Youth Justice Act 1992

An Act to provide comprehensively for the laws concerning children who commit, or who are alleged to have committed, offences and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Youth Justice Act 1992.

2 Objectives of Act

The principal objectives of this Act are—

- (a) to establish the basis for the administration of juvenile justice; and
- (b) to establish a code for dealing with children who have, or are alleged to have, committed offences; and
- (c) to provide for the jurisdiction and proceedings of courts dealing with children; and
- (d) to ensure that courts that deal with children who have committed offences deal with them according to principles established under this Act; and
- (e) to recognise the importance of families of children and communities, in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, in the provision of services designed to—
  - (i) rehabilitate children who commit offences; and
  - (ii) reintegrate children who commit offences into the community.

3 Youth justice principles

- (1) Schedule 1 sets out a charter of youth justice principles.
- (2) The principles underlie the operation of this Act.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 4 defines particular words used in this Act.

5 Note in text

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

6 Child's age regulation

- (1) The Governor in Council may, by regulation, fix a day after which a person will be a child for the purposes of this Act if the person has not turned 18 years.
- (2) A person of 17 years who commits an offence before the commencement of the regulation will not be taken, after the commencement, to have committed the offence as a child in a subsequent proceeding for the offence.
- (3) A court that sentences a person to whom subsection (2) applies for the offence mentioned in the subsection must have regard to the sentence that might have been imposed if the person were sentenced as a child.
- (4) The court can not order the person—
  - (a) to serve a term of imprisonment longer than the period of detention that the court could have imposed on the person if sentenced as a child; or
  - (b) to pay any amount by way of fine, restitution or compensation greater than that which the court could have ordered the person to pay if sentenced as a child.

- (5) Subsection (3) applies even though an adult would otherwise be liable to a heavier penalty which by operation of law could not be reduced.
  - (6) To avoid any doubt, it is declared subsections (2) to (5) only apply to a person mentioned in subsection (1) who is sentenced after the commencement of the regulation mentioned in the subsection.

7 Meaning of police officer *starting a proceeding

In this Act, mention of a police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence includes—

- (a) obtaining a warrant for the arrest of a child on a charge for an offence; and
- (b) arresting a child for an offence without a warrant.

8 Meaning of *serious offence

(1) Subject to subsection (2), in this Act serious offence means—

- (a) a life offence; or
- (b) an offence of a type that, if committed by an adult, would make the adult liable to imprisonment for 14 years or more.

(2) An offence is not a serious offence if—

- (a) it is a relevant offence under the Criminal Code, section 552BA; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552BA (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily)

- (b) it is an offence that is the subject of a charge to which the Criminal Code, section 552A or 552B applies; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552A (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily on prosecution election) or 552B (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily unless defendant elects for jury trial)

- (c) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily; or

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13 (Certain offences may be dealt with summarily)

- (d) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily.

Note—

Proceedings for a charge for an offence may not be taken summarily under section 14 if the prosecution allegations include an allegation as to a commercial purpose.

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14 (Other offences that may be dealt with summarily if no commercial purpose alleged)

- (2A) If it is necessary for the purposes of subsection (2) to have reference to the table of excluded offences included in the Criminal Code, section 552BB, a reference in that table to the circumstance that the offender does not plead guilty to an offence is taken to be a reference to a child not admitting to committing the offence.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, the type of an offence includes the circumstances in which it is committed.

9 Meaning of court that made order

- (1) In this Act, mention of the court that made a particular order on sentence includes, if the order was made by—
- (a) the Supreme Court—any sittings of the Supreme Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or
- (b) the District Court—any sittings of the District Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or

- (c) a Childrens Court judge—any sittings of a Childrens Court judge at any place in Queensland; or
  - (d) a Magistrates Court—any Magistrates Court sitting at any place in Queensland; or
  - (e) a Childrens Court magistrate—any Childrens Court magistrate sitting at any place in Queensland.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the court is not constituted by the same judicial officer who made the order originally.

Part 2                      Special provisions about    policing and children

Division 1                Police officer must consider    appropriate way to proceed

10            Division does not apply to 2 general ways of proceeding

This division has no effect on—

- (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
- (b) a proceeding on an indictment.

11            Police officer to consider alternatives to proceeding    against child

- (1) Unless otherwise provided under this division, a police officer, before starting a proceeding against a child for an offence other than a serious offence, must first consider whether in all the circumstances it would be more appropriate to do 1 of the following—
- (a) to take no action;
  - (b) to administer a caution to the child;

- (c) to refer the offence to a conference;
- (d) if the offence is a minor drugs offence within the meaning of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 and the child may be offered an opportunity to attend a drug diversion assessment program under section 379 of that Act—to offer the child that opportunity in accordance with that section;
- (e) if the offence is a graffiti offence and the child may be offered an opportunity to attend a graffiti removal program under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 379A—to offer the child that opportunity in accordance with that section.

Note—

Because of section 134, a police officer must consider offering the same opportunities for diversion from the court system as apply to a child to a person who committed an offence as a child but is now an adult.

- (2) The circumstances to which the police officer must have regard include—
  - (a) the circumstances of the alleged offence; and
  - (b) the child’s criminal history, any previous cautions administered to the child for an offence and, if the child has been in any other way dealt with for an offence under any Act, the other dealings.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must delay starting the proceeding in order to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), then the police officer must do so.
- (5) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would not be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), the police officer may start a proceeding against the child for the offence.

- (6) The police officer may take the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) or (e) even though—
- (a) action of that kind has been taken in relation to the child on a previous occasion; or
  - (b) a proceeding against the child for another offence has already been started or has ended.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not prevent a police officer from taking the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) for a serious offence.

12 Preferred way for police officer to start proceedings

A police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence, must start the proceeding by way of complaint and summons or notice to appear, unless otherwise provided under this Act.

13 Police officer's power of arrest preserved in particular general circumstances

- (1) A police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), without a warrant, to arrest a child for an offence without regard to sections 11 and 12 only if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds—
- (a) the arrest is necessary—
    - (i) to prevent a continuation or a repetition of the offence or the commission of another offence; or
    - (ii) to obtain or preserve, or prevent concealment, loss or destruction of, evidence relating to the offence; or
    - (iii) to prevent the fabrication of evidence; or
    - (iv) to ensure the child's appearance before a court; or
  - (b) the child is an adult; or

- (c) the child is contravening section 278 or is unlawfully at large.
- (2) In deciding for subsection (1)(b) whether the police officer had reasonable grounds, a court may have regard to the child's apparent age and the circumstances of the arrest.
- (3) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(2), without a warrant, to arrest a child without regard to sections 11 and 12.
- (4) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under a warrant issued under the Bail Act 1980 without regard to sections 11 and 12.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section does not affect a police officer's power under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), to arrest a child without warrant for a serious offence.

Division 2                      Cautioning

14            Purpose of caution

The purpose of this division is to set up a way of diverting a child who commits an offence from the courts' criminal justice system by allowing a police officer to administer a caution to the child instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence.

15            Police officer may administer a caution

- (1) A police officer instead of bringing a child before a court for an offence may administer a caution to the child.
- (2) The child is then not liable to be prosecuted for the offence.
- (3) The caution is not part of the child's criminal history.

16 Conditions for administration of police caution

- (1) A police officer may administer a caution to a child for an offence only if the child—
  - (a) admits committing the offence to the police officer; and
  - (b) consents to being cautioned.
- (2) A police officer who administers a caution, or who requests the administration of a caution under section 17, must, if practicable, arrange to be present at the administration of the caution—
  - (a) an adult chosen by the child; or
  - (b) a parent of the child or a person chosen by a parent of the child.
- (3) The commissioner of the police service may authorise a police officer who the commissioner considers has sufficient training or experience (authorised officer) to administer cautions.
- (4) If a police officer administering a caution is not an authorised officer, the caution must be administered in the presence of an authorised officer.

17 Caution administered by respected person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community

- (1) If a caution is to be administered to a child who is a member of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, an authorised officer mentioned in section 16—
  - (a) must consider whether there is a respected person of the community who is available and willing to administer the caution; and
  - (b) if a respected person of the community is available and willing to administer the caution—must request the person to administer the caution.
- (2) In a proceeding, evidence that a person purported to administer a caution under subsection (1) as a respected person mentioned in the subsection is evidence that the person was a respected person.

18 Caution procedure must involve explanation

- (1) A police officer who administers, or requests the administration of, a caution to a child must take steps to ensure that the child and the person present under section 16(2) understand the purpose, nature and effect of the caution.
- (2) The steps that can be taken include, for example—
  - (a) personally explaining these matters to the child; and
  - (b) having some person with training or experience in the cautioning of children give the explanation; and
  - (c) having an interpreter or other person able to communicate effectively with the child give the explanation; and
  - (d) supplying an explanatory note in English or another language.

19 Caution procedure may involve apology to victim

- (1) This section applies only after a police officer decides that a caution should be administered to a child for an offence.
- (2) The procedure of administering a caution to a child for an offence may involve the child apologising to a victim of the offence if—
  - (a) the police officer administering, or requesting the administration of, the caution considers that an apology is an appropriate course of action in the particular circumstances of the case; and
  - (b) the child is willing to apologise; and
  - (c) the victim is willing to participate in the procedure.

20 Child must be given a notice of caution

- (1) If a caution is administered to a child for an offence, the police officer who—

- (a) administered the caution; or
- (b) under section 17, requested the administration of the caution;

must give the child a notice in a form approved by the commissioner of the police service.

- (2) The notice must state—
  - (a) that a caution was administered to the child; and
  - (b) the time and date the caution was administered; and
  - (c) the child's name; and
  - (d) the substance of the offence; and
  - (e) the police officer's name and rank; and
  - (f) the place where the caution was issued; and
  - (g) the names of all persons present when the caution was issued; and
  - (h) the nature and effect of a caution.
- (3) In a proceeding, a document purporting to be a notice or copy of a notice is evidence that the child was administered a caution for the offence in the circumstances stated in the notice.
- (4) A document mentioned in subsection (3) is not evidence that the child committed the offence.

21 Childrens Court may dismiss charge if caution should have been administered or no action taken

- (1) If a child pleads guilty before a Childrens Court to a charge made against the child by a police officer, the court may dismiss the charge instead of accepting the plea of guilty if—
  - (a) application is made for the dismissal by or on behalf of the child; and
  - (b) the court is satisfied that the child should have been cautioned instead of being charged or no action should have been taken against the child.

- (2) In deciding the application, the Childrens Court may have regard to—
  - (a) any other cautions administered to the child for any offence; and
  - (b) whether any previous conference agreements have been made by the child.
- (3) If the court dismisses a charge under subsection (1) because the child should have been cautioned, the court may—
  - (a) administer a caution to the child; or
  - (b) direct that a caution be administered to the child as directed by the court.
- (4) The caution is not part of the child’s criminal history.

Division 3                      Reference by police officer for a conference

22            When a police officer may refer an offence for a conference

- (1) A police officer may refer an offence, for a conference, to the chief executive, instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence, if—
  - (a) the child admits committing the offence to the police officer; and
  - (b) having regard to the matters in section 30(5), the police officer considers—
    - (i) a caution is inappropriate; and
    - (ii) a proceeding for the offence would be appropriate if a reference were not made; and
    - (iii) the referral is a more appropriate way of dealing with the offence than starting a proceeding; and
    - (iv) a convenor will be available for the conference.

- (2) The police officer may require the child to attend the conference as directed by the police officer.
  - (3) In any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (4) or (5), the chief executive may refer the offence back to the police officer by written notice given to the police officer.
  - (4) One circumstance is that a convenor will not be available for the conference.
  - (5) Other circumstances are as follows—
    - (a) the convenor is unable to contact the child after reasonable inquiries;
    - (b) the convenor has made reasonable requirements of the child to attend a preconference interview and the child has failed to attend as required;
    - (c) the convenor considers it necessary for a victim to participate and the victim does not wish to participate or the convenor can not locate the victim after reasonable inquiries;
    - (d) during the preparation for the conference meeting, the child denies committing the offence to the convenor;
    - (e) during the preparation for the conference meeting, the convenor comes to the conclusion that an appropriate conference agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the convenor considers appropriate;
    - (f) the convenor ends the conference under section 35(5)(b);
    - (g) the conference ends without an agreement being made.
  - (6) A notice given by the chief executive under subsection (3) must state the reasons for referring the offence back to the police officer.
  - (7) The reasons stated in the notice may be considered by a court in any later proceeding for the sentencing of the child for the relevant offence.
  - (8) The police officer must take reasonable steps to inform the child that the police officer has received the notice.

23 If a conference agreement is made on a referral by a police officer

If a conference agreement is made on the referral by the police officer, the child is then not liable to be prosecuted for the offence unless otherwise expressly provided under this Act.

24 Powers of police officer if referral is unsuccessful or if child contravenes conference agreement

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) the chief executive refers the offence back to a police officer under section 22(3); or
  - (b) the child contravenes a conference agreement made at the conference.

  - (a) the child; and
  - (b) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
  - (c) the chief executive.
- (4) The court may decide the application in the absence of a person mentioned in subsection (3), if the court is satisfied that subsection (3) has been complied with.
- (5) On the application—
  - (a) the applicant and anyone mentioned in subsection (3) is entitled to be heard and to provide evidence; and
  - (b) the court may act on statements of information and belief.

- (6) The court may order the identifying particulars to be taken if it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, of all the following facts—
- (a) someone has committed the charged offence;
  - (b) there is evidence of identifying particulars of the offender that are of the same type as the identifying particulars the applicant seeks to have taken from the child;
  - (c) the child is reasonably suspected of being the offender;

26 Support person must be present when identifying particulars are taken

- (1) In a proceeding for an offence, a court must not admit into evidence against a defendant identifying particulars taken from the defendant under section 25 unless the court is satisfied a support person chosen by the child was present when the identifying particulars were taken.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
  - (a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person when the particulars were taken; and
  - (b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the particulars should be admitted into evidence.
- (3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a person whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—
  - (a) is an accomplice of the child; or
  - (b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact; for the offence or another offence under investigation.
- (4) Also, this section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a parent of the child whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a person against whom the offence under investigation is alleged to have been committed.
- (5) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

27 Destruction of identifying particulars taken under court order

- (1) Identifying particulars taken from a child under an order under section 25 must be destroyed if the investigation for which the order was made does not result in a sentence order being made.

- (2) For subsection (1), the destruction must happen within 7 days of whichever of the following happens last—
- (a) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding had started when the order was made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
  - (b) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is started within 28 days after the order is made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
  - (c) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is not started within 28 days of the order—the end of the period of 28 days.

Note—

See the extended meaning of charged offence in section 25.

- (3) An applicant who obtains an order to have identifying particulars taken from a child under section 25 must not fail to ensure the particulars are destroyed under this section, unless the applicant has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.
- (4) A failure to comply with subsection (3) may be dealt with as a breach of discipline under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

28 Division does not limit other provisions

This division does not limit provisions of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 authorising the taking of someone's identifying particulars to the extent to which those provisions apply to a child.

Division 5                      Statements

29      Support person must be present for statement to be admissible

(1) In a proceeding for an indictable offence, a court must not admit into evidence against the defendant a statement made or given to a police officer by the defendant when a child, unless the court is satisfied a support person was present with the child at the time and place the statement was made or given.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was a proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person at the time the statement was made or given; and

Examples—

- 1 There was a reasonable suspicion that allowing a support person to be present would result in an accomplice or accessory of the relevant person taking steps to avoid apprehension.
- 2 A support person was excluded under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.

(b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the statement should be admitted into evidence.

(3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when a child makes or gives the statement a person the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—

- (a) is an accomplice of the child; or
- (b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact;
- in relation to the offence or another offence under investigation.

(4) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

Part 3                      Youth justice conferences generally

30      Object of part and explanation

- (1) The object of this part is to establish a youth justice conference process for a child who admits committing an offence to a police officer.
- (2) The process allows the child, a victim of the offence and other concerned persons to consider or deal with the offence in a way benefiting all concerned.
- (3) The process includes the following basic steps—
  - (a) a police officer refers the offence to a youth justice conference;
  - (b) a convenor convenes the conference between the child and other concerned persons;
  - (c) at the conference the offence is discussed and an agreement made on what must be done because of the offence.
- (4) The benefits intended are—
  - (a) the child may benefit by—
    - (i) meeting any victim and taking responsibility for the results of the offence in an appropriate way; and
    - (ii) having the opportunity to make restitution and pay compensation for the offence; and
    - (iii) taking responsibility for the way in which the conference deals with the offence; and
    - (iv) having less involvement with the courts' criminal justice system; and
  - (b) the child's parents may benefit by—
    - (i) being involved in decision making about the child's behaviour; and

- (ii) being encouraged to fulfil their responsibility for the support and supervision of the child; and
    - (iii) being involved in a process that encourages their participation and provides support in family relationships; and
  - (c) the victim may benefit by the opportunity—
    - (i) to meet and understand the child and understand why the offence was committed; and
    - (ii) to express the victim's concerns; and
    - (iii) to have questions answered; and
    - (iv) to influence the way in which the conference deals with the offence; and
    - (v) to encourage the child's sense of responsibility; and
  - (d) the community may benefit by—
    - (i) fewer offences being committed because of effective early intervention by the community; and
    - (ii) less public cost from unnecessary involvement of the courts' criminal justice system; and
    - (iii) increasing resolution of disputes within the community without government intervention or legal proceedings.
- (5) In deciding whether it is appropriate to refer an offence to a conference, a police officer must have regard to—
- (a) the offence's nature; and
  - (b) the harm suffered by anyone because of the offence; and
  - (c) whether the interests of the community and the child would be served by having the offence considered or dealt with at a conference.
- (6) This part provides for youth justice conferences generally.

- (7) Part 2, division 3 has provisions for a youth justice conference when an offence is referred by a police officer instead of bringing a child before a court for the offence.

31 Approval of convenor

- (1) The chief executive may approve persons as conference convenors.
- (2) Before approving a person as a convenor, the chief executive must be satisfied the person has appropriate experience or training to be a convenor.
- (3) A convenor has the following functions—
- (a) as provided under this Act, to convene particular conferences;
  - (b) other functions conferred on the convenor under an Act.
- (4) The convenor of a particular conference must be independent of the circumstances of the offence.
- (5) A convenor is not disqualified from convening a conference about a particular offence only because, after a previous conference convened by the convenor about the offence has ended without an agreement—
- (a) the chief executive has arranged for the convenor to convene another conference about the offence; or
  - (b) the offence has been referred to the chief executive for another conference under section 24(3)(c).
- (6) A convenor has all powers—
- (a) necessary to perform the functions of a convenor; or
  - (b) conferred on the convenor under an Act.
- (7) A convenor may perform a function or exercise a power under arrangements established by the chief executive for the efficient management of the conference process.

32 Protection against liability for chief executive or convenor

The chief executive or a convenor do not incur civil liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence by the chief executive or convenor performing functions or exercising powers as the chief executive or convenor.

33 Who may refer an offence to the chief executive

An offence may be referred for a conference to the chief executive by a police officer under part 2, division 3 (the referring police officer).

34 Who may participate in a conference

- (1) The following persons (participants) are entitled to participate in a conference—
- (a) the convenor;
  - (b) the child;
  - (c) at the child's request, 1 or more of the following—
    - (i) a lawyer acting for the child;
    - (ii) an adult member of the child's family;
    - (iii) another adult nominated by the child;
  - (d) the child's parent;
  - (e) the victim;
  - (f) at the victim's request, 1 or more of the following—

    - (ii) a member of the victim's family;
    - (iii) a support person;
  - (g) a representative of the commissioner of the police service;
  - (h) another person decided by the convenor.

Examples of paragraph (h)—

- 1 a representative of the chief executive
  - 2 a member of the child's family
  - 3 for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child who is from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, a respected person of the community or a representative of a community justice group that may be in the community
- (2) To ensure that a victim of the offence is informed of the entitlement under subsection (1)(e), the referring police officer must give details of victims of the offence to the chief executive.
- (3) For subsection (1)(h), if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, the convenor must consider inviting to attend the conference either or both of the following—
- (a) a respected person of the community;
  - (b) if there is a community justice group in the community—a representative of the community justice group.

35 Convening of a conference

- (1) The convenor of a conference is responsible for convening the conference.
- (2) If the child is not legally represented, the convenor must ensure the child—
  - (a) is informed of the right to obtain legal advice; and
  - (b) has reasonable information about how to obtain legal advice and a reasonable opportunity to do so.
- (3) All decisions made by the convenor necessary for convening the conference must be respected by the participants.
- (4) The conference must be directed towards making an agreement (the conference agreement) about the offence.
- (5) A conference ends when—

- (a) a conference agreement is made; or
- (b) the convenor ends the conference because—
  - (i) the child fails to attend the conference as directed by the referring police officer; or
  - (ii) the child denies committing the offence at the conference; or
  - (iii) the convenor is satisfied—
    - (A) the offence is unsuitable for a conference; or
    - (B) an agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the convenor considers appropriate.
- (6) If a conference agreement is made or the conference is ended by a convenor under subsection (5)(b), the chief executive must give the referring police officer a report about the outcome of the conference within 14 days after the conference ends.
- (7) The report must be in the approved form.

36 Chief executive may persist in efforts to achieve a conference agreement

If the conference is ended under section 35(5)(b) but the chief executive considers it is worthwhile persisting with efforts to make a conference agreement—

- (a) section 35(6) does not apply; and
- (b) the chief executive must arrange for a convenor to convene another conference.

37 Form and content of conference agreement

- (1) A conference agreement about an offence must be in the approved form.
- (2) The agreement must be agreed to and signed by—
  - (a) the convenor; and

- (b) the child; and
  - (c) a representative of the commissioner of the police service; and
  - (d) if a victim of the offence participates in the conference—the victim.
- (3) The agreement must contain provisions under which—
- (a) the child admits committing the offence; and
  - (b) the child’s compliance with the agreement is monitored.
- (4) Without limiting what an agreement may contain, the agreement may contain a provision about the following—
- (a) the making of restitution or payment of compensation;
  - (b) voluntary work to be performed by the child;
  - (c) an apology made to a victim;
  - (d) the child’s future conduct while a child;
  - (e) a program mentioned in subsection (6);
  - (f) another matter the convenor considers appropriate.
- (5) A condition of the agreement may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An agreement may require the child to perform voluntary work for a charity that is located outside the State.

- (6) An agreement signed by the chief executive may provide for the child to be subject to a program similar to one a child is subject to under a community service order or a probation order.
- (7) If the offence committed by the child is a graffiti offence, an agreement signed by the chief executive must provide for the child to be subject to a program similar to one a child is subject to under a graffiti removal order.
- (8) However, subsection (7) does not apply if a victim of the offence participating in the conference requests that the agreement deal with the offence in another way mentioned in subsection (4).

- (9) The agreement may not provide for the child to be treated more severely for the offence than if the child were sentenced by a court or in a way contravening the sentencing principles in section 150.
- (10) A copy of the agreement must be given immediately to each person who signs the agreement under subsection (2).
- (11) The agreement is not part of the child's criminal history.
- (12) In a proceeding, a document purporting to be an agreement or copy of an agreement is evidence that the offence was dealt with by a conference.
- (13) A document mentioned in subsection (12) is not evidence that the child committed the offence.

38 Intervention of chief executive to correct conference agreement

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive considers that a conference agreement is or becomes inappropriate.

Example—

An agreement provides for a child to repair a school fence the child damaged. It becomes inappropriate because the person controlling the fence won't let the child repair it.

- (2) The chief executive may amend the agreement.
- (3) In deciding how to amend the agreement, the chief executive must—
  - (a) take reasonable steps to find out, and give effect to, the views of those who participated in the conference; and
  - (b) act in the interests of justice.
- (4) In this section—

inappropriate includes unworkable.

39 If the chief executive amends the conference agreement

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive amends a conference agreement under section 38(2).
- (2) The agreement as amended is taken to be the conference agreement made by the child at the conference.

40 Admissibility of a conference agreement and related evidence

- (1) This section applies for any conference.
- (2) Evidence of anything said or done in convening a conference or in the performance by the convenor of the convenor's functions is inadmissible in any proceeding.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared subsection (2) applies to a conference agreement made at the conference.
- (4) However, evidence that would otherwise be excluded from admission in a proceeding because of subsection (2) or (3) is admissible in a proceeding if—
  - (a) all the parties to the conference agree to the admission of the evidence; or
  - (b) the evidence is admissible under this or another Act; or
  - (c) the evidence is relevant to a proceeding about an offence or a disciplinary matter happening during the convening of the conference or in the performance of the chief executive or convenor of their functions for the conference.
- (5) Also, if a court is considering how to sentence a child for an offence, subsection (2) or (3) does not prevent the court from considering any conference agreement previously entered by the child for the offence and the child's performance of the child's obligations under the conference agreement.

41 If chief executive signs agreement for program

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive signs a conference agreement providing for a program similar to one a child is subject to under a community service order, a probation order or a graffiti removal order.
- (2) The chief executive—
  - (a) for a program similar to one a child is subject to under a graffiti removal order—must arrange the program and monitor the child’s participation; and
  - (b) for a program similar to one a child is subject to under a community service order or a probation order—may arrange the program and monitor the child’s participation.
- (3) If the child fails to comply with the agreement’s requirements about the program, the chief executive may—
  - (a) take no action; or
  - (b) notify the referring police officer.

Part 4 Proceedings generally started by complaint and summons

42 Preferred way of starting proceedings

- (1) A proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence or an offence under section 59A, must be started by way of complaint and summons.
- (2) This section does not apply to a police officer.

Note—

The requirement for a police officer to start a proceeding by complaint and summons or notice to appear is dealt with by section 12.

- (3) This section does not affect—

- (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
- (b) the arrest of a child for escaping from lawful custody or who is unlawfully at large; or
- (c) a proceeding against a child on an indictment.

43 Service of complaint and summons if offender a child

- (1) A complaint and summons requiring a child to appear before a court to answer a complaint of an offence must be served on the child a reasonable time before the child is required to appear before the court.
- (2) The complaint is also to be served on—
  - (a) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
  - (b) the chief executive.
- (3) A person serving a complaint and summons on a child must do so—
  - (a) as discreetly as practicable; and
  - (b) not at or in the vicinity of the child's place of employment or school, unless there is no other place where service may be reasonably effected.
- (4) Subject to the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 382(3) and 388, this section does not apply to a notice to appear.
- (5) In this section—

- (1) A statement in a deposition made for the purposes of the Justices Act 1886, section 56(3)(b) that the complaint and summons was served as required by this Act is evidence of that fact.

- (2) The Justices Act 1886, section 56(5) applies to the deposition.

45 No costs against child for lodgement of complaint and summons

In a proceeding started against a child by complaint and summons, a court must not order the child to pay the cost of lodging the complaint and summons with the clerk of the court.

46 Proceeding in relation to simple offence in absence of child

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a Childrens Court magistrate may hear and determine a proceeding against a child in relation to a complaint and summons for a simple offence in the absence of the child in the way set out in the Justices Act 1886, part 6.
- (2) Under subsection (1), the only sentence order a Childrens Court magistrate may make against a child in the child's absence is an order imposing a fine, and then only if the child has indicated in writing to the court that the child has a capacity to pay a fine of a specified amount that is equal to or greater than the fine ordered to be paid.

Part 5 Bail and custody of children

Division 1 Bail generally

47 Bail Act 1980 applies

- (2) The court or officer must consider the need to ensure that, if the child is released—
  - (a) the child will surrender into custody in accordance with the bail or the conditions of the release, whichever is relevant; and
  - (b) while on release, the child will not—
    - (i) commit an offence; or
    - (ii) endanger anyone's safety or welfare; or
    - (iii) interfere with a witness or otherwise obstruct the course of justice, whether for the child or anyone else.
- (3) The court or officer must have regard to any of the following matters of which the court or officer is aware—

  - (b) the child's character, criminal history and other relevant history, associations, home environment, employment and background;
  - (c) the history of any previous grants of bail to the child;

- the community justice group in the child's community, including, for example, about—
- (i) the child's relationship to the child's community; or
  - (ii) any cultural considerations; or
  - (iii) any considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates;
- (e) any other relevant matter.
- (3A) Also, if it is a court that is making the decision, the court must have regard to the sentence order or other order likely to be made for the child if found guilty.
- (4) In deciding whether to release the child or keep the child in custody, the court or officer must decide to release the child unless the court or officer is required by this Act or another Act to keep the child in custody.
- (5) The court or officer must not release the child if the court or officer is satisfied there is an unacceptable risk relating to a matter mentioned in subsection (2).
- (6) If the child is before a court and the court has information indicating there may be an unacceptable risk relating to a matter mentioned in subsection (2), but does not have enough information to properly consider the matter, the court must remand the child in custody while the information is obtained.
- (7) The court or officer must not release the child if the court or officer is satisfied—
- (a) the child's safety would be endangered, because of the alleged offence, if the child were released; and
  - (b) in the circumstances, there is no reasonably practicable way of ensuring the child's safety other than by keeping the child in custody.
- (7A) If required by the court or officer for subsection (3)(da), a representative of the community justice group in the child's community must advise the court or police officer whether—

- (a) any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission is related to the child or the victim; or

- keep the child in custody* includes, for a court, remand the child in custody.

49 Arrested child must be brought promptly before the Childrens Court

- (1) A child who is arrested on a charge of an offence must be brought promptly before the Childrens Court to be dealt with according to law.

  - (a) the child is being dealt with in a way mentioned in the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 393(2)(b) to (e) or (3)(b); or
  - (b) the child is released under this part or the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 14, part 4.

    - (a) give the child a release notice or a notice to appear and release the child from custody under section 51; or
    - (b) grant bail to the child and release the child from custody under section 52; or
    - (c) keep the child in custody.
  - (3) However, if the child is released under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 378 or 379—
    - (a) subsection (2) does not apply; and
    - (b) any proceeding against the child for the offence is discontinued even though the child may have been charged with having committed the offence.
  - (4) If the officer decides to keep the child in custody, the officer must record the reasons for the decision in a record of the persons kept in custody at the place.

- (f) a warning that a warrant will be issued for the child's arrest if the child fails to surrender into the court's custody.

52 Conditions of release on bail

- (1) This section applies if a court or police officer decides to grant bail to a child who is being held in custody in connection with a charge of an offence.
- (2) The court or officer must release the child on the child's own undertaking, without sureties and without deposit of money or other security, unless the court or officer is satisfied it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances.
- (3) If the court or officer does not release the child under subsection (2), the court or officer must consider the conditions for the release of the child on bail in the following sequence—
  - (a) the release of the child on the child's own undertaking with a deposit of money or other security of stated value;

- (2) If the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3) apply, the court may decide to deal with the person as if—
  - (a) the childhood sentence order were a corresponding adult order made for the offence; and

  - (a) the person, for another offence committed as an adult—
    - (i) is being proceeded against; or
    - (ii) has been sentenced; or

- (4) The court may declare the childhood sentence order to be a corresponding adult order and make all necessary changes to the childhood sentence order to change it to a corresponding adult order.

- (6) For the application of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992—

- (8) In this section—

corresponding adult order to a childhood sentence order, means a type of sentence to which an adult is liable that is similar to the type of the childhood sentence order, for example—

- (a) a probation order made under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is a corresponding adult order to a probation order made under this Act; and the detainee may be treated as a child for the purpose of the proceeding.

- (3) A court may treat the detainee as a child if it considers this appropriate, for example because—
  - (a) treatment of the detainee as an adult would disrupt the application of an existing sentence order; or
  - (b) the offence was committed in a detention centre in circumstances suggesting that the detainee should be treated as a child in relation to the offence; or
  - (c) a recommendation made by the chief executive or in a pre-sentence report supports the treatment of the detainee as a child.

Part 7                      Sentencing

Division 1                Sentencing generally

149      Jurisdiction to sentence child exclusive

- (1) A court that sentences a child for an offence must sentence the child under this part.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any other Act or law.

150      Sentencing principles

- (1) In sentencing a child for an offence, a court must have regard to—
  - (a) subject to this Act, the general principles applying to the sentencing of all persons; and
  - (b) the youth justice principles; and
  - (c) the special considerations stated in subsection (2); and
  - (d) the nature and seriousness of the offence; and
  - (e) the child’s previous offending history; and
  - (f) any information about the child, including a pre-sentence report, provided to assist the court in making a determination; and
  - (g) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—any submissions made by a representative of the community justice group in the child’s community that are relevant to sentencing the child, including, for example—
    - (i) the child’s relationship to the child’s community; or
    - (ii) any cultural considerations; or

- (iii) any considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates; and
  - (h) any impact of the offence on a victim, including harm mentioned in information relating to the victim given to the court under the Victims of Crime Assistance Act 2009, section 15; and
  - (i) a sentence imposed on the child that has not been completed; and
  - (j) a sentence that the child is liable to have imposed because of the revocation of any order under this Act for the breach of conditions by the child; and
  - (k) the fitting proportion between the sentence and the offence.
- (2) Special considerations are that—
- (a) a child's age is a mitigating factor in determining whether or not to impose a penalty, and the nature of a penalty imposed; and
  - (b) a non-custodial order is better than detention in promoting a child's ability to reintegrate into the community; and
  - (c) the rehabilitation of a child found guilty of an offence is greatly assisted by—
    - (i) the child's family; and
    - (ii) opportunities to engage in educational programs and employment; and
  - (d) a child who has no apparent family support, or opportunities to engage in educational programs and employment, should not receive a more severe sentence because of the lack of support or opportunity.
- (3) In sentencing a child for an offence, a court may receive any information it considers appropriate to enable it to impose the proper sentence or make a proper order in connection with the sentence.

- (4) If required by the court for subsection (1)(g), the representative must advise the court whether—
  - (a) any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission is related to the offender or the victim; or
  - (b) there are any circumstances that give rise to a conflict of interest between any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission and the child or victim.
- (5) This section overrides any other Act or law to the extent that, in sentencing a child for an offence, the court must not have regard to any principle that a detention order should be imposed only as a last resort.

151 Pre-sentence report

- (1) A court, before it sentences a child found guilty of an offence, may order the chief executive to give to the court a pre-sentence report concerning the child.
- (2) Subject to subsection (9), the report must be made for the purpose of the sentencing of the child for the offence.

  - (e) a statement that the details of the boot camp program have been explained to the child in a way, and to an extent, that is reasonable, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand.
- (4) The pre-sentence report may not contain the chief executive's opinion on what impact an order under section 234 may have on the child.
- (5) Pending the giving of a pre-sentence report, the court may adjourn the proceeding and remand the child in custody or exercise the powers conferred by part 5 to grant bail to and release the child from custody.

- (6) In releasing the child from custody, the court may impose conditions that it considers necessary to facilitate the preparation of the pre-sentence report.
- (7) The chief executive must cause the pre-sentence report to be prepared in documentary form and given to the court promptly.

- (5) The chief executive must make information about the boot camp programs available for inspection on the department's website.

Editor's note—

The department's internet site is located at

detention if it considers that there are special circumstances, for example to ensure parity of sentence with that imposed on a person involved in the same or related offence.

- (3) If the child is entitled under section 218 to have a period of custody pending the proceeding (the custody period) treated as detention on sentence, the period before the child is released under this section must be reduced by the custody period.

Example—

C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 2 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive must make a supervised release order releasing the child 5 weeks after sentence, which is 70% of 10 weeks with a further reduction of 2 weeks.

228 Chief executive's supervised release order

- (1) At the end of the period after which a child is required to be released under section 227, the chief executive must make an order (a supervised release order) releasing the child from detention.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

229 Child may be released from detention while absent from place of detention

To remove any doubt, it is declared that a child who is serving a period of detention at a place may be released from detention under this subdivision whether or not the child is at the place at the time of release.

Example—

A child is serving a period of detention at a detention centre. The chief executive grants the child leave of absence under section 269. While the child is on the leave of absence, the chief executive may make a supervised release order releasing the child from detention.

230 Release period counts as part of detention period

A period of time for which a child is released from detention under a supervised release order must be counted as part of the period that the child spent in detention for the purpose of calculating the end of the child's period of detention.

  - (a) the need to protect the community; and
  - (b) the safety or wellbeing of a person other than the first-time offender; and

- (c) the impact of publication on the first-time offender's rehabilitation; and
  - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (3) The order does not authorise publication of identifying information before the end of any appeal period or, if the first-time offender gives notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal, before any appeal proceeding has ended.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared this section does not apply to a Childrens Court constituted by a Childrens Court magistrate.

- (a) that the amount must be paid by a time specified in the order or by instalments specified in the order; and
  - (b) that the amount must be paid in the first instance to the proper officer of the court.
- (4) An order under this section may include a direction the court considers necessary or convenient for the order, for example the way in which restitution of property is to be carried out.
- (5) A court may make an order requiring a child to pay an amount under this section only if the court is satisfied that the child has the capacity to pay the amount.

    - (ii) the chief executive is not required to warn the child under section 237; and
  - (d) the child has not been charged with an offence for the act or omission comprising the contravention.
- (2) The chief executive, by way of complaint and summons served on the child, may apply to a Childrens Court magistrate for a finding that the child has contravened the order.

- (3) The application may only be made during the period of the order.
- (4) A copy of the complaint must be served on a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry.
