Part 3 Coastal management districts

Division 1 Declaration, amendment, amalgamation and abolition of coastal management districts

54 Declaration of coastal management districts

- (1) An area within the coastal zone may, under a regulation, be declared as a coastal management district if the Minister considers the area requires protection or management.
- (2) In addition, the Minister may, by written notice, declare an area to be a coastal management district, or part of an existing coastal management district, only if the Minister considers the area requires immediate protection or management.
- (3) The notice is subordinate legislation and, unless it is earlier repealed, expires 6 months after it commences.
- (5) A coastal management district may be assigned a name or number, or both.
- (6) The chief executive must give public notice of the declaration of a coastal management district.
- (7) The notice must be published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the control district.

56 Things to be considered when declaring coastal management districts

The following things must be considered before an area is declared as a coastal management district—

- (a) the area's vulnerability to erosion by the sea or to wind induced effects;
 - (b) whether the area should be kept in an undeveloped state to maintain or enhance the coast or coastal resources;
 - (c) public access to a foreshore in the area;
 - (d) foreseeable human impacts and coastal hazards in the area;
 - (e) the existing tenure of, interests in, and rights to, land in the area;
 - (f) Aboriginal tradition and Island custom of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people particularly concerned with land in the area;
 - (g) planning and development management of the area;
 - (h) the need to conserve, protect or rehabilitate coastal ecological systems or geomorphic features of the area.

57 Notice declaring, changing or abolishing coastal management district

- (1) Before a regulation, under section 54(1), is made declaring, changing the boundaries of or abolishing a coastal management district, the chief executive must give public notice of the proposed declaration, change or abolition (the proposal).
- (2) The notice must—
 - (a) be published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the coastal management district; and
 - (b) state where copies of the plan showing the proposal may be inspected and, on payment of a reasonable fee, purchased; and
 - (c) invite written submissions from the public; and
 - (d) state a day (not earlier than 40 business days from the publication of the notice) by which submissions may be made and the place where the submissions may be made.

- (3) The chief executive must send details of the proposal to each local government, port authority and port operator within the area covered by the district.
- (4) The Minister must consider all submissions properly made about the proposal.
- (5) If, when making a submission, a person asks the Minister for a response on the submission, the Minister must advise the person in writing—
 - (a) whether the submission was accepted or rejected and, if it was rejected, the reasons for the rejection; and
 - (b) if the person is an owner of land in the coastal management district—the reason why the land was included in the district; and

 - (b) the chief executive agrees with the assessment; and
 - (c) the chief executive amends the erosion prone area under section 71; and
 - (d) when the assessment is made, the width of the erosion prone area at the location is the same as the width of the coastal management district at the location.
 - (3) The width of the coastal management district at the location is amended to be the same as the width of the amended erosion prone area at the location.
 - (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that public notice of the amendment of the coastal management district under this section is not required.

- (4) The court may grant leave subject to conditions, including, for example—
- (a) a condition requiring the person to give security for the payment of costs of the proceeding that may be awarded against the person; or

- (8) The court's power to make an order to do anything may be exercised whether or not—
 - (a) it appears to the court the person against whom the order is made intends to fail, or to continue to fail, to do the thing; or
 - (b) the person has previously failed to do a thing of that kind; or
 - (c) there is danger of substantial damage to the coastal zone if the person fails, or continues to fail, to do the thing.
- (9) Without limiting the powers of the court, the court may make an order—
 - (a) restraining the use of plant or equipment or a place; or

- (b) requiring the demolition or removal of plant or equipment, a structure or another thing; or
 - (c) requiring the rehabilitation or restoration of the coastal zone.
- (10) The court must order a plaintiff to pay costs if the court is satisfied the proceeding was brought for obstruction or delay.
 - (11) The court's power under this section is in addition to its other powers.
 - (12) A person who contravenes an order commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty for subsection (12)—3000 penalty units.

149 Power of court to make order pending final decision in proceeding

- (1) This section applies if a proceeding has been brought by a person in the Planning and Environment Court under section 148 and the court has not finally determined the proceeding.

Chapter 5 Administration

Part 1 Compensation

150 When compensation is payable

- (1) The owner of an interest in land (the owner) is entitled to be paid compensation only if the existing use that may be made of the land is changed by a prohibition imposed by the coastal plan or the declaration of a coastal management district.
- (2) However, for land other than rural land, the owner is entitled to compensation only if—
 - (a) the owner was the owner at the time of the change; and
 - (b) the owner makes an application for the land; and
 - (c) the application is made within 2 years of the change; and

- (d) the application clearly indicates that a compensation claim may be made if the application is refused; and
 - (e) the application is refused only because this Act applies to the application.
- (3) However, for rural land, the owner is entitled to compensation only if—
- (a) the owner was the owner at the time of the change; and
 - (b) the land was regularly used as rural land during the 2 previous years; and
 - (c) the owner makes a written application to the chief executive for compensation.

- (4) In this section—

application for the land means—

- (a) an application to build a structure, the proposed use of which was as of right under the planning scheme as it applied immediately before the change; or
- (b) an application for the subdivision of land that is consistent with the provisions of the planning scheme that regulated the subdivision of land immediately before the change.

existing use includes a lawful as of right use that may have been made of the land immediately before the change.

primary producer means a person whose major source of income is from primary production.

rural land means land used only by a primary producer for grazing stock or cultivating crops.

151 Matters for which compensation is not payable

- (1) To remove any doubt, the owner is not entitled to be paid compensation—
- (a) for development, or an activity, unlawfully carried out; or

- (b) if the change merely requires the development, or an activity, to be carried out on a different part of the land to that preferred by the owner.
- (2) If compensation is payable under another Act, the claim for compensation must be made under the other Act.

152 How to claim compensation

- (1) A claim for compensation must be lodged with the chief executive within 6 months after—
 - (a) if section 150(2) applies—the refusal of the application; or
 - (b) if section 150(3) applies—the change of use.
- (2) The chief executive or the Planning and Environment Court may, in special circumstances, allow a longer period under subsection (1).
- (3) A claim for compensation is to be taken to have been made on the day when it is received by the chief executive.

153 Deciding compensation payable

- (1) The chief executive must decide the reasonable compensation payable under the claim within 60 days after the day the claim is received.
- (2) In deciding the claim, the chief executive may decide—
 - (a) the reasonable compensation payable; or
 - (b) to reject the claim; or
 - (c) to acquire the interest.
- (3) The chief executive must, within 10 days after deciding the claim, notify the claimant of the decision and advise the claimant that the claimant may appeal to the Planning and Environment Court against a decision under section 153(2)(a) or (b).

- (4) If the chief executive fails to decide the claim within 60 days of receiving the claim, the owner may appeal to the court as if the chief executive had decided to reject the claim.

154 What is reasonable compensation

- (1) Reasonable compensation is (subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4)) an amount equal to the difference between the market value of the interest immediately after the change and what would have been the market value of the interest if the change had not been made.
- (2) Any benefit the owner obtains from the change is to be taken into account in calculating the reasonable compensation.
- (3) If the owner owns land adjacent to the land for which the payment of compensation is sought, the payment of compensation must also take into account any benefit accruing to the adjacent land because of the change.
- (4) If the land for which compensation is claimed has, since the change, become or ceased to be separate from other land, the amount of compensation is not to be increased because it has become or ceased to be separate from other land.

155 Payment of compensation

The compensation must be paid within 30 days after the last day an appeal could be made or, if an appeal is made, within 30 days after the day the appeal is decided.

156 Time for starting appeal

If the owner appeals under section 153, the appeal must be made within 30 days of the making of the decision.

157 Decision by court

- (1) In making its decision, the Planning and Environment Court must have regard to any difference in the value of the land because of the change.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the things to which the court may have regard in making its decision.

158 Payment of compensation to be recorded

- (1) As soon as practicable after the compensation is paid, the chief executive must give the registrar of titles written notice that the land is affected by chapter 5, part 1.
- (2) The notice must be in a form approved by the registrar.
- (3) The registrar must keep the information stated in the notice as information under the Land Title Act 1994, section 34.

Part 2 Appeals

159 Who may appeal

A person who is dissatisfied with the chief executive's decision to give the person a coastal protection or tidal works notice may appeal against the decision to the Planning and Environment Court.

160 How to start appeal

- (1) An appeal is started by—
 - (a) filing written notice of the appeal with the registrar of the court; and
 - (b) complying with the rules of court applicable to the appeal.

 - (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—30 days after the person receives the coastal protection or tidal works notice; and
- (b) state fully the grounds of the appeal and the facts relied on.

161 Appellant to give notice of appeal

Within 7 days after filing a notice of appeal, the appellant must serve notice of the appeal on the chief executive.

162 Stay of operation of decision

- (1) The court may grant a stay of the decision appealed against to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.
- (2) A stay may be granted on conditions the court considers appropriate and has effect for the period stated by the court.
- (3) The period of a stay must not extend past the time when the court decides the appeal.
- (4) An appeal against a decision does not affect the operation or carrying out of the decision unless the decision is stayed.

163 Hearing procedures

- (1) The procedure for an appeal is to be in accordance with the rules of court applicable to the appeal or, if the rules make no provision or insufficient provision, in accordance with directions of the judge.
- (2) An appeal is by way of rehearing, unaffected by the chief executive's decision.

164 Powers of court on appeal

- (1) In deciding an appeal, the court may—
 - (a) confirm the decision appealed against; or
 - (b) vary the decision appealed against; or
 - (c) set aside the decision appealed against and make a decision in substitution for the decision set aside.
- (2) If on appeal the court acts under subsection (1)(b) or (c), the decision is taken, for this Act (other than this part), to be that of the chief executive.

Part 2A Planning and Environment Court declarations

164A Planning and Environment Court may make declarations
