

Further Education and Training Act 2014

Current as at 7 November 2014

Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

Further Education and Training Act 2014

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 7 November 2014]

An Act to streamline the regulation of apprenticeships and traineeships and to establish a robust and modern legislative framework for training

Chapter 1 Preliminary

Part 1 Introduction

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Further Education and Training Act 2014.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Act binds all persons

- (1) This Act binds all persons including the State and, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.
- (2) Nothing in this Act makes the State, the Commonwealth or another State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

[s 4]

Part 2 Objects of Act

4 Objects

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to strengthen Queensland’s economic base by providing a skilled workforce that meets the current and future needs of industry, Government and the community; and
- (b) to facilitate the provision of vocational education and training that is linked to employment and is responsive to the future workforce development and skills requirements of industry; and
- (c) to support the continued development of high-quality training by and within industry; and
- (d) to support Queenslanders to access and complete the skills training they need to get a job and contribute to the State’s economy and their own prosperity; and
- (e) to establish a simple, streamlined apprenticeship and traineeship system featuring flexible, industry-endorsed approaches to trade training; and
- (f) to support industry and employers to take on, train and retain apprentices and trainees.

Part 3 Interpretation

5 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.

6 Who is an apprentice

- (1) An employee who is being trained in an apprenticeship is an apprentice if an apprenticeship contract for the apprenticeship has been signed by the parties to the contract, whether or not the contract has been registered under this Act.

Note—

Section 15 states who are the parties to the contract.

- (2) However, an employee is not an apprentice if—
- (a) the employee's employer is a prohibited employer; and
 - (b) the employment contravenes the declaration of the employer under section 59.

7 Who is a trainee

- (1) An employee who is being trained in a traineeship is a trainee if a traineeship contract for the traineeship has been signed by the parties to the contract, whether or not the contract has been registered under this Act.

Note—

Section 15 states who are the parties to the contract.

- (2) However, an employee is not a trainee if—
- (a) the employee's employer is a prohibited employer; and
 - (b) the employment contravenes the declaration of the employer under section 59.

Chapter 2 Apprentices and trainees

Part 1 Declaring apprenticeships or traineeships

8 Declaring apprenticeships or traineeships

- (1) This section applies if a person can obtain a qualification or statement of attainment by completing employment-based training with an employer.
- (2) The chief executive may declare the employment-based training leading to the qualification or statement of attainment to be an apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (3) A declaration under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) must be published on the department’s website; and

Editor’s note—

The department’s website is <www.training.qld.gov.au>.

 - (c) may include requirements prescribed by regulation for the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)(c), the requirements may include the following for the apprenticeship or traineeship—
 - (a) the minimum hours of paid employment;
 - (b) whether it is to be completed on a full-time or part-time basis;
 - (c) whether it may be completed by a student at a school;
 - (d) the number of units of competency that may be completed by a student at a school.
- (5) A declaration under subsection (2) does not prevent the qualification or statement of attainment being attained in a way other than by completing an apprenticeship or traineeship.

Part 2 Training contracts

Division 1 Preliminary

9 Start of apprenticeship or traineeship

An apprenticeship or traineeship starts on the day agreed by the employer and the person who is to become the employer's apprentice or trainee.

10 Term of training contract

- (1) The chief executive may decide the term (the nominal term) of training contracts for apprenticeships and traineeships.
- (2) Different nominal terms may be decided—
 - (a) for different apprenticeships or traineeships; or
 - (b) depending on whether apprenticeships or traineeships are completed during full-time or part-time employment, or while the apprentice or trainee is at school; or
 - (c) for individual apprentices or trainees who have previous experience as an apprentice or trainee; or
 - (d) for individual apprentices or trainees who have previously obtained qualifications or gained relevant work experience.
- (3) The nominal term of a training contract must include the probationary period for the apprenticeship or traineeship.

Note—

Section 23 provides for an extension of the nominal term for a particular apprentice or trainee.

[s 11]

11 Probationary period

- (1) The chief executive is to decide the probationary period for apprenticeships and traineeships.
- (2) Different probationary periods may be decided—
 - (a) for different apprenticeships or traineeships; or
 - (b) depending on whether apprenticeships or traineeships are completed during full-time or part-time employment, or while the apprentice or trainee is at school.

12 Application to extend probationary period

- (1) The parties to a training contract may apply in the approved form to the chief executive to extend the probationary period for the apprentice or trainee.

Note—

Section 15 states who are the parties to the contract.

- (2) However, the probationary period may not be extended past the date that is 6 months from the commencement of the training contract.
- (3) The application must be received by the chief executive at least 14 days before the end of the probationary period.
- (4) However, the chief executive may consider an application received after that time if the chief executive is satisfied exceptional circumstances caused or contributed to the lateness of the application.
- (5) If the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the application must include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (6) However, subsection (5) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to give signed consent if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

13 Decision on application to extend probationary period

- (1) The chief executive must decide an application under section 12 within 7 days after receiving the application.
- (2) If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must give the parties to the training contract written notice of the decision.
- (3) If the chief executive decides not to grant the application, the chief executive must give the parties to the training contract written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.
- (4) If the chief executive fails to decide the application within 7 days after receiving it, the failure is taken to be a decision by the chief executive not to grant the application.

14 Ending apprenticeship or traineeship during probationary period

- (1) An apprenticeship or traineeship may be ended during the probationary period by the giving of written notice—
 - (a) by the employer to the apprentice or trainee; or
 - (b) by the apprentice or trainee to the employer.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must state the date the apprenticeship or traineeship is to end.
- (3) For subsection (2), the stated date must not be later than the end of the probationary period.
- (4) The employer must notify the chief executive that the apprenticeship or traineeship has ended within 7 days after it ends.

Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—20 penalty units.

Division 2 Signing and registration of training contracts

15 Training contract to be signed

- (1) The employer of a person who is to be trained by the employer as an apprentice or trainee must ensure a training contract is signed by the parties within 14 days after the day the apprenticeship or traineeship starts.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (2) The parties to the training contract are—
- (a) the employer; and
 - (b) the person to be trained as an apprentice or trainee under the contract.
- (3) If the person to be trained as an apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the training contract must also include the signed consent of a parent of the person within the time mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to give signed consent if the person to be trained as an apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

16 Employer must ensure training contract is given to chief executive or person authorised

- (1) An employer who is a party to a training contract must take all reasonable steps to ensure the contract is given to either of the following within 28 days after the day the apprenticeship or traineeship starts—
- (a) the chief executive;

- (b) a person authorised by the chief executive to accept training contracts.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (2) The chief executive must publish on the department's website the names and addresses of persons authorised to accept training contracts.

Editor's note—

The department's website is <www.training.qld.gov.au>.

17 Registering training contracts

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive or a person authorised to accept training contracts receives a signed training contract from an employer under section 16.
- (2) The chief executive must decide whether to register or refuse to register the training contract.
- (3) The chief executive may, by written notice, request the employer to give, within the reasonable time of not less than 14 days stated in the notice, the additional documents or information the chief executive considers necessary to decide whether to register the training contract.
- (4) The chief executive may refuse to decide whether to register the training contract until the parties supply the requested documents or information.
- (5) The chief executive may register the training contract only if—
- (a) the contract is in the approved form; and
 - (b) if the chief executive has requested documents or information under subsection (3)—the employer has supplied the documents or information; and
 - (c) the employer is not a prohibited employer whose employment of the apprentice or trainee contravenes the declaration of the employer under section 59; and

[s 17]

- (d) if the employer is actively employing 25 or more apprentices and trainees under a hosting arrangement—the employer is a group training organisation or principal employer organisation; and
 - (e) the apprentice or trainee is not prohibited under an Act or law from undertaking paid employment; and Example for paragraph (e)—
 - an apprentice or trainee who holds a visa that prohibits him or her from working while in Australia.
 - (f) a registered training organisation has—
 - (i) accepted the nomination to be the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee; and
 - (ii) undertaken to prepare a training plan, including an assessment of the employer’s capacity to provide or arrange to provide the range of work, facilities and supervision required under the training plan; and
 - (g) if the apprentice or trainee is a school student—the chief executive is satisfied it is appropriate in all the circumstances for the training contract to be registered.
- (6) For subsection (5)(g), in deciding whether it is appropriate to register the training contract, the chief executive must have regard to the following—
- (a) the age and year of schooling of the student;
 - (b) whether the student’s school supports the contract;
 - (c) other matters that may be relevant for deciding whether the training contract is suitable for the student.
- (7) In subsection (6)(b), a reference to the student’s school is, for a student registered for home education under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, a reference to the chief executive of the department administering that Act.

- (8) If the chief executive registers the training contract, the chief executive must give the parties to the contract written notice that the contract is registered.
 - (9) If the chief executive refuses to register the training contract, the chief executive must give each party written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.
 - (10) If the chief executive refuses to register the training contract, the contract and the apprenticeship or traineeship to which it relates end on—
 - (a) the day stated in the written notice of the decision as the day the decision has effect; or
 - (b) an earlier day agreed to by the parties.
 - (11) In this section—

home education has the meaning given in the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, section 205.

18 False or misleading information in training contract

- (1) A person must not state anything in a training contract that the person knows is false or misleading.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
- (2) A person must not induce or coerce someone else to state anything in a training contract that the person knows is false or misleading.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

19 Premiums prohibited

- (1) A person must not, either directly or indirectly, demand, accept, or agree to accept, from another person a premium for—
 - (a) employing a person as an apprentice or trainee; or

[s 19]

- (b) inducing, or attempting to induce, another person to employ a person as an apprentice or trainee; or
- (c) amending a registered training contract; or
- (d) cancelling a registered training contract.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) If a person is convicted of an offence against subsection (1), the court in which the person is convicted may order the person—
 - (a) to return the premium to the person who gave it; or
 - (b) to reimburse the person who gave the premium an amount equal to the value of the premium.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the court's power to impose a penalty on the person convicted.
- (4) An order under subsection (2)—
 - (a) may be filed in a court with jurisdiction to recover in an action for debt the amount payable under the order; and
 - (b) on being filed, is taken to be an order of that court and may be enforced accordingly.
- (5) In this section—

premium does not include a payment to a person in the form of a grant or incentive from a relevant entity for employing or training, or promoting the employment or training of, an apprentice or trainee.

relevant entity means—

- (a) the State; or
- (b) the Commonwealth; or
- (c) an entity that pays a grant or incentive under a written agreement with the State or the Commonwealth; or
- (d) an employer group, union or other industry body.

Division 3 Amending registered training contract

20 Amending registered training contract

- (1) Except as provided for in sections 13, 21, 22 and 23, a registered training contract may only be amended with the approval of the chief executive obtained under this section.
- (2) The parties to the registered training contract may apply to the chief executive for approval of an amendment to the contract.
- (3) The application must be in the approved form and state—
 - (a) the proposed amendment; and
 - (b) the reasons for the proposed amendment; and
 - (c) that the proposed amendment is agreed to by the parties.
- (4) If the apprentice or trainee under the registered training contract is under 18 years, the application must also be signed by a parent of the person.
- (5) However, subsection (4) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to sign the application.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to sign the application if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

- (6) The chief executive may, by written notice, request the parties to give, within the reasonable time of not less than 14 days stated in the notice, the additional documents or information the chief executive considers necessary to decide the application.
- (7) The chief executive may refuse to consider the application until the parties give the documents or information requested under subsection (6).
- (8) The chief executive—

[s 21]

- (a) must consider the application and any documents or information given as requested under subsection (6); and
 - (b) may approve the proposed amendment or refuse to approve the proposed amendment.
- (9) If the chief executive decides to approve the proposed amendment, the chief executive must—
- (a) update the records held by the department; and
 - (b) give the parties a signed notice of the approval.
- (10) If the chief executive refuses to approve the amendment, the chief executive must give each party written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.

21 Minor amendment of registered training contract

- (1) A party to a registered training contract may give notice of a minor amendment of the contract to—
- (a) the other party to the contract; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the chief executive; or
 - (ii) a person authorised by the chief executive to accept the notice.
- (2) The notice may be given orally or in writing.
- (3) On receiving the notice, the chief executive or authorised person may approve the amendment and update the department's records to include it if the chief executive or authorised person is satisfied the amendment is appropriate.
- (4) The chief executive or authorised person may request further information before deciding whether to approve the amendment.
- (5) The amendment takes effect when the department's records are updated.

- (6) The chief executive must publish on the department's website the names and addresses of persons authorised to accept notices under this section.

Editor's note—

The department's website is <www.training.qld.gov.au>.

- (7) In this section—

minor amendment, of a registered training contract, means an amendment of the contract that does not alter its substance or effect.

Examples of a minor amendment—

- a party changes the party's name or address
- a correction of a typographical error in a party's name or address

22 When chief executive may amend registered training contract without application by the parties

- (1) The chief executive may amend a registered training contract without an application by the parties to the contract if the chief executive considers the amendment is necessary to update matters that are no longer correct because of changed circumstances.

Examples of changed circumstances—

- an apprentice who started his or her apprenticeship while at school continues the apprenticeship after leaving school
 - the name of a qualification changes because of an update to a national training package
 - the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee changes and it is not reasonably practical for the parties to the registered training contract to give the chief executive notice of the change
 - the legal entity that is the employer changes for many registered training contracts
- (2) The chief executive must update the department's records to include the amendment.
- (3) The amendment takes effect when the records are updated.

[s 23]

- (4) The chief executive does not have to give notice of the amendment to the parties.

23 Application for extension of nominal term of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if the nominal term of a registered training contract is to end before the apprentice or trainee who is a party to the contract completes the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) The parties and the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee may apply to the chief executive to extend the nominal term.
- (3) The application must be in the approved form and state—
 - (a) that each applicant agrees to an extension of the registered training contract; and
 - (b) the reasons for the requested extension.
- (4) On receiving the application, the chief executive may approve or refuse to approve the application.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), the chief executive may approve an application made after the end of the nominal term only if the chief executive is satisfied it is appropriate to do so in all the circumstances.
- (6) If the chief executive approves the application, the chief executive must give notice to the parties and the supervising registered training organisation that the nominal term has been extended.
- (7) If the chief executive refuses to approve the application, the chief executive must give the parties and the supervising registered training organisation written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.
- (8) If the nominal term of a training contract is extended, the contract is taken to be similarly extended.

- (9) If the chief executive approves an application after the end of the nominal term, the training contract and training plan are taken to have continued in force until the approval.

Division 4 Transfer of registered training contract

Subdivision 1 Temporary transfer of registered training contract

24 Temporary transfer of registered training contract

- (1) The parties to a registered training contract may agree to temporarily transfer the contract to a new employer for a period not exceeding 1 year that ends before the nominal term of the contract is to end.
- (2) The employer under the registered training contract must, within 7 days after the day the transfer takes effect, give the chief executive notice that complies with subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (3) The notice must—
- (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) state—
 - (i) the name of the new employer; and
 - (ii) the day the transfer took effect; and
 - (iii) the period of the transfer; and
 - (iv) that the transfer is agreed to by each of the parties to the registered training contract; and
 - (c) be signed by—
 - (i) each of the parties; and
 - (ii) the new employer; and

[s 25]

(iii) if the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years—the parent of the apprentice or trainee.

- (4) However, subsection (3)(c)(iii) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to sign the notice.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to sign the notice if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

25 Transferring employer must notify supervising registered training organisation of temporary transfer of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if a registered training contract is temporarily transferred to a new employer under section 24.
- (2) The transferring employer must notify the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee within 7 days after the day the transfer takes effect.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Subdivision 2 Permanent transfer of registered training contract

26 Application for permanent transfer of registered training contract

- (1) The following may apply to the chief executive for a registered training contract to be permanently transferred to a new employer—
- (a) all parties to the contract and the proposed new employer;
- (b) the apprentice or trainee under the contract and the proposed new employer.

- (2) The application must be in the approved form and state the following information—
 - (a) the name of the proposed new employer;
 - (b) the proposed day for the transfer;
 - (c) that the proposed transfer is agreed to by each of the applicants;
 - (d) the reasons for the proposed transfer.
 - (3) If the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the application must include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
 - (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to give signed consent if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

27 Procedure for deciding application if application by all parties to registered training contract and proposed new employer

- (1) This section applies if an application for the permanent transfer of a registered training contract is made under section 26 by all parties to the contract and the proposed new employer.
- (2) The chief executive must decide the application within 28 days of receiving it.
- (3) The chief executive may grant the application only if satisfied the criteria mentioned in section 17(5)(c) to (g) are satisfied.
- (4) For subsection (3), section 17(5)(c) to (g) applies with any necessary modifications and as if a reference to registration of the contract were a reference to approval of the application.
- (5) If the chief executive approves the application, the chief executive must advise the applicants—

[s 28]

- (a) that the transfer has been approved; and
 - (b) of the date from which the transfer takes effect.
- (6) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must give each of the applicants written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.

28 Procedure for deciding application if application only by apprentice or trainee and proposed new employer

- (1) This section applies if an application for the permanent transfer of a registered training contract is made under section 26 only by the apprentice or trainee and the proposed new employer.
- (2) The chief executive must give the current employer notice of the application stating that the employer may object in writing to the transfer within 14 days of receiving the notice.
- (3) The chief executive must decide the application within 28 days of receiving it.
- (4) In deciding the application the chief executive—
- (a) must have regard to any objection received from the current employer; and
 - (b) may grant the application only if satisfied the criteria mentioned in section 17(5)(c) to (g) are satisfied.
- (5) For subsection (4)(b), section 17(5)(c) to (g) applies with any necessary modifications and as if a reference to registration of the contract were a reference to approval of the application.
- (6) If the chief executive approves the application, the chief executive must advise each of the applicants and the current employer—
- (a) that the transfer has been approved; and
 - (b) of the date on which the transfer takes effect.
- (7) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must—

- (a) advise the current employer of the decision; and
 - (b) give each of the applicants written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.
- (8) In this section—
- current employer* means the employer who is a party to the registered training contract.

Subdivision 3 Statutory transfer or cancellation of registered training contract

29 Statutory transfer or cancellation of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if an event mentioned in section 58(1)(a) happens.
- (2) The registered training contract is taken to have been transferred by the employer who is a party to the contract to the purchaser of the employer's business on the day agreed between the employer and the purchaser.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the purchaser gives the chief executive written notice, before the sale or disposal of the business takes effect, that the purchaser does not want the registered training contract to be transferred under subsection (2).
- (4) Notice under subsection (3) relates only to the registered training contract and not to the employment by the purchaser of the apprentice or trainee under the contract.
- (5) If the purchaser gives the chief executive notice under subsection (3), the registered training contract is cancelled and the chief executive must give the apprentice or trainee written notice of the cancellation.
- (6) If an event mentioned in section 58(1)(b) happens—

[s 30]

- (a) if the business of the dissolved partnership is continued by 1 person who was a partner of the dissolved partnership—the registered training contract is taken to be assigned to the person when the winding-up of the affairs of the dissolved partnership is complete; or
- (b) if the business of the dissolved partnership is continued by 2 or more persons who were partners of the dissolved partnership under a new partnership—the registered training contract is taken to be assigned to the persons when the new partnership begins; or
- (c) if neither paragraph (a) nor (b) applies—the registered training contract is cancelled.

Division 5 Suspension of registered training contracts

30 Application for suspension of registered training contract by the parties to the contract

- (1) The parties to a registered training contract may apply to the chief executive to suspend the contract for a period not exceeding 1 year.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form and must state the following—
 - (a) the reasons for the proposed suspension;
 - (b) the period of the proposed suspension;
 - (c) the day the proposed suspension is to take effect, being not less than 7 days after the application is given to the chief executive;
 - (d) that the proposed suspension is agreed to by each of the parties to the registered training contract.
- (3) If the apprentice or trainee under the registered training contract is under 18 years, the application must include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.

- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to give signed consent if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

31 Applicant may withdraw consent to the application to suspend

- (1) A party to a registered training contract may, by written notice, withdraw the party's consent to an application under section 30 within 7 days after the application is given to the chief executive.
- (2) If the party is the apprentice or trainee under the registered training contract and is under 18 years, the notice must also be signed by a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to sign the notice.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to sign the notice if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

- (4) If a party to a registered training contract withdraws the party's consent under subsection (1)—
- (a) the application is taken to have been withdrawn; and
 - (b) the chief executive must give all parties to the contract written notice stating—
 - (i) the application has been withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the contract continues in force.

32 Suspension if consent not withdrawn

- (1) This section applies if—

[s 33]

- (a) an application is made under section 30 to suspend a registered training contract; and
 - (b) section 31 does not apply.
- (2) The registered training contract is suspended—
- (a) from the day stated in the application; and
 - (b) for the period stated in the application.
- (3) The chief executive must give the parties to the registered training contract written notice of the suspension.

Division 6 Cancellation of registered training contracts

Subdivision 1 Cancellation on application by parties

33 Application to cancel registered training contract by all parties

- (1) The parties to a registered training contract may apply to the chief executive to cancel the contract.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form.
- (3) If the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the application must be signed by a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to sign the application.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to sign the application if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

34 Applicant may withdraw consent to the application to cancel

- (1) A party to a registered training contract may, by written notice, withdraw the party's consent to an application to cancel the contract within 7 days after the application is given to the chief executive.
- (2) If the party is the apprentice or trainee under the registered training contract and is under 18 years, the notice must also be signed by a parent of the apprentice or trainee.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to sign the notice.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to sign the notice if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

- (4) If a party to a registered training contract withdraws the party's consent under subsection (1)—
 - (a) the application is taken to have been withdrawn; and
 - (b) the chief executive must give all parties to the contract written notice stating—
 - (i) the application has been withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the contract continues in force.

35 Cancellation if consent not withdrawn

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an application is made under section 33 to cancel a registered training contract; and
 - (b) section 34 does not apply.
- (2) The registered training contract is cancelled on the day stated in the application.
- (3) The chief executive must give the parties to the registered training contract written notice of the cancellation.

Subdivision 2 Cancellation without application

36 Grounds for cancellation of registered training contract by chief executive

The chief executive may cancel a registered training contract if reasonably satisfied that 1 or more of the following grounds applies—

- (a) the employer has ceased business;
- (b) the employer has ceased operating the business in which the apprentice or trainee under the contract was employed;
- (c) there has been a substantial change in a party's circumstances and the change has affected the party's capacity to perform the party's obligations under the contract;
- (d) the employer has moved the employer's business to a place to which it is impractical or unreasonable for the apprentice or trainee to travel;
- (e) the contract contains false or misleading information;
- (f) the supervising registered training organisation withdraws from the training plan for the contract and no replacement supervising registered training organisation has been nominated;
- (g) the employer has been declared a prohibited employer;
- (h) the employer is failing, or has failed, to comply with the employer's obligations under this Act or the contract;
- (i) the employment of the apprentice or trainee by the employer has ceased;
- (j) if the apprentice or trainee is a school student—the school withdraws support for the student's participation under the contract;
- (k) the contract was registered in error.

37 Show cause notice before cancellation of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is proposing to cancel a registered training contract under this subdivision.
- (2) The chief executive must first give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating—
 - (a) that the chief executive proposes to cancel the contract; and
 - (b) the reasons for the proposed cancellation; and
 - (c) that the party may, within 14 days after the notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed cancellation.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the chief executive reasonably considers it is not practicable to give the parties a show cause notice.

Example of circumstances in which it may not be practicable to give a show cause notice—

The employer who is a party to the registered training contract has ceased trading.

38 Decision about cancellation after show cause notice

- (1) After considering any written response received from a party within the time stated in the show cause notice under section 37(2)(c), the chief executive must—
 - (a) decide whether to cancel the registered training contract; and
 - (b) give the parties—
 - (i) if the chief executive decides to cancel the contract under section 36(c), (e) or (h)—an information notice for the decision; or
 - (ii) if the chief executive decides to cancel the contract other than under section 36(c), (e) or (h)—written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision; or

[s 39]

(iii) if the chief executive decides not to cancel the contract—written notice of the decision.

(2) The decision to cancel the registered training contract takes effect on the day stated in the notice given under subsection (1)(b).

39 Decision about cancellation if show cause notice not given

(1) This section applies if the chief executive does not give the parties a show cause notice under section 37(3).

(2) The chief executive may cancel the registered training contract under section 36 and give the parties written notice of the date of the cancellation.

(3) The cancellation takes effect on the date stated in the notice.

40 Registered training contract ends if cancelled

If a registered training contract is cancelled before it is completed, the apprenticeship or traineeship of the person who was the apprentice or trainee ends on the day the contract is cancelled.

Division 7 Discipline

41 Definition for div 7

In this division—

misconduct, for a party to a registered training contract, means—

(a) the party fails to carry out a reasonable and lawful instruction that is consistent with the party's obligations under the contract given by—

- (i) if the party is the employer—the chief executive;
or
 - (ii) if the party is the apprentice or trainee, any of the following—
 - (A) the chief executive;
 - (B) the employer;
 - (C) the employer’s agent or employee;
 - (D) the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee; or
 - (b) the party does not—
 - (i) keep a training record prescribed by regulation in the way prescribed by regulation; or
 - (ii) when requested by any of the following persons, produce the record for the person’s inspection—
 - (A) another party to the contract;
 - (B) the chief executive;
 - (C) the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee under the registered training contract; or
 - (c) if the party is the employer—the party does not comply with section 56, 57 or 58; or
 - (d) if the party is the apprentice or trainee—the party does not comply with section 55.

42 Discipline

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive reasonably believes a party to a registered training contract—
 - (a) has contravened this Act or the contract; or
 - (b) has engaged in misconduct.
- (2) The chief executive may make an order—

[s 43]

- (a) reprimanding the party; or
 - (b) directing the party to pay the chief executive an amount of not more than 4 penalty units.
- (3) A order under subsection (2)(b) may direct—
- (a) the party to pay the amount directly or by instalments over a stated period; or
 - (b) if the party is the apprentice or trainee—despite the Industrial Relations Act 1999, section 391, the apprentice’s or trainee’s employer to deduct the amount directly or by instalments over a stated period from the apprentice’s or trainee’s wages and pay it to the chief executive.
- (4) A person must not contravene an order made under subsection (2)(b).

Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—50 penalty units.

43 Chief executive must give show cause notice before making an order

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is proposing to make an order under section 42(2).
- (2) The chief executive must first give each party to the registered training contract a notice (a show cause notice) stating—
 - (a) the order the chief executive proposes to make; and
 - (b) the reasons for the proposed order; and
 - (c) that the party may, within 14 days after the notice is given, give the chief executive a written response to the proposed order.

44 Decision about order after show cause notice

- (1) After considering any written response received from a party to the registered training contract within the time stated in the show cause notice under section 43(2)(c), the chief executive must decide whether to make an order under section 42(2).

- (2) If the chief executive decides to make an order under section 42(2), the chief executive must give the parties an information notice for the decision.

Division 8 Completion of registered training contract

Subdivision 1 Issue of completion certificate

45 Issue of completion certificate if all parties agree

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the parties to a registered training contract are satisfied the apprentice or trainee under the contract has completed all training and assessment required under the training plan for the apprentice or trainee; and
 - (b) the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee has issued the qualification or statement of attainment stated in the plan.

Note—

See part 4 for provisions about training plans.

- (2) The parties to the registered training contract and the supervising registered training organisation must sign an agreement in the approved form (the completion agreement) stating that all training and assessment required under the training plan has been completed by the apprentice or trainee.
- (3) If the apprentice or trainee is under 18 years, the completion agreement must also include the signed consent of a parent of the apprentice or trainee.

- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances for a parent to give signed consent.

Example—

It may be inappropriate for a parent to give signed consent if the apprentice or trainee is living independently of his or her parents.

- (5) A person must not state anything in the completion agreement that is false or misleading.

Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—50 penalty units.

46 Supervising registered training organisation must give completion agreement to chief executive

The supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee must give the completion agreement to the chief executive within 10 days after the agreement is signed.

47 Decision by chief executive about issue of completion certificate if all parties agree

- (1) On receiving the completion agreement, the chief executive must decide whether or not to issue a completion certificate for the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) The chief executive may issue the completion certificate only if satisfied that the apprentice or trainee has completed the apprenticeship or traineeship in accordance with this Act.
- (3) The chief executive may request further information before deciding whether to issue a completion certificate.
- (4) If the chief executive decides to issue the completion certificate, the chief executive must immediately—
- (a) give written notice of the decision to the parties to the registered training contract and the supervising registered training organisation; and
 - (b) give the apprentice or trainee the completion certificate.

- (5) If the chief executive decides not to issue the completion certificate, the chief executive must immediately give the parties to the contract and the supervising registered training organisation written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.

48 Notification of failure to sign completion agreement

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the apprentice's or trainee's supervising registered training organisation is reasonably satisfied—
 - (i) all training and assessment under the training plan for the apprentice or trainee has been completed by the apprentice or trainee; and
 - (ii) the apprentice or trainee has been, or is entitled to be, issued with the qualification or statement of attainment for the apprenticeship or traineeship; and
 - (b) the employer or apprentice or trainee—
 - (i) has refused or neglected to sign a completion agreement after being requested to do so; or
 - (ii) has not signed a completion agreement because they can not be contacted.
- (2) The supervising registered training organisation must advise the chief executive in writing—
- (a) that the organisation is reasonably satisfied of the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(a) and the reasons it is reasonably satisfied; and
 - (b) of the party to the registered training contract that has not signed the completion agreement.

[s 49]

49 Chief executive must give notice to the parties to the registered training contract

On receiving notice from the apprentice's or trainee's supervising registered training organisation under section 48, the chief executive must give each party to the registered training contract written notice stating that—

- (a) the supervising registered training organisation has advised the chief executive of the matters mentioned in section 48(1)(a); and
- (b) the chief executive is considering whether to issue a completion certificate to the apprentice or trainee; and
- (c) the party may, within 21 days after the notice is given, advise the chief executive whether the party considers the completion certificate should be given, including the reasons for the party's view.

50 Decision by chief executive about issue of completion certificate if all parties do not agree

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive has given notice to the parties to the registered training contract under section 49; and
 - (b) 21 days have elapsed since the notice was given.
- (2) The chief executive must decide whether or not to issue a completion certificate for the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (3) The chief executive may issue the completion certificate only if satisfied that the apprentice or trainee has completed the apprenticeship or traineeship in accordance with this Act.
- (4) If the chief executive decides to issue the completion certificate, the chief executive must immediately—
 - (a) give written notice of the decision to the parties to the registered training contract and the supervising registered training organisation; and
 - (b) give the apprentice or trainee the completion certificate.

- (5) If the chief executive decides not to issue the completion certificate, the chief executive must immediately give the parties to the contract and the supervising registered training organisation written notice of the decision, including the reasons for the decision.

51 Issue of completion certificate ends registered training contract

- (1) The registered training contract for an apprentice or trainee ends when the chief executive issues a completion certificate for the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) This section applies despite the nominal term of the contract.

Subdivision 2 Cancellation of completion certificate

52 Chief executive must give show cause notice before cancelling completion certificate

- (1) The chief executive may cancel a completion certificate if the chief executive reasonably believes the certificate was issued—
- (a) in error; or
 - (b) because of a materially false or misleading representation or declaration.
- (2) The chief executive must first give the holder of the completion certificate a notice (a show cause notice) stating—
- (a) that the chief executive is considering cancelling the completion certificate; and
 - (b) the reason for the proposed cancellation; and

[s 53]

Part 2 General provisions about inspectors

Division 1 Functions and appointment

114 Functions of inspectors

An inspector has the following functions—

- (a) to investigate, monitor and enforce compliance with this Act;
- (b) to investigate or monitor whether an occasion has arisen for the exercise of powers under this Act;
- (c) to facilitate the exercise of powers under this Act.

115 Appointment and qualifications

- (1) The chief executive may, by instrument in writing, appoint any of the following persons as an inspector—
 - (a) a public service officer of the department;
 - (b) a person prescribed by regulation.
- (2) However, the chief executive may appoint a person as an inspector only if the chief executive is satisfied the person is qualified for appointment because the person has the necessary expertise or experience.

116 Appointment conditions and limit on powers

- (1) An inspector holds office on any conditions stated in—
 - (a) the inspector's instrument of appointment; or
 - (b) a signed notice given to the inspector; or
 - (c) a regulation.

[s 117]

- (2) The instrument of appointment, a signed notice given to the inspector or a regulation may limit the inspector's powers.
- (3) In this section—
signed notice means a notice signed by the chief executive.

117 When office ends

- (1) The office of a person as an inspector ends if any of the following happens—
 - (a) the term of office stated in a condition of office ends;
 - (b) under another condition of office, the office ends;
 - (c) the inspector's resignation under section 118 takes effect.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the ways the office of a person as an inspector ends.
- (3) In this section—
condition of office means a condition under which the inspector holds office.

118 Resignation

- (1) An inspector may resign by signed notice given to the chief executive.
- (2) However, if holding office as an inspector is a condition of the inspector holding another office, the inspector may not resign as an inspector without resigning from the other office.

Division 2 Identity cards

119 Issue of identity card

- (1) The chief executive must issue an identity card to each inspector.

- (2) The identity card must—
 - (a) contain a recent photo of the inspector; and
 - (b) contain a copy of the inspector's signature; and
 - (c) identify the person as an inspector under this Act; and
 - (d) state an expiry date for the card.
- (3) This section does not prevent the issue of a single identity card to a person for this Act and other purposes.

120 Production or display of identity card

- (1) In exercising a power in relation to a person in the person's presence, an inspector must—
 - (a) produce the inspector's identity card for the person's inspection before exercising the power; or
 - (b) have the identity card displayed so it is clearly visible to the person when exercising the power.
- (2) However, if it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must produce the identity card for the person's inspection at the first reasonable opportunity.
- (3) For subsection (1), an inspector does not exercise a power in relation to a person only because the inspector has entered a place as mentioned in section 124(1)(b).

121 Return of identity card

If the office of a person as an inspector ends, the person must return the person's identity card to the chief executive within 21 days after the office ends unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Division 3 Miscellaneous provisions

122 References to exercise of powers

If—

- (a) a provision of this chapter refers to the exercise of a power by an inspector; and
- (b) there is no reference to a specific power;

the reference is to the exercise of all or any inspectors' powers under this chapter or a warrant, to the extent the powers are relevant.

123 Reference to document includes reference to reproductions from electronic document

A reference in this chapter to a document includes a reference to an image or writing—

- (a) produced from an electronic document; or
- (b) not yet produced, but reasonably capable of being produced, from an electronic document, with or without the aid of another article or device.

Part 3 Entry of places by inspectors

Division 1 Power to enter

124 General power to enter places

- (1) An inspector may enter a place if—

- (a) an occupier at the place consents under division 2 to the entry and section 127 has been complied with for the occupier; or
 - (b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or
 - (c) the entry is authorised under a warrant and, if there is an occupier of the place, section 134 has been complied with for the occupier.
- (2) If the power to enter arose only because an occupier of the place consented to the entry, the power is subject to any conditions of the consent and ceases if the consent is withdrawn.
- (3) If the power to enter is under a warrant, the power is subject to the terms of the warrant.

Division 2 Entry by consent

125 Application of div 2

This division applies if an inspector intends to ask an occupier of a place to consent to the inspector or another inspector entering the place under section 124(1)(a).

126 Incidental entry to ask for access

For the purpose of asking the occupier for the consent, an inspector may, without the occupier's consent or a warrant—

- (a) enter land around premises at the place to an extent that is reasonable to contact the occupier; or
- (b) enter part of the place the inspector reasonably considers members of the public ordinarily are allowed to enter when they wish to contact an occupier of the place.

[s 127]

127 Matters inspector must tell occupier

Before asking for the consent, the inspector must give a reasonable explanation to the occupier—

- (a) about the purpose of the entry, including the powers intended to be exercised; and
- (b) that the occupier is not required to consent; and
- (c) that the consent may be given subject to conditions and may be withdrawn at any time.

128 Consent acknowledgement

- (1) If the consent is given, the inspector may ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgement of the consent.
- (2) The acknowledgement must state—
 - (a) the purpose of the entry, including the powers to be exercised; and
 - (b) the following has been explained to the occupier—
 - (i) the purpose of the entry, including the powers intended to be exercised;
 - (ii) that the occupier is not required to consent;
 - (iii) that the consent may be given subject to conditions and may be withdrawn at any time; and
 - (c) the occupier gives the inspector or another inspector consent to enter the place and exercise the powers; and
 - (d) the time and day the consent was given; and
 - (e) any conditions of the consent.
- (3) If the occupier signs the acknowledgement, the inspector must immediately give a copy to the occupier.
- (4) If—
 - (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether the occupier consented to the entry; and

- (b) an acknowledgement complying with subsection (2) for the entry is not produced in evidence;

the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry to prove the occupier consented.

Division 3 Entry under warrant

129 Application for warrant

- (1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place.
- (2) The inspector must prepare a written application that states the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (3) The written application must be sworn.
- (4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the written application to be given by statutory declaration.

130 Issue of warrant

- (1) The magistrate may issue the warrant for the place only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is at the place, or will be at the place within the next 7 days, a particular thing or activity that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act.
- (2) The warrant must state—
 - (a) the place to which the warrant applies; and
 - (b) that a stated inspector or any inspector may with necessary and reasonable help and force—

[s 131]

- (i) enter the place and any other place necessary for entry to the place; and
- (ii) exercise the inspector's powers; and
- (c) particulars of the offence that the magistrate considers appropriate; and
- (d) the name of the person suspected of having committed the offence unless the name is unknown or the magistrate considers it inappropriate to state the name; and
- (e) the evidence that may be seized under the warrant; and
- (f) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and
- (g) the magistrate's name; and
- (h) the day and time of the warrant's issue; and
- (i) the day, within 14 days after the warrant's issue, the warrant ends.

131 Electronic application

- (1) An application under section 129 may be made by phone, fax, email, radio, videoconferencing or another form of electronic communication if the inspector reasonably considers it necessary because of—
 - (a) urgent circumstances; or
 - (b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the inspector's remote location.
- (2) The application—
 - (a) may not be made before the inspector prepares the written application under section 129(2); but
 - (b) may be made before the written application is sworn.

132 Additional procedure if electronic application

- (1) For an application made under section 131, the magistrate may issue the warrant (the original warrant) only if the magistrate is satisfied—
 - (a) it was necessary to make the application under section 131; and
 - (b) the way the application was made under section 131 was appropriate.
- (2) After the magistrate issues the original warrant—
 - (a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the warrant to the inspector, including, for example, by sending a copy by fax or email, the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the warrant to the inspector; or
 - (b) otherwise—
 - (i) the magistrate must tell the inspector the information mentioned in section 130(2); and
 - (ii) the inspector must complete a form of warrant, including by writing on it the information mentioned in section 130(2) provided by the magistrate.
- (3) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection (2)(a), or the form of warrant completed under subsection (2)(b) (in either case the duplicate warrant), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant.
- (4) The inspector must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—
 - (a) the written application complying with section 129(2) and (3); and
 - (b) if the inspector completed a form of warrant under subsection (2)(b)—the completed form of warrant.
- (5) The magistrate must keep the original warrant and, on receiving the documents under subsection (4)—

[s 133]

- (a) attach the documents to the original warrant; and
 - (b) give the original warrant and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant Magistrates Court.
- (6) Despite subsection (3), if—
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and
 - (b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence;
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power.
- (7) This section does not limit section 129.
- (8) In this section—
- relevant Magistrates Court*, in relation to a magistrate, means the Magistrates Court that the magistrate constitutes under the Magistrates Act 1991.

133 Defect in relation to a warrant

- (1) A warrant is not invalidated by a defect in—
- (a) the warrant; or
 - (b) compliance with this division;
- unless the defect affects the substance of the warrant in a material particular.
- (2) In this section—
- warrant* includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 132(3).

134 Entry procedure

- (1) This section applies if an inspector is intending to enter a place under a warrant issued under this division.

- (2) Before entering the place, the inspector must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—
- (a) identify himself or herself to a person who is an occupier of the place and is present by producing the inspector's identity card or another document evidencing the inspector's appointment;
 - (b) give the person a copy of the warrant;
 - (c) tell the person the inspector is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the inspector immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) However, the inspector need not comply with subsection (2) if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that entry to the place is required to ensure the execution of the warrant is not frustrated.
- (4) In this section—
- warrant* includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 132(3).

Part 4 Other inspector's powers and related matters

Division 1 General powers of inspectors after entering places

135 Application of div 1

- (1) The powers under this division may be exercised if an inspector enters a place under section 124(1)(a) or (c).

[s 136]

- (2) However, if the inspector enters under section 124(1)(a) or (c), the powers under this division are subject to any conditions of the consent or terms of the warrant.

136 General powers

- (1) The inspector may do any of the following (each a general power)—
- (a) search any part of the place;
 - (b) inspect, examine or film any part of the place or anything at the place;
 - (c) take for examination a thing, or a sample of or from a thing, at the place;
 - (d) place an identifying mark in or on anything at the place;
 - (e) take an extract from, or copy, a document at the place, or take the document to another place to copy;
 - (f) produce an image or writing at the place from an electronic document or, to the extent it is not practicable, take a thing containing an electronic document to another place to produce an image or writing;
 - (g) take to, into or onto the place and use any person, equipment and materials the inspector reasonably requires for exercising the inspector's powers under this division;
 - (h) remain at the place for the time necessary to achieve the purpose of the entry.
- (2) The inspector may take a necessary step to allow the exercise of a general power.
- (3) If the inspector takes a document from the place to copy it, the inspector must copy and return the document to the place as soon as practicable.
- (4) If the inspector takes from the place an article or device reasonably capable of producing a document from an electronic document to produce the document, the inspector must produce the document and return the article or device to the place as soon as practicable.

(5) In this section—

examine includes analyse, test, account, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify.

film includes photograph, videotape and record an image in another way.

inspect, a thing, includes open the thing and examine its contents.

137 Power to require reasonable help

- (1) The inspector may make a requirement (a help requirement) of an occupier of the place or a person at the place to give the inspector reasonable help to exercise a general power, including, for example, to produce a document or to give information.
- (2) When making the help requirement, the inspector must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

138 Offence to contravene help requirement

- (1) A person of whom a help requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with a help requirement if complying might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if a document or information the subject of the help requirement is required to be held or kept by the defendant under this Act.

Division 2 Seizure and forfeiture

Subdivision 1 Power to seize

139 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant

An inspector who enters a place the inspector may enter under this chapter without the consent of an occupier of the place and without a warrant may seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act.

140 Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered only with consent or warrant

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an inspector is authorised to enter a place only with the consent of an occupier of the place or a warrant; and
 - (b) the inspector enters the place after obtaining the consent or under a warrant.
- (2) If the inspector enters the place with the occupier's consent, the inspector may seize a thing at the place only if—
 - (a) the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as explained to the occupier when asking for the occupier's consent.
- (3) If the inspector enters the place under a warrant, the inspector may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.
- (4) The inspector may also seize anything else at the place if the inspector reasonably believes—
 - (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and

- (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—
 - (i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or
 - (ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.
 - (5) The inspector may also seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes it has just been used in committing an offence against this Act.

141 Seizure of property subject to security

- (1) An inspector may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.
- (2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person's claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the inspector or a person acting for the inspector.

Subdivision 2 Powers to support seizure

142 Requirement of person in control of thing to be seized

- (1) To enable a thing to be seized, an inspector may require the person in control of it—
 - (a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and
 - (b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a stated reasonable period.
- (2) The requirement—
 - (a) must be made by notice; or
 - (b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give a notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice as soon as practicable.

[s 143]

143 Offence to contravene seizure requirement

A person of whom a requirement is made under section 142 must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

144 Power to secure seized thing

- (1) Having seized a thing under this division, an inspector may—
 - (a) leave it at the place where it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or
 - (b) move it from the place of seizure.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the inspector may, for example—
 - (a) seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of seizure, and mark the thing or place to show access to the thing or place is restricted; or
 - (b) for equipment—make it inoperable; or

Example—

make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a component without which the equipment can not be used

- (c) require a person the inspector reasonably believes is in control of the place or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or anything else an inspector could do under subsection (1)(a).

145 Offence to contravene other seizure requirement

A person must comply with a requirement made of the person under section 144(2)(c) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

146 Offence to interfere

- (1) If access to a seized thing is restricted under section 144, a person must not tamper with the thing or with anything used to restrict access to the thing without—
- (a) an inspector's approval; or
 - (b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) If access to a place is restricted under section 144, a person must not enter the place in contravention of the restriction or tamper with anything used to restrict access to the place without—
- (a) an inspector's approval; or
 - (b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

Subdivision 3 Safeguards for seized things

147 Receipt and information notice for seized thing

- (1) This section applies if an inspector seizes anything under this division unless—
- (a) the inspector reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or
 - (b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the inspector to comply with this section.
- (2) The inspector must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—
- (a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and

[s 148]

- (b) an information notice about the decision to seize it.
- (3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.
- (4) The receipt and information notice may—
 - (a) be given in the same document; and
 - (b) relate to more than 1 seized thing.
- (5) The inspector may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the inspector reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the inspector under this Act.
- (6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the inspector continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was seized to keep it under observation.

148 Access to seized thing

- (1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the inspector who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—
 - (a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and
 - (b) if it is a document—to copy it.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.
- (3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.

149 Return of seized thing

- (1) This section applies if a seized thing has some intrinsic value and is not—

- (a) forfeited or transferred under subdivision 4 or 5; or
 - (b) subject to a disposal order under division 3.
- (2) The inspector must return the seized thing to an owner—
- (a) generally—at the end of 6 months after the seizure; or
 - (b) if a proceeding for an offence involving the thing is started within the 6 months—at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if the thing was seized as evidence, the inspector must return the thing seized to an owner as soon as practicable after the inspector is satisfied—
- (a) its continued retention as evidence is no longer necessary; and
 - (b) its continued retention is not necessary to prevent it being used to continue, or repeat, an offence against this Act; and
 - (c) it is lawful for the owner to possess it.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing.

Subdivision 4 Forfeiture

150 Forfeiture by chief executive decision

- (1) The chief executive may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an inspector—
- (a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or
 - (b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner.
- (2) However, the inspector is not required to—
- (a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or

[s 151]

- (b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner.

Example for paragraph (b)—

the owner of the thing has migrated to another country

- (3) Regard must be had to the thing's condition, nature and value in deciding—
 - (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and
 - (b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

151 Information notice about forfeiture decision

- (1) If the chief executive decides under section 150(1) to forfeit a thing, the chief executive must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice for the decision.
- (2) The information notice may be given by leaving it at the place where the thing was seized, in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
- (3) The information notice must state that the former owner may apply for a stay of the decision if he or she appeals against the decision.
- (4) However, subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if the place where the thing was seized is—
 - (a) a public place; or
 - (b) a place where the notice is unlikely to be read by the former owner.

152 Forfeiture on conviction

- (1) On the conviction of a person for an offence against this Act, the court may order the forfeiture to the State of—
 - (a) anything used to commit the offence; or

- (b) anything else the subject of the offence.
- (2) The court may make the order—
 - (a) whether or not the thing has been seized; or
 - (b) if the thing has been seized—whether or not the thing has been returned to the former owner of the thing.
- (3) The court may make any order to enforce the forfeiture it considers appropriate.
- (4) This section does not limit the court's powers under another law.

153 Procedure and powers for making forfeiture order

- (1) A forfeiture order may be made on a conviction on the court's initiative or on an application by the prosecution.
- (2) In deciding whether to make a forfeiture order for a thing, the court—
 - (a) may require notice to be given to anyone the court considers appropriate, including, for example, any person who may have any property in the thing; and
 - (b) must hear any submissions that any person claiming to have any property in the thing may wish to make.

Subdivision 5 Dealing with property forfeited or transferred to State

154 When thing becomes property of the State

A thing becomes the property of the State if—

- (a) the thing is forfeited to the State under section 150(1) or 152; or
- (b) the owner of the thing and the State agree, in writing, to the transfer of the ownership of the thing to the State.

155 How property may be dealt with

- (1) This section applies if, under section 154, a thing becomes the property of the State.
- (2) The chief executive may deal with the thing as the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.
- (3) The chief executive must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal against the forfeiture under this part.
- (4) If the chief executive sells the thing, the chief executive may, after deducting the costs of the sale, return the proceeds of the sale to the former owner of the thing.
- (5) This section is subject to any disposal order made for the thing.

Division 3 Disposal orders

156 Disposal order

- (1) This section applies if a person is convicted of an offence against this Act.
- (2) The court may make an order (a disposal order), on its own initiative or on an application by the prosecution, for the disposal of any of the following things owned by the person—
 - (a) anything that was the subject of, or used to commit, the offence;
 - (b) another thing the court considers is likely to be used by the person or another person in committing a further offence against this Act.
- (3) The court may make a disposal order for a thing—
 - (a) whether or not it has been seized under this Act; and
 - (b) if the thing has been seized—whether or not it has been returned to the former owner.

- (4) In deciding whether to make a disposal order for a thing, the court—
 - (a) may require notice to be given to anyone the court considers appropriate, including, for example, any person who may have any property in the thing; and
 - (b) must hear any submissions that any person claiming to have any property in the thing may wish to make.
 - (5) The court may make any order to enforce the disposal order that it considers appropriate.
 - (6) This section does not limit the court's powers under another law.

Division 4 Other information-obtaining powers of inspectors

157 Power to require name and address

- (1) This section applies if an inspector—
 - (a) finds a person committing an offence against this Act; or
 - (b) finds a person in circumstances that lead the inspector to reasonably suspect the person has just committed an offence against this Act; or
 - (c) has information that leads the inspector to reasonably suspect a person has just committed an offence against this Act.
- (2) The inspector may require the person to state the person's name and residential address.
- (3) The inspector may also require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or address if, in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the person to—

[s 158]

- (a) be in possession of evidence of the correctness of the stated name or address; or
 - (b) otherwise be able to give the evidence.
- (4) When making a personal details requirement, the inspector must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.
- (5) A requirement under this section is a personal details requirement.

158 Offence to contravene personal details requirement

- (1) A person of whom a personal details requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) A person may not be convicted of an offence under subsection (1) unless the person is found guilty of the offence in relation to which the personal details requirement was made.

159 Power to require information

- (1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes—
- (a) an offence against this Act has been committed; and
 - (b) a person may be able to give information about the offence.
- (2) The inspector may, by notice given to the person, require the person to give the inspector information related to the offence at a stated reasonable time and place.
- (3) A requirement under subsection (2) is an information requirement.
- (4) For information that is an electronic document, compliance with the information requirement requires the giving of a clear image or written version of the electronic document.
- (5) In this section—

information includes a document.

160 Offence to contravene information requirement

- (1) A person of whom an information requirement is made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to give the information if giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.

Part 5 Miscellaneous provisions relating to inspectors

Division 1 Damage

161 Duty to avoid inconvenience and minimise damage

In exercising a power, an inspector must take all reasonable steps to cause as little inconvenience, and do as little damage, as possible.

Note—

See also section 163.

162 Notice of damage

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an inspector damages something when exercising, or purporting to exercise, a power; or

[s 162]

- (b) a person (the assistant) acting under the direction or authority of an inspector damages something.
- (2) However, this section does not apply to damage the inspector reasonably considers is trivial or if the inspector reasonably believes—
 - (a) there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing; or
 - (b) the thing has been abandoned.
 - (3) The inspector must give notice of the damage to the person who appears to the inspector to be an owner, or person in control, of the thing.
 - (4) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (3), the inspector must—
 - (a) leave the notice at the place where the damage happened; and
 - (b) ensure it is left in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
 - (5) The inspector may delay complying with subsection (3) or (4) if the inspector reasonably suspects complying with the subsection may frustrate or otherwise hinder the performance of an inspector's functions.
 - (6) The delay may be only for so long as the inspector continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place.
 - (7) If the inspector believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the thing or other circumstances beyond the control of the inspector or the assistant, the inspector may state the belief in the notice.
 - (8) The notice must state—
 - (a) particulars of the damage; and
 - (b) that the person who suffered the damage may claim compensation under section 163.

Division 2 Compensation

163 Compensation

- (1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs loss because of the exercise, or purported exercise, of a power by or for an inspector including a loss arising from compliance with a requirement made of the person under this chapter.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not include loss arising from a lawful seizure or lawful forfeiture.
- (3) The compensation may be claimed and ordered in a proceeding—
 - (a) brought in a court with jurisdiction for the recovery of the amount of compensation claimed; or
 - (b) for an alleged offence against this Act the investigation of which gave rise to the claim for compensation.
- (4) A court may order the payment of compensation only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case.
- (5) In considering whether it is just to order compensation, the court must have regard to any relevant offence committed by the claimant.
- (6) A regulation may prescribe other matters that may, or must, be taken into account by the court when considering whether it is just to order compensation.
- (7) Section 161 does not provide for a statutory right of compensation other than is provided by this section.
- (8) In this section—

loss includes costs and damage.

Division 3 Other offences relating to inspectors

164 Giving inspector false or misleading information

- (1) A person must not, in relation to the administration of this Act, give an inspector information, or a document containing information, that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies to information or a document given in relation to the administration of this Act whether or not the information or document was given in response to a specific power under this Act.

165 Obstructing inspector

- (1) A person must not obstruct an inspector, or someone helping an inspector, exercising a power unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) If a person has obstructed an inspector, or someone helping an inspector, and the inspector decides to proceed with the exercise of the power, the inspector must warn the person that—

- (a) it is an offence to cause an obstruction unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and
(b) the inspector considers the person's conduct an obstruction.

- (3) In this section—

obstruct includes assault, hinder, resist, attempt to obstruct and threaten to obstruct.

166 Impersonating inspector

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

Chapter 6 Reviews and appeals

Part 1 Decisions reviewable by QCAT

167 Review by QCAT

- (1) A person aggrieved by any of the following decisions may apply to QCAT for a review of the decision—
- (a) a decision by the chief executive not to recognise a corporation as a group training organisation;
 - (b) a decision by the chief executive to cancel a group training organisation's certificate of recognition;
 - (c) a decision by the chief executive not to recognise a corporation as a principal employer organisation;
 - (d) a decision by the chief executive to cancel a principal employer organisation's certificate of recognition;
 - (e) a decision by the chief executive not to recognise a non-departmental employment skills development program;
 - (f) a decision by the chief executive to withdraw recognition of a non-departmental employment skills development program on the chief executive's own initiative;
 - (g) a decision by the chief executive under chapter 5, part 4, division 2 to seize a thing;

169 Stay of decision being appealed

The industrial relations commission may order that the decision being appealed be wholly or partly stayed pending—

- (a) the determination of the appeal; or
- (b) a further order of the commission.

170 Nature of appeal

- (1) An appeal to the industrial relations commission is by way of rehearing on the record.
- (2) However, the commission may hear fresh or additional evidence, if the commission considers it appropriate to effectively dispose of the appeal.

171 Decision on appeal

- (1) The industrial relations commission must deal with an appeal as quickly as possible.
- (2) The commission may—
 - (a) dismiss the appeal; or
 - (b) allow the appeal, set aside the decision being appealed and substitute another decision; or
 - (c) allow the appeal and amend the decision; or
 - (d) allow the appeal, suspend the operation of the decision and remit the matter, with or without directions, to the chief executive to act according to law.
- (3) Subject to section 173, the commission's decision—
 - (a) is final and conclusive; and
 - (b) can not be impeached for informality or want of form.

[s 172]

172 Exclusive jurisdiction

- (1) The industrial relations commission's jurisdiction is exclusive of any court's jurisdiction and an injunction or prerogative order can not be issued, granted or made in relation to proceedings in the commission that are within the commission's jurisdiction.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to section 173.

173 Appeal to Industrial Court on question of law

- (1) A party to an appeal to the industrial relations commission may appeal against the commission's decision to the Industrial Court on a question of law only.
- (2) The Industrial Relations Act 1999 applies, with any necessary changes, to a proceeding on appeal before the Industrial Court brought under subsection (1).

Chapter 7 Legal proceedings

Part 1 Application

174 Application of ch 7

This chapter applies to a legal proceeding under this Act.

Part 2 Evidentiary aids

175 Appointments and authority

For a proceeding under this Act, the following must be presumed unless a party to the proceeding, by reasonable notice of at least 7 days, requires proof of it—

- (a) the chief executive's appointment;
- (b) an inspector's appointment;
- (c) the authority of any of the following persons to do anything under this Act—
 - (i) the Minister;
 - (ii) the chief executive;
 - (iii) an inspector.

176 Proof of signatures unnecessary

A signature purporting to be the signature of any of the following is evidence of the signature it purports to be—

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) the chief executive;
- (c) an inspector.

177 Evidentiary provisions

A certificate purporting to be signed by the chief executive and stating any of the following matters is evidence of the matter—

- (a) a stated document is 1 of the following things made, given, issued or kept under this Act—
 - (i) an appointment or decision;
 - (ii) a notice or requirement;

[s 178]

- (iii) a record or report, or an extract from a record or report;
- (b) a stated document is another document kept under this Act;
- (c) a stated document is a copy of a thing mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);
- (d) on a stated day, or during a stated period, an appointment as an inspector was, or was not, in force for a stated person;
- (e) on a stated day, a stated person was given a stated notice under this Act;
- (f) on a stated day, a stated requirement was made of a stated person;
- (g) a stated amount is payable under this Act by a stated person and has not been paid.

Part 3 Proceedings for offences

178 Summary offences

A proceeding for an offence against this Act is to be taken in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886.

179 Limitation on time for starting proceedings

A proceeding for an offence against this Act must start within the later of the following periods to end—

- (a) 1 year after the commission of the offence;
- (b) 6 months after the offence comes to the knowledge of the complainant, but within 2 years after the commission of the offence.

180 Statement of complainant's knowledge

A statement in a complaint for an offence against this Act that the matter of the complaint came to the complainant's knowledge on a stated day is evidence of the matter stated.

181 Responsibility for acts or omissions of representatives

- (1) This section applies in a proceeding for an offence against this Act.
- (2) If it is relevant to prove a person's state of mind about a particular act or omission, it is enough to show—
 - (a) the act was done or omitted to be done by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) the representative had the state of mind.
- (3) An act done or omitted to be done for a person by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority is taken to have been done or omitted to be done also by the person, unless the person proves the person could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the act or omission.
- (4) In this section—

representative means—

 - (a) for a corporation—an executive officer, employee or agent of the corporation; or
 - (b) for an individual—an employee or agent of the individual.

state of mind, of a person, includes—

 - (a) the person's knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose; and
 - (b) the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

Chapter 8 Miscellaneous

Part 1 Trusts

182 Definitions for pt 1

In this part—

approved arrangement means an arrangement—

- (a) approved by the Minister under section 183(4); and
- (b) notified by gazette notice under section 183(5).

trust property see section 183(1).

183 Variation of trust purposes

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) property (trust property) is held by or for the State, on the commencement of this section or at a later time, on terms requiring the property or income from the property to be applied to a purpose (the original purpose) intended to further in any way the objects of this Act or the repealed Act; and
- (b) 1 or more of the following happens—
 - (i) the original purpose is carried out;
 - (ii) the original purpose ceases to exist;
 - (iii) the original purpose is adequately provided for otherwise;
 - (iv) the original purpose is uncertain, insufficiently defined or can not be identified;
 - (v) it is or becomes impossible, impracticable or inexpedient to carry out the original purpose;

- (vi) the trust property or income from the trust property is not enough to carry out the original purpose.
- (2) The chief executive may propose an arrangement to apply the trust property or a part of it, or the income from the trust property, to a purpose stated in the proposal.
 - (3) The chief executive must submit the proposed arrangement in writing to the Minister.
 - (4) The proposed arrangement has no effect unless it is approved by the Minister.
 - (5) If the Minister approves the proposed arrangement, the approval must be notified by gazette notice.
 - (6) The approval takes effect from the publication of the gazette notice or, if a later day is stated in the gazette notice, from the later day.
 - (7) Despite the original purpose for which the trust property was held immediately before the approved arrangement becomes effective, when the approved arrangement becomes effective the trust property or income from it is to be applied to the purpose stated in the approved arrangement.
 - (8) However, the chief executive may not propose an arrangement under subsection (2) for trust property if the trust instrument under which the property is held on trust states the way the property is to be dealt with if something mentioned in subsection (1)(b) happens.

184 Variation of approved arrangement

- (1) The chief executive may propose a variation of an approved arrangement.
- (2) The chief executive must submit the proposed variation in writing to the Minister.
- (3) The proposed variation has no effect unless it is approved by the Minister.
- (4) If the Minister approves the proposed variation—

[s 185]

- (a) the variation must be notified by gazette notice; and
- (b) the approved arrangement, as varied, is taken to be the approved arrangement for the trust property, or the part of the property to which it relates, on publication of the gazette notice or a later day stated in the notice.

185 Requirements about purposes for arrangements

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive proposes—
 - (a) an arrangement under section 183(2); or
 - (b) a variation of an approved arrangement under section 184(1) and the proposal is to change the purpose of the approved arrangement.
- (2) The chief executive must—
 - (a) propose a purpose that, in the chief executive's opinion, is as similar as possible to the purpose for which the trust property is held by or for the State immediately before the arrangement or variation is proposed; and
 - (b) in choosing the purpose, have regard to—
 - (i) its usefulness; and
 - (ii) how easily it can be achieved.
- (3) The fact that the chief executive might have chosen another purpose for the arrangement or variation, other than the chosen purpose, is not itself a sufficient ground for a court—
 - (a) to declare the chief executive's chosen purpose invalid or defective; or
 - (b) to stop the chief executive's chosen purpose being carried out.

186 Recording arrangements and variations in land register

- (1) This section applies if all or part of the trust property to which an approved arrangement, or a variation of an approved arrangement, relates is land.
- (2) The chief executive must notify the registrar of titles or other person (each a recorder) charged by law with recording dealings for the land of the approved arrangement or variation of an approved arrangement within 1 month after the approval of the arrangement or variation takes effect.
- (3) On receiving the notification and any other particulars about the land, arrangement or variation the recorder requires, the recorder must make, in the appropriate register, the entries necessary to record the existence of the approved arrangement or variation.

187 Rights and jurisdiction in equity not affected

Other than as provided in this part, this part does not affect—

- (a) rights, entitlements and obligations conferred or imposed by law for property held on trust; or
- (b) the jurisdiction of a court to enforce, or make a declaration about, trusts.

Part 2 Other matters

188 False or misleading statements to official

- (1) A person must not state anything to an official the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) In this section—

official means—

[s 189]

- (a) the chief executive or the chief executive's delegate; or
- (b) an inspector.

189 False or misleading documents to official

- (1) A person must not give an official a document containing information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who, when giving the document—

- (a) tells the official, to the best of the person's ability, how it is false or misleading; and
- (b) if the person has, or can get, the correct information—gives the official the correct information.

- (3) In this section—

official has the meaning given by section 188.

190 Duty to act honestly

- (1) This section applies if a person exercises a power or performs a function under this Act.

- (2) In exercising the power or performing the function, the person must act honestly.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (3) The person must not use any information acquired in exercising the power or performing the function to, directly or indirectly—

- (a) gain a benefit for the person or someone else; or
- (b) cause a detriment to someone else.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—50 penalty units.

191 Protection of confidentiality

- (1) This section applies if a person (the first person) obtains information about another person—
 - (a) in exercising a power or performing a function under this Act; or
 - (b) because of an opportunity provided by the exercise of the power or performance of the function.
- (2) The first person must not do any of the following—
 - (a) make a record of the information;
 - (b) disclose or communicate the information, whether directly or indirectly;
 - (c) use the information to benefit any person.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (3) However, the first person does not contravene subsection (2) if the disclosure, communication, making of a record, or use, of the information—
 - (a) is necessary to perform the first person's functions under this Act; or
 - (b) is authorised under this or another Act; or
 - (c) is necessary to perform official duties under the Public Records Act 2002; or
 - (d) is otherwise required or permitted by law; or
 - (e) is ordered by a court, commission or tribunal constituted by law in proceedings before it; or
 - (f) is in a form that does not disclose the identity of the other person; or
 - (g) relates to another person who is an adult and the other person consents to the disclosure; or
 - (h) relates to another person who is a child and the child's parent consents to the disclosure; or

[s 192]

- (i) is in a form that does not disclose the identity of the person to whom the information relates; or
- (j) is made with the written consent of the chief executive who may give the consent if reasonably satisfied the disclosure is in the public interest.

192 Representation of parties

- (1) A party to a proceeding for an offence against this Act may be represented in the proceedings by an agent appointed in writing or a lawyer.
- (2) However, a party who is represented by an agent or lawyer can not be awarded costs of the representation.

Part 3 Other provisions

193 Delegations

- (1) The chief executive may delegate the chief executive's functions and powers to an appropriately qualified person.
- (2) A person delegated a function or power may subdelegate it only—
 - (a) if the delegation permits the subdelegation; and
 - (b) to an appropriately qualified person.
- (3) In this section—

appropriately qualified, for an individual, means having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to perform the function or exercise the power.

Example of standing—

a person's classification level in the public service

194 Protection from liability

- (1) A prescribed person is not civilly liable for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to the prescribed person, the liability attaches instead to the State.
- (3) This section does not apply to a prescribed person if the person is a State employee within the meaning of the Public Service Act 2008, section 26B(4).

Note—

For protection from civil liability in relation to State employees—see the Public Service Act 2008, section 26C.

- (4) In this section—

prescribed person means any of the following—

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) an inspector;
- (c) a person acting under the direction of any of the following—
 - (i) the Minister;
 - (ii) the chief executive;
 - (iii) a public service employee employed in the department;
 - (iv) an inspector;
- (d) a person authorised by the chief executive under section 16 or 21.

195 Person may apply for copy of document held by chief executive

- (1) A person may apply to the chief executive for a copy of a document held by the chief executive and prescribed by regulation that relates to an apprenticeship or traineeship for the person.

[s 196]

- (2) A regulation may prescribe the fee payable for providing a copy of the document.

196 Approved forms

The chief executive may approve forms for use under this Act.

197 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation may—
 - (a) provide for the fees payable under this Act; or
 - (b) create offences and impose penalties (including different penalties for successive offences) of not more than 20 penalty units.

Chapter 9 Repeal, savings and transitional provisions

Part 1 Repeal

198 Repeal

The following Acts are repealed—

- Higher Education (General Provisions) Act 2008, No. 25
- Vocational Education, Training and Employment Act 2000, No. 23.

Part 2 Savings and transitional provisions for the Further Education and Training Act 2014

Division 1 Preliminary

199 Definition for pt 2

In this part—

commencement means the commencement of the provision in which the term is used.

Division 2 Apprentices and trainees

200 Declaration of apprenticeship or traineeship continues in force

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a declaration is made by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 47 that employment-based training is an apprenticeship or traineeship; and
 - (b) the declaration is in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The declaration continues in force under this Act as if it were made by the chief executive under this Act.

201 Continuation of registered training contracts

- (1) This section applies to a registered training contract under the repealed Act in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The contract continues in force after the commencement and is taken to be a registered training contract under this Act.

[s 202]

202 Continuation of statutory assignment of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) immediately before the commencement, a registered training contract was taken to have been assigned under the repealed Act, section 59; and
 - (b) the agreed day is on or after the commencement.
- (2) The assignment takes effect under this Act on the agreed day.

203 Agreement to cancel registered training contract continues in force

- (1) This section applies if, within 7 days before the commencement, a registered training contract under the repealed Act was cancelled by agreement between the parties.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a party may not withdraw the party's consent to the application to cancel under section 34 of this Act.

204 Continuation of training plan

- (1) This section applies to a training plan under the repealed Act in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The training plan continues in force after the commencement and is taken to be a training plan under this Act.

205 Continuation of supervising registered training organisation

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a registered training organisation is the supervising registered training organisation for an apprentice or trainee under the repealed Act.
- (2) The registered training organisation continues as the supervising registered training organisation for the apprentice or trainee under this Act after the commencement.

206 Continuation of process for issue of completion certificate

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before the commencement, the chief executive received a signed notice under the repealed Act, section 73(4) about the issue of the qualification or statement of attainment for an apprenticeship or traineeship; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement, the chief executive had not issued a completion certificate for the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) The chief executive must continue to deal with the matter under this Act after the commencement as if the notice mentioned in subsection (1)(a) had been given under section 48(2).

207 Cancellation of completion certificates issued under the repealed Act

- (1) This section applies if a completion certificate was issued under the repealed Act before the commencement.
- (2) The provisions of this Act relating to the cancellation of the certificate apply as if it were issued under this Act.

208 Declaration of restricted calling continues in force

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a declaration made by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 89 that a calling is a restricted calling is in force.
- (2) The declaration continues in force under this Act as if it had been made by the chief executive under this Act.

209 Balance of period of stand down of registered training contract

- (1) This section applies if—

[s 210]

- (a) before the commencement, the chief executive approved an application for a stand down under the repealed Act, section 86; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement, the period of the stand down had not expired.
- (2) The stand down continues to apply after the commencement despite the repeal of the repealed Act.

Division 3 Provisions for group training organisations and principal employer organisations

210 Continued recognition of group training organisations and principal employer organisations

- (1) This section applies to an entity that, immediately before the commencement, was recognised as a group training organisation or principal employer organisation under the repealed Act.
- (2) If the entity was not, immediately before the commencement, subject to a process to withdraw recognition under the repealed Act—
- (a) the entity continues as a group training organisation or principal employer organisation under this Act; and
 - (b) the chief executive must issue the entity with a certificate of recognition under this Act within 3 months after the commencement.
- (3) If, immediately before the commencement, the entity was the subject of a process to withdraw recognition under the repealed Act—
- (a) the entity continues as a group training organisation or principal employer organisation recognised under this Act; and

- (b) the process to withdraw recognition continues under this Act; and
- (c) if the chief executive decides not to withdraw recognition—the chief executive must give the entity a certificate of recognition under this Act within 3 months after the making of the decision.

Division 4 Reviews and appeals

211 Right to apply to QCAT for review under repealed Act

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
 - (a) a person had a right to apply to QCAT for review of a decision made by the chief executive under the repealed Act; and
 - (b) the person had not yet applied to QCAT for the review; and
 - (c) the period for applying for the review under the repealed Act had not expired.
- (2) The person may apply to QCAT for the review, and QCAT must decide the review, under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

212 Review to QCAT started before commencement

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
 - (a) a person had applied to QCAT for review of a decision made by the chief executive under the repealed Act; but
 - (b) the review had not been finally decided.
- (2) QCAT must continue to decide the review under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

[s 213]

- (3) A decision by QCAT on the review is taken to be a decision made under this Act.

213 Right to appeal to industrial relations commission under repealed Act

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
- (a) a person had a right to appeal to the industrial relations commission against a decision made by the chief executive under the repealed Act; and
 - (b) the person had not yet started the appeal; and
 - (c) the period for starting the appeal under the repealed Act had not ended.
- (2) The person may appeal to the industrial relations commission, and the commission must decide the appeal, under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

214 Appeal to industrial relations commission started before commencement

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
- (a) a person had appealed to the industrial relations commission against a decision made by the chief executive under the repealed Act; but
 - (b) the appeal had not been finally decided.
- (2) The industrial relations commission must continue to hear the appeal under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

Division 5 Other provisions

215 Show cause process started before commencement

- (1) This section applies if a show cause process for a matter was started under the repealed Act before the commencement but is not completed immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The show cause process must be completed under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

216 Applications made but not decided before commencement

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
 - (a) the chief executive had received an application under the repealed Act; and
 - (b) the chief executive had not decided the application.
- (2) If this Act does not provide for an equivalent application, the chief executive must decide the application under the repealed Act after the commencement as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.
- (3) If this Act provides for an equivalent application, the application is taken to have been made under this Act.

Example—

an application to register a training contract

- (4) In this section—

application includes a request, a submission for a decision by the chief executive.

217 Requirements that must be completed within a stated time

- (1) This section applies if—

[s 218]

- (a) the repealed Act required a matter to be completed within a stated period or by a stated time; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement—
 - (i) the stated period or time had not expired or elapsed; and
 - (ii) the matter had not been completed.
- (2) The matter must be completed under this Act after the commencement.
- (3) However, the period or time provided for under the repealed Act for completion of the matter continues to apply instead of the period or time provided for under this Act to the extent of any inconsistency.

Example—

Under the repealed Act, a training contract must be signed before the end of the probationary period which may be up to 90 days. Under this Act, the training contract must be signed within 14 days after the day the apprenticeship or traineeship starts. The period for signature of the contract provided for under the repealed Act continues to apply.

218 Continued appointment of inspectors

- (1) This section applies to a person who, immediately before the commencement, was appointed as an inspector under the repealed Act.
- (2) The person continues as an inspector under this Act on the same terms of appointment that applied to the person immediately before the commencement.
- (3) An identity card issued to an inspector under the repealed Act is taken to be an identity card issued under this Act until the earlier of—
 - (a) the issue of an identity card to the inspector under this Act; or
 - (b) 3 months after the commencement.

219 Variation of trust continues in force

- (1) This section applies if a variation of a trust under the repealed Act, section 252 was in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The variation continues in force under this Act after the commencement.

220 Savings provision for TAFE institutes

- (1) This section applies if, on the commencement, a transfer regulation has not come into effect under the TAFE Queensland Act 2013, section 50 transferring the business, assets and liabilities of a TAFE institute to another relevant TAFE entity within the meaning of section 49 of that Act.
- (2) Chapter 6 of the repealed Act continues to apply in relation to the TAFE institute as if the chapter had not been repealed.
- (3) This section stops applying on the day a transfer regulation mentioned in subsection (1) comes into effect.
- (4) In this section
TAFE institute has the meaning given under the repealed Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

221 Relationship with other divs

To the extent of any inconsistency, this division applies subject to divisions 2 to 4.

222 Transitional regulation-making power

- (1) A regulation (a transitional regulation) may make provision of a savings or transitional nature to allow or facilitate the change from the operation of the repealed Act to the operation of this Act.
- (2) A transitional regulation may have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than the day this section commences.

[s 222]

- (3) A transitional regulation must declare it is a transitional regulation.
- (4) This section and any transitional regulation expire 1 year after the commencement.

3 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3003 9601 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.
