  - (C) in another way—the way it was affected and the reason for it being affected; and
- (b) consider whether the person is suitable to work in a child-related field.
- (2) Also, in considering whether a person is suitable to teach the college may have regard to any other matter the college considers relevant, even if the matter happened outside the State.

  - (a) the person’s expanded interstate criminal history; and
  - (b) any other information, that relates to the person’s expanded interstate criminal history, disclosed by the commissioner of police under section 15, or an interstate commissioner of police under section 15A.
- (3) In having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (2), the college must consider the following matters relating to information about the commission, or alleged or possible commission, of an offence by the person—

- (5) However, despite section 11 or 12, in considering whether a person is suitable to teach, the college may have regard to the person’s expanded interstate criminal history, or information of the type mentioned in subsection (2)(b), only to consider whether the person poses a risk of harm to children.

Notes—

- 1 This section implements the Council of Australian Governments’ (COAG) agreement dated 29 November 2008 to facilitate the inter-jurisdictional exchange of criminal history information for people working with children.

Part 3                      Period, and renewal or extension, of registration or permission to teach

Division 1                Period and renewal of full registration and permission to teach

26      Period and renewal of full registration

- (1) The period of full registration is 5 years from the day the college grants the registration.
- (2) However, if the person to whom the registration is granted was the holder of provisional registration, the period of the full registration is reduced by the period for which the person held the provisional registration.

Example—

A person holds provisional registration for 1 year before being granted full registration. The initial period of the person's full registration would be 4 years.

- (3) At the end of the period of the registration, the registration ends.
- (4) However, if an application for renewal of the registration is made before the period of the registration ends, the registration is taken to continue until the application is decided.
- (5) Full registration may be renewed for further periods of 5 years.

27      Period and renewal of permission to teach

- (1) The period of a permission to teach is the period stated in the certificate of permission to teach issued to the holder of the permission.

- (2) The stated period must not be longer than 2 years from the day the college grants the permission.
- (3) Permission to teach may be renewed for further periods not longer than 2 years each.
- (4) However, a permission to teach may be renewed only if the holder has held the permission continuously for at least 2 years.
- (5) At the end of the period of the permission to teach, the permission to teach ends.
- (6) If an application for renewal of permission to teach is made before the period of the permission to teach ends, the permission to teach is taken to continue until the application is decided.

- (5) If the approved form requires the disclosure of the person's police information, the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 does not apply to the disclosure.
- (6) Information contained in or accompanying the application must, if required by the college, be verified by statutory declaration.

Note—

For requirements relating to particular proposed decisions under this subsection to which previously-provided police information for an applicant is relevant—see sections 29(5A) and 31(4).
