2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Purposes

The purposes of this Act are-

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.

[s 5]

Part 2 Performance of terminations by registered health practitioners

5 Termination by medical practitioner at not more than 22 weeks

A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a person who is not more than 22 weeks pregnant.

6 Termination by medical practitioner after 22 weeks

- (1) A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a person who is more than 22 weeks pregnant if—
 - (a) the medical practitioner considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed; and
 - (b) the medical practitioner has consulted with another medical practitioner who also considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed.
- (2) In considering whether a termination should be performed on a person, a medical practitioner must consider—
 - (a) all relevant medical circumstances; and
 - (b) the person's current and future physical, psychological and social circumstances; and
 - (c) the professional standards and guidelines that apply to the medical practitioner in relation to the performance of the termination.
- (3) In an emergency, a medical practitioner may perform a termination on a person who is more than 22 weeks pregnant, without acting under subsections (1) and (2), if the medical practitioner considers it is necessary to perform the termination to save the person's life or the life of another unborn child.

6A Medical termination by particular registered health practitioners

- (1) This section applies to each of the following registered health practitioners—
 - (a) a practitioner whose health profession is midwifery;
 - (b) a practitioner whose health profession is nursing;
 - (c) another practitioner prescribed by regulation.
- (2) The registered health practitioner may, in the practice of the practitioner's health profession, perform a termination on a person if—
 - (a) the termination is a medical termination; and
 - (b) the practitioner is authorised under the Medicines and Poisons Act 2019, section 54 to carry out the activity that constitutes the performance of the termination.
- (3) For subsection (2), a registered health practitioner performs a medical termination on a person if the practitioner—
 - (a) prescribes a termination drug for use in the termination; or
 - (b) administers, or gives a treatment dose of, a termination drug for use in the termination without a prescription.
- (4) In this section—

give a treatment dose, of a termination drug, has the meaning given under the Medicines and Poisons Act 2019, section 25(3).

7 Registered health practitioners and students who may assist

- (1) This section applies in relation to—
 - (a) the performance of a termination on a person by a medical practitioner; or

- (2) A prescribed practitioner may, in the practice of the practitioner's prescribed health profession, assist in the performance of the termination.

 - (a) the medical practitioner other than under section 5 or 6; or
 - (b) the registered health practitioner other than under section 6A.

- (b) the practitioner has a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination.
- (2) The registered health practitioner must disclose the practitioner's conscientious objection to the person.
- (3) If the request is by a person for the registered health practitioner to perform a termination on the person, or to advise the person about the performance of a termination on the person, the practitioner must refer the person, or transfer the person's care, to—
 - (a) another registered health practitioner who, in the first practitioner's belief, can provide the requested service and does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination; or
 - (b) a health service provider at which, in the practitioner's belief, the requested service can be provided by another registered health practitioner who does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination.
