Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

3 Objects of this Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to provide for the continued detention in custody or supervised release of a particular class of prisoner to ensure adequate protection of the community; and
- (b) to provide continuing control, care or treatment of a particular class of prisoner to facilitate their rehabilitation.

4 Relationship with Bail Act

The Bail Act 1980 does not apply to a person detained under this Act.

Part 2 Continuing detention or supervision

Division 1 Application for orders

5 Attorney-General may apply for orders

- (1) The Attorney-General may apply to the court for an order or orders under section 8¹ and a division 3 order in relation to a prisoner.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) state the orders sought; and
 - (b) be accompanied by any affidavits to be relied on by the Attorney-General for the purpose of seeking an order or orders under section 8; and
 - (c) be made during the last 6 months of the prisoner's period of imprisonment.
- (3) On the filing of the application, the registrar must record a return date for the matter to come before the court for a hearing (preliminary hearing) to decide whether the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing the prisoner is a serious danger to the community in the absence of a division 3 order.
- (4) The return date for the preliminary hearing must be within 28 business days after the filing.

1 Section 8 (Preliminary hearing)

(5) A copy of the application and any affidavit to be relied on by the Attorney-General must be given to the prisoner within 2 business days after the filing.

(6) In this section—

prisoner means a prisoner detained in custody who is serving a period of imprisonment for a serious sexual offence, or serving a period of imprisonment that includes a term of imprisonment for a serious sexual offence, whether the person was sentenced to the term or period of imprisonment before or after the commencement of this section.

6 Prisoner may file material in response

(1) The prisoner may file affidavits to be relied on by the prisoner for the preliminary hearing.

(2) The prisoner must give a copy of the affidavits to the Attorney-General at least 3 business days before the day set down for the preliminary hearing.

7 Contents of affidavit

(1) An affidavit must be confined to the evidence the person making it could give if giving evidence orally.

(2) However, an affidavit for use in a preliminary hearing may contain statements based on information and belief if the person making it states the sources of the information and the grounds for the belief.

8 Preliminary hearing

(1) If the court is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for believing the prisoner is a serious danger to the community in the absence of a division 3 order, the court must set a date for the hearing of the application for a division 3 order.

(2) If the court is satisfied as required under subsection (1), it may make—

(a) an order that the prisoner undergo examinations by 2 psychiatrists named by the court who are to prepare independent reports; and

- (b) if the court is satisfied the application may not be finally decided until after the prisoner's release day—
 - (i) an order that the prisoner's release from custody be supervised; or
 - (ii) an order that the prisoner be detained in custody for the period stated in the order.

Note—

If the court makes an order under subsection (2)(b)(i), the order must contain the requirements for the prisoner stated in section 16(1).

9 What a risk assessment order authorises

A risk assessment order authorises the examination of the prisoner by 2 psychiatrists, named in the risk assessment order, who must examine the prisoner and prepare a report as required under section 11.

9A Court may adjourn hearing for division 3 order

- (1) The court may, on application or on its own initiative, adjourn the hearing of an application for a division 3 order.
- (2) If the court adjourns the hearing of the application and is satisfied the application may not be finally decided until after the prisoner's release day, the court may make an order—
 - (a) that the prisoner's release from custody be supervised; or
 - (b) that the prisoner be detained in custody for the period stated in the order.

Note—

If the court makes an order under subsection (2)(a), the order must contain the requirements for the prisoner stated in section 16(1).

10 Discontinuing application for division 3 order

- (1) The Attorney-General, at any time after applying for a division 3 order, may discontinue the application by giving to the registrar and the prisoner a notice of discontinuance.

- (2) The application is taken to be dismissed by the court when the notice is given to the registrar.
- (3) If the prisoner has been ordered to be detained under an interim detention order or has been released from custody under an interim supervision order, the Attorney-General must apply immediately to the court for rescission of the order.

Division 2 Psychiatric examinations

11 Preparation of psychiatric report

- (1) Each psychiatrist examining the prisoner must prepare a report under this section.
- (2) The report must indicate—
 - (a) the psychiatrist's assessment of the level of risk that the prisoner will commit another serious sexual offence—
 - (i) if released from custody; or
 - (ii) if released from custody without a supervision order being made; and
 - (b) the reasons for the psychiatrist's assessment.
- (3) For the purposes of preparing the report, the chief executive must give each psychiatrist any medical, psychiatric, prison or other relevant report or information in relation to the prisoner in the chief executive's possession or to which the chief executive has, or may be given, access.
- (4) A person in possession of a report or information mentioned in subsection (3) must give a copy of the report or the information to the chief executive if asked by the chief executive.
- (5) Subsection (4) authorises and requires the person to give the report or information despite any other law to the contrary or any duty of confidentiality attaching to the report.
- (6) If a person required to give a report or information under subsection (4) refuses to give the report or information, the chief executive may apply to the court for an order requiring the person to give the report or information to the chief executive.

- (7) A person giving a report or information under subsection (4) or (6) is not liable, civilly, criminally or under an administrative process, for giving the report or information.
- (8) Each psychiatrist must have regard to each report or the information given to the psychiatrist under subsection (3).
- (9) Each psychiatrist must prepare a report even if the prisoner does not cooperate, or does not cooperate fully, in the examination.

12 Psychiatric reports to be given to the Attorney-General and the prisoner

- (1) Each psychiatrist must give a copy of the psychiatrist's report to the Attorney-General within 7 days after finalising the report.
- (2) The Attorney-General must give a copy of each report to the prisoner on the next business day after the Attorney-General receives the report.

Division 3 Final orders

13 Division 3 orders

- (1) This section applies if, on the hearing of an application for a division 3 order, the court is satisfied the prisoner is a serious danger to the community in the absence of a division 3 order (a serious danger to the community).
- (2) A prisoner is a serious danger to the community as mentioned in subsection (1) if there is an unacceptable risk that the prisoner will commit a serious sexual offence—
 - (a) if the prisoner is released from custody; or
 - (b) if the prisoner is released from custody without a supervision order being made.

Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003

- (3) On hearing the application, the court may decide that it is satisfied as required under subsection (1) only if it is satisfied—
- (a) by acceptable, cogent evidence; and
 - (b) to a high degree of probability;
- that the evidence is of sufficient weight to justify the decision.
- (4) In deciding whether a prisoner is a serious danger to the community as mentioned in subsection (1), the court must have regard to the following—
- (a) the reports prepared by the psychiatrists under section 11² and the extent to which the prisoner cooperated in the examinations by the psychiatrists;
 - (b) any other medical, psychiatric, psychological or other assessment relating to the prisoner;
 - (c) information indicating whether or not there is a propensity on the part of the prisoner to commit serious sexual offences in the future;
 - (d) whether or not there is any pattern of offending behaviour on the part of the prisoner;
 - (e) efforts by the prisoner to address the cause or causes of the prisoner's offending behaviour, including whether the prisoner participated in rehabilitation programs;
 - (f) whether or not the prisoner's participation in rehabilitation programs has had a positive effect on the prisoner;
 - (g) the prisoner's antecedents and criminal history;
 - (h) the risk that the prisoner will commit another serious sexual offence if released into the community;
 - (i) the need to protect members of the community from that risk;
 - (j) any other relevant matter.
- (5) If the court is satisfied as required under subsection (1), the court may order—

2 Section 11 (Preparation of psychiatric report)

- (a) that the prisoner be detained in custody for an indefinite term for control, care or treatment (continuing detention order); or
 - (b) that the prisoner be released from custody subject to the conditions it considers appropriate that are stated in the order (supervision order).
- (6) In deciding whether to make an order under subsection (5)(a) or (b), the paramount consideration is to be the need to ensure adequate protection of the community.
- (7) The Attorney-General has the onus of proving that a prisoner is a serious danger to the community as mentioned in subsection (1).

Division 3A Effect of particular orders

14 Effect of continuing detention order or interim detention order

- (1) A continuing detention order has effect in accordance with its terms—
- (a) on the order being made or at the end of the prisoner's period of imprisonment, whichever is the later; and
 - (b) until rescinded.
- (2) An interim detention order has effect in accordance with its terms—
- (a) on the order being made or at the end of the prisoner's period of imprisonment, whichever is the later; and
 - (b) for the period stated in the order, unless earlier rescinded.

15 Effect of supervision order or interim supervision order

A supervision order or interim supervision order has effect in accordance with its terms—

- (a) on the order being made or at the end of the prisoner's period of imprisonment, whichever is the later; and
- (b) for the period stated in the order.

Division 3B Supervised release to be subject to particular requirements

16 Conditions for supervised release

- (1) If a judicial authority orders that a prisoner's release from custody be supervised under a supervision order or interim supervision order, the order must contain requirements that the prisoner—
 - (a) report to a corrective services officer at the place, and within the time, stated in the order and advise the officer of the prisoner's current name and address; and
 - (b) report to, and receive visits from, a corrective services officer as directed by the judicial authority; and
 - (c) notify a corrective services officer of every change of the prisoner's name, place of residence or employment at least 2 business days before the change happens; and
 - (d) be under the supervision of a corrective services officer; and
 - (e) not leave or stay out of Queensland without the permission of a corrective services officer; and
 - (f) not commit an offence of a sexual nature during the period of the order.
- (2) The order may contain any other order the judicial authority considers appropriate—
 - (a) to ensure adequate protection of the community; or

Examples for paragraph (a)—

- 1 That the prisoner not knowingly reside with a convicted sex offender.

- 2 That the prisoner must not, without reasonable excuse, be within 200m of a school.
- (b) for the prisoner's rehabilitation or care or treatment.

Division 3C Reasons for orders

17 Court to give reasons

- (1) If a judicial authority makes any of the following orders, it must give detailed reasons for making the order—
 - (a) a continuing detention order;
 - (b) an interim detention order;
 - (c) a supervision order;
 - (d) an interim supervision order.
- (2) The reasons must be given at the time the order is made.

Division 4 Amendment of supervision orders or interim supervision orders

18 Application for amendment

- (1) An application under this division must be made by—
 - (a) a prisoner released under a supervision order or interim supervision order (released prisoner); or
 - (b) the chief executive with the Attorney-General's consent.
- (2) Notice of an application made by the released prisoner must be given by the released prisoner to the Attorney-General and the chief executive.
- (3) Notice of an application made by the chief executive must be given to the released prisoner.

19 Amendment of conditions of supervision order or interim supervision order

- (1) The court may, on application, amend the conditions of a supervision order or interim supervision order if the court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the released prisoner is not able to comply with the conditions of the order because of a change in the released prisoner's circumstances; or
 - (b) an amendment of the conditions is necessary or desirable for any other reason.
- (2) The court may amend the conditions if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the conditions, as amended, are sufficient to ensure adequate protection of the community; and
 - (b) it is reasonable to make the amendment in all the circumstances.

Division 5 Contravention of supervision order or interim supervision order20 Summons or warrant for released prisoner suspected of contravening a supervision order or interim supervision order

- (1) This section applies if a police officer or corrective services officer reasonably suspects a released prisoner is likely to contravene, is contravening, or has contravened, a condition of the released prisoner's supervision order or interim supervision order.
- (2) The officer may, by a complaint to a magistrate, apply for—
 - (a) a summons requiring the released prisoner to appear before the Supreme Court; or
 - (b) a warrant for the arrest of the released prisoner directed to all police officers and corrective services officers to arrest the released prisoner and bring the released prisoner before the Supreme Court to be dealt with according to law.

- (3) The magistrate must issue the summons or warrant, in the approved form, if the magistrate is satisfied the grounds for issuing the summons or warrant exist.
- (4) However, the warrant may be issued only if—
 - (a) the complaint is under oath; and
 - (b) the magistrate is satisfied the released prisoner would not appear in answer to a summons.
- (5) Further, the magistrate may refuse to issue the warrant if the magistrate considers it would be unjust to issue the warrant.
- (6) The summons or warrant may state the suspected contravention in general terms.
- (7) If the magistrate issues a summons under subsection (3), the commissioner of the police service or the chief executive must give a copy of the summons to the Attorney-General within 2 days after the released prisoner is given a copy of the summons.
- (8) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a failure by the commissioner of the police service or the chief executive to comply with subsection (7) does not affect the Attorney-General's ability to apply to the Supreme Court for a further order under section 22.

21 Contravention of supervision order or interim supervision order

- (1) This section applies if a released prisoner is brought before the court under a summons or warrant issued under section 20.³
- (2) The Attorney-General may apply to the court for a further order under section 22.
- (3) The application must state the order sought.

³ Section 20 (Summons or warrant for released prisoner suspected of contravening a supervision order or interim supervision order)

22 Court may make further order

- (1) If the court is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the released prisoner is likely to contravene, is contravening, or has contravened, the supervision order or interim supervision order, the court may—
 - (a) amend the conditions of the supervision order or interim supervision order; or
 - (b) if the order is a supervision order and the court is satisfied as required under section 13(1), rescind the order and make a continuing detention order; or
 - (c) if the order is an interim supervision order, rescind the order and make an order that the released prisoner be detained in custody for the period stated in the order; or
 - (d) make any other order the court considers appropriate—
 - (i) to achieve compliance with the supervision order or interim supervision order; or
 - (ii) to ensure adequate protection of the community.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), for the purpose of subsection (1)(b), section 13 applies as if the application under this section were an application for a division 3 order under that section.
- (3) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a continuing detention order under subsection (1)(b), the court may do any or all of the following—
 - (a) act on any evidence before it;
 - (b) make any order necessary to enable evidence of a kind needed to support an application for a division 3 order to be brought before it, including an order in the nature of a risk assessment order;
 - (c) suspend the supervision order and make an order that the released prisoner be detained in custody for the period stated in the order.
- (4) For subsections (1)(c) and (3)(c), the court may make an order that the released prisoner be detained in custody for the period stated in the order if it is satisfied as required under section 8(1).

Division 7 Disclosure provisions

25 Duty to disclose

- (1) This section applies to an application for a division 3 order.
- (2) The Attorney-General's duty to disclose evidence or things in the Attorney-General's possession is the same duty to disclose the prosecution has in a criminal proceeding.
- (3) The Attorney-General must disclose the evidence or things at least 7 days before the application is heard.
- (4) If the Attorney-General can not comply with the time requirement because the thing to be disclosed was not in the Attorney-General's possession in sufficient time, including, for example, because the thing did not exist at the time, the Attorney-General must disclose the thing as soon as practicable after it comes into the Attorney-General's possession.

Part 3 Annual reviews

26 Purpose of this part

The purpose of this part is to ensure that a prisoner's continued detention under a continuing detention order is subject to regular review.

27 Review—periodic

- (1) If the court makes a continuing detention order, the court must review the order at the end of 1 year after the order first has effect and afterwards at intervals of not more than 1 year after the last review was made while the prisoner continues to be subject to the order.
- (2) The Attorney-General must make any application that is required to be made to cause the reviews mentioned in subsection (1) to be carried out.

28 Review—application by prisoner

- (1) Unless the court otherwise orders at the hearing of any application under this Act, for the purposes of a review under section 27 or 28, the chief executive must arrange for the prisoner to be examined by 2 psychiatrists.
- (2) For subsection (1) and the purposes of a review, sections 11 and 12⁴ apply with necessary changes.
- (3) Subsection (1) authorises examinations of the prisoner by the 2 psychiatrists.

30 Review hearing

- (1) This section applies if, on the hearing of a review under section 27 or 28 and having regard to the matters mentioned in section 13(4),⁵ the court affirms a decision that the prisoner is a serious danger to the community in the absence of a division 3 order.
- (2) On the hearing of the review, the court may affirm the decision only if it is satisfied—
 - (a) by acceptable, cogent evidence; and
 - (b) to a high degree of probability;that the evidence is of sufficient weight to affirm the decision.
- (3) If the court affirms the decision, the court may order that the prisoner—
 - (a) continue to be subject to the continuing detention order; or
 - (b) be released from custody subject to a supervision order.
- (4) In deciding whether to make an order under subsection (3)(a) or (b), the paramount consideration is to be the need to ensure adequate protection of the community.
