- (d) a dangerous goods driver licence under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Dangerous Goods) Regulation 2008.

6 Smartcard transport authorities

- (1) A smartcard transport authority issued to a person by the chief executive may—
 - (a) indicate by way of a code, expression or otherwise that the person holds 1 or more transport authorities; and
 - (b) include information about the person's personal particulars.
- (2) A smartcard transport authority is, in relation to a particular transport authority, subject to the transport authority Act under which the particular transport authority is issued or granted.

- (3) A code or expression used on a smartcard transport authority in relation to a particular transport authority has the meaning given under the transport authority Act under which the particular authority is issued or granted.

7 Interim transport authorities

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive intends to issue a smartcard transport authority to a person.
- (2) The chief executive may issue an interim transport authority to the person.
- (3) An interim transport authority may include the following information—
 - (a) its date of issue;
 - (b) any information that may be included on a smartcard transport authority under section 6;
 - (c) information about anything authorised or required to be stated on it under a transport authority Act.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the information that may be included on an interim transport authority.
- (5) An interim transport authority has effect as if it were a smartcard transport authority until the person receives the smartcard transport authority from the chief executive.

8 Replacement of smartcard transport authority

- (1) This section applies if a person has been issued with a smartcard transport authority and, under a transport authority Act, any of the following happens—
 - (a) the person is granted a transport authority;
 - (b) a transport authority held by the person is amended, suspended or cancelled;

[s 9]

- (c) a period of suspension of a transport authority held by the person ends;
 - (d) the person is to be given a replacement document evidencing a transport authority held by the person.
- (2) The chief executive may issue a replacement smartcard transport authority to the person.
- (3) The replacement smartcard transport authority must evidence each transport authority held by the person.

3 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3003 9601 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
