application.

Issue of permit to acquire

43. A permit to acquire must be issued in the approved form.

Notice of rejection of application for permit to acquire

44.(1) If an authorised officer rejects an application for a permit to acquire, the authorised officer must give the applicant a notice of rejection in the approved form stating the specific reasons for the rejection.

(2) The notice may be given to the applicant by sending it to the applicant by security post at the address shown on the application.

Term of permit to acquire

45.(1) A permit to acquire remains in force for the term, not more than 3 months, stated on the permit.

- (2) A permit to acquire stops being in force if—
- (a) it is suspended, cancelled, revoked or surrendered; or
 - (b) the holder of the permit dies.

Reporting loss, destruction or theft of permit to acquire

46. A licensee must report the loss, destruction or theft of a permit to acquire to an officer in charge of police immediately after the licensee becomes aware of the loss, destruction or theft.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Replacement permit to acquire

47.(1) This section applies if an authorised officer is satisfied—

- (a) a permit to acquire is lost, destroyed or stolen; or
- (b) any writing or endorsement on a permit to acquire is illegible and the permit to acquire is surrendered to an officer in charge of police.

(2) The authorised officer may issue to the licensee a replacement permit to acquire instead of the permit to acquire on—

- (a) application by the licensee in the approved form; and
- (b) payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation.

Surrender of permit to acquire

48.(1) A licensee may surrender a permit to acquire by—

- (a) giving written notice of surrender; and
- (b) surrendering the permit to acquire.

(2) The notice must be given and the permit to acquire surrendered to an authorised officer or officer in charge of police.

Division 4—Firearms registerCommissioner to maintain firearms register

49.(1) The commissioner must establish and maintain a record (the “firearms register”) of all firearms in Queensland.

(2) The firearms register must contain the following information for each firearm—

- (a) the name and address of the firearm’s owner and details of the documents relied on to establish the owner’s identity and address;
- (b) the type, make, calibre, action, magazine capacity and serial number of the firearm;
- (c) details of the licence authorising possession of the firearm;
- (d) for firearms acquired after the commencement of the Weapons Amendment Act 1996—
 - (i) details of any permit to acquire authorising acquisition of the firearm; and
 - (ii) the name and address of the person from whom the firearm was acquired and the date it was acquired;
- (e) the place where the firearm is generally kept;
- (f) the reason given for possession of the firearm and, if appropriate, the reason why the particular firearm was needed;
- (g) other information prescribed under a regulation.

(3) The commissioner may make information in the register available to another entity, within or outside the State, only if the commissioner is satisfied to do so would assist in achieving the object of this Act.

(4) A regulation may limit the information the commissioner may make available under subsection (3).

PART 4—POSSESSION AND USE OF WEAPONSDivision 1—GeneralPossession of weapons

50. A person may possess a weapon only—

- (a) if the person is authorised to possess the weapon under a licence or permit to acquire; or
- (b) with other lawful authority, justification or excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a category D, H or R weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; and
- (b) for a category C or E weapon—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment; and
- (c) for a category A or B weapon—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Possession of a knife in a public place

51.(1) A person must not physically possess a knife in a public place, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(2) It is a reasonable excuse for subsection (1) to physically possess a knife—

- (a) to perform a lawful activity, duty or employment; or
- (b) to participate in a lawful entertainment, recreation or sport; or
- (c) for exhibiting the knife; or
- (d) for use for a lawful purpose.

Example for subsection (2)(a)—

1. A person may carry a knife on his or her belt for performing work in primary production.

Weapons Act 1990

Examples for subsection (2)(b)—

1. A scout may carry a knife on his or her belt as part of the scout uniform.
2. A person may carry a knife as an accessory while playing in a pipe band.
3. A fisher may carry a knife for use while fishing.

Example for subsection (2)(c)—

1. A person who collects knives may exhibit them at a fete or another public gathering.

Examples for subsection (2)(d)—

1. A person may use a knife to prepare or cut food at a restaurant in a public place or when having a picnic in a park.

2. A person may carry a pen knife or swiss army knife for use for its normal utility purposes.

(3) However, it is not a reasonable excuse to physically possess a knife in a public place for self-defence purposes.

(4) In deciding what is a reasonable excuse for subsection (1), regard may be had, among other things, to whether the way the knife is held in possession, or when and where it is held in possession, would cause a reasonable person concern that he or she, or someone else in the vicinity, may be threatened or harmed.

(5) In this section—

“knife” includes a thing with a sharpened point or blade that is reasonably capable of—

- (a) being held in 1 or both hands; and
- (b) being used to wound or threaten to wound anyone when held in 1 or both hands.

Physical possession and use of weapon sometimes allowed for the purpose of training a minor

52.(1) A minor who is at least 11 years may have physical possession of and use a category A or B weapon in a place where it is lawful to physically possess and use a category A or B weapon if—

- (a) the minor is under the direct and immediate supervision of a parent, guardian or another person who is acting in the place of a parent or guardian; and
- (b) the parent, guardian or other person is licensed to possess the weapon.

(2) A minor who is at least 11 years may have physical possession of and use a category A or B weapon at an approved range for category A or B weapons if the minor is supervised—

- (a) directly and immediately by a range officer; or
- (b) as prescribed by regulation.

An unlicensed person may use a weapon at an approved range

53.(1) This section applies to a person who is eligible to obtain a licence that authorises the possession of a weapon of a particular category, but who has not been issued with a licence in force at the material time.

(2) The person may have physical possession of and use the category of weapon at an approved range for the category of weapon if the physical possession and use of weapons at the range is supervised by a range officer.

Possession or use of weapon by unlicensed person in primary production sometimes allowed

54.(1) In this section—

“primary producer” means a person who—

- (a) has a licence; and
- (b) usually carries out primary production on land (the “primary producer’s land”), even if only as an agent or employee of another person.

“weapon” means a weapon that a primary producer possesses under the authority of a licence.

(2) A person who is an agent, employee or member of the immediate family of the primary producer may physically possess or use a weapon on the primary producer's land, even if the person does not hold a licence for that category of weapon, if the person—

- (a) assists the primary producer with primary production on the land; and
- (b) is eligible to obtain a licence to possess a weapon; and
- (c) only uses the weapon with the express consent of the primary producer; and
- (d) only uses the weapon in connection with carrying out primary production on the land.

Use of weapons by particular unlicensed persons at shooting gallery allowed

55.(1) A person (“customer”) using a shooting gallery may physically possess and use a weapon allowed under the conditions of approval of the shooting gallery, even if the person is not the holder of a licence for the category of weapon.

(2) However, a person conducting a shooting gallery must not allow the customer to physically possess and use the weapon unless the customer—

- (a) for a shooting gallery being used for paint-pellet sports—is at least 15 years; or
- (b) for a shooting gallery not being used for paint-pellet sports—is at least 11 years.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—20 penalty units.

Possession of weapons supplied by theatrical ordnance supplier

55A. A person may have physical possession of and use a weapon supplied to the person by a theatrical ordnance supplier under section 118¹⁶ for use in a theatrical, film or television production if the use is personally supervised by the supplier.

Discharge of weapon on private land without owner's consent prohibited

56.(1) In this section—

“owner” of private land includes the occupier of the land.

“private land” means land that is not a public place.

“weapon” includes an antique firearm, spear gun, longbow, crossbow and slingshot.

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, discharge a weapon on or across private land without the express consent of the owner.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 3 months imprisonment.

(3) A person must not carry a weapon on private land without the express consent of the owner unless—

- (a) the person has a reasonable excuse; or
- (b) the weapon is unloaded, broken or for another reason can not be readily discharged.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Annual returns by licensed dealers

72. Before 31 July in each year each licensed dealer is to furnish in or to the effect of the approved form to an authorised officer, particulars of all weapons held in stock as at midnight on 30 June of that year.

Dealer etc. to require information

73. A person who is a licensed dealer, a licensed armourer or an agent, employee or representative of the dealer or of the armourer may only purchase from, trade with, sell to or deal in any weapon with a person who provides the dealer, armourer, agent, employee or representative with the particulars prescribed under a regulation and if those particulars are recorded in the weapons register maintained by the dealer or armourer.

Licensed dealer or armourer taken to be in unlawful possession

74. A licensed dealer or licensed armourer who, without reasonable excuse, possesses a weapon the prescribed particulars of which have not been entered in the weapons register under section 71 is taken to contravene section 50.¹⁷

Division 3—CollectorsCollector to be licensed

75. A person is not to collect weapons unless that person is a licensed collector for the category of weapons being collected.

Collector's licence (heirloom)

76.(1) A collector's licence (heirloom) authorises the licensee to possess a single heirloom firearm or a matched pair or set of heirloom firearms.

(2) However, the licence authorises the licensee to possess an heirloom firearm only if it is made permanently inoperable.

Collector's licence (weapons)

77.(1) A collector's licence (weapons) authorises the licensee to possess weapons of the category stated in the licence.

(2) However, the licence authorises the licensee to possess—

- (a) category D or R weapons only if—
 - (i) for weapons that are firearms—the weapons are made permanently inoperable; or
 - (ii) for other weapons—the weapons are inert; and
- (b) category A, B, C or H weapons that are firearms manufactured after 1900 only if the weapons are made temporarily inoperable.

¹⁷ Section 50 (Possession of weapons)

Weapons not to be discharged or operated

78. A collector is not to discharge or operate or cause or permit to be discharged or operated any weapon held or proposed to be held as a collector unless authorised to do so under a licence.

Approval of arms fair

79.(1) Subject to this Act, a person or body of persons is not to conduct an arms fair unless the conduct of the arms fair has been approved by an authorised officer.

(2) An authorised officer may approve the conduct of an arms fair, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the authorised officer may determine, in or to the effect of the approved form or may refuse an application for approval.

(3) An authorised officer may at any time revoke an approval given under subsection (2).

(4) Where approval is refused or revoked, the authorised officer is to issue a notice of refusal or revocation in or to the effect of the approved form stating the specific reasons for the refusal or revocation and forward the notice to the applicant or person to whom approval had been given by registered post to the address shown in the application.

Application for approval

80.(1) An application for approval to conduct an arms fair—

- (a) may be made by a licensed collector or an organisation representing licensed collectors; and
- (b) is to be made at least 28 days prior to the proposed date for the fair; and
- (c) is to be in or to the effect of the approved form; and
- (d) is to be accompanied—
 - (i) by the prescribed fee; and
 - (ii) such other information as may be required by an authorised officer.

(2) The authorised officer may make or cause to be made such inquiries in respect of the application for approval as the officer considers necessary and may approve the application in the prescribed manner as the officer may determine or may refuse the application.

Collectors to keep register

81.(1) A licensed collector must keep at the premises stated in the licence a collection register.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(2) A licensed collector must, for each transaction for the receipt, acquisition, sale or transfer of a weapon, enter immediately in the collection register the particulars prescribed under a regulation.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(3) A person must not remove a part of the collections register, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the correction of the collections register in a way specified under a regulation.

(5) In this section—

“collection register” means a book in the approved form bound to the satisfaction of an authorised officer.

“remove” includes make illegible or unintelligible, erase or disguise.

Removal of register and weapons

82.(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) to (4), a licensed collector is not, without reasonable excuse, to remove any weapon or the collection register from the premises specified in the licence.

(2) Where an arms fair has been approved by an authorised officer under section 80, a licensed collector may remove weapons from the premises specified in the licence for the purpose of display or sale for the duration of the fair.

(3) At the conclusion of the fair, the licensed collector is to return the weapons that have not been sold or disposed of to another licensed collector together with any additional weapons acquired by the licensed collector, to the premises specified in the licence.

(4) A licensed collector who displays weapons at an arms fair approved by an authorised officer, is to have possession at the fair of the collection register.

Licensed collector leaving Queensland

83.(1) A licensed collector who is about to leave Queensland to reside elsewhere is, prior to leaving, to advise an authorised officer in writing of—

- (a) the date of departure; and
- (b) the proposed residence; and
- (c) what is proposed to be done regarding the collection.

(2) A licensed collector is not to move weapons to which the licence relates from the premises specified in the licence to a place outside Queensland unless an authorised officer is satisfied that the manner of transporting the weapons ensures their safekeeping whilst in Queensland.

Licensed collector taken to be in unlawful possession

84. A licensed collector who, without reasonable excuse, possesses a weapon the prescribed particulars of which have not been entered in the collection register under section 81 is taken to contravene section 50.¹⁸

Division 4—Approved shooting clubs

Only an approved shooting club may conduct target shooting

85. A person must not conduct a shooting club for the sport of target shooting unless the shooting club is an approved shooting club.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

¹⁸ Section 50 (Possession of weapons)

Application for shooting club permit

86.(1) Application may be made to an authorised officer to grant a shooting club permit to a shooting club.

(2) The shooting club permit may only be granted to a shooting club whose primary purpose is to conduct the sport of target shooting.

(3) The application must—

- (a) be in the approved form; and
- (b) provide the further particulars reasonably required by the authorised officer; and
- (c) be accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation.

Authorised officer may grant or refuse shooting club permit

87. The authorised officer may grant the shooting club permit if the authorised officer is satisfied—

- (a) the primary purpose of the shooting club is to conduct the sport of target shooting; and
- (b) the location, construction and equipment of each shooting range, and proposed shooting range, of the shooting club is appropriate having regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage; and
- (c) the application complies with section 86; and
- (d) each individual member of the governing body of the shooting club is an appropriate person; and
- (e) if section 90 applies to the application—the section has been complied with and the person nominated under section 90(2) is an appropriate person.

Authorised officer to give reasons for refusing to grant permit

88. The authorised officer may refuse to grant the shooting club permit by written notice given to the applicant stating the reasons for the refusal.

Conditions to apply to permit

89.(1) If an authorised officer grants a shooting club permit to an approved club, the authorised officer may impose conditions that apply to the permit.

(2) The authorised officer may impose conditions about—

- (a) the location, construction, equipment and maintenance of shooting ranges; and
- (b) the use, control, administration and management of shooting ranges; and
- (c) matters prescribed by regulation.

(3) In imposing conditions, the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(4) The conditions must be specified in the permit or by written notice given to the applicant.

A nominee is required for some applications

90.(1) This section only applies if an application for a shooting club permit is made by—

- (a) an unincorporated body or association of persons; or
- (b) a shooting club prescribed by regulation.

(2) The application must nominate an adult individual to be the shooting club's nominee.

(3) The nominated person must hold the position in the shooting club in which the person is charged with responsibility for the conduct of the activities of the shooting club relating to the sport of target shooting (the “responsible position”).

(4) If a shooting club permit is granted on the application, the nominated person is taken to be the shooting club's nominee for the purpose of the permit (the “nominee”), until ceasing to be the nominee under section 92.

(5) The shooting club must ensure that, at all times while the permit is in effect, it maintains an appropriate person in the responsible position.

Duty of nominee

91. The nominee must exercise all reasonable diligence to ensure the shooting club, its members and all persons using a range conducted by it comply with this division and division 5.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Change of nominee

92.(1) A person stops being the nominee of an approved shooting club if the person stops holding the shooting club's responsible position.

(2) If a person stops being the nominee, the person must give written notice to an authorised officer within 28 days.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) The person who occupies an approved shooting club's responsible position after another person stops being the nominee must give written notice (the "nominee notice") to an authorised officer within 28 days.

(4) If the authorised officer accepts a nominee notice from a person—

- (a) the person becomes the nominee; and
- (b) the authorised officer must give written notice of the acceptance to the nominee.

(5) The authorised officer may refuse to accept the nominee notice on the ground that the authorised person is not satisfied the person who gave the nominee notice—

- (a) occupies the shooting club's responsible position; or
- (b) is an appropriate person.

(6) The refusal must be by written notice to the person who gave the nominee notice stating reasons for the refusal.

How to decide whether an individual is an appropriate person

93.(1) In determining whether an individual is an appropriate person for the purpose of this division, an authorised officer may have regard only to—

- (a) whether the individual demonstrates knowledge and understanding of the obligations of an approved shooting club and the individual's proposed position under this Act; and
 - (b) whether the individual is a person of good repute; and
 - (c) whether the individual is the holder of a licence.
- (2) The authorised officer may obtain—
- (a) a report from the commissioner about the criminal history of the person; or
 - (b) if the person holds or previously held in another State a relevant licence, permit, authority or position—a report from the appropriate authority in the other State.

Authorised officer may amend permit conditions

94.(1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions applying to a shooting club permit of an approved shooting club—

- (a) on the application of the shooting club; or
- (b) on the initiative of the authorised officer.

(2) In making an amendment under subsection (1), the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(3) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—

- (a) give written notice to the club informing it—
 - (i) of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that it may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a specified day (not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the shooting club); and
- (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the shooting club before the specified day.

(4) If an authorised officer amends the conditions applying to a shooting club permit, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the shooting club.

(5) The amendment takes effect—

- (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the shooting club; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—the specified day.

(6) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the shooting club stating the reasons for the refusal.

Authorised officer may make temporary amendment of conditions

95.(1) An authorised officer may make a temporary amendment of the conditions applying to a shooting club permit if the authorised officer considers, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to make the amendment to protect a person from death or injury or property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(2) An authorised officer may make an amendment under subsection (1) by written notice given to the shooting club stating the reasons for the amendment.

(3) The amendment takes effect on the day the written notice of the temporary amendment is given to the shooting club or, if a later day is specified in the notice, the specified day.

(4) The amendment has effect for 28 days unless—

- (a) the notice specifies a shorter period; or
- (b) the authorised officer extends the amendment for a single further specified period (not longer than 28 days).

(5) An authorised officer may extend an amendment under subsection (4)(b) by written notice given to the shooting club stating the reasons for the extension.

Revoking or suspending permit

96.(1) An authorised officer may revoke or suspend a shooting club permit if—

- (a) the shooting club contravenes this Act; or
- (b) the shooting club contravenes a condition applying to the permit; or
- (c) the authorised officer reasonably believes it is likely a member of the shooting club or the public will suffer injury or loss if the permit is not revoked or suspended.

(2) The authorised officer must give written notice of the revocation or suspension to the shooting club.

(3) The notice must specify—

- (a) if the permit has been suspended—the day the suspension is lifted; and
- (b) the reasons for the revocation or suspension.

(4) The revocation or suspension takes effect on the day the notice is given to the shooting club or, if a later day is specified in the notice, the specified day.

(5) A shooting club permit that is suspended stops having effect until the suspension is lifted.

Club must keep range use register books

97.(1) An approved shooting club must ensure a range use register, in the approved form, is available at each of its ranges at all times when the range is being used to discharge weapons.

(2) Before a person uses a range of an approved shooting club to discharge a weapon, the person must enter in the range use register the details provided for by the register regarding the person's identity and the category of weapon the person will use on the range.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(3) A person must not make an entry in a range use register book that is false or misleading.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Service of notice on approved shooting club

98.(1) A notice required or permitted by this division to be served on an approved shooting club may be served on the shooting club's nominee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of any other law that authorises the service of the document in another way.

Limitation on organised target shooting

98A. Unless otherwise authorised by this Act, a person may conduct organised target shooting only on an approved range.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Division 5—Approved ranges

Application for range approval

99.(1) Application may be made to an authorised officer to approve a range for weapons target shooting.

(2) The application must—

- (a) be in the approved form; and
- (b) provide the further particulars reasonably required by the authorised officer; and
- (c) be accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation.

Limits on approvals

100. A range may be approved only if the range is conducted by—

- (a) an approved shooting club; or
- (b) an incorporated association; or

- (c) an entity conducting a training course approved by the commissioner for section 10(4) or 124.¹⁹

Authorised officer may grant or refuse range approval

101.(1) The authorised officer may grant the approval if the authorised officer is satisfied—

- (a) the range will be used for—
- (i) conducting a training course approved by the commissioner for section 10(4) or 124; or
 - (ii) the sport of target shooting; and
- (b) the location, construction and equipment of the range is appropriate having regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage; and
- (c) the application complies with section 99.

(2) An approval must be given in the approved form.

Authorised officer to give reasons for refusing to grant approval

102. The authorised officer may refuse to grant the approval by written notice given to the applicant stating the reasons for the refusal.

Conditions to apply to approval

103.(1) If an authorised officer grants the approval, the authorised officer may impose conditions applying to the approval.

- (2) The authorised officer may impose conditions about—
- (a) the location, construction, equipment and maintenance of the range; and
 - (b) matters prescribed by regulation.

¹⁹ Section 10 (Limitations on issue of licence) or 124 (Training courses for security guards)

(3) In imposing conditions, the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(4) The conditions must be specified in the approval or by written notice given to the applicant.

Authorised officer may amend approval conditions

104.(1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions applying to an approval—

- (a) on the application of the range operator; or
- (b) on the initiative of the authorised officer.

(2) In making an amendment under subsection (1), the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(3) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—

- (a) give written notice to the range operator—
 - (i) of the details of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that the range operator may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a specified day (not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the range operator); and
- (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the range operator before the specified day.

(4) If an authorised officer amends the conditions applying to an approval, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the range operator.

(5) The amendment takes effect—

- (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the range operator; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—the specified day.

(6) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the refusal.

Authorised officer may make temporary amendment of conditions

105.(1) An authorised officer may make a temporary amendment of the conditions applying to an approval if the authorised officer considers, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to make the amendment to protect a person from death or injury or property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(2) An authorised officer may make an amendment under subsection (1) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the amendment.

(3) The amendment takes effect—

- (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the range operator; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—the specified day.

(4) The amendment has effect for 28 days unless—

- (a) the notice specifies a shorter period; or
- (b) the authorised officer extends the amendment for a single further specified period (not longer than 28 days).

(5) An authorised officer may extend an amendment under subsection (4)(b) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the extension.

Revoking or suspending approval

106.(1) An authorised officer may revoke or suspend an approval if—

- (a) a range operator or a range officer contravenes this Act; or
- (b) the authorised officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to revoke or suspend the approval to protect a person from loss of life or injury, or property from unlawful destruction or damage.

(2) The authorised officer must give written notice of the revocation or suspension to the range operator.

(3) The notice must specify—

- (a) if the permit has been suspended—the period of suspension; and
- (b) the reasons for the revocation or suspension.

(4) The revocation or suspension takes effect—

- (a) on the day the notice is given to the range operator; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—the specified day.

(5) A shooting club permit that is suspended stops having effect until the suspension is lifted.

Range can be dealt with in conjunction with shooting club permit

107. An application, grant of approval or notice under this division may be included in an application, issue of permit or notice respectively under division 4.

Responsibilities of range operator

108.(1) In this section—

“range operator” means the person conducting an approved range for an approved shooting club under the approval given under this division and, if the approval is issued to an unincorporated body or association of persons, includes each member of the body’s or association’s governing body.

(2) A range operator must ensure every person who physically possesses or uses a weapon at the approved range is properly supervised by a person (a “range officer”) who holds a firearms licence under this Act.

(3) A range operator must ensure the name of each range officer supervising persons using the approved range is prominently displayed at the range at any time when a weapon is discharged.

(4) A range operator must take all reasonable steps to ensure a person attending the approved range does not contravene this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Responsibilities of range officer

109. A range officer supervising an approved shooting range must take all reasonable steps to ensure a person attending the range does not contravene this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Responsibilities of person attending an approved range

110.(1) A person attending an approved range must not physically possess or use a weapon unless the possession or use—

- (a) is authorised under—
 - (i) a licence issued to the person; or
 - (ii) section 52;²⁰ or
 - (iii) section 53;²¹ and
- (b) is permitted by the range officer; and
- (c) complies with the conditions on which the range was approved, including, for example, that it is a weapon of a category for which the range was approved.

(2) A person attending an approved range must not use a weapon in a way that is likely to cause death or injury to a person or unlawful destruction of, or damage to, property.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

²⁰ Section 52 (Physical possession and use of weapon sometimes allowed for the purpose of training a minor)

²¹ Section 53 (An unlicensed person may use a weapon at an approved range)

(3) A person attending an approved range must comply with a direction by a range officer for the range given for the purposes of this Act or safety reasons, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units.

Division 6—Shooting galleries

Approval of shooting galleries

111.(1) A person is not to conduct a shooting gallery at any time without the approval of an authorised officer to conduct that gallery.

(2) An authorised officer is not to grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery unless—

- (a) the applicant for approval has attained the age of 18 years; and
- (b) the officer is satisfied that the applicant has an adequate knowledge of safety practices relating to the use of the firearms to be used at the gallery; and
- (c) in the opinion of the authorised officer—
 - (i) the applicant is a fit and proper person to conduct the gallery; and
 - (ii) the prescribed conditions and any conditions imposed by the authorised officer will be complied with.

(3) An authorised officer may grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery subject to the prescribed conditions and to such other conditions as the officer thinks fit.

(4) An authorised officer may refuse to grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery by giving the applicant for approval a notice in or to the effect of the approved form stating the specific reasons for the refusal and forwarding the notice to the applicant by registered post to the address shown on the application.

(5) An authorised officer may revoke an approval given under subsection (3) by written notice, given to the person granted the approval, that sets out the reasons for the revocation.

Conditions of approval

112.(1) Approval to conduct a shooting gallery is to be subject to the following conditions—

- (a) the several parts of the shooting gallery are to be designed, constructed and maintained to the satisfaction of an authorised officer;
- (b) where live ammunition is to be used—
 - (i) the area between the place where the firearm is mounted and the target is to be so constructed as to prevent projectile penetration or ricochet; and
 - (ii) the firearm is to be so mounted that its barrel must remain within the confines of the gallery at all times;
- (c) at least 1 natural person specified in the approval is to—
 - (i) be physically present at the gallery at all times when it is open to the public; and
 - (ii) personally supervise the use of every firearm by each person resorting to the gallery; and
 - (iii) exercise all reasonable care and precaution and give such directions as are necessary to any person to prevent danger during the use of any firearm at the gallery.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply to the use of a paint-pellet gun at a shooting gallery used solely for paint-pellet sports.

Representative of holder of approval

113.(1) The holder of or an applicant for an approval to conduct a shooting gallery may apply in or to the effect of the approved form (which may be incorporated as part of the form of application for the approval) for the approval to be endorsed in accordance with this Act with the name of a fit and proper natural person who satisfies the requirements of section 111 as the representative of the holder of the approval at the premises or location specified in the application.

(2) On application by the holder of an approval to conduct a shooting gallery in or to the effect of the approved form, the approval may be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper person who satisfies the requirements of section 111 in place of the name of another person endorsed as representative of the holder under this section.

(3) An application under subsection (1) or (2) may be made to an officer in charge of police.

Conduct of persons resorting to shooting galleries

114.(1) A person resorting to or making use of a shooting gallery is not to—

- (a) point a firearm otherwise than in the direction of the target area in the shooting gallery; or
- (b) take away a firearm from the shooting gallery; or
- (c) interfere with—
 - (i) any other person resorting to or using the shooting gallery; or
 - (ii) a firearm at a shooting gallery otherwise than as directed by any person conducting that gallery or the servant of that person; or
 - (iii) any part or equipment of the shooting gallery; or
- (d) disobey a direction given to that person pursuant to section 112(1)(c)(iii).

(2) Subsection (1)(a), (b), (c)(i) and (ii) do not apply to the use of a paint-pellet gun at a shooting gallery used solely for paint-pellet sports.

Division 7—Theatrical ordnance suppliers and other associated matters

Theatrical ordnance suppliers to be licensed

115.(1) Subject to this Act, a person is not to supply or have possession for the purpose of supply of any weapon or replica of a weapon in the production of a theatrical, motion picture or television production without first obtaining a theatrical ordnance supplier's licence.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person not disqualified from holding a theatrical ordnance supplier's licence whilst acting as an agent or employee of a licensed theatrical ordnance supplier.

Employees of theatrical ordnance suppliers

116.(1) A theatrical ordnance supplier must not employ a person who, in the course of the person's employment, will have access to weapons unless the person is a qualified weapons employee.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) For subsection (1), a person is a “qualified weapons employee” only if the person—

PART 5—POLICE POWERS

Identification

131.(1) A police officer who finds any person committing or reasonably suspects any person of having committed or being about to commit any offence against this Act may demand from that person such particulars as the officer requires to identify that person (including the name and address of the person) and if the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the particulars given are false may require evidence of the correctness thereof.

(2) If that person unreasonably fails upon demand to give any particular or evidence required, the police officer may caution that person, and if that person persists in that failure, or gives a name or address which in the reasonable belief of the police officer is false, may arrest that person without warrant, and take that person forthwith before a court to be dealt with according to law.

(3) A person required under this section to give any particular is not to—

- (a) fail to give that particular; or
- (b) give any false particular; or
- (c) give false evidence in respect thereto.

132.(1) This section applies if, under this Act, a person is required—

- (a) to be the holder of a licence or permit to acquire; or
- (b) to have the approval of any person; or
- (c) to keep a register or record.

(2) The person must, if required to do so by a police officer, produce to a police officer for inspection at a stated reasonable place and time (within 48 hours) any of the following documents—

- (a) the licence or permit to acquire;
- (b) a certificate or other evidence of approval;
- (c) the register or record.

(3) A police officer may also require the person to produce for inspection at a stated reasonable place and time (within 48 hours) any weapon still in the person's possession mentioned in any of the documents.

(4) However, if a person has physical possession of a weapon, a police officer may require the person to produce immediately to the police officer for inspection the weapon and the licence authorising possession of the weapon.

(5) A person must not contravene a requirement under subsection (2), (3) or (4), unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

(6) In subsections (2) and (4)—

“licence” means a card issued as a licence under this Act that shows the following—

- (a) the licensee’s photograph;
- (b) the licence number;
- (c) numbers and letters indicating licence conditions;
- (d) letters indicating the categories of weapons the licensee may possess.

Search for weapons etc. subject to seizure

133. A police officer may stop, detain and search—

- (a) any vehicle upon which the officer suspects on reasonable grounds that there is any weapon liable to seizure under this Act or any other Act; and
- (b) any person whom the officer suspects on reasonable grounds of being in physical possession of any weapon liable to seizure under this Act or any other Act.

Register of searches

134.(1) Where a police officer—

- (a) stops a vehicle; or
- (b) detains a person; or
- (c) enters a place;

pursuant to the provisions of this part (other than in pursuance of a warrant issued under section 138), the officer is at the first reasonable opportunity to record in a register kept in the approved form the matters following—

- (d) in the case of the stoppage of a vehicle—

Weapons Act 1990

- (i) the place at which the vehicle was stopped; and
 - (ii) the reason for the stoppage; and
 - (iii) if the vehicle or anything in it is searched, the date, time and place of the search;
- (e) in the case of the detention of a person—
- (i) the name of the person or, if it is unknown, a description of the person; and
 - (ii) the place at which the person was detained; and
 - (iii) the date, time and length of detention; and
 - (iv) the reason for the detention; and
 - (v) if the person is searched, where the search took place;
- (f) in the case of the entry of a place—
- (i) the identification of the place; and
 - (ii) the date and time of entry; and
 - (iii) the reason why a warrant was not obtained;
- (g) in the case of the search of a vehicle, person or, as the case may be, place—
- (i) who or what was searched; and
 - (ii) the reason for the search; and
 - (iii) a description of anything that was taken away;
- (h) in any such case—the name, rank and number (if any) in the police service of the police officer and the officer's signature.
- (2) Any entries made in the register are to be available for inspection by—
- (a) the owner of the vehicle or thing; or
 - (b) the person; or
 - (c) the occupier of the place;

to which or, as the case may be, to whom they relate or that person's agent.

(3) Failure to make the entries referred to in subsection (1) in relation to the stoppage of a vehicle, the detention of a person or, as the case may be, the entry of a place or to make them available for inspection as required by subsection (2) is prima facie evidence that the stoppage, detention or, as the case may be, entry and any search made pursuant to the stoppage, detention or entry were unlawful.

Powers in dangerous situations

135. Where a police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that a person is in premises or any place and has possession of and is using or threatening to use any weapon or any other thing in circumstances such that death or injury to any person is or is likely to be caused, whether or not any other person is actually present, the police officer and all persons acting in aid of the police officer may, using such force as is necessary for that purpose, without any warrant other than this section—

- (a) enter any premises or place; and
- (b) detain any person found there for such time as is reasonably necessary for the police officer to establish whether an offence has been committed; and
- (c) search the premises or place and every person found there; and
- (d) seize and detain any weapon or other thing which may be found on the premises or place or on any such person.

Powers in respect to premises specified in licences or approvals under Act

136. Any police officer may—

- (a) at any reasonable time enter and remain on—
 - (i) the premises of an approved shooting club or a shooting club that is required to hold a shooting club permit; or
 - (ii) the premises of a shooting gallery; or
 - (iii) a range; or
 - (iv) the premises of a collector, dealer, armourer or theatrical ordnance supplier; or

- (b) inspect, examine and test any weapon found there; or
- (c) inspect, examine and test any place, premises, equipment or materials of construction thereof; or
- (d) inspect any record, licence, approval, register or other writing and take such copies of extracts therefrom as the police officer desires;

and may make such other examination or inquiry as the police officer considers necessary to establish whether the provisions of this Act or of any licence, approval or exemption granted under this Act are being complied with.

Search

137. When any police officer lawfully in any premises or place finds any person in or on those premises or that place under such circumstances that the police officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the person is in possession of any weapon, licence or register in contravention of this Act, the police officer and all persons acting in aid of the police officer, using such force as is necessary, may search and, for that purpose, detain the person and possessions of the person so found and search the premises or place in which that person is found.

Search warrant

138.(1) Upon complaint on oath before any justice by any police officer, that the police officer believes that anything is, or is in the possession of any person, in or upon any place or premises, contrary to any provision of this Act, the justice may grant a warrant to any police officer to enter, re-enter and search the place or premises, and search any person found therein or thereon.

(2) The complaint is to specify the facts and reasons for the police officer's belief and the justice may determine the matter after consideration only of those facts and reasons.

(3) A warrant may be executed at any time and is sufficient authority for any police officer and for all persons acting in aid of the police officer—

- (a) to enter and re-enter the place or premises specified in the warrant; and

Weapons Act 1990

- (b) to search that place or premises and any person found there; and
- (c) to exercise therein the powers conferred upon a police officer by this Act; and
- (d) to use such force as may be necessary to perform any of the things referred to herein; and
- (e) to pass through, from, over and along any other place for the purpose of making that entry or re-entry.

(4) For the purpose of gaining entry or re-entry to any place or premises or to search any place, premises or person a police officer may call to the police officer's aid such persons as the police officer thinks necessary and those persons, while acting in aid of that police officer in the lawful exercise of the powers of entry and search have a like power of entry, re-entry and search.

Seizure and retention of weapons etc.

139.(1) A police officer may seize and retain a thing mentioned in subsection (2) if the police officer—

- (a) suspects, on reasonable grounds, that—
 - (i) an offence against this Act has been, is being or is about to be committed; and
 - (ii) the thing may have been, or may be, used or otherwise involved in the commission of the offence; or
- (b) believes on reasonable grounds that the thing will provide evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to the following—

- (a) a weapon;
- (b) a replica of a weapon;
- (c) an antique firearm, explosive tool, captive bolt humane killer, spear gun, longbow or crossbow;
- (d) a replica of a spear gun, longbow or crossbow;
- (e) ammunition;

- (f) a licence;
- (g) a book or register;
- (h) a thing mentioned in section 67.²²

(2A) Also, a police officer may seize and retain an antique firearm if the police officer reasonably believes a person in possession of the firearm is not a fit and proper person to be in possession of the firearm—

- (a) because of the person's mental and physical fitness; or
- (b) if a domestic violence order has been made against the person; or
- (c) because the person has been convicted of an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon.

(3) A police officer who removes, seizes or retains anything pursuant to the provisions of this part is, wherever practical, to deliver or cause to be delivered within a reasonable time to—

- (a) the owner of the thing; or
- (b) if the owner of the thing is unknown, the person from whose possession the thing was removed, seized or retained;

a written receipt containing details of—

- (c) the name, rank, station and number (if any) in the police service of the police officer removing, seizing or retaining the thing; and
- (d) the address of the police establishment or other place in which the thing removed, seized or retained is or is to be held; and
- (e) a brief description of the thing.

Power of arrest

140. A police officer who believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) a person has committed or has attempted to commit an offence against this Act; and

²² Section 67 (Possessing and acquiring restricted items)

- (b) proceedings by way of complaint and summons against that person would be ineffective;

may, without any warrant other than this Act, arrest that person.

Fingerprints etc.

141.(1) Where a person is arrested on a charge of having committed an offence defined in this Act a police officer may take or cause to be taken from that person all such particulars as the officer considers on reasonable grounds to be necessary for the identification of that person or the investigation of an offence including the voice print, photograph, fingerprints, palm prints, footprints and toe prints and handwriting of that person and, except in the case of voice prints and handwriting, may use such force as is necessary to obtain those particulars.

(2) In the event of a person being acquitted of an offence defined in this Act, the charge being withdrawn or dismissed or the defendant being absolutely discharged, any particulars obtained pursuant to subsection (1), are to be destroyed within 28 days of that event.

PART 6—APPEALS

Right to appeal against decisions

142.(1) This section applies to the following decisions—

- (a) a decision refusing an application for a licence, permit, approval or other authority under this Act;
- (b) a decision refusing to accept the nomination of a person by an applicant for a shooting club permit;
- (c) a decision refusing to accept a nominee notice under section 92;
- (d) a decision imposing or amending a condition applying to a licence, permit, approval or other authority under this Act;
- (e) a decision revoking or suspending a licence, permit, approval or other authority under this Act.

(2) A person aggrieved by a decision to which this section applies may appeal against the decision.

(3) The appeal may be made to the Magistrates Court nearest the place where the appellant resides or carries on, or proposes to carry on, the business or activity which the decision affects.

How to start appeal

143.(1) An appeal is started by—

- (a) filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk of the court of the Magistrates Court; and
- (b) serving a copy of the notice on an authorised officer.

(2) The notice of appeal must be filed within 28 days after the appellant receives notice of the decision appealed against.

(3) The court may at any time extend the period for filing the notice of appeal.

(4) The notice of appeal must state the grounds of the appeal.

Effect of appeal on decision

144. An appeal against a decision does not affect the decision, subject to—

- (a) section 145; and
- (b) section 146.

Appellant may carry on business pending appeal

145. A person who appeals against—

- (a) the refusal to renew a dealer's licence, armourer's licence or theatrical ordnance supplier's licence; or
- (b) the revocation of a dealer's licence, armourer's licence or theatrical ordnance supplier's licence; is entitled, until the appeal is decided, to carry on business as if the licence had been renewed or had not been revoked.

Stay of operation of decision

146.(1) The court has power to grant a stay of a decision appealed against for the purpose of securing the effectiveness of the appeal.

(2) A stay—

- (a) may be granted on conditions that the court considers appropriate; and
- (b) has effect for the period specified by the court; and
- (c) may be revoked or amended by the court.

(3) The period of a stay specified by the court must not extend past the time when the court decides the appeal.

Hearing procedures

147.(1) An appeal is to be by way of rehearing, unaffected by the decision appealed against.

(2) In deciding an appeal, the court—

- (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
- (b) must observe natural justice; and
- (c) may hear the appeal in court or chambers.

Powers of court on appeal

148.(1) In deciding an appeal, the court may—

- (a) confirm the decision appealed against; or
- (b) set aside the decision and substitute another decision; or
- (c) set aside the decision and return the matter to an authorised officer with directions that the court considers appropriate.

(2) In substituting another decision, the court has the same powers as an authorised officer.

Example—

The court may decide that an unsuccessful applicant for a licence be granted the licence either unconditionally or on particular conditions.

(3) If the court substitutes another decision, the substituted decision is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be an authorised officer's decision.

Appeal to District Court on questions of law only

149. A party aggrieved by the decision of the court may appeal to the District Court, but only on a question of law.

PART 7—MISCELLANEOUS

Advisory council

150.(1) The Minister may constitute an advisory council to advise the Minister in the administration of this Act.

(2) The advisory council is to consist of the members appointed to the council by the Minister.

Disclosure by doctors and psychologists of certain information

151.(1) This section applies if a doctor or psychologist is of the opinion that a patient is an unsuitable person to possess a firearm—

- (a) because of the patient's mental or physical condition; or
- (b) because the patient may be a danger to the patient or another person.

(2) The doctor or psychologist may inform the commissioner of his or her opinion and give the commissioner any relevant information about the patient's condition and identity.

(3) This section applies despite any duty of confidentiality owed by the doctor or psychologist to the patient.

(4) The giving of an opinion or information by a doctor or psychologist under this section does not give rise to any criminal or civil action or remedy against the doctor or psychologist.

Approved officers

152.(1) The commissioner may appoint a police officer or officer of the public service as an approved officer for this Act.

(2) However, a police officer or officer of the public service may be appointed as an approved officer only if, in the commissioner's opinion, the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an approved officer.

Authorised officers

153.(1) For this Act, the following officers are authorised officers—

- (a) the commissioner, an executive officer or commissioned officer;
- (b) a police officer appointed as an authorised officer by the commissioner.

(2) However, a police officer may be appointed as an authorised officer only if, in the commissioner's opinion, the officer has the necessary expertise or experience to be an authorised officer.

Retention and disposal of weapons in police custody

154.(1) Any weapon or other thing held by or in the custody of any police officer pursuant to this Act (whether or not the officer came into possession thereof before or after the commencement of this Act)—

- (a) may be retained by any police officer until it is disposed of pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c); or
- (b) may be delivered at any time after the appointed day—
 - (i) if any authorised officer is satisfied that some person is the owner, or would be entitled to possession if that person complies with the provisions of this Act—
 - (A) to the owner or person entitled to possession; or
 - (B) if the owner or person entitled to possession nominates some other person to have possession, to that other person; or

Weapons Act 1990

- (ii) if a court order is made for the delivery thereof to any person pursuant to the Justices Act 1886, section 39²³—to that person;

if that person shows to the satisfaction of the police officer who holds or has custody thereof that that person is authorised to have possession of a weapon of that category or, for an antique firearm, the antique firearm; or

- (c) if it has not been delivered to any person pursuant to paragraph (b) within 3 months of the appointed day or such longer period as the commissioner may determine in a particular case—is to be forfeited to the Crown.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1)(b) do not apply to any weapon or any other thing which has been forfeited or ordered to be forfeited to the Crown pursuant to this or any other Act or law.

(3) Where a person charged or indicted with an offence against this Act is not convicted of any offence on that charge or indictment, the court before which that person is charged or indicted may order that any weapon or thing found in the possession of that person at or about the time of the alleged commission of the offence or the time of that person being charged with the offence be forfeited to the Crown and anything in respect of which the order is made thereby is forfeited accordingly.

(4) For the purposes of this section the appointed day is—

- (a) in the case of any weapon or other thing held or in custody in relation to any contravention or suspected contravention of any provision of this Act—
- (i) the time of the final determination of all proceedings in respect thereto; or
- (ii) the expiration of 6 months from the date when the weapon or other thing came into the possession or custody of the police officer;

whichever is the later to occur; or

²³ Section 39 (Power of court to order delivery of certain property)

- (b) in any other case—the date when the weapon or other thing comes into the possession or custody of a police officer.

(5) Anything forfeited pursuant to this Act may be taken and disposed of as the commissioner directs, subject to the Explosives Act 1999, and for that purpose any police officer may, with such assistants and by such means as is necessary, enter upon any premises upon which the officer knows or suspects the thing so forfeited to be.

Disqualification by a court

155.(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence or is the subject of any order against the law of the State, the court may, in addition to any other penalty imposed by that law, do any 1 or more of the following—

- (a) declare any licence, permit to acquire or approval held by the person convicted to be revoked;
- (b) disqualify the person from holding or obtaining a licence or approval or from being a representative of a licensee or holder of approval under this Act for a period specified by the court;
- (c) order that any weapon, ammunition, antique firearm, explosive tool, captive bolt humane killer, spear gun, longbow or crossbow owned or in the possession of that person is forfeited to the Crown.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1)(a) has effect to revoke the licence or permit to acquire specified in the declaration.

(3) A disqualification under subsection (1)(b) has effect to revoke any licence, approval or permit to acquire held by the person.

Offences generally

156. A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this Act commits an offence against this Act and if a specific penalty is not otherwise provided is liable—

- (a) for a first offence—to a penalty of 10 penalty units; and
- (b) for a second or subsequent offence—to a penalty of 60 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.

Fraud and unlawful possession of licence etc.

157.(1) A person is not—

- (a) without reasonable excuse, to have possession of—
 - (i) a licence; or
 - (ii) anything resembling a licence; or
 - (iii) any document which was formerly a licence but which is suspended, cancelled, revoked or surrendered;
- (b) without reasonable excuse, to lend, or permit or allow to be used any licence issued in that person's name by any other person;
- (c) unless authorised by or under this Act, to make or attempt to make or cause, permit or allow to be made any endorsement on or addition or alteration to or erasure from a licence or any approval under this Act.

(2) A licence or approval obtained by any false statement or misrepresentation is null and void.

False or misleading information

158.(1) In this section—

“application” means an application for a licence, permit, approval or other authority under this Act.

“notice” means a notice under section 94²⁴ or 104.²⁵

(2) A person must not—

- (a) state anything in or in connection with an application, or in response to a notice, that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or

²⁵ Section 104 (Authorised officer may amend approval conditions)

- (b) omit from a statement made in or in connection with an application, or in response to a notice, anything without which the statement is, to the person's knowledge, false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3) A complaint against a person for an offence against subsection (2)(a) or (b) is sufficient if it states that the statement was false or misleading to the person's knowledge.

Criminal Code to be read with Act

159. The Criminal Code, with all necessary adaptations, is to be read and construed with this Act.

Proceedings for offences

161.(1) A proceeding for an offence against this Act, other than section 65,²⁶ may be prosecuted in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886.

(2) The proceeding must be commenced—

- (a) within 1 year after the commission of the offence; or
- (b) within 1 year after the offence comes to the complainant's knowledge, but within 2 years after the commission of the offence.

(3) Notwithstanding this Act or any other Act, in a proceeding on a complaint the court may make an order on any matter within its jurisdiction though no application is made in respect thereof.

Person other than offender liable to penalties

162. Where an offence against this Act is committed by a body or association of persons whether incorporated or unincorporated every person who is a member of the governing body of that body or association and, in the case of a body or an association that is incorporated, the managing director, director, manager or other governing officer by whatever name called is to be taken to have committed the offence and may be prosecuted in respect of the offence unless that person proves that—

- (a) the offence was committed without knowledge of that person; and
- (b) that person had used all due diligence to prevent the commission of such an offence.

Evidentiary provisions

163.(1) In a proceeding for the purposes of this Act—

- (a) it is not necessary to prove the appointment of the Minister, the commissioner, an authorised officer, a commissioned officer or any other police officer to do any act or take any proceedings; and
- (b) a signature purporting to be that of the Minister, the commissioner, authorised officer or any other police officer is to be taken to be the signature it purports to be until the contrary is proved; and
- (c) a statement in a complaint under the Justices Act 1886 of any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—
 - (i) a place is or is not an approved range;
 - (ii) a club or an organisation is or is not an approved shooting club;
 - (iii) a person is or is not of a particular age;
 - (iv) a person was, or was not, the holder of a specified licence, permit, approval or other authority issued or granted under this Act at or during a specified time; and
- (d) a certificate purporting to be signed by an authorised officer stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—
 - (i) a specified document is a licence, permit or approval or other document issued or granted under this Act or a copy of the document;

Weapons Act 1990

- (ii) at or during a specified time, in relation to a place, person, club or organisation there was or was not a specified licence, permit, approval or other authority issued or granted under this Act;
 - (iii) a licence, permit, approval or other authority granted or issued under this Act was subject to the terms, conditions or restrictions stated in the document; and
 - (e) a document purporting to contain information extracted from the firearms register and signed by an authorised officer is evidence that the information is recorded in the firearms register; and
 - (f) every entry in any book or register kept by or belonging to any person pursuant to this Act or found on premises of that person are to be taken, unless the contrary is shown, to have been made by or with the authority of that person; and
 - (g) proof of any exemption from any provision of this Act is upon the person who relies thereon; and
 - (h) where the age of any person is material, the court may decide, upon its own view and judgment, whether any person charged or present before it has or has not attained any prescribed age but the age of that person may be proved by other means.
- (2) Where, in respect of a proceeding for an offence against this Act, a copy of a document purporting to be signed by a police officer stating—
- (a) the qualifications and experience of that officer; and
 - (b) that the officer has been appointed by the commissioner as an approved officer; and
 - (c) that at a specified time any article, weapon or other thing—
 - (i) did or did not bear any identification mark or number;
 - (ii) has had altered, defaced or removed therefrom any identification mark or number;
 - (iii) was or was not a weapon of a particular type;
 - (iv) was a weapon or other thing that had or had not been rendered inoperable;

is served upon the person charged with the offence at least 14 clear days before the hearing of the complaint then the document, a copy of which has been so served, on its production in the proceeding is sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein unless the person charged gives notice in writing in or to the effect of the approved form to the complainant at least 3 clear days before the hearing of the complaint requiring the calling of the police officer as a witness.

(3) Notwithstanding that a person charged with an offence has failed to give the notice as prescribed in subsection (2), the court may, in the interest of justice, order the police officer to be called and may grant any necessary adjournment accordingly.

(4) Unless the tribunal of fact considers the interests of justice require that opinion evidence be given, the tribunal of fact may decide whether a thing produced to it, and examined by it, is 1 of the following without the assistance of opinion evidence—

- (a) a weapon;
- (b) a particular type of weapon;
- (c) a power head, explosive tool, captive bolt humane killer, spear gun, longbow or crossbow;
- (d) a replica of a weapon;
- (e) a firearm;
- (f) a thing mentioned in section 67.²⁷

Service of notice, orders etc.

164.(1) Any order, notice or other document issued pursuant to this Act is properly given upon the person to whom it is directed if it is served in accordance with this section, that is to say—

- (a) by delivering a copy thereof to the person personally; or

²⁷ Section 67 (Possessing and acquiring restricted items)

Weapons Act 1990

- (b) if the person can not reasonably be found—by leaving a copy thereof with some person for the person at that person’s usual place of business or residence or at the place of business or residence last known to the person who serves the order or document; or
- (c) by posting by registered post a copy thereof addressed to the person at that person’s place of business or residence last known to the person who issued the order at least 14 days before the date on which the notice or document is to take effect.

(2) When an order, notice or document is served, the person who serves it may attend before a justice and depose on oath and in writing endorse on a copy of the order, notice or document to the manner of service thereof showing therein the date of personal delivery, leaving or posting, as the case may be, of the order, notice or document.

(3) Every such deposition is, upon production in any court, evidence of the matters contained therein and sufficient proof of the service of the order, notice or document on the person to whom it was directed.

(4) Service of any order, notice or document issued pursuant to this Act upon any unincorporated body or association of persons is properly served if it is served in accordance with this section upon the person who is for the time being the secretary or president (by whatever name such office is called) of that club or association.

(5) Subsection (4) applies to the service of a notice on a range operator that is an unincorporated body or association of persons.

Liability for tort generally

165.(1) The Crown is liable for a tort committed by any police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as a police officer under this Act in like manner as an employer is liable for tort committed by the employer’s servant in the course of employment.

(2) The Crown is to be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor with the police officer who committed the tort.

(3) In no case does the Crown’s liability for a tort committed by any police officer extend to a liability to pay damages in the nature of punitive damages.

(4) In proceedings upon a claim by the Crown for damages in respect of a tort, actions done or omissions made by an officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as a police officer under this Act may be relied on by the Crown as constituting contributory negligence, if the actions or omissions could have been so relied on if they had been done or made by a servant of the Crown in the course of employment.

(5) For the purposes of this section, an action done or omission made by a police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the capacity of a constable is taken to have been done or made by the officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as an officer.

(6) If a police officer incurs liability in law for a tort committed by the police officer in the course of rendering assistance, directly or indirectly, to a person suffering, or apparently suffering, from illness or injury in circumstances that the officer reasonably considers to constitute an emergency, and if the officer acted therein in good faith and without gross negligence, the Crown is to indemnify and keep indemnified the officer in respect of that liability.

Payment and recovery of damages

166.(1) The Crown may pay—

- (a) the whole or part of damages, other than damages in the nature of punitive damages, and costs awarded against any police officer in proceedings with respect to a tort committed by the police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty under this Act; and
- (b) the whole or part of costs incurred, and not recovered, by the police officer in the proceedings.

(2) If any police officer is liable to pay a sum under a settlement of a claim that has, or might have, given rise to proceedings such as are referred to in subsection (1), the Crown may pay the whole or part of the sum.

(3) Except as provided by section 165(6), if the Crown has paid moneys by way of damages or costs in respect of a tort committed by any police officer or has paid moneys under a settlement referred to in subsection (2), the Crown may recover, in a court of competent jurisdiction, contribution from the police officer in respect of that payment.

(4) In proceedings for contribution under subsection (3) the amount of contribution recoverable is such amount as is found by the court to be just and equitable in the circumstances.

Provision of legal representation

167.(1) The commissioner may provide legal representation on behalf of any police officer against whom any action, claim or demand or proceeding in respect of an offence is brought or made otherwise than by or on behalf of the Crown in any of its capacities on account of any action done or omission made by the police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty under this Act.

(2) If it is found, or conceded, in relation to any such action, claim, demand or proceeding that the police officer was not acting in the execution of duty in doing the action or making the omission on which the action, claim, demand or proceeding is based, the commissioner may recover from the police officer the amount of costs and expenses incurred by the commissioner in providing legal representation under subsection (1) in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due and payable by the police officer to the commissioner and unpaid.

Landowner incurs no liability merely because permission given

168. A landowner does not incur any liability merely because the landowner provides a person with written permission to shoot on the landowner's land.

Particular landowners to keep permit register

168A.(1) This section applies to a landowner who, after the commencement of this section, provides written permission to shoot on the landowner's rural land—

- (a) to a person or body for a fee or reward; or
- (b) to more than 50 persons or bodies.

(2) The landowner must keep a register (“permit register”) stating—

- (a) the name and address of the person or body to whom permission was given; and
- (b) the date permission was given; and
- (c) if the permission was limited by time—the day the permission ends.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(3) The landowner must keep the permit register while—

- (a) a permission under subsection (1)(a) remains current; or
- (b) more than 50 permissions under subsection (1)(b) remain current.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(4) For subsection (1), permission given to a body allowing its members or members of another body affiliated with the body to shoot on the landowner’s rural land is taken to be a single permission.

Fees and penalties

169. All fees paid and all penalties recovered and costs incurred in relation to proceedings under this Act are to be paid and are hereby payable as prescribed by the regulations.

Delegations

170.(1) The Minister may delegate the Minister’s powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified authorised officer.

(2) In this section—

“an appropriately qualified authorised officer”, to whom a power under this section may be delegated, means an authorised officer who has the necessary expertise or experience to exercise the power.

Approval of forms

171. The commissioner may approve forms for use under this Act.

Regulation-making power

172.(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Governor in Council may make regulations with respect to the matters mentioned in the schedule.

(3) A regulation may provide for an offence punishable by a maximum penalty of 10 penalty units.

PART 8—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONSDefinitions for pt 8

173. In this part—

“amnesty” means the period starting on the commencement and ending on 30 September 1997.

“commencement” means the commencement of the Weapons Amendment Act 1996, part 2.

“new Act” means this Act as in force on or after the commencement.

Existing approvals, authorities and permits

175. An approval, authority or permit in force at the commencement continues in force, subject to any limitations and conditions placed on it under the former Act, after the commencement.

Some licensees taken to have adequate knowledge of safety practices

176.(1) This section applies to a person who lawfully possesses a firearm under an existing licence and who, on or before 30 September 1997, applies for a firearms licence.

(2) The person is taken to have an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of firearms similar to those possessed under the authority of the existing licence.

Existing applications

177.(1) An application not decided on the commencement is to be decided under the new Act.

(2) If the application does not contain enough information for an authorised officer to make a decision about the application under the new Act, the authorised officer may require the applicant to supply further information to enable the authorised officer to make the decision.

(3) If the applicant fails to provide the information within a stated reasonable time, the applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application.

Existing appeals

178. An appeal not decided on the commencement is to be decided as if the Weapons Amendment Act 1996 had not been enacted.

Compensation

179.(1) A person who owns a weapon and, after the commencement, surrenders it to the commissioner is entitled to compensation from the State, but only under this section.

(2) Compensation is payable only for weapons for which the State may receive compensation under either of the following Commonwealth Acts—

- the National Firearms Program Implementation Act 1996*
- the National Firearms Program Implementation Act 1997.*

(3) Compensation is payable for the weapons only if they are surrendered on or before the last day of the amnesty.

(4) Compensation for a surrendered weapon is payable in an amount and in the way prescribed under a regulation.

(5) If a regulation does not provide for the amount of compensation payable for a particular weapon, the regulation may provide for the way in which a dispute about its value is to be decided.

(6) A regulation may also provide for compensation for loss of business in circumstances specified in the regulation.

(7) A weapon surrendered under this section is the State's property when compensation for the weapon is paid under this section.

Expiry of pt 8

180. This part, other than section 174,²⁸ expires on 30 September 1998.²⁹

²⁸ Section 174 (Existing licences continue during amnesty) expired 31 March 1998.

²⁹ These provisions have expired and are included in this reprint for informational purposes only. They will be omitted in the next reprint.
