 - (i) make a working with children check application;
or
 - (ii) start or continue in regulated employment or restricted employment; or
 - (iii) carry on a regulated business.

234 Persons to be notified of decision

- (1) The chief executive must give each notifiable person for the person a written notice stating whether the person was issued a working with children clearance or a negative notice.
- (2) If the person is issued with a negative notice on the basis the person is or was a relevant disqualified person and a notice about the person is given to the chief executive (child safety) under subsection (1), the notice must also state the provision of this part under which the negative notice was issued.

Note—

See sections 224 and 225 for circumstances in which a negative notice is issued to a person on the basis the person is or was a relevant disqualified person.

- (3) The chief executive may also give a potential employer for the person a notice mentioned in subsection (1).

235 Department to be given particular advice

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive issues a working with children clearance to a person; and
 - (b) the chief executive of another department (the other executive) proposes to start employing, or continue employing, the person in regulated employment; and

- (c) the other executive asks the chief executive for advice under this section.
- (2) The chief executive may advise the other executive that the other executive may need to undertake a further assessment of the person under the Public Service Act 2008, chapter 5, part 6, division 3A to decide whether or not the other department should engage the person.

Note—

The Public Service Act 2008, chapter 5, part 6, division 3A does not apply in relation to the engagement of particular persons by a department. See section 164 of that Act.

- (3) However, the chief executive may give the advice mentioned in subsection (2) only if the chief executive is aware that the person has a criminal history.
- (4) If the chief executive gives advice under subsection (2), the advice must be accompanied by a written notice stating that no adverse inference about the person's criminal history or suitability for engagement, or continued engagement, by the other department may be drawn by the fact the advice was given.

Division 13 Persons who are police officers or registered teachers

247 Clearances held by police officers and registered teachers

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a person holds a working with children clearance; and
 - (b) the person is or becomes a police officer or registered teacher.
- (2) The person's working with children clearance continues in effect subject to section 231.
- (3) This chapter continues to apply in relation to the person's working with children clearance while it is in force.

- (4) If the chief executive is aware the person is a police officer or registered teacher and, under part 5A or part 7, division 1, the chief executive is required or permitted to issue a working with children clearance to the person, the chief executive must instead issue a working with children exemption to the person.

Part 5 Working with children exemptions

Division 8 Deciding application

281 Application of division

This division applies if a person made a working with children check (exemption) application and the application has not been withdrawn.

282 Deciding application—generally

- (1) The chief executive must decide to approve or refuse the application under this division.
- (2) If the chief executive approves the application, the chief executive must issue a written notice that states the application is approved (a working with children exemption) to the person.
- (3) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must issue a written notice that states the application is refused (a negative notice) to the person.

283 Deciding application—police officer if further screening not required

If the person is a police officer, the chief executive must issue a working with children exemption to the person if—

- (a) the chief executive is not aware of—

- (i) any police information about the person; or
 - (ii) any other information about the person that would be relevant to deciding whether it would be in the best interests of children for the chief executive to issue the exemption to the person; and
- (b) the chief executive—
- (i) has, under section 286, been advised that the person is a police officer; and
 - (ii) has not, under section 286, been advised that the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.

284 Deciding application—registered teacher if further screening not required

If the person is a registered teacher, the chief executive must issue a working with children exemption to the person if—

- (a) the chief executive is not aware of—
 - (i) any police information or disciplinary information about the person; or
 - (ii) any other information about the person that would be relevant to deciding whether it would be in the best interests of children for the chief executive to issue the exemption to the person; and
- (b) the chief executive—
 - (i) has, under section 287, been advised that the person is a registered teacher; and
 - (ii) has not, under section 287, been advised that the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.

285 Deciding application if ss 283 and 284 do not apply

- (1) This section applies if neither section 283 nor 284 applies to the person.
- (2) The chief executive must decide the application as if the chief executive were deciding a working with children check (general) application under part 4, division 9.
- (3) For subsection (2), sections 221 to 229 apply for making the decision as if—
 - (a) a reference to issuing a working with children clearance were a reference to issuing a working with children exemption; and
 - (b) a reference to a working with children check (general) application were a reference to a working with children check (exemption) application.

286 Obtaining advice from police commissioner

- (1) This section applies if the working with children check (exemption) application is about a person who claims to be a police officer.
- (2) For deciding the application, the chief executive may ask the police commissioner to advise the chief executive—
 - (a) whether or not the person is a police officer; and
 - (b) if the person is a police officer—whether the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.
- (3) For subsection (2), the chief executive's request may include the following information—
 - (a) the person's name and any other name that the chief executive believes the person may use or may have used;
 - (b) the person's gender and date and place of birth;
 - (c) the person's address;
 - (d) any number, date or other information given by the person about the person's status as a police officer.

Example for paragraph (d)—

a number identifying the person as a police officer

- (4) The police commissioner must comply with the request.
- (5) However—
 - (a) the police commissioner may give advice under subsection (2)(b) only if the police commissioner is aware—
 - (i) the person has been charged with an offence; and
 - (ii) the charge has not been finally dealt with; and
 - (b) if paragraph (a) applies, the advice must be that the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.

287 Obtaining advice from college of teachers

- (1) This section applies if the working with children check (exemption) application is about a person who claims to be a registered teacher.
- (2) For deciding the application, the chief executive may ask the college of teachers to advise the chief executive—
 - (a) whether or not the person is a registered teacher; and
 - (b) if the person is a registered teacher—whether the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.
- (3) For subsection (2), the chief executive's request may include the following information—
 - (a) the person's name and any other name that the chief executive believes the person may use or may have used;
 - (b) the person's gender and date and place of birth;
 - (c) the person's address;
 - (d) any number, date or other information given by the person about the person's status as a registered teacher.

Example for paragraph (d)—

the person's identification number for the person's registration under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005

- (4) The college of teachers must comply with the request.
- (5) However—
 - (a) the college may give advice under subsection (2)(b) only if the college is aware of any police information about the person; and
 - (b) if paragraph (a) applies, the advice must be that the chief executive may need to undertake further employment screening of the person under this chapter.
- (6) If the college of teachers gives advice under subsection (2)(b), the advice must be accompanied by a written notice stating that—
 - (a) no adverse inference about the person's police information may be drawn by the fact the advice was given; and
 - (b) no inference that a negative notice may be issued to the person under this chapter may be drawn by the fact the advice was given.
- (7) In this section—

police information means police information as defined under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005.

 - (a) the person's name or contact details as stated in the application change;
 - (b) the person's employment, or proposed employment, as stated in the application changes;

- (c) the person stops carrying on a business stated in the application;
 - (d) the person no longer intends to carry on a proposed business stated in the application.
- (2) The person must give a notice, in the approved form and in an approved way, about the relevant change to the chief executive within 7 days after the change happens.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

289 Term of exemption

- (1) Unless a relevant event happens earlier, the term of a working with children exemption issued to a person is—
- (a) if the chief executive decides the term of the exemption under subsection (2)—the term decided by the chief executive; or
 - (b) otherwise—3 years.
- (2) The chief executive may decide that the term of a person's working with children exemption is the same as the term of—
- (a) if the person made a combined application—a disability clearance issued to the person by the chief executive (disability services) after deciding the application; or
 - (b) a disability clearance otherwise held by the person.
- (3) The term decided by the chief executive under subsection (2) may be less than 3 years or more than 3 years.

Note—

Under the Disability Services Act 2006, section 101, the term of an NDIS clearance is 5 years and the term of a State clearance is 3 years.

- (4) Each of the following is a relevant event for a working with children exemption—
- (a) if the holder of the exemption is a police officer—the holder stops being a police officer;
 - (b) if the holder of the exemption is a registered teacher—the holder stops being a registered teacher;

- (c) the exemption is cancelled under part 5A.

Division 1 Investigative information

305 Police commissioner may decide that information about a person is investigative information

- (1) The police commissioner may decide under this section that information about a person (the investigated person) is investigative information if—
 - (a) there is or was evidence of acts or omissions that, at the time of the acts or omissions, constituted a schedule 6 or 6A offence (the alleged offence) by the investigated person against a person (the complainant); and
 - (b) the police investigated the alleged offence and the investigated person was formally notified about the investigation, including—

- (i) by participating in an interview, or by being asked to participate in an interview, about the alleged offence; or
 - (ii) by otherwise being given an opportunity to answer allegations about the alleged offence; and
- (c) there was sufficient evidence available that was capable of establishing each element of the alleged offence but a decision was made not to charge the investigated person because—
 - (i) the complainant died before the charge was brought; or
 - (ii) either or both of the following applied—
 - (A) the complainant was unwilling to proceed;
 - (B) an adult who, at the relevant time, was the complainant's parent or guardian decided that, in the interests of the complainant, the matter should not proceed.
- (2) Evidence of acts or omissions includes information from a third party if the complainant did not make a formal complaint at or about the time of the investigation.
- (3) For this section, a schedule 6 or 6A offence is—
 - (a) an offence against a provision of an Act mentioned in schedule 6 or 6A, column 1, subject to any qualification relating to the provision mentioned opposite in column 3; or
 - (b) an offence of counselling or procuring the commission of an offence of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a); or

- (f) an offence under a law of another jurisdiction that, if it had been committed in Queensland, would have constituted an offence mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e).

Note—

Column 2 in schedules 6 and 6A is included for information purposes only and states a section heading for the provision mentioned opposite in column 1.

- (4) For subsection (3), it is immaterial if a provision mentioned in schedule 6 or 6A, column 1, for an Act has been amended from time to time or that the provision was previously numbered with a different number.

306 Police commissioner not to delegate power under s 305

Despite the Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 4.10, the police commissioner may not delegate the police commissioner's powers under section 305 other than to a police officer of at least the rank of superintendent.

307 Appeal against police commissioner's decision that information is investigative information

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the police commissioner decides that information about a person is investigative information; and
 - (b) the investigative information is given, under division 2, to the chief executive; and
 - (c) after the investigative information is given to the chief executive—
 - (i) the person is issued a negative notice, whether or not the negative notice was issued because a working with children authority held by the person was cancelled; or
 - (ii) an eligibility application made by the person is refused.

- (2) The person may appeal to a Magistrates Court about the police commissioner's decision mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) However, an appeal under subsection (2) may only be made within 28 days after the person is given written notice about the issue of the negative notice or refusal of the eligibility application.
- (4) The chief executive and police commissioner must be given a copy of the notice of appeal.
- (5) QCAT does not have jurisdiction to review a decision of the police commissioner that information about a person is investigative information or that information that is investigative information may be given to the chief executive.

308 Court to decide matters afresh

- (1) A Magistrates Court hearing an appeal under section 307 is to decide afresh whether information given to the chief executive as investigative information about a person is investigative information.
- (2) A person who is the relevant complainant under section 305 must not be asked or called on by the investigated person under that section to give evidence in person before the court.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent documentary evidence being tendered and received in evidence by the court.
- (4) After hearing an appeal under section 307, the court may confirm or set aside the decision and the court must give the appellant notice of the decision.
- (5) For subsection (4), the court must have regard to the matters the police commissioner was required to have regard to under this Act when the police commissioner made the decision.

309 Consequence of decision on appeal

- (1) This section applies if a Magistrates Court hears and decides an appeal against the police commissioner's decision under section 305 that information given to the chief executive about a person is investigative information.

- (2) If the court sets aside the decision appealed against, the person may—
 - (a) if the person was issued a negative notice because of the information—apply under section 304G for the negative notice to be cancelled on the grounds the decision to issue the notice was based on wrong information; or
 - (b) if an eligibility application made by the person was refused because of the information—apply under section 186 for revocation of the refusal on the grounds it was based on wrong information.
- (3) If the court confirms the decision appealed against—
 - (a) the person who appealed the decision may apply, within 28 days after receiving the notice under section 308(4) and as otherwise provided under the QCAT Act, to QCAT for a review of a decision of the chief executive if—
 - (i) the person is not a disqualified person; and
 - (ii) the decision is a chapter 8 reviewable decision; and
 - (b) the notice under section 308(4) must state how, and the period within which, the person may apply for the review.
- (4) If a person applies under subsection (3)(a) to have a decision reviewed, QCAT may not—
 - (a) stay the operation of the decision; or
 - (b) grant an injunction in the proceeding for the review.

- (b) a section 93A transcript relating to an offence mentioned in the police information.
 - (4) If the chief executive decides that information requested under subsection (1) or (3) about the person is no longer required, the chief executive must tell the police commissioner not to provide the information.

312 Police commissioner to comply with request

- (1) The police commissioner must comply with a request under section 311(1) or (3) unless the police commissioner is, under section 311(4), told not to provide the information.
- (2) However, the duty imposed on the police commissioner to comply with the request applies only to information in the police commissioner's possession or to which the police commissioner has access.
- (3) The police commissioner need not disclose investigative information about a person to the chief executive under this division if the police commissioner is reasonably satisfied that giving the information may do any of the following—
 - (a) prejudice the investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of the law in a particular case;
 - (b) enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law, to be ascertained;
 - (c) prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of the law;
 - (d) endanger a person's life or physical safety.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, despite the Youth Justice Act 1992, part 9, the police commissioner may disclose information to which that part applies to the chief executive for complying with a request under section 311(1) or (3).

313 Information to be given about relevant disqualified person

- (b) the reasons why the application was made;
- (c) the reasons why the order was not made;

- (d) if the application was for an offender prohibition order and the magistrate or court hearing the application decided not to make an offender prohibition disqualification order for the person—the reasons why the offender prohibition disqualification order was not made.

315 Police commissioner to notify person about investigative information given about the person

If the police commissioner gives investigative information about a person to the chief executive under this division, the police commissioner must give notice, in the approved form, to the person that—

- (a) the police commissioner has decided that information about the person is investigative information; and
- (b) investigative information has been given to the chief executive.

- (d) the person is named as the respondent for an application for an offender prohibition order.

(2) For a relevant event mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b), the police commissioner may notify the chief executive of the following—

- (3) For a relevant event mentioned in subsection (1)(c) or (d), the police commissioner must notify the chief executive of the following—

 - (7) If the person is a person mentioned in section 323(1), the chief executive, on receiving notice under subsection (2) or (3), may write to the person to inform the person about the person's obligations under section 323(2).

Note—

Section 323 imposes obligations on particular persons to notify particular entities of changes in police information.

- (8) For a person who does not have a criminal history, there is taken to be a change in the person's criminal history if the person acquires a criminal history.
- (9) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, despite the Youth Justice Act 1992, part 9, the police commissioner may disclose information to which that part applies to the chief executive under this section.

- (5) However, the director of public prosecutions must not give the chief executive a copy or written summary of evidentiary material about the offence that relates only to a person other than the person about whom the request is made.

Example of evidentiary material for subsection (5)— a report by an expert about a person other than the person about whom the request is made.

- (6) The director of public prosecutions must not give information, or a document containing information, to the chief executive under this section if the director is reasonably satisfied that giving the information may do any of the following—

 - (b) enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law, to be ascertained;

- (3) The chief executive (corrective services) and the chief executive may enter into a written arrangement by which written notices are given under subsection (1).
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the arrangement may provide for the written notices to be given electronically.
- (5) However, if written notices under subsection (1) are to be given electronically and, under an Act, there is a limitation on who may access the information mentioned in the notices or the purposes for which that information may be used, the arrangement must provide for the limitation.
