Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Education and Care Services Act 2013

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 January 2014]

An Act to regulate the provision of education and care by particular services

Part 1 Preliminary

Note—

To ensure the greatest possible harmonisation for education and care services for children, this Act follows the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland) for a number of its provisions. Accordingly, this Act is not entirely consistent with Queensland's current drafting style.

Division 1 Introduction

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Education and Care Services Act 2013.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Act binds all persons

- (1) This Act binds all persons, including the State and, to the extent the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.

[s 4]

- (2) Nothing in this Act makes the State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

Division 2 Object of Act

4 Object

- (1) The object of this Act is to ensure the safety, health and wellbeing of children attending a Queensland education and care service.
- (2) The ways in which the object is to be achieved include—
- (a) establishing a provider approval and service approval system for Queensland education and care services; and
 - (b) regulating the way stand-alone services are conducted; and
 - (c) setting standards for persons who provide education and care for children.

Division 3 Guiding principles of Act

5 Guiding principles

- (1) Queensland approved education and care services are to be conducted under the following principles—
- (a) the best interests of a child are the paramount concern;
 - (b) education and care should be provided to a child in a way that—
 - (i) protects the child from harm; and
 - (ii) respects the child's dignity and privacy; and
 - (iii) promotes the child's health and wellbeing; and
 - (iv) provides positive experiences for the child;

- (c) education and care should be provided to a child in a way that stimulates and develops the child's creative, emotional, intellectual, lingual, physical, recreational, and social potential;
 - (d) parents have the primary responsibility for the upbringing, protection and development of children, and should be supported in that role;
 - (e) education and care should be planned and provided in a way that—
 - (i) involves parents and other members of the community; and
 - (ii) reflects the multicultural and multilingual nature of the community.
- (2) Stand-alone services are to be operated in a way that protects a child from harm and promotes the child's health and wellbeing.

Division 4 Interpretation

6 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.

[s 11]

Part 2 Queensland provider approvals

Division 1 General

11 Effect of approval

A Queensland provider approval authorises the Queensland approved provider to operate a QEC service for which the approved provider holds a Queensland service approval.

Division 2 Application for Queensland provider approval

12 Person may apply for Queensland provider approval

- (1) A person may apply to the chief executive for a Queensland provider approval.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form and accompanied by any fee prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) The application may be made by more than one person.
- (4) If an application is made by more than one person—
 - (a) the information required must be provided for each person; and
 - (b) one address only must be provided for the persons; and
 - (c) the requirements of this division must be complied with by each person.
- (5) The applicant also must provide any other relevant information reasonably required by the chief executive under section 16.

13 Chief executive must decide application

- (1) The chief executive must decide the application by granting, or refusing to grant, the approval.

Note—

See section 211 (Reviewable decisions).

- (2) The chief executive may grant the approval on conditions the chief executive considers appropriate.
- (3) If the chief executive does not decide the application within the required period after receiving the application and fee, the application is taken to have been refused.
- (4) In this section—

required period, for deciding an application, means—

- (a) the period of 60 days—
 - (i) starting the day after the application and fee are given to the chief executive; but
 - (ii) if the chief executive asks for information under section 16—not including the period starting the day after the chief executive asks for the information until the day the applicant gives the information to the chief executive; or
- (b) any period, ending up to 30 days after the end of the period under paragraph (a), agreed to between the chief executive and the applicant.

14 Applicant must be suitable

The chief executive must not grant the provider approval unless the chief executive is satisfied—

- (a) the applicant is a suitable person to operate a QEC service; and
- (b) for an applicant that is a corporation—each person who will be a person with management or control of a QEC service operated by the applicant is a suitable person to be involved in the operation of a QEC service.

[s 15]

Note—

See also the Commissioner's Act, schedule 1, section 18.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies subject to section 238.

- (2) The authorised officer must prepare a written application that states the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (3) The written application must be sworn.
- (4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the authorised officer gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the written application to be given by statutory declaration.

150 Issue of warrant

- (1) The magistrate may issue the warrant for the place only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is at the place, or will be at the place within the next 7 days, a particular thing or activity that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act.
- (2) The warrant must state—
 - (a) the place to which the warrant applies; and
 - (b) that a stated authorised officer or any authorised officer may with necessary and reasonable help and force—
 - (i) enter the place and any other place necessary for entry to the place; and
 - (ii) exercise the authorised officer's powers; and
 - (c) particulars of the offence that the magistrate considers appropriate; and

- (f) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and
- (g) the magistrate's name; and
- (h) the day and time of the warrant's issue; and

- (2) The application—

[s 152]

- (b) the way the application was made under section 151 was appropriate.
- (2) After the magistrate issues the original warrant—
- (a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the warrant to the authorised officer, including, for example, by sending a copy by fax or email, the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the warrant to the authorised officer; or
 - (b) otherwise—
 - (i) the magistrate must tell the authorised officer the information mentioned in section 150(2); and
 - (ii) the authorised officer must complete a form of warrant, including by writing on it the information mentioned in section 150(2) provided by the magistrate.
- (3) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection (2)(a), or the form of warrant completed under subsection (2)(b) (in either case the duplicate warrant), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant.
- (4) The authorised officer must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—
- (a) the written application complying with section 149(2) and (3); and
 - (b) if the authorised officer completed a form of warrant under subsection (2)(b)—the completed form of warrant.
- (5) The magistrate must keep the original warrant and, on receiving the documents under subsection (4)—
- (a) attach the documents to the original warrant; and
 - (b) give the original warrant and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant Magistrates Court.
- (6) Despite subsection (3), if—

- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and
 - (b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence;
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power.
- (7) This section does not limit section 149.

relevant Magistrates Court, in relation to a magistrate, means the Magistrates Court that the magistrate constitutes under the Magistrates Act 1991.

 - (c) tell the person the authorised officer is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the authorised officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) However, the authorised officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that entry to the place is required to ensure the execution of the warrant is not frustrated.
- (4) In this section—
warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 152(3).

155 Entering a home and preserving privacy

- (1) Before entering a home under this part, other than under a warrant, an authorised officer must do or make a reasonable attempt to comply with section 141.

- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if a document or information the subject of the help requirement is required to be held or kept by the defendant under this Act.

Division 4 Seizure by authorised officers and forfeiture

Subdivision 1 Power to seize

160 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant

An authorised officer who enters a place the authorised officer may enter under this part without the consent of an occupier of the place and without a warrant may seize a thing at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act.

161 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered only with consent or warrant

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an authorised officer is authorised to enter a place only with the consent of an occupier of the place or a warrant; and
 - (b) the authorised officer enters the place after obtaining the consent or under a warrant.
- (2) If the authorised officer enters the place with the occupier's consent, the authorised officer may seize a thing at the place only if—

- (3) If the authorised officer enters the place under a warrant, the authorised officer may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.

- (4) The authorised officer may also seize anything else at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes—
 - (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—
 - (i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or
 - (ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.
- (5) The authorised officer may also seize a thing at the place if the authorised officer reasonably believes it has just been used in committing an offence against this Act.

162 Seizure of property subject to security

- (1) An authorised officer may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.
- (2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person's claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the authorised officer or a person acting for the authorised officer.

Subdivision 2 Powers to support seizure

163 Requirement of person in control of thing to be seized

- (1) To enable a thing to be seized, an authorised officer may require the person in control of it—
 - (a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and
 - (b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a stated reasonable period.
- (2) The requirement—
 - (a) must be made by notice; or

- (b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give a notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice as soon as practicable.

164 Offence to contravene seizure requirement

A person of whom a requirement is made under section 163 must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

165 Power to secure seized thing

 - (a) leave it at the place where it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or
 - (b) move it from the place of seizure.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the authorised officer may, for example—
 - (a) seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of seizure, and mark the thing or place to show access to the thing or place is restricted; or
 - (b) for equipment—make it inoperable; or
Example—
 - make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a component without which the equipment can not be used
 - (c) require a person the authorised officer reasonably believes is in control of the place or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or anything else an authorised officer could do under subsection (1)(a).

[s 166]

166 Offence to contravene other seizure requirement

A person must comply with a requirement made of the person under section 165(2)(c) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

167 Offence to interfere

- (a) an authorised officer's approval; or
- (b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

Subdivision 3 Safeguards for seized things

168 Receipt and information notice for seized thing

(1) This section applies if an authorised officer seizes anything under this division unless—

- (a) the authorised officer reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or

- (b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the authorised officer to comply with this section.
 - (2) The authorised officer must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—
 - (a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and
 - (b) an information notice about the decision to seize it.
 - (3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.
 - (4) The receipt and information notice may—
 - (a) be given in the same document; and
 - (b) relate to more than one seized thing.
 - (5) The authorised officer may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the authorised officer reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the authorised officer under this Act.
 - (6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the authorised officer continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was seized to keep it under observation.

169 Access to seized thing

- (1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the authorised officer who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—
 - (a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and
 - (b) if it is a document—to copy it.

[s 170]

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.
- (3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.

170 Return of seized thing

- (1) This section applies if a seized thing has some intrinsic value and is not forfeited or transferred under subdivision 4 or 5.
- (2) The authorised officer must return the seized thing to an owner—
 - (a) generally—at the end of 6 months after the seizure; or
 - (b) if a proceeding for an offence involving the thing is started within the 6 months—at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if the thing was seized as evidence, the authorised officer must return the thing seized to an owner as soon as practicable after the authorised officer is satisfied—
 - (a) its continued retention as evidence is no longer necessary; and
 - (b) its continued retention is not necessary to prevent it being used to continue, or repeat, an offence against this Act; and
 - (c) it is lawful for the owner to possess it.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing.

Subdivision 4 Forfeiture

171 Forfeiture by chief executive decision

- (1) The chief executive may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an authorised officer—
 - (a) after making reasonable enquiries, can not find an owner; or

- (b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner.
 - (2) However, the authorised officer is not required to—
 - (a) make enquiries if it would be unreasonable to make enquiries to find an owner; or
 - (b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner.

Example for paragraph (b)—

the owner of the thing has migrated to another country

- (3) Regard must be had to the thing's condition, nature and value in deciding—
 - (a) whether it is reasonable to make enquiries or efforts; and
 - (b) if enquiries or efforts are made—what enquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

172 Information notice about forfeiture decision

- (1) If the chief executive decides under section 171(1) to forfeit a thing, the chief executive must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice about the decision.
- (2) The information notice may be given by leaving it at the place where the thing was seized, in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
- (3) The information notice must state that the former owner may apply for a stay of the decision if he or she appeals against the decision.
- (4) However, subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if the place where the thing was seized is—
 - (a) a public place; or
 - (b) a place where the notice is unlikely to be read by the former owner.

[s 173]

Subdivision 5 Dealing with property forfeited or transferred to State

174 How property may be dealt with

- (1) This section applies if, under section 173, a thing becomes the property of the State.
- (2) The chief executive may deal with the thing as the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.
- (3) The chief executive must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal against the forfeiture under this part.
- (4) If the chief executive sells the thing, the chief executive may, after deducting the costs of the sale, return the proceeds of the sale to the former owner of the thing.

Division 5 Other information-obtaining powers

 - (2) The authorised officer may require the person to state the person's name and residential address.
 - (3) The authorised officer may also require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or address if, in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the person to—

- (4) The authorised officer may require the person to state the person's name and residential address if—
- (a) the person refuses, or is unable, to comply with a requirement under subsection (2) or (3); or

- (1) An authorised officer may require a person to make available for inspection by an authorised officer, or to produce to the

- (3) It is not a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to comply with a document production requirement for the following documents on the basis that complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty—
 - (a) a document issued to the person under this Act;
 - (b) a document required to be kept by the person under this Act.

Note—

See, however, section 189.

- (4) The authorised officer must inform the person, in a way that is reasonable in the circumstances—

- (b) that, under section 189, there is a limited immunity against the future use of the information or document given in compliance with the requirement.
 - (5) If the person fails to comply with the document production requirement when the authorised officer has failed to comply with subsection (4), the person can not be convicted of the offence against subsection (1).

Note—

[s 181]

- (4) If the person fails to comply with the document certification requirement when the authorised officer has failed to comply with subsection (3), the person can not be convicted of the offence against subsection (1).
