

Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982

Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Regulation 1993

Current as at 4 February 2011

© State of Queensland 2022

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.

Queensland

Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Regulation 1993

Contents

		Page
1	Short title	3
2	Corresponding courts	3
3	Interstate laws	3
4	Prescribed officer	4

Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Regulation 1993

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Regulation 1993.

2 Corresponding courts

For the Act, section 2, definition corresponding court of Queensland—

- (a) the Supreme Court is a corresponding court to the Supreme Court of a participating State; and
- (b) the District Court is a corresponding court to—
 - (i) for New South Wales, South Australia and Western Australia—a District Court; or
 - (ii) for Victoria—a County Court; and
- (c) a Magistrates Court is a corresponding court to—
 - (i) for New South Wales—a Local Court; or
 - (ii) for the Northern Territory—a court of summary jurisdiction; or
 - (iii) for another participating State—a Magistrates Court.

3 Interstate laws

Each of the following is an interstate law for the Act, section 2, definition interstate law—

- (a) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982 (NSW);
- (b) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982 (SA);
- (c) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982 (Tas);
- (d) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1983 (Vic);
- (e) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1983 (WA);

- (f) the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1983 (NT);
- (g) the Crimes (Sentence Administration) Act 2005 (ACT).

4 Prescribed officer

For the purposes of section 12(2) of the Act, the chief executive of the department is a prescribed officer.