Manufactured Homes (Residential Parks) Act 2003

An Act to provide for the positioning and occupancy of manufactured homes in residential parks, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Introduction

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Manufactured Homes (Residential Parks) Act 2003.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Act binds all persons

- (1) This Act binds all persons, including the State.
- (2) However, nothing in this Act makes the State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

Division 2 Objects of Act and relationship with FTI Act

4 Objects of Act

- (1) The main object of this Act is to regulate, and promote fair trading practices in, the operation of residential parks—
 - (a) to protect home owners from unfair business practices; and
 - (b) to enable home owners, and prospective home owners, to make informed choices by being fully aware of their rights and responsibilities in their relationship with park owners.
- (2) The main object is achieved by—
 - (a) declaring particular rights and obligations of the park owner, and home owners, for a residential park; and
 - (b) facilitating the disclosure of information about a residential park, and this Act, to a prospective home owner for a site; and
 - (c) regulating—
 - (i) the making, content, assignment and ending of a site agreement; and
 - (ii) the sale of an abandoned manufactured home positioned on a site in a residential park; and
 - (iii) the variation of site rent; and
 - (d) facilitating participation by home owners for a residential park in the affairs of the park; and
 - (e) providing ways of resolving a residential park dispute.
- (3) The following are also important objects of this Act—
 - (a) encouraging the continued growth and viability of the residential park industry in the State;

- (b) providing a clear regulatory framework to ensure certainty for the residential park industry in planning for future expansion.

4A Relationship with Fair Trading Inspectors Act 2014

- (1) The Fair Trading Inspectors Act 2014 (the FTI Act) enacts common provisions for this Act and particular other Acts about fair trading.
- (2) Unless this Act otherwise provides in relation to the FTI Act, the powers that an inspector has under that Act are in addition to and do not limit any powers the inspector may have under this Act.
- (3) In this section—
inspector means a person who holds office under the FTI Act as an inspector for this Act.

Note—

See also the modifying provisions for this Act stated in the FTI Act, section 5.

Division 3 Rights or remedies not restricted

5 Rights and remedies of persons

- (1) A right or remedy given to a person under this Act is in addition to, and not in substitution for, a right or remedy the person would have apart from this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), this Act does not operate to reduce the effect of a right or remedy a person would have apart from this Act.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2), a reference to a right or remedy a person would have apart from this Act is a reference to a right or remedy that is consistent with this Act.

Part 2 Interpretation

 - (b) the agreement is taken to be a site agreement.

Part 11 Varying site rent

Division 1 Introduction

68 Ways of varying site rent

The site rent payable under a site agreement may only be varied in the ways stated in this part.

Division 2 Increase in site rent provided for in site agreement

69 Application of division

- (1) This division applies if—
 - (a) a site agreement between the park owner for a residential park and a home owner provides for an increase in the site rent payable under the agreement; and
 - (b) the park owner proposes to increase the site rent as provided for under the site agreement.
- (2) However, this division does not apply if the site rent is proposed to be increased to cover a special cost.
- (3) The site rent can not be increased as provided for under the site agreement unless the park owner complies with sections 69A to 69E.

Note—

See sections 23 and 24(1).

69A Basis for site rent increase must be stated in site agreement

The park owner must ensure the site agreement states the basis for working out the amount of an increase in the site rent.

Examples of bases for increasing site rent that may be stated in a site agreement—

- a percentage of the site rent worked out by reference to the CPI number for a stated period
- a market review of site rent

69B Restrictions on increasing site rent under site agreement

- (1) The park owner must not work out an increase in the site rent using more than 1 basis at one time.

Example—

A site agreement provides for increases in site rent on the bases of an increase in the CPI number and market review of site rent. An increase in site rent under the agreement based on a market review of site rent could not include an increase in the CPI number even though provided for in the agreement.

- (2) If the site rent has been increased under this division, the park owner must not increase the site rent under this division on any basis provided for in the site agreement within 1 year (the site rent year) after the day the site rent was last increased under this division.

Note—

See also section 182.

- (3) For subsection (2), site rent is taken to be increased on the first day the site rent is payable at an increased rate.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (2) applies in relation to the site agreement for the site rent year even if the home owner became a party to the agreement in that year.

69C Park owner must nominate general increase day for eligible sites

- (1) The park owner must nominate the same day (the general increase day) when the site rent payable under the site agreements for all eligible sites in the residential park will be increased on the same basis (the relevant basis).
- (2) A site is an eligible site for which the general increase day may be nominated if, under the terms of the site agreement for the site, the site rent may be increased on the relevant basis on or before the general increase day.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the general increase day is nominated under subsection (1) for an eligible site and a general increase notice stating the general increase day (the stated increase day) is given to the home owner for the site under section 69E.
- (4) The next general increase day that may be nominated under subsection (1) for any eligible site in the residential park must be at least 1 year after the stated increase day.

69D Consulting with interested entities for preparing market valuation

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the site agreement for an eligible site provides for an increase in the site rent on the basis of a market review of site rent; and
 - (b) the park owner proposes to increase the site rent on that basis.
- (2) At least 63 days before the next general increase day for the site, the park owner must consult with, or arrange for a registered valuer to consult with, the interested entities for preparing a written valuation for the market review of site rent (a market valuation).
- (3) In this section—
interested entities means—

[s 69E]

- (a) the home owners committee for the residential park; or
- (b) if no home owners committee has been established for the park, for an increase in site rent intended to apply to—
 - (i) fewer than 9 sites—the home owners for at least 2 of the sites; or
 - (ii) 9 or more sites—the home owners for the number of the sites at least equal to 25% of the number of the sites.

69E Notice of general increase in site rent

- (1) At least 35 days before the general increase day for the eligible sites, the park owner must give the home owner for each eligible site a notice (a general increase notice) stating the following—
 - (a) the amount of the proposed increased site rent;
 - (b) the basis for increasing the site rent;
 - (c) how the amount of the proposed increased site rent has been worked out using the basis;
 - (d) the general increase day;
 - (e) the day the notice is given to the home owner.

Note—

For giving documents, see the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 39 and the Electronic Transactions (Queensland) Act 2001, chapter 2, part 2, division 1.

- (2) For subsection (1)(c), if the proposed increased site rent is based on a market review of site rent—
 - (a) the general increase notice must be accompanied by a market valuation for the market review of site rent prepared by a registered valuer; and
 - (b) the registered valuer must state in the market valuation any connection to, or agreement with, the park owner that may call into question the independence of the valuation.

- (3) The park owner must ensure the general increase notice also states that if the home owner disputes the amount of the proposed increase—
 - (a) the home owner must, within 28 days after receiving the notice, give the park owner a dispute negotiation notice for the dispute; and
 - (b) the home owner must use the dispute resolution procedures under part 17, division 1 to try to resolve the dispute with the park owner; and
 - (c) the home owner may, subject to section 116, apply to the tribunal for an order reducing the amount of, or setting aside, the increase if the dispute can not be resolved using the dispute resolution procedures.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (4) The proposed increased site rent is payable from the general increase day stated in the general increase notice.

70 Dispute resolution and application to tribunal about general site rent increase

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the park owner for a residential park gives a home owner for an eligible site a general increase notice for a proposed increase in site rent; and
 - (b) the home owner disputes the amount of the proposed increase on the basis it is excessive.
- (2) The home owner must, within 28 days after receiving the general increase notice, give the park owner a dispute negotiation notice for the dispute.
- (3) The home owner may, subject to section 116, apply to the tribunal for an order under subsection (4).

Note—

Under section 141, a group of home owners may make a joint application in relation to a residential park dispute arising out of the same or similar facts or circumstances.

- (4) If the home owner applies under subsection (3), the tribunal may make any of the following orders—
 - (a) an order reducing the amount of the increase by a stated amount;
 - (b) an order setting aside the increase;
 - (c) an order confirming the increase on the conditions, if any, the tribunal considers appropriate;
 - (d) another order the tribunal considers appropriate.
- (5) In deciding the application, the tribunal may have regard to the following—
 - (a) the range of site rents usually charged for comparable sites in comparable residential parks in the locality of the park;
 - (b) if it is impractical to obtain data for the range of site rents mentioned in paragraph (a), data is not available for that range or it is just and equitable to do so in the particular circumstances—the range of site rents usually charged for comparable sites in comparable residential parks in comparable localities to the locality the park is in;
 - (c) if it is impractical to obtain data for the range of site rents mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), data is not available for that range or it is just and equitable to do so in the particular circumstances—general trends in rent for residential accommodation in the locality the park is in;
 - (d) the increased site rent compared to the previous site rent;
 - (e) the frequency, and amount, of past increases in the site rent payable under the agreement;

- (f) any increase in the CPI number during the previous site rent period;
 - (g) the amenity or standard of the common areas and communal facilities;
 - (h) any withdrawal of a communal facility or service previously provided at the park;
 - (i) any addition of a communal facility or service not previously provided at the park;
 - (j) any increase in the park owner's operating costs for the park during the previous site rent period;
 - (k) whether the increase is fair and equitable in all the circumstances of the case;
 - (l) anything else the tribunal considers relevant.
- (6) If, in deciding the application, the tribunal makes an order mentioned in subsection (4)(a) or (b), the park owner must refund to the home owner any overpayment of the site rent since when the increased site rent has been paid.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (7) An amount payable to the home owner under subsection (6) is recoverable as a debt.
- (8) In this section—

previous site rent means the site rent payable under the agreement before the increase.

previous site rent period means the period commencing on the first day the previous site rent was payable and ending on the day the tribunal decides the application.

70A Tribunal may appoint independent valuer for market review of site rent

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the park owner for a residential park gives a home owner a general increase notice for a proposed increase in the site rent based on a market review of site rent; and

[s 70A]

- (b) the home owner applies to the tribunal under section 70(3).
- (2) The tribunal may appoint an appropriately qualified and independent registered valuer to help the tribunal in relation to the application including, for example, by—
 - (a) giving the tribunal a written valuation for a market review of site rent; or
 - (b) giving expert evidence in a proceeding for the application.
- (3) The tribunal may appoint a valuer under subsection (2) if satisfied—
 - (a) at least 1 of the following applies—
 - (i) consultation for preparing a market valuation for the market review of site rent was not carried out as required under section 69D or was not adequate;
 - (ii) the general increase notice was not accompanied by a market valuation for the market review of site rent under section 69E(2);
 - (iii) the general increase notice or market valuation accompanying the notice (the relevant market valuation) does not clearly provide for how the increased site rent has been worked out;
 - (iv) the site rent is proposed to be increased other than in accordance with the relevant market valuation;
 - (v) the relevant market valuation does not reflect a reasonable market review of site rent in the circumstances, including, for example, because the basis or methodology for the review is not reasonable; and
 - (b) for a general increase notice for the same general increase day given to the home owners for at least 5 sites in the residential park (the notified sites)—the home owners for the threshold number of the notified sites have applied to the tribunal under section 70(3).

- (4) If the tribunal appoints a valuer under subsection (2), the park owner must pay the valuer's costs of helping the tribunal, including—
- (a) the costs of preparing a written valuation, if any, required by the tribunal; and
 - (b) the fees and allowances for giving evidence, if required, in a proceeding.
- (5) However, subsection (4) applies only if before appointing the valuer, the tribunal—
- (a) advises the park owner of the amount the park owner is likely to be required to pay under subsection (4); and
 - (b) gives the park owner the opportunity to be heard on the matter of appointing the valuer.
- (6) In this section—
- threshold number, of the notified sites, means the lesser of the following—
- (a) the number at least equal to 25% of the number of the notified sites;
 - (b) 20.

Division 3 Increase in site rent to cover special costs

71 Application of division

- (1) This division applies if—
- (a) the park owner for a residential park proposes to increase the site rent payable under a site agreement for a site; and
 - (b) the proposed increase in site rent is necessary to cover any of the following types of costs (each a special cost) that the park owner has incurred, or expects to incur, for a particular purpose—

[s 71A]

- (i) significant increased operational costs in relation to the park, including, for example, significant increases in rates, taxes or utility costs for the park (an operational cost);
 - (ii) the cost of significant repairs in relation to the common areas or communal facilities in the park that the park owner could not reasonably have foreseen (a repair cost);
 - (iii) the cost of significant upgrades to the common areas or communal facilities in the park (an upgrade cost); and
- (c) the proposed increase in site rent is not based wholly or partly on—
 - (i) a market review of site rent; or
 - (ii) any other basis as provided for in the site agreement on which the site rent may be increased under division 2.
- (2) This division applies whether or not the site agreement provides for an increase in the site rent to cover the special cost.
- (3) The site rent can not be increased to cover the special cost unless the park owner complies with section 71A(1).

Note—

See sections 23 and 24(1).

71A Notice of special increase in site rent

- (1) The park owner must give the home owner for the site a notice (the special increase notice) stating the following—
 - (a) the type of the special cost and the purpose (the stated purpose) for which it has been, or is expected to be, incurred;
 - (b) the total amount of the special cost incurred, or expected to be incurred, and the proportion of the total amount proposed to be included in the site rent;

 - (g) that the home owner must, within 28 days after receiving the notice, give the park owner a written response agreeing to or disputing the proposed increase;
 - (h) the day the notice is given to the home owner.
- (2) If the home owner agrees in writing to the proposed increase, whether under subsection (1)(g) or otherwise, the proposed increased site rent—
- (a) is first payable on the special increase day; and
 - (b) for a proposed increase to cover a repair cost or upgrade cost—stops being payable when the period mentioned in subsection (1)(f) ends.
- (3) If the home owner does not give a response under subsection (1)(g) or otherwise agree in writing to the proposed increase, the home owner is taken to dispute the proposed increase.

71B Agreement to proposed increase for upgrade cost

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the park owner gives a special increase notice to the home owners for at least 4 sites in the park (the notified sites) for a proposed increase in site rent to cover an upgrade cost for the same stated purpose; and

[s 71C]

- (b) the home owners for the number of the sites at least equal to 75% of the number of the notified sites agree in writing to the proposed increase, whether under section 71A(1)(g) or otherwise.

- (3) If a home owner for a notified site has not agreed in writing to the proposed increase in site rent, section 71A(2) applies as if the home owner had agreed in writing to the proposed increase.

71C Dispute resolution and application to tribunal about special increase in site rent

- (2) The park owner may, subject to section 116, apply to the tribunal for an order about the proposed increase.
- (3) If subsection (1) applies in relation to the home owners for 2 or more sites in the park for a proposed increase in site rent for the same stated purpose (the affected home owners), the park owner must name all the affected home owners as respondents to the application to the tribunal.
- (4) If the park owner applies under subsection (2), the tribunal, in deciding the application, may have regard to—

 - (b) if the increased site rent is to cover a repair cost or an upgrade cost—the period for which the increased site rent will be payable to cover the cost.

71D Criteria for tribunal to confirm or reduce proposed increase

The tribunal may make an order for a proposed increase in site rent under section 71C(5)(a) or (b) if satisfied of the following matters—

 - (i) the site agreement; or
 - (ii) an order under section 70(4); or
 - (iii) an agreement mentioned in section 71A(2); or
 - (iv) a previous order under section 71C(5);
