Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 24 November 2006. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Liquor Regulation 2002

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 24 November 2006]

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Liquor Regulation 2002.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 September 2002.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

Part 2 Requirements relating to various applications

4 Particulars to accompany applications relating to licences—Act, s 105(1)(c)

- (1) Each application for a licence must be accompanied by the following particulars—
 - (a) a plan of the premises to which the application relates drawn to a scale of 1:100 showing the general layout of the premises;
 - (b) a plan showing the location of the premises to which the application relates in relation to adjacent premises;

- (c) for an applicant who is an individual or for a nominee, evidence, satisfactory to the chief executive, of the applicant's or nominee's identity;
 - (d) evidence, satisfactory to the chief executive, that using the premises for the licence to which the application refers is permitted under the planning scheme of the relevant local government for the premises;
 - (e) evidence, satisfactory to the chief executive, that sanitary conveniences at the premises comply with the provisions of the Building Code of Australia relating to sanitary premises.
- (2) Each of the following applications must be accompanied by the particulars stated for the application—
- (a) for an application for a general licence, a residential licence or a special facility licence—a typical menu of meals provided, or to be provided, on the premises to which the application relates;
 - (b) for an application for an on-premises licence for premises where meals are to be provided—a typical menu of the meals;
 - (c) for an application for a licence other than a club licence or a producer/wholesaler licence—a description of the general nature and character of the premises to which the application relates;
 - (d) for an application for a licence relating to premises on land—
 - (i) a copy of the registered plan of survey for the land; and
 - (ii) a copy of the certificate of title for the land or other reasonable evidence, satisfactory to the chief executive, of the description of the land and identity of the registered owner or lessor of the land; and
 - (iii) a description of each proposed licensed area on the premises;
 - (e) for an application for a licence relating to premises where entertainment is to be provided—

- (i) details of the type and nature of the entertainment; and
 - (ii) a written assessment about the expected acoustic qualities of the proposed premises;
 - (f) for an application for a transfer of a licence if the transferee or nominee is an individual—evidence, satisfactory to the chief executive, of the transferee’s or nominee’s identity;
 - (g) for an application for a transfer of a producer/wholesaler licence—a copy of the licensee’s transactions record for the period from the immediately preceding 1 July, or the day the licensee obtained the licence, whichever is later, to the day on which the application is made.
- (3) Despite subsection (2)(e), the chief executive may require an applicant for a licence to give the chief executive a report about the acoustic qualities of premises when the premises are completed if noise from any source is, or is likely to be made, at a level in excess of 75dB(C) fast response when measured about 3m from the source.
- (4) An assessment or report about the expected acoustic qualities, or acoustic qualities, of premises must—
- (a) be made by a person who has qualifications, training or experience in providing assessments or reports about the acoustic qualities of premises; and
 - (b) state the person’s qualifications, training or experience.
- (5) In this section—
- Building Code of Australia see the Building Act 1975, section 3(1).¹

5 Timing for making applications

- (1) An application for any of the following must be made at least 21 days before the day stated in the application as the day on which the permit or variation is proposed to take effect—
- (a) a general purpose permit;

- (b) an extended hours permit, other than an extended hours permit that would extend trading hours on a regular basis;
 - (c) a restricted club permit;
 - (d) a temporary variation of trading hours for 1 occasion or event.
- (2) An application for a catering away permit must be made at least 28 days before the day stated in the application as the day on which the permit is proposed to take effect.
- (3) An application for an adult entertainment permit for 1 occasion must be made at least 8 weeks before the day stated in the application as the day on which the permit is proposed to take effect.

6 Proposed event management plan as part of application for catering away permit

- (1) The purpose of this section is to state, for section 102F(1)(f)² of the Act, matters about which a licensee's proposed event management plan for a public event must satisfactorily provide.
- (2) The matters are—
- (a) the name of the promoter of the public event; and
 - (b) a plan of the site for the public event, with details of the facilities to be provided, including, for example, car parking, fencing, food and drink stations, lighting, security stations, stages and toilets; and
 - (c) the program for the public event, including, for example, details of all activities and performances; and
 - (d) arrangements for advertising the public event; and
 - (e) the number of persons expected to attend the public event, and the expected range of ages of the persons; and
 - (f) arrangements for transporting persons to and from the public event; and

2 Section 102F (Restriction on grant of catering away permit) of the Act

- (g) arrangements for liquor service at the public event; and
 - (h) arrangements for security at the public event; and
 - (i) contingency plans if the public event is adversely affected by weather or other conditions.
- (3) In this section—

arrangements for liquor service includes—

- (a) areas for the consumption of liquor and how they are to be defined, including, for example, by roping off the area or using a hospitality tent; and
- (b) the number of staff to be employed in the service of liquor; and
- (c) the number of staff who will be trained in the responsible service of alcohol, and information about the training the staff will have undertaken; and
- (d) how the purchase of liquor is to be made by persons attending events, including, for example, whether ticketing is to be used; and
- (e) the type of containers to be used for dispensing liquor; and
- (f) the hours a manager will be on duty and the names of persons who are to be on duty as managers.

arrangements for security includes the number of persons to be used for security purposes, and their proposed location and role.

proposed event management plan means a proposed event management plan mentioned in section 102E(2)(b)³ of the Act.

3 Section 102E (Licensee to obtain a permit for selling or supplying liquor at public events) of the Act

4 Section 102D (Definitions for div 12A) of the Act

Part 3 Detached bottle shops

7 Circumstances in which chief executive may approve premises as detached bottle shop

- (1) The chief executive may approve premises, as mentioned in section 59(1)(d)⁵ of the Act, only if—
 - (a) the applicant is the licensee of licensed premises (the main licensed premises); and
 - (b) the proposed detached bottle shop—
 - (i) is not more than 10km by road from the main licensed premises; and
 - (ii) has a floor area of not more than 150m²; and
 - (iii) does not have direct access from any other business premises; and
 - (iv) has direct access from a public place; and
 - (v) does not have a facility ordinarily known as a drive-in or drive through; and
 - (c) the applicant has no more than 2 detached bottle shops for the main licensed premises; and
 - (d) the applicant satisfies the chief executive that—
 - (i) conducting the proposed detached bottle shop on the premises is permitted under the planning scheme of the relevant local government for the premises; and
 - (ii) if the applicant is not the owner of the premises—the applicant has the owner's written agreement to the application; and
 - (iii) only the applicant has a right to occupy—
 - (A) if the detached bottle shop will occupy the entire premises—the premises; or

5 Section 59 (Authority of general licence) of the Act

Liquor Regulation 2002

- (B) if the detached bottle shop will occupy only part of the premises—the part of the premises; and
 - (iv) the same person or entity will have the financial benefit of the proposed detached bottle shop and the business conducted at the main licensed premises; and
 - (v) the applicant will conduct the proposed detached bottle shop under the same business name as the business conducted at the main licensed premises; and
 - (vi) the licensee's principal place of business will be the main licensed premises.
- (2) For subsection (1)(b)(i), a proposed detached bottle shop is not more than 10km by road from the main licensed premises if either of the following distances is 10km or less—
- (a) the distance measured between—
 - (i) the place of egress by road from the land on which the main licensed premises is located that is closest to the proposed detached bottle shop; and
 - (ii) the place of ingress by road to the land on which the premises is located that is, or includes, the proposed detached bottle shop that is closest to the main licensed premises;
 - (b) the distance measured between—
 - (i) the place of egress by road from the land on which the premises is located that is, or includes, the proposed detached bottle shop that is closest to the main licensed premises; and
 - (ii) the place of ingress by road to the land on which the main licensed premises is located that is closest to the proposed detached bottle shop.
- (3) A distance mentioned in subsection (2) must be measured using the shortest route that may be taken driving a motor vehicle in compliance with the relevant laws of the State and local laws.

- (4) Subsection (1)(b)(i) does not apply if the applicant satisfies the chief executive that—
- (a) the proposed detached bottle shop will—
 - (i) be in a locality in which there is no licensed premises at which liquor is sold for consumption off the premises other than licensed premises for which an application for an on-premises (meals) licence⁶ has been granted; and
 - (ii) primarily service the residents of the locality; and
 - (b) because of the locality's population or projected population, the locality is not likely to attract the establishment of licensed premises other than a detached bottle shop.

Example of a locality for subsection (4)— a small rural community more than 10km from the nearest premises from which takeaway liquor is sold to the public

- (5) Subsection (6) applies if the proposed detached bottle shop will occupy only a part of the premises and there is a condition in the applicant's tenancy agreement for the part of the premises that the owner of the premises will not grant anyone else the right to occupy another part of the premises as a detached bottle shop.
- (6) The applicant must satisfy the chief executive that the applicant did not ask the owner to include the condition in the agreement.

6 See section 73A of the Act—

73A Restriction on sale of liquor under an on-premises (meals) licence

The authority of an on-premises (meals) licence is restricted to the following—

- (a) the sale and supply of liquor for consumption on the licensed premises—
 - (i) in association with a consumer eating a meal on the premises; and
 - (ii) to persons on the premises other than in association with the persons eating meals;
- (b) the sale and supply of 1 opened and 1 unopened bottle of wine for consumption off the premises to each adult consumer eating a meal.

8 Obligation to conduct business at detached bottle shop if no appeal

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a licensee applies to the chief executive for approval under section 59(1)(d) of the Act to sell liquor on premises; and
 - (b) the chief executive grants the approval; and
 - (c) no appeal is made against the chief executive’s decision to grant the approval.
- (2) The licensee must start to conduct business under the approval within 60 days after the last appeal day for the decision to grant the approval.
- (3) If the licensee fails to comply with subsection (2), the approval lapses at the end of 60 days after the last appeal day for the decision to grant the approval.
- (4) In this section—

last appeal day, for a decision to grant an approval, means the last day on which an application for a review of the decision may be made to the tribunal under the Commercial and Consumer Tribunal Act 2003, section 102.⁷

9 Obligation to conduct business at detached bottle shop after an appeal

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a licensee applies to the chief executive for approval under section 59(1)(d) of the Act to sell liquor on premises; and
 - (b) an appeal is made against the chief executive’s decision about the application by a person mentioned in section 30⁸ of the Act; and
 - (c) the tribunal’s decision allows the licensee to start conducting business on the premises.

⁷ Commercial and Consumer Tribunal Act 2003, section 102 (Application for review)

⁸ Section 30 (Persons entitled to appeal) of the Act

- (2) The licensee must start to conduct the business within 60 days after the licensee receives a copy of the tribunal's decision.
- (3) If the licensee fails to comply with subsection (2), the approval lapses at the end of 60 days after the licensee receives the copy of the tribunal's decision.

22 Decision by chief executive for application under s 21 other than application for an occasion approval

- (1) This section applies to an application for an approval under section 154¹¹ of the Act for a specified change, other than an application for an occasion approval.
- (2) If the chief executive approves the application, the approval is subject to the completion of any specified change within 2 years after the date of the approval.

11 Section 154 (Alteration etc. and maintenance of licensed premises) of the Act

- (3) The approval is also subject to conditions specified by the chief executive in the approval.

Examples of conditions for subsection (3)—

- 1 The specified change must be completed in accordance with the plans approved by the chief executive.
 - 2 The applicant must obtain all stated approvals or certifications, for use of the premises as licensed premises, as required under an Act other than the Act, including, for example, development approval under the Integrated Planning Act 1997.
 - 3 The completed premises must have the acoustic qualities stated in the approval.
- (4) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must give the applicant a notice stating the following—
- (a) the application is refused;
 - (b) the reasons for the refusal;
 - (c) the applicant may appeal to the tribunal against the refusal within 28 days after the applicant receives notice of the refusal;
 - (d) the way in which the applicant may appeal against the decision.

23 Production of licence after completion of specified change other than under an occasion approval

- (1) This section applies if a licensee's application as mentioned in section 22(1) is approved.
- (2) After completing the specified change under the approval, the licensee must give the chief executive the licensee's licence for the licensed premises.
- (3) The chief executive must issue a new licence to the applicant with the altered, rebuilt, changed or increased area of the licensed premises only if the chief executive is reasonably satisfied the applicant complied with all the conditions to which the approval was subject.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if an area is not part of licensed premises but is the subject of an approval under section 22, the licensee must not use the area as licensed premises until a licence is issued under subsection (2) that includes the area as part of the licensed premises.

Division 3 Applications for an occasion approval

24 Decision by chief executive for application under s 21 for an occasion approval

- (1) This section applies to an application for an occasion approval.
- (2) If the chief executive approves the application, the chief executive must give the applicant a written approval stating the day or days, and the hours, to which the approval applies, and any conditions applying to the approval.
- (3) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must give the applicant a notice stating the following—
 - (a) the application is refused;
 - (b) the reasons for the refusal;
 - (c) the applicant may appeal to the tribunal against the refusal within 28 days after the applicant receives notice of the refusal;
 - (d) the way in which the applicant may appeal against the decision.

Part 6 Obligations of licensees and permittees

25 Particulars required in transactions record for producer/wholesaler licence—Act, s 217(2)(b)(i)

- (1) For section 217¹² of the Act, the particulars that a transactions record for a licensee who holds a producer/wholesaler licence must contain are as follows—

 - (xi) fermented products other than wine or fortified wine, including for example, sake or wine based soda;
 - (xii) spirits mixed with other beverages;
 - (xiii) spirits that are not mixed with other beverages;

12 Section 217 (Records to be kept by licensee) of the Act

- (b) for each sale or supply of liquor—the name of the person to whom the liquor was sold or supplied and the number of the person’s licence or permit;
 - (c) the gross amount paid or payable for the liquor.
- (2) In this section—

bottle means a bottle with a capacity of not more than 1.5L.

bulk, for the sale or supply of wine or fortified wine, means a sale or supply of wine—

- (a) in a container with a capacity of more than 20L; or
- (b) for bottling elsewhere or for blending with another wine.

cask means a container with a capacity of 2L or more but not more than 20L.

fortified wine includes frontignac, madeira, marsala, muscat, port, sherry and tokay.

heavy strength beer means beer in which the alcohol content by volume is 4% or more.

low strength beer means beer in which the alcohol content by volume is less than 3%.

medium strength beer means beer in which the alcohol content by volume is 3% or more but less than 4%.

26 Annual return to chief executive for producer/wholesaler licences

A licensee who holds a producer/wholesaler licence must, within 21 days after the end of a financial year, give the chief executive a return stating the particulars shown for the financial year in the licensee’s transactions record.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

27 Details about meals and beverages to be recorded by certain licensees

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a licensee who holds an on-premises (cabaret) licence, an on-premises (meals) licence or a residential licence must keep records of the following—
 - (a) for every day on which liquor is sold on the licensed premises—the amount and type of liquor sold and the sale price for each type;
 - (b) for every meal consumed on the premises—the details of the meal, the date and time the meal is ordered, and the sale price;
 - (c) wages or other payments to workers involved in sales of liquor, or in the preparation, serving or sales of meals, for which records must be kept under this section.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Examples of records to be kept—cash register tapes or table accounts

- (2) Also, a licensee must, for each financial year, keep records of the totals of beverages and food sales, and the costs of the sales, including, for example, purchases and wages.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (3) A licensee who holds an on-premises (cabaret) licence must only keep records about sales of liquor and meals ordered between 10a.m. and 5p.m.
- (4) A licensee who holds a residential licence must only keep records about sales of liquor and meals ordered during relevant trading hours.
- (5) In this section—

relevant trading hours means ordinary trading hours or those hours extended by an extended hours permit, as if the residential licence were an on-premises (meals) licence relating to a part of the premises stated in the residential licence as ordinarily set aside for dining.

Part 7 Adult entertainment permits

28 Definitions for pt 7

In this part—

permit means an adult entertainment permit.

permittee means the holder of an adult entertainment permit.

29 Authority of permit

For section 103G(2)¹³ of the Act, the following are conditions to which each permit is subject—

- (a) the permittee must comply with the management plan submitted by the permittee with the application for the permit;
- (b) the permittee must keep a daily record of the name of the controller for the permittee's premises and the controller's hours of duty;
- (c) the permittee must enter the controller's name and hours of duty into the daily record on every day on which adult entertainment may be performed under the permit;
- (d) the permittee must ensure that spruiking or touting for business involving adult entertainment occurs only on the permittee's premises and only on parts of the premises from which the spruiking or touting is not audible or visible to a person who is not on the premises;
- (e) the permit does not authorise adult entertainment on Christmas Day or Good Friday.

30 Approved area to conform with requirements

- (1) For section 103H(c)¹⁴ of the Act, the area must consist of an open room or other area that allows a person attending the 18 Liquor (Approval of Adult Entertainment Code) Regulation 2000 commenced 1 July 2000.

35 Restriction on number of permits that may be issued

- (1) The chief executive may grant only 6 one-off permits in a year for particular premises.
- (2) If a person provides, or intends to provide, adult entertainment at particular premises on more than 6 occasions in a year, the person must apply for an annual permit for the premises.
- (3) In this section—
one-off permit, for licensed premises, means a permit to provide adult entertainment for 1 occasion at the premises.

Part 8 Fees36 Fees

- (1) The fees payable under the Act, other than in relation to the tribunal, are stated in schedule 1.
- (2) If an application under the Act, other than in relation to the tribunal, is not mentioned in schedule 1, a fee of $80 is payable for the application.

37 Exemption for certain Anzac Day related applications

- (1) This section applies to an applicant who makes an application for a general purpose permit, a catering away permit, an extended hours permit or an approval to alter, change or increase the area of licensed premises for an activity on Anzac Day that relates to the commemoration of Anzac Day.
- (2) The applicant is exempt from payment of a fee for the application if—
 - (a) the applicant is an RSL or Services Club; or
 - (b) the applicant has been asked by an RSL or Services Club to provide catering services for the activity for the RSL or Services Club.

Part 8A Restricted areas

37A Declaration of restricted area—Act, s 173G(1)

An area stated in a relevant schedule is a restricted area.

37B Declaration of prohibition of possession of liquor in restricted area—Act, s 173H

- (1) Each restricted area is an area to which section 168B¹⁹ of the Act applies.
- (2) The prescribed quantity for a restricted area is the quantity stated for the area in a relevant schedule.

Part 8B Provisions about conditions of licences and permits for Brisbane City Council area

37C Number of crowd controllers—Act, s 142AG

37D Minimum requirements for closed-circuit television equipment—Act, s 142AH

For section 142AH(c)(i) of the Act, the minimum requirements for closed-circuit television equipment are—

- (a) the equipment must be installed in a way that clearly records, at each entrance and exit of the premises providing access for patrons—
 - (i) all patrons entering or leaving the premises; and
 - (ii) interaction between the patrons and a crowd controller or staff of the premises; and
- (b) each recording made by the equipment must display on the recording the time and date of the recording.

37E Information for incident register—Act, s 142AI

For section 142AI(1)(a) of the Act, the following information is prescribed for an incident at licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates—

- (a) the date and time the incident happened;
- (b) a description of the place at the premises where the incident happened;
- (c) a description of each person involved in the incident and, if known, the person's name;
- (d) details of the incident, including, for example, information about whether a patron was removed from the premises because of the incident;
- (e) details of injuries sustained by persons involved in the incident;
- (f) details of action taken by a crowd controller or member of staff of the premises in response to the incident.

37F Information for training register—Act, s 142AI

For section 142AI(2)(a) of the Act, the following information is prescribed for a licensee's or permittee's training register—

- (a) the expiry date of each current training course certificate kept by the licensee or permittee under sections 142AG(c) and 142AK(3) of the Act;
- (b) information to show whether the licensee or permittee has a copy of the current training course certificates the licensee or permittee must keep under the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a);
- (c) information to show whether each member of staff of the licensed premises or premises to which the permit relates, and each crowd controller engaged in maintaining order in and around the premises, has read the house policy for the premises.

37G Matters for house policy—Act, s 142AJ

For the definition house policy in section 142AJ(3) of the Act, the following matters are prescribed—

- (a) responsible service of liquor at the licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates;
- (b) dealing with minors on the premises;
- (c) dealing with unduly intoxicated and disorderly patrons of the premises;
- (d) security arrangements for the premises;
- (e) training staff of the premises;
- (f) promotional activities for the premises;
- (g) responsible hospitality practices for the premises;
- (h) noise on, and the amenity of, the premises;
- (i) consultation with community and liquor industry groups about the conduct of business at the premises;
- (j) ensuring the conduct of business at the premises complies with the Act and other laws.

37H Prescribed activities—Act, s 142AL

(1) For section 142AL(b) of the Act, the following activities are prescribed for licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates—

- (a) the holding of an event or occasion in or on which a person's membership of a group, or participation in the event or occasion, entitles the person to free or discounted liquor;

Examples—

a 'blondes' night', 'students' night', 'nurses' night' or other theme night

- (b) a promotional or other activity that offers a person, as a reward, free or discounted liquor for consumption on the premises;

Example—

A raffle in which a person might win free or discounted liquor for a day.

- (c) a promotional or other activity that offers a person a reward, other than free or discounted liquor, if the person would need to drink more than 4 standard drinks on any day to win the reward.

Example—

A promotional activity in which a 'drinks card' is given to a person at a particular time, and to win a T-shirt by using the card the person would need to drink more than 4 standard drinks on any day.

(2) Also, for section 142AL(b) of the Act, all of the following activities are prescribed for licensed premises or premises to which a permit relates—

- (a) for the period from 7a.m. on a day to 9p.m. on the day—having a happy hour that is more than 2 hours;
- (b) for the period from 9p.m. in the trading period to 1a.m. in the period—having a happy hour that is more than 1 hour;
- (c) for the period after 1a.m. in the trading period—having a happy hour or part of a happy hour;

- (d) if the premises have more than 1 happy hour on a day—having the happy hours without at least 1 hour between the end of each happy hour and the start of the following happy hour;
 - (e) on any day—having a happy hour that starts before 9p.m. and ends after 9p.m.
- (3) In this section—

happy hour means a set period, commonly called a ‘happy hour’, during which liquor is generally available on the premises during the period for free or at a discounted price.

standard drink means the quantity of any kind of alcoholic drink that, if consumed, is equivalent to drinking 12.5mL of alcohol.

Part 9 Miscellaneous

38 Proof of age card

For section 6(a)(i)(A)²⁰ of the Act, the department is the department that administers the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995.

39 Proposed amendment to club rules

Sections 88(1)(b)(i) and 103D(1)(b)(i)²¹ of the Act do not apply to amendments of the rules of a club other than amendments about the following—

- (a) eligibility for membership of the club;
- (b) categories of membership of the club;
- (c) eligibility for election to the club’s management committee;

²⁰ Section 6 (Acceptable evidence of age) of the Act

²¹ Sections 88 and 103D (Requirements of club and secretary) of the Act

- (d) voting rights of the club's members;
- (e) functions of the club's management committee;
- (f) payment to an officer or employee of the club;
- (g) the club's non-proprietary status.

40 Prescription of limits for noise that if exceeded constitute unreasonable noise

For the definition unreasonable noise in section 187(5)²² of the Act, the limits for noise are as follows—

- (a) between 6a.m. and 10p.m.—the adjusted maximum sound pressure level LA10, plus adjustments for tonal and impulse components, exceeding the background level LA90 by more than 10dB(A);
- (b) between 10p.m. and 6a.m.—the sound pressure level LOCT10, in a full octave band with centre frequencies from 63HZ to 2000HZ, exceeding the background level LOCT90 by more than 8dB in any octave band.

41 Acceptable and unacceptable practices and promotions for the service, supply and promotion of liquor—Act, s 148A

(1) The following are examples of unacceptable practices or promotions that, for section 148A(2)²³ of the Act, may encourage rapid or excessive consumption of liquor—

- (a) promoting or conducting an activity that encourages rapid or excessive consumption of liquor or discourages a patron from monitoring or controlling the patron's consumption of liquor;

Examples for paragraph (a)—

- promoting or conducting skolling games
- promoting the consumption of drinks known as 'laybacks'
- promoting the consumption of liquor from a water pistol

22 Section 187 (Abatement of nuisance or dangerous activity) of the Act

23 Section 148A (Obligations of licensees and permittees relating to the service, supply and promotion of liquor) of the Act

Liquor Regulation 2002

- (b) supplying liquor to a person on condition that the person is required to promote or conduct an activity that encourages rapid or excessive consumption of liquor or discourages a patron from monitoring or controlling the patron's consumption of liquor;
- (c) serving, supplying or promoting liquor in a container that encourages rapid or excessive consumption of liquor or discourages a patron from monitoring or controlling the patron's consumption of liquor;

Examples for paragraph (c)—

- serving liquor in a yard glass for consumption at 1 draught
 - serving liquor in a test tube shaped glass without providing a stand on which the glass can be placed
- (d) serving, supplying or promoting liquor without taking appropriate action to discourage rapid or excessive consumption of liquor;

Example for paragraph (d)—

promoting free or discounted liquor without providing an appropriate number of staff or security persons to monitor and control patrons' consumption of liquor

- (e) serving or supplying liquor to a patron while holding the patron's financial institution access card or other property pending payment for the liquor, in a way that discourages the patron from monitoring or controlling the patron's purchase of liquor.

Example for paragraph (e)—

holding a patron's financial-institution access card and serving liquor to the patron on account over several days pending payment when the patron next receives social security benefits

- (2) The following are examples of acceptable practices or promotions that encourage, for section 148A(3) of the Act, the responsible consumption of liquor—

- (a) deterring the rapid or excessive consumption of liquor;

Example for paragraph (a)— deterring patrons from taking part in skolling games

- (b) having non-alcoholic and low alcohol beverages available;

- (c) having drinking water available, free or at a reasonable cost;
- (d) supplying liquor in standardised quantities that can be recognised by patrons;

Examples for paragraph (c)—

- serving spirits in measured nips
- serving liquor in glasses or jugs marked with measured quantities
- supplying liquor in prepacked containers labelled with measured quantities

- (e) serving patrons half measures of spirits on request.

- (3) The following are examples of acceptable practices for providing and maintaining, for section 148A(4) of the Act, a safe environment in and around premises—

- (a) helping patrons to arrange transport from the premises;

Examples for paragraph (a)—

- arranging the supply and convenient positioning of public telephones displaying telephone numbers for taxis and emergency services
- allowing staff to make telephone calls to arrange transport for patrons

- (b) providing appropriate lighting inside and outside the premises.

- (4) An example of an unacceptable practice for providing and maintaining, for section 148A(4) of the Act, a safe environment in and around premises, is promoting or conducting an activity that encourages harassment of patrons or staff.

Example for subsection (4)—

A licensee promotes and conducts a ‘wet T-shirt’ competition during which discounted liquor is served to patrons. The licensee does not provide adequate staff or security persons to monitor or control patrons’ behaviour and some patrons become intoxicated and harass other patrons and staff.

Part 11 Transitional and repeal provisions

54 Definitions for pt 11

In this part—

commencement day means the day this regulation commences.

repealed regulation means the Liquor Regulation 1992.

55 References to repealed provision

A reference in an instrument to the repealed regulation or a provision of the repealed regulation may, if the context permits, be taken as a reference to this regulation or a provision of this regulation.

56 Pending applications

- (1) A pending application under a section of the repealed regulation mentioned in column 1 of the following table is taken to be an application under the section of this regulation mentioned in column 2 of the table shown opposite the column 1 section—
