Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 October 2014]

An Act about explosives, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Explosives Act 1999.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions—the dictionary

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this Act.

4 Act binds all persons

This Act binds all persons, including the State and, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.

4A Application of Act to coastal waters of the State

This Act applies to the coastal waters of the State as if the coastal waters of the State were part of the State.

[s 5]

5 Act does not apply to some explosives

This Act does not apply to explosives to which the Explosives Act 1961 (Cwlth) applies.

6 Act's effect on other Acts

- (1) If there is an inconsistency between this Act and an Act about mining, the Act about mining prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
Act about mining means—
 - (a) the Coal Mining Safety and Health Act 1999; or
 - (b) the Mining and Quarrying Safety and Health Act 1999.

7 Exemptions

- (1) A regulation may exempt an explosive or a government entity from this Act or any of its provisions.
- (2) An exemption may be given on stated conditions.
- (3) If an exemption is given on conditions, the exemption operates only if the conditions are complied with.

Part 2 Authorised and prohibited explosives

8 Authorised explosives

- (1) The chief inspector may declare an explosive to be an authorised explosive for this Act.
- (2) Before making a declaration under subsection (1), the chief inspector must—

- (a) define the composition, quality and character of the explosive; and
 - (b) classify the explosive in a way prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) If the composition, quality or character of an authorised explosive changes, the explosive stops being an authorised explosive.

9 Register of authorised explosives

- (1) The chief inspector must keep a register of authorised explosives.
- (2) The register—
- (a) must include the defined composition, quality, character and classification of each authorised explosive; and
 - (b) is not open to inspection by anyone other than the chief inspector or an inspector.
- (3) However, the chief inspector must give a list of authorised explosives to anyone who asks for it.
- (4) The list must not include the defined composition, quality or character of the explosives named in it.

10 Prohibited explosives

A regulation may declare an explosive to be a prohibited explosive.

11 Offence in relation to unauthorised and prohibited explosives

- (1) A person must not manufacture, possess, sell, store, transport or use an unauthorised or prohibited explosive.
- Maximum penalty—400 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

[s 12]

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an act done under an explosives trial approval.

12 Approvals for trial etc. of unauthorised or prohibited explosives

A regulation may authorise the chief inspector to issue to a person an approval to manufacture, possess, sell, store, transport or use an unauthorised or prohibited explosive for trial, experiment or examination (an explosives trial approval).

Part 3 Authorities

Division 1 Authorities

13 Authorities that may be issued under Act

A regulation may prescribe the authorities that may be issued under this Act and what each authority authorises.

14 Application for authority

- (1) A person may apply to the chief inspector for an authority.
- (2) The application must—
- (a) be made in the approved form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation for the authority.

15 Inquiries about person's appropriateness

- (1) This section applies to the following persons—
- (a) an applicant for an authority;

- (b) an authority holder;
 - (c) an employee of an applicant for an authority;
 - (d) an employee of an authority holder.
- (2) The chief inspector may make reasonable inquiries about the person to help in deciding whether the person—
- (a) for subsection (1)(a)—is an appropriate person for the grant of an authority; or
 - (b) for subsection (1)(b)—continues to be an appropriate person to hold an authority; or
 - (c) for subsection (1)(c)—is an appropriate person to have access to explosives; or
 - (d) for subsection (1)(d)—continues to be an appropriate person to have access to explosives.
- (2A) If the person is an individual, the chief inspector may, for subsection (2), make inquiries about the person's identity, character, mental and physical health, and relevant experience and expertise.
- (3) In deciding whether the person is an appropriate person, the chief inspector may consider, among other things—
- (a) if the person is an individual—
 - (i) the person's mental and physical health; and
 - (ii) whether the person has been convicted, in Queensland or elsewhere, of a relevant offence; and
 - (iii) whether a domestic violence order has been made, in Queensland or elsewhere, against the person at any time; or
 - (b) if the person is a corporation—
 - (i) whether the corporation is insolvent under administration; and

[s 15]

- (ii) whether the corporation has been convicted, in Queensland or elsewhere, of an offence involving a prescribed activity; and
 - (iii) whether an executive officer of the corporation would be considered to be an appropriate person under this section.
- (4) Also, in deciding whether an applicant for an authority or an authority holder is an appropriate person, the chief inspector must consider whether the person has adequate facilities for the use and handling of explosives.
- (5) If asked by the chief inspector, the commissioner must give the chief inspector a written report about—
 - (a) the person’s criminal history; and
 - (b) any domestic violence order made against the person at any time.
- (6) Subsection (5) applies to information about the criminal history or domestic violence order—
 - (a) that the commissioner has; or
 - (b) to which the commissioner ordinarily has access through arrangements with the police service of the Commonwealth or another State.
- (7) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide whether the person is an appropriate person for this section or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any purpose other than as provided by section 132.
- (8) For this section, the chief inspector may—
 - (a) inspect the facilities mentioned in subsection (4); or
 - (b) supply information or a document relevant to the person’s identity to an officer or member of a State or Commonwealth police service; or
 - (c) require the person to display an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use and handling of explosives.

(9) An applicant for an authority is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant fails to allow the inspection under subsection (8)(a) within a stated reasonable time (not less than 28 days after notice of the requirement is given to the applicant).

(10) In this section—

insolvent under administration means an insolvent under administration under the Corporations Act.

16 Additional information

(1) The chief inspector may, by written notice, require a person mentioned in section 15(1) to give the chief inspector further information the chief inspector reasonably needs to be satisfied about the person's identity or physical or mental health, including—

- (a) in relation to the person's physical health—a report from a doctor about the person's physical health; and
- (b) in relation to the person's mental health—a report from a doctor or psychologist about the person's mental health.

[s 16]

- (2) The notice must—
 - (a) state that the information must be given within a stated reasonable time (not less than 28 days after the notice is given); and
 - (b) be given to—

 - (ii) for a person mentioned in section 15(1)(b) or (d)—the authority holder.
- (3) If the information about the person’s mental health given under subsection (1) is provided in a doctor’s or psychologist’s report, the chief inspector may—
 - (a) make information about the person having access to explosives available to the doctor or psychologist; and
 - (b) ask the doctor or psychologist to provide a further report.
- (4) The chief inspector may make the information available only if the chief inspector considers, on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) the doctor or psychologist was not aware of the information; and
 - (b) the information may influence the doctor’s or psychologist’s opinion about the person’s mental health.
- (5) The chief inspector must also advise the person of the information being supplied to the doctor or psychologist.
- (6) The chief inspector may make the information available under subsection (3) despite the provisions of any other Act.
- (7) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide whether the person is an appropriate person for section 15 or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any purpose other than as provided under section 132.
- (8) An applicant for an authority is taken to have withdrawn the application if the applicant or the applicant’s employee fails to provide the information required under subsection (1) within the time stated in the notice.

17 How chief inspector may deal with application

- (1) The chief inspector must consider an application for an authority and either—
 - (a) issue the authority with or without conditions; or
 - (b) refuse to issue the authority.
- (2) If the chief inspector decides to issue the authority, the chief inspector must promptly give the applicant—
 - (a) the authority; and
 - (b) if the authority is subject to conditions, an information notice for the decision to impose conditions.
- (3) If the chief inspector decides not to issue the authority, the chief inspector must promptly—
 - (a) give the applicant an information notice for the decision; and
 - (b) refund fees paid by the applicant, other than fees for assessing the application.

18 Compliance with conditions

- (1) An authority holder must comply with the conditions prescribed under a regulation for each authority issued to the authority holder.
Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.
- (2) If the chief inspector imposes a condition on an authority, the authority holder must comply with the condition.
Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

[s 19]

19 Term of authority

- (1) An authority is for the term stated in the authority, but can not be for more than the term prescribed under a regulation.
- (2) At the end of the term, the authority expires.

20 Transfer of authority

- (1) A licence, other than a licence to use an explosive, is transferable, but only with the previous written approval of the chief inspector.
- (2) Another type of authority can not be transferred.

21 Renewal of authority

- (1) A licence is renewable.
- (2) An authority other than a licence can not be renewed.

22 Division applies to application for renewal of licence

- (1) This division applies to an application for the renewal of a licence.
- (2) However, the chief inspector may renew a licence only if the application is made to the chief inspector before the licence expires.

Division 2 Suspension and cancellation of authorities

23 Grounds for suspension or cancellation

Each of the following is a ground for the suspension or cancellation of an authority—

- (a) the authority was obtained because of incorrect or misleading information;
- (b) the holder has contravened an authority condition;

- (c) the holder has committed—
 - (i) an offence against this Act or an Act of another State about explosives; or
 - (ii) another offence involving the use of explosives;
- (d) the holder, or someone else required under a regulation to be an appropriate person for the issue of the authority, is not, or is no longer, an appropriate person;
- (e) someone other than the holder controls the holder's operations under the authority;
- (f) having regard to the effect an incident involving explosives may have on workers and persons living in the vicinity of a place where an activity is performed under an authority, the level of safety under which the activity is performed is no longer acceptable.

24 Procedure for suspension or cancellation

- (1) This section applies if the chief inspector considers there is a ground to suspend or cancel an authority (the proposed action).
- (2) Before taking the proposed action, the chief inspector must give the authority holder a written notice stating—
 - (a) the proposed action; and
 - (b) the grounds for the proposed action; and
 - (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances that are the basis of the grounds; and
 - (d) if the proposed action is suspension of the authority—the proposed suspension period; and
 - (e) that the holder may show, within a stated reasonable time (not less than 28 days after the notice is given to the holder) why the proposed action should not be taken.
- (3) If, after considering all representations made within the stated time, the chief inspector still considers there is a ground to take the proposed action, the chief inspector may—

[s 25]

- (a) if the proposed action was to suspend the authority for a stated period—suspend the authority for not longer than the proposed suspension period; or
 - (b) if the proposed action was to cancel the authority—either cancel the authority or suspend it for a period.
- (4) The chief inspector must inform the authority holder of the decision by written notice.
- (5) If the chief inspector decides to suspend or cancel the authority, the chief inspector must give the authority holder an information notice for the decision.
- (6) The decision takes effect on the day the notice is given to the authority holder, or if a later day of effect is stated in the notice, the later day.
- (7) However, if the authority is suspended or cancelled because of the conviction of a person for an offence, the suspension or cancellation—
- (a) does not take effect until—
 - (i) the end of the time to appeal against the conviction; and
 - (ii) if an appeal is made against the conviction—the appeal is finally decided or otherwise ends; and
 - (b) has no effect if the conviction is quashed.

25 Procedure for urgent suspension or cancellation of authority

- (1) This section applies if the chief inspector is reasonably satisfied—
- (a) urgent action is necessary in the particular circumstances; and
 - (b) undue delay in suspending or cancelling an authority may cause harm to the public.

- (2) The chief inspector may suspend or cancel an authority for the reason mentioned in subsection (1) without previous notice to the authority holder.
 - (3) However, the chief inspector must immediately inform the authority holder of the decision by giving an information notice for the decision.
 - (4) The decision takes effect on the day the information notice is given to the authority holder or, if a later day of effect is stated in the information notice, the later day.

26 Return of authority

- (1) The holder of a suspended authority, or the former holder of a cancelled authority, must return the authority to the chief inspector within 14 days after the suspension or cancellation takes effect, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not returning it, or not returning it within that time.
Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.
- (2) If a suspended authority is returned to the chief inspector, the chief inspector must return it to the authority holder at the end of the suspension period.

Division 3 Other provisions about authorities

27 Replacement of authority

- (1) An authority holder may apply to the chief inspector for the replacement of a lost, stolen or destroyed authority.
- (2) The chief inspector must consider the application and either—
 - (a) replace the authority; or
 - (b) refuse to replace the authority.
- (3) If the chief inspector is reasonably satisfied the authority has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the chief inspector must replace the authority.

[s 28]

- (4) If the chief inspector decides to refuse to replace the authority, the chief inspector must give the authority holder an information notice for the decision.

28 Amendment of authority on application

- (1) An authority holder may apply to the chief inspector for an amendment of the authority.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) be made at least 28 days before the holder wants the amendment to take effect; and
 - (b) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) However, failure to comply with subsection (2) does not prevent the chief inspector dealing with the application.
- (4) The chief inspector must decide the application by—
 - (a) amending the authority in the way sought; or
 - (b) refusing to amend the authority.
- (5) The chief inspector may amend the authority only if the chief inspector is reasonably satisfied the amendment is desirable in the interests of the effective administration of this Act.
- (6) If the chief inspector decides to amend the authority, the chief inspector must promptly give the authority holder a written notice stating the decision and the amendment.
- (7) If the chief inspector decides not to amend the authority, the chief inspector must give the authority holder an information notice for the decision.

29 Amendment of authority without application

- (1) This section applies if the chief inspector considers it is desirable to amend an authority in the interests of the effective administration of this Act.

- (2) Before amending the authority, the chief inspector must give the authority holder a written notice stating—
 - (a) the proposed amendment; and
 - (b) the reasons for the amendment; and
 - (c) that the holder may show, within a stated reasonable time of at least 28 days after the notice is given to the holder, why the amendment should not be made.
 - (3) If, after considering all representations made within the stated time, the chief inspector still believes the authority should be amended, the chief inspector may amend the authority—
 - (a) in the way proposed; or
 - (b) in another way, having regard to the representations.
 - (4) The chief inspector must inform the authority holder of the decision by written notice.
 - (5) If the chief inspector decides to amend the authority, the chief inspector must give the authority holder an information notice.
 - (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not apply if the chief inspector proposes to amend the authority—
 - (a) by omitting a condition; or
 - (b) for a formal or clerical reason that does not adversely affect the authority holder's interests.
 - (7) The chief inspector may amend a condition of an authority in a way mentioned in subsection (6) by giving the authority holder an information notice for the decision to amend the authority.

30 Notice to return authority for alteration

- (1) The chief inspector may, by written notice, require the authority holder to return the authority to the chief inspector within a stated reasonable time of at least 14 days after the notice is given to the holder, to enable the chief inspector to amend the authority.

[s 31]

- (2) After amending the authority, the chief inspector must return the authority to the holder.
- (3) An authority holder must comply with a notice under subsection (1), unless the holder has a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.
- (4) The amendment of the authority under this division does not depend on the authority being amended under this section.

31 Surrender of authority

- (1) An authority holder may surrender the authority by written notice given to the chief inspector.
- (2) The authority must accompany the notice.
- (3) The surrender of an authority takes effect on the day the notice of surrender is given to the chief inspector or, if a later day of effect is stated in the notice, the later day.

 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the inspector immediate entry to the place without using force.

Subdivision 3 Powers after entry

89 General powers after entering places

- (4) If the help is required to be given to an inspector by—
- (a) answering a question; or
 - (b) producing a document (other than an authority or a document required to be kept under this Act);

it is a reasonable excuse for an individual to not answer the question, or produce the document, if complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

90 Power to seize evidence

- (1) An inspector who enters a place under this part other than under a warrant may seize a thing in the place if—
- (a) the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and

[s 91]

- (b) for an entry made with the occupier's consent—seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as told to the occupier.
- (2) An inspector who enters a place under this part under a warrant may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.
- (3) An inspector may also seize anything else in a place mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) if the inspector reasonably believes—

93 Access to seized things

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.

94 Forfeiture of seized things

- (1) A seized thing is forfeited to the State if the inspector who seized the thing—
 - (a) can not find its owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or
 - (b) can not return it to its owner, after making reasonable efforts.
- (2) In applying subsection (1)—
 - (a) subsection (1)(a) does not require the inspector to make inquiries if it would be unreasonable in the particular circumstances to make inquiries to find the owner; and
 - (b) subsection (1)(b) does not require the inspector to make efforts if it would be unreasonable in the particular circumstances to make efforts to return the thing to its owner.
- (3) Regard must be had to a thing's nature, condition and value in deciding—
 - (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and
 - (b) if making inquiries or efforts—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

[s 95]

95 Return of seized things

- (1) An inspector must return a seized thing to its owner at the end of—
 - (a) 6 months; or
 - (b) if a proceeding for an offence involving it is started within the 6 months—the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the inspector must return the seized thing to the person immediately the inspector stops being satisfied its retention as evidence is necessary.
- (3) This section does not apply to a seized thing that is forfeited to the State under this Act or dealt with in a dangerous situation.

Subdivision 4 Power to require information

96 Power to require name and address

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an inspector finds a person committing an offence against this Act; or

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

100 Power to require production of documents
