64 Landholder may grant an access right

A landholder may grant an access right affecting the holder's land under an agreement with a mill owner or a grower.

Note—

 - (b) the access right is necessary for a purpose mentioned in section 63(2) or (5) in relation to the applicant; and
 - (c) the access right, if granted, would not affect native title, or if it would, there is an indigenous land use agreement consenting to the grant.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

72 Variation and cancellation of access right, dispute resolution and enforcement

- (3) The applicant must serve a copy of the application on every person the applicant knows may be entitled to claim compensation if the application is granted.
- (4) The Land Court may grant the application only if—
 - (a) for an application to cancel a cane railway easement—the court is satisfied the easement has not been used for at least 2 years; or
 - (b) otherwise—the court is satisfied there are special circumstances.
- (5) A change in the use of the land affected by the access right is not in itself special circumstances for subsection (4)(b).

- (3) The Land Court may decide the amount of any compensation payable by a party to the access right to the other party and make an order for payment.
- (4) In deciding the amount of any compensation, the Land Court must have regard to the following matters—
- (a) if the variation or cancellation effectively severs land in which the landholder has an interest from other land in which the landholder has an interest—any change in the values of those interests;
 - (b) any change in the value of any interest in any land held by the landholder that otherwise happens because of the variation or cancellation;
 - (c) any loss, injury or damage suffered by a party, or expense reasonably incurred by a party, as a direct, natural and reasonable consequence of the variation or cancellation;
 - (d) any compensation previously paid in relation to the access right;
 - (e) anything else relevant to deciding what is just and reasonable compensation for the variation or cancellation.
