Warning—This reprint is not an authorised copy

* Minor differences in presentation between this reprint and another reprint with the same number are due to the conversion to new styles. The content has not changed.

Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 April 2003. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have also been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Burials Assistance Act 1965

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 April 2003]

An Act to assist in the disposal of bodies by providing for the burial or cremation of deceased persons in certain cases and for purposes connected therewith, and to validate certain burials

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Burials Assistance Act 1965.

3 Burial or cremation of the dead

- (1) It shall be the duty of the chief executive to cause to be buried or cremated the body of any person who has died or has been found dead in Queensland, in any case where it appears to the chief executive that no suitable arrangements for the disposal of the body have been or are being made otherwise than by the chief executive.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall affect any enactment regulating or authorising the burial, cremation, or anatomical examination of the body of a deceased person.
- (3) The chief executive shall not cause a body to be cremated under this section where the chief executive has reason to believe that cremation would be contrary to the wishes of the deceased.

4 Cost of burial or cremation

- (1) All expenses incurred by the chief executive under section 3 (including the expense of conveying the body to a morgue or other place) shall be met by the chief executive, and moneys from the consolidated fund are hereby to the necessary extent appropriated accordingly.

- (2) The chief executive on behalf of the State may, by action as for a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction, recover from the estate of the deceased person, or from a relative or relatives of the deceased person, the expenses referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) However, nothing contained in subsection (2) shall be construed as requiring the chief executive to take steps to recover any such expenses from the estate of any deceased person who was, in the opinion of the chief executive, an indigent person, or from any relative who is, in the opinion of the chief executive, an indigent person.
- (4) All moneys recovered by the chief executive under subsection (2), other than any amount for GST payable for a supply made by the chief executive relating to the expenses, shall be paid to the consolidated fund.
- (5) In this section—
relative, of a deceased person, means—
 - (a) for an adult—the person's spouse; or
 - (b) for a child—the person's parents.

4A Charge on account with financial institution

- (1) Any funds standing to the credit of the deceased, or the deceased's personal representative, with a financial institution at or after the time a notice is given to a financial institution under this section are charged in the hands of the financial institution from the time the notice is given or the time the funds come into the institution's hands, as the case may be.
- (2) However, funds held on a joint account or as a trustee, other than as the deceased's personal representative, are not subject to the charge.
- (3) The charge attaches to secure payment of the following—
 - (a) the expenses recoverable under section 4(2);

- (b) any costs awarded in a proceeding to recover the expenses;
 - (c) any proper costs of enforcing a judgement in the proceeding.
- (4) A charge under this section is lower in priority than any earlier charge unless the earlier charge provides otherwise.
 - (5) The chief executive may give a written notice to a financial institution about the charge.
 - (6) The notice about the charge must state the following—
 - (a) the notice is given under this section;
 - (b) the name and address, if known, of the deceased;
 - (c) the amount currently subject to the charge;
 - (d) the general effect of this section, including the following—
 - (i) the charge applies to funds standing to the credit of the deceased, or the deceased's personal representative, in, or afterwards coming into, the institution's hands;
 - (ii) the charge is lower in priority than any earlier charge (unless the earlier charge provides otherwise);
 - (iii) the institution must pay the funds, other than funds subject to an earlier charge of higher priority, to the chief executive within 7 days after the notice is given to the extent of the amount the notice states is currently subject to the charge;
 - (iv) payment in accordance with the notice is a valid discharge of the institution's liability to the person otherwise entitled to the funds paid.
- (7) Further notices may be given to correct a mistake or to state a different amount if circumstances change.
 - (8) If a financial institution is given a notice under this section, it must pay the funds, other than funds subject to an earlier charge of higher priority, to the chief executive within 7 days after the notice is given to the extent of the amount the notice states is currently subject to the charge.

- (9) Payment to the chief executive in accordance with a notice under this section is a valid discharge of the institution's liability to the person otherwise entitled to the funds paid.

5 Regulation making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
