A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

 - (iii) to provide advice, training, information or other help to agencies, generally or in particular cases, about ways of improving the quality of decision-making and administrative practices and procedures.

 - (e) an individual holding an appointment—
 - (i) made by the Governor in Council or a Minister, other than under an Act; and
 - (ii) declared under a regulation to be a public authority.

- (a) a department or part of a department;
 - (b) a local government or part of a local government;
 - (c) a court, or the holder of a judicial office connected with a court, when acting judicially or when performing a function the court or office holder is authorised under an Act to perform;
 - (d) a registry or other office of a court, or the staff of a registry or other office of a court in their official capacity, to the extent its or their functions relate to the court's judicial functions.

Division 1 Extent of jurisdiction

14 What ombudsman may investigate

16 What ombudsman may not investigate

- (1) The ombudsman must not question the merits of—
 - (a) a decision, including a policy decision, made by a Minister or Cabinet; or
 - (b) a decision that the ombudsman is satisfied has been taken for implementing a decision made by Cabinet.
- (2) Also, the ombudsman must not investigate administrative action taken by—

17 Application to Supreme Court

- (1) This section applies if, in an investigation, a question arises about whether the ombudsman has jurisdiction to conduct the investigation.
- (2) The ombudsman may apply to the Supreme Court to decide the question.
- (3) The application must be heard in closed court.

Note—

This section does not stop applications being made under the Judicial Review Act 1991 by entities whose actions are being investigated or by complainants.

Division 2 When administrative actions may be investigated

18 When ombudsman may investigate administrative action

- (1) The ombudsman may investigate administrative action of an agency if—
 - (a) a complaint is made about the administrative action; or

- (2) The ombudsman must investigate a parliamentary reference of an administrative action of an agency.

19 Assembly may refer administrative action for investigation

- (1) The Assembly or a statutory committee of the Assembly may refer to the ombudsman, for investigation and report, any administrative action of an agency the ombudsman may investigate that the Assembly or committee considers should be investigated by the ombudsman.
- (2) The ombudsman must ensure the investigation is started as soon as possible after the reference is made.

Division 3 Complaints

20 Complaints

- (1) Unless this section otherwise provides, a complaint about an administrative action of an agency—
 - (a) may be made orally or in written form; and
 - (b) may be made by any person, or by any body of persons, whether incorporated or not (complainant), apparently directly affected by the action; and
 - (c) must be made within 1 year after the day the complainant first had notice of the action.
- (2) For subsection (1)(c), a complainant is taken to have had notice of the action at the time the complainant might reasonably be expected to have had notice of the action.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), the ombudsman may—
 - (a) decline to investigate an oral complaint until the complaint is put in writing; or
 - (b) accept a complaint made for a complainant by a person apparently representing the complainant; or
 - (c) accept a complaint after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (1)(c) if the ombudsman considers it is proper to accept the complaint because special circumstances exist; or

- (d) accept a complaint even though the complaint may not on its face be against an administrative action or agency if the ombudsman considers there is a likelihood that the cause for complaint arose from an administrative action.
- (4) The ombudsman may, if the ombudsman considers it necessary for achieving the objects of this Act for a particular complaint, give a person the help necessary to put the complaint in writing.
- (5) However, if the person who could have made a complaint under this Act has died or the ombudsman considers the person can not, for any reason, act for himself or herself, the complaint may be made by an individual who is, in the ombudsman's opinion, suitable to represent the person (also a complainant).
- (6) Also, if a person making the complaint is in custody or detention, the relevant custodian must ensure all necessary steps are taken to facilitate the making of the complaint.

Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—100 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

22 Preliminary inquiry

- (1) For this division, the ombudsman may make reasonably necessary inquiries to decide whether a complaint should be investigated.
- (2) The principal officer of the agency must give the ombudsman reasonable help in the conduct of a preliminary inquiry.

23 Refusal to investigate complaint

- (1) The ombudsman may refuse to investigate a complaint or, having started to investigate a complaint, may refuse to continue the investigation if the ombudsman considers that—
 - (a) the complaint is trivial; or
 - (b) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith; or
 - (c) the complainant does not have a sufficient direct interest in the action complained of; or
 - (d) both of the following apply—
 - (i) the complainant has a right of appeal, reference or review, or another remedy, that the person has not exhausted;
 - (ii) it would be reasonable in the circumstances to require the person to exhaust the right or remedy before the ombudsman investigates, or continues to investigate, the complaint; or
 - (e) both of the following apply—
 - (i) the complainant had a right of appeal, reference or review, or another remedy that is exhausted;
 - (ii) in the circumstances, the investigation, or the continuance of the investigation, of the action complained of is unnecessary or unjustifiable; or
 - (f) in the circumstances, the investigation, or the continuance of the investigation, of the action complained of is unnecessary or unjustifiable.

- (2) Also, the ombudsman need not investigate a complaint to the extent that the ombudsman is satisfied a complaints entity has investigated, or will investigate, the action complained of at a level at least substantially equivalent to the level at which the ombudsman would otherwise investigate the complaint.
- (3) A right or remedy mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(i) or (e)(i) does not include a right under the Judicial Review Act 1991 to make application to the Supreme Court.
- (4) If the ombudsman—
 - (a) can not investigate a complaint; or
 - (b) refuses to investigate a complaint; or
 - (c) refuses to continue an investigation of a complaint;the ombudsman must inform the complainant, in a way the ombudsman considers appropriate, of the decision and the reasons for the decision as soon as reasonably practicable.
