Anti-Discrimination Act 1991

An Act to promote equality of opportunity for everyone by protecting them from unfair discrimination in certain areas of activity and from sexual harassment and certain associated objectionable conduct

Preamble

Parliament's reasons for enacting this Act are—

- 1 The international community has long recognised the need to protect and preserve the principles of dignity and equality for everyone.
- 2 This is reflected in a number of international human rights instruments that the Commonwealth has ratified, including—
  - the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination
  - the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women
  - the International Labour Organisation Convention No. 111—Discrimination (Employment and Occupation)
  - the International Labour Organisation Convention No. 156—Workers with Family Responsibilities
  - the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
  - the Convention on the Rights of the Child
  - the Declaration on the Rights of Mentally Retarded Persons
  - the Declaration on the Rights of Disabled Persons.
- 3 The Parliament is supportive of the Commonwealth's ratification of these international instruments.

[s 1]

- 4 In fulfilling its obligations under these international instruments the Commonwealth has enacted certain human rights legislation.
- 5 The Parliament is satisfied that there is a need—
  - (a) to extend the Commonwealth legislation; and
  - (b) to apply anti-discrimination law consistently throughout the State; and
  - (c) to ensure that determinations of unlawful conduct are enforceable in the courts of law.
- 6 The Parliament considers that—
  - (a) everyone should be equal before and under the law and have the right to equal protection and equal benefit of the law without discrimination; and
  - (b) the protection of fragile freedoms is best effected by legislation that reflects the aspirations and needs of contemporary society; and
  - (c) the quality of democratic life is improved by an educated community appreciative and respectful of the dignity and worth of everyone.
- 7 It is, therefore, the intention of the Parliament to make provision, by the special measures enacted by the Act, for the promotion of equality of opportunity for everyone by protecting them from unfair discrimination in certain areas of activity and from sexual harassment and certain associated objectionable conduct.

Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991.

3 Act binds Crown

This Act binds—

- (a) the Crown in right of Queensland; and
- (b) the Crown in all its other capacities so far as the legislative power of the Parliament allows.

3A Application of Act to ships connected with Queensland

- (1) Without limiting the extent to which this Act may otherwise apply, it is declared that this Act applies to acts done on ships connected with Queensland.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not limit the laws of Queensland providing for the application of the criminal law to offences committed at sea.
- (3) For this section, a ship is a ship connected with Queensland if—
  - (a) it is registered under the Shipping Registration Act 1981 (Cwlth) with a home port in Queensland; or
  - (b) it is, or is required to be, registered or licensed under the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994 or another Act; or
  - (c) it is owned or chartered by—
    - (i) an individual whose place of residence, or principal place of residence, is in Queensland; or
    - (ii) a person whose place of business, or principal place of business, is in Queensland; or
    - (iii) a person whose principal place of business for managing the ship's operations is in Queensland.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.

5 Meaning of *unjustifiable hardship

Whether the supply of special services or facilities would impose unjustifiable hardship on a person depends on all the relevant circumstances of the case, including, for example—

- (a) the nature of the special services or facilities; and
- (b) the cost of supplying the special services or facilities and the number of people who would benefit or be disadvantaged; and
- (c) the financial circumstances of the person; and
- (d) the disruption that supplying the special services or facilities might cause; and
- (e) the nature of any benefit or detriment to all people concerned.

Example of application in the work area (section 35)—

Company R refuses to employ A who uses a wheelchair because there is no appropriate access to the place of employment. R may only discriminate against A on the basis of impairment if supplying access would be very expensive or would impose another significant hardship on R.

Chapter 2      Discrimination prohibited by this Act (complaint)

Part 1            Act's anti-discrimination purpose

6      Act's anti-discrimination purpose and how it is to be achieved

- (1) One of the purposes of the Act is to promote equality of opportunity for everyone by protecting them from unfair discrimination in certain areas of activity, including work, education and accommodation.

- (2) This purpose is to be achieved by—
- (a) prohibiting discrimination that is—
    - (i) on a ground set out in part 2; and
    - (ii) of a type set out in part 3; and
    - (iii) in an area of activity set out in part 4;unless an exemption set out in part 4 or 5 applies; and
  - (b) allowing a complaint to be made under chapter 7 against the person who has unlawfully discriminated; and
  - (c) using the agencies and procedures established under chapter 7 to deal with the complaint.

Part 2                      Prohibited grounds of discrimination

7            Discrimination on the basis of certain attributes prohibited

The Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of the following attributes—

- (a) sex;
- (b) relationship status;
- (c) pregnancy;
- (d) parental status;
- (e) breastfeeding;
- (f) age;
- (g) race;
- (h) impairment;
- (i) religious belief or religious activity;

- (j) political belief or activity;
- (k) trade union activity;
- (l) sex work activity;
- (m) gender identity;
- (n) sexuality;
- (o) sex characteristics;
- (p) family responsibilities;
- (q) association with, or relation to, a person identified on the basis of any of the above attributes.

8 Meaning of *discrimination on the basis of an attribute

Discrimination on the basis of an attribute includes direct and indirect discrimination on the basis of—

- (a) a characteristic that a person with any of the attributes generally has; or
- (b) a characteristic that is often imputed to a person with any of the attributes; or
- (c) an attribute that a person is presumed to have, or to have had at any time, by the person discriminating; or
- (d) an attribute that a person had, even if the person did not have it at the time of the discrimination.

Example of paragraph (c)—

If an employer refused to consider a written application from a person called Viv because it assumed Viv was female, the employer would have discriminated on the basis of an attribute (female sex) that Viv (a male) was presumed to have.

---

Part 3 Prohibited types of discrimination

9 Discrimination of certain types prohibited

The Act prohibits the following types of discrimination—

- (a) direct discrimination;
- (b) indirect discrimination.

10 Meaning of direct discrimination

- (1) Direct discrimination on the basis of an attribute happens if a person treats, or proposes to treat, a person with an attribute less favourably than another person without the attribute is or would be treated in circumstances that are the same or not materially different.

Example—

R refuses to rent a flat to C because—

- C is English and R doesn't like English people
- C's friend, B, is English and R doesn't like English people
- R believes that English people are unreliable tenants.

In each case, R discriminates against C, whether or not R's belief about C's or B's nationality, or the characteristics of people of that nationality, is correct.

- (2) It is not necessary that the person who discriminates considers the treatment is less favourable.
- (3) The person's motive for discriminating is irrelevant.

Example—

R refuses to employ C, who is Chinese, not because R dislikes Chinese people, but because R knows that C would be treated badly by other staff, some of whom are prejudiced against Asian people. R's conduct amounts to discrimination against C.

- (4) If there are 2 or more reasons why a person treats, or proposes to treat, another person with an attribute less favourably, the person treats the other person less favourably on the basis of the attribute if the attribute is a substantial reason for the treatment.

- (5) In determining whether a person treats, or proposes to treat a person with an impairment less favourably than another person is or would be treated in circumstances that are the same or not materially different, the fact that the person with the impairment may require special services or facilities is irrelevant.

11 Meaning of indirect discrimination

- (1) Indirect discrimination on the basis of an attribute happens if a person imposes, or proposes to impose, a term—
  - (a) with which a person with an attribute does not or is not able to comply; and
  - (b) with which a higher proportion of people without the attribute comply or are able to comply; and
  - (c) that is not reasonable.
- (2) Whether a term is reasonable depends on all the relevant circumstances of the case, including, for example—
  - (a) the consequences of failure to comply with the term; and
  - (b) the cost of alternative terms; and
  - (c) the financial circumstances of the person who imposes, or proposes to impose, the term.
- (3) It is not necessary that the person imposing, or proposing to impose, the term is aware of the indirect discrimination.

- (4) In this section—

term includes condition, requirement or practice, whether or not written.

Example 1—

An employer decides to employ people who are over 190cm tall, although height is not pertinent to effective performance of the work. This disadvantages women and people of Asian origin, as there are more men of non-Asian origin who can comply. The discrimination is unlawful because the height requirement is unreasonable, there being no genuine occupational reason to justify it.

Example 2—

An employer requires employees to wear a uniform, including a cap, for appearance reasons, not for hygiene or safety reasons. The requirement is not directly discriminatory, but it has a discriminatory effect against people who are required by religious or cultural beliefs to wear particular headdress.

124      Unnecessary information

- (1) A person must not ask another person, either orally or in writing, to supply information on which unlawful discrimination might be based.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a request that is necessary to comply with, or is specifically authorised by—
- (a) an existing provision of another Act; or
  - (b) an order of a court; or
  - (c) an existing provision of an order or award of a court or tribunal having power to fix minimum wages and other terms of employment; or
  - (d) an existing provision of an industrial agreement under the repealed Industrial Relations Act 1999; or
  - (e) an order of QCAT or the industrial relations commission.
- (3) It is a defence to a proceeding for a contravention of subsection (1) if the respondent proves, on the balance of probabilities, that the information was reasonably required for a purpose that did not involve discrimination.
- (4) In this section—

existing provision means a provision in existence at the commencement of this section.

Example—

An employer would contravene the Act by asking applicants for all jobs whether they have any impairments, but may ask applicants for a job involving heavy lifting whether they have any physical condition that indicates they should not do that work.

Part 4                      Racial and religious vilification

124A Vilification on grounds of race, religion, sexuality, sex characteristics or gender identity unlawful

- (1) A person must not, by a public act, incite hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of, a person or group of persons on the ground of the race, religion, sexuality, sex characteristics or gender identity of the person or members of the group.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not make unlawful—
  - (a) the publication of a fair report of a public act mentioned in subsection (1); or
  - (b) the publication of material in circumstances in which the publication would be subject to a defence of absolute privilege in proceedings for defamation; or
  - (c) a public act, done reasonably and in good faith, for academic, artistic, scientific or research purposes or for other purposes in the public interest, including public discussion or debate about, and expositions of, any act or matter.
- (3) In this section—

public act—

  - (a) includes—
    - (i) any form of communication to the public, including by speaking, writing, printing, displaying notices, broadcasting, telecasting, screening or playing of tapes or other recorded material, or by electronic means; and

- (ii) any conduct that is observable by the public, including actions, gestures and the wearing or display of clothing, signs, flags, emblems or insignia; but
  - (b) does not include the distribution or dissemination of any matter by a person to the public if the person does not know, and could not reasonably be expected to know, the content of the matter.

Chapter 5      Associated highly objectionable conduct (complaint and penalty)

Part 1            Act's freedom from associated highly objectionable conduct purpose

125      Act's freedom from associated highly objectionable conduct purpose and how it is to be achieved

- (1) One of the purposes of the Act is to promote equality of opportunity for everyone by prohibiting and penalising certain highly objectionable conduct that is inconsistent with the other purposes of the Act.
- (2) This purpose is to be achieved by—
  - (a) prohibiting certain conduct; and
  - (b) allowing a complaint under chapter 7 to be made against a person who has engaged in that conduct; and
  - (c) making that conduct an offence; and

- (d) using the agencies and procedures established under chapter 7 and the relevant tribunal Act to deal with the complaint or offence.

Part 3                      Discriminatory advertising

127      Discriminatory advertisements

- (1) A person must not publish or display an advertisement, or authorise its publication or display, if the advertisement indicates that a person intends to act in a way that contravenes the Act.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—35 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—170 penalty units.

- (1A) To remove any doubt, subsection (1) does not apply to an advertisement so far as it advertises for a worker who is under 21 years of age, whether by specifying a particular age, a particular age group or otherwise.

Example—

An employer may advertise for an 18 year old sales assistant or for a 15 to 17 year old sales assistant.

- (2) It is a defence to a complaint made under the Act for a contravention of subsection (1) if the respondent proves, on the balance of probabilities, that the respondent took reasonable precautions to prevent the publication or display happening.
- (3) It is an excuse to an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant took reasonable precautions to prevent the publication or display happening.

128 Inducement

A person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading statement to another person in order to induce the publication or display of an unlawful advertisement.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—35 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—170 penalty units.

Part 4 Victimisation

129 Victimisation

A person must not victimise another person.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—45 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—170 penalty units.

130 Meaning of victimisation

(1) Victimisation happens if a person (the respondent) does an act, or threatens to do an act, to the detriment of another person (the complainant)—

- (a) because the complainant, or a person associated with, or related to, the complainant—
  - (i) refused to do an act that would amount to a contravention of the Act; or
  - (ii) in good faith, alleged, or intends to allege that a person committed an act that would amount to a contravention of the Act; or
  - (iii) is, has been, or intends to be, involved in a proceeding under the Act against any person; or

- (b) because the respondent believes that the complainant, or a person associated with, or related to, the complainant is doing, has done, or intends to do one of the things mentioned in paragraph (a)(i), (ii) or (iii).
- (2) In this section, a reference to involvement in a proceeding under the Act includes—
- (a) making a complaint under the Act and continuing with the complaint, whether by investigation, conciliation, hearing or otherwise; and
  - (b) involvement in a prosecution for an offence against the Act; and
  - (c) supplying information and producing documents to a person who is performing a function under the Act; and
  - (d) appearing as a witness in a proceeding under the Act.

131 Victimization continues even if proceedings etc. do not

The application or continued application of section 129 (Victimization) is not affected by—

- (a) the failure or otherwise of the complainant or the person associated with, or related to, the complainant, to do 1 of the things mentioned in section 130(1)(a)(i),(ii) or (iii) (Meaning of victimisation); or
- (b) the withdrawal, failure to pursue, or determination of a proceeding under the Act.

  - (b) the complainant's employment on a large resource project was terminated because the complainant was, or became, a resident of a nearby regional community for the project and chose to travel to the project other than as a fly-in fly-out worker.
- (2) It is presumed the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) was taken for the alleged reason, unless the respondent proves otherwise.

Chapter 7      Enforcement

Part 1              What the Queensland Human Rights Commission may do

Division 1          The complaint process

Subdivision 1      All complaints

See also section 146 in relation to representative complaints.

- (2) Two or more people may make a complaint jointly.
- (3) A relevant entity may complain to the commissioner about a relevant alleged contravention.
- (4) However, the commissioner may accept the relevant entity's complaint under section 141 only if the commissioner is satisfied that—

- (b) the relevant alleged contravention is about conduct that has affected or is likely to affect relevant persons for the relevant entity; and
  - (c) it is in the interests of justice to accept the complaint.
- (5) In this section—

relevant alleged contravention means an alleged contravention of section 124A.

relevant persons, for a relevant entity, means persons the promotion of whose interests or welfare is a primary purpose of the relevant entity.

135 Complaint may allege more than 1 contravention

A person may make a complaint alleging more than 1 contravention of the Act.

Example—

C applies to real estate agent R to rent a house and is asked to fill out a form which includes a question about his country of birth. C is not offered a house, and believes this is on the basis of his national origin. C may make a complaint about being required to answer a question about his national origin contrary to section 124 (Unnecessary information), or a complaint about unlawful discrimination under section 82 (Discrimination in pre-accommodation area), or both.

136 Making a complaint

A complaint must—

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) set out reasonably sufficient details to indicate an alleged contravention of the Act; and
- (c) state the complainant's address for service; and

- (d) be lodged with, or sent by post to, the commissioner.

137 Unfair agreements not to complain are not binding

- (1) The commissioner may accept a complaint from a person who had previously agreed with another person not to complain, if the commissioner is of the reasonable opinion that it is fair to accept the complaint.
- (2) In assessing whether it is fair to accept the complaint, the commissioner is to consider all the relevant circumstances of the case including—
  - (a) the knowledge of the parties who made the agreement; and
  - (b) what the person who wishes to complain received in return for the agreement.

138 Time limit on making complaints

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person is only entitled to make a complaint within 1 year of the alleged contravention of the Act.
- (2) If a complaint is made more than 1 year after the alleged contravention of the Act, the commissioner must decide—
  - (a) to accept the complaint, but only if the commissioner is satisfied the complainant has shown good cause; or
  - (b) otherwise—not to accept the complaint.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies subject to section 141A.

139 Commissioner must reject frivolous, trivial etc. complaints

The commissioner must reject a complaint if the commissioner is of the reasonable opinion that the complaint is—

- (a) frivolous, trivial or vexatious; or

- (b) misconceived or lacking in substance.

140 Commissioner may reject or stay complaints dealt with elsewhere

- (1) The commissioner may reject or stay a complaint if—
  - (a) there are concurrent proceedings in a court or tribunal in relation to the act or omission the subject of the complaint; or
  - (b) the commissioner reasonably considers the act or omission that is the subject of the complaint may be effectively or conveniently dealt with by another entity.
- (2) The commissioner may also reject a complaint if the commissioner reasonably considers the act or omission the subject of the complaint has been adequately dealt with by another entity.
- (3) A time limit for doing anything under this Act in relation to a complaint does not run while a complaint is stayed.

140A Dealing with complaint under Human Rights Act 2019

- (1) This section applies if the commissioner considers a complaint made or referred to the commissioner under this Act would be more appropriately dealt with by the commission as a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Human Rights Act 2019.
- (2) The commissioner may, with the consent of the complainant, deal with the complaint under the Human Rights Act 2019 as an alleged contravention of that Act.
- (3) For dealing with the complaint as mentioned in subsection (2), the complaint—
  - (a) is taken to be a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Human Rights Act 2019 that is accepted by the commissioner under section 76 of that Act; and

- (b) is taken to be made on the day the complaint was made or referred under this Act.

141 Time limit on acceptance or rejection of complaints

- (1) The commissioner must decide whether to accept or reject a complaint within 28 days of receiving the complaint.
- (2) The commissioner must promptly notify the complainant of the decision.
- (3) This section applies subject to section 141A.

141A Deferral of acceptance of complaint for out-of-time contravention

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a complaint relates to—
    - (i) at least 1 alleged contravention of the Act that happened within 1 year before the complaint was made (a within-time contravention); and
    - (ii) at least 1 alleged contravention of the Act that happened more than 1 year before the complaint was made (an out-of-time contravention); and
  - (b) the commissioner decides to accept the complaint under section 141 to the extent it relates to the within-time contravention.
- (2) The commissioner may defer deciding under section 138(2) whether or not to accept the complaint to the extent it relates to the out-of-time contravention until the commissioner has tried to resolve the complaint by conciliation under division 3.

142 Reasons for rejected complaints

- (1) If a complaint is rejected, it lapses and the complainant is not entitled to make a further complaint relating to the act or omission that was the subject of the complaint.

- (2) If a complaint is rejected, the complainant may, within 28 days of receiving notice of the rejection, ask the commissioner for written reasons.
- (3) If requested, the commissioner must promptly give the complainant written reasons for the rejection.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a reference in this section to rejecting a complaint includes a reference to deciding not to accept a complaint under section 137(1) or 138(2)(b).
- (5) In this section—
complaint includes a complaint mentioned in section 141A to the extent it relates to an out-of-time contravention.

143 Respondent is to be notified of accepted complaint

- (1) If a complaint is accepted, the commissioner must promptly notify the respondent in writing of the substance of the complaint.
- (2) The notice to the respondent must also state the following—
  - (a) the complainant's address for service;
  - (b) that the respondent must advise the commissioner of the respondent's address for service;
  - (c) that the respondent may give a written response to the allegations included in the complaint;
  - (d) that within 28 days after the respondent receives the notice, the respondent must, if giving a written response—
    - (i) give the written response to the commissioner; and
    - (ii) give a copy of the written response to the complainant and any other respondent;
  - (e) that the respondent must include, with the written response given to the commissioner, advice as to whether it has been given to the complainant and any other respondent;

- (f) that the respondent may ask the commissioner for an early conciliation conference whether or not the respondent gives a written response;
  - (g) that if the respondent does not, within the 28 days mentioned in paragraph (d), give the commissioner a written response or ask the commission to arrange for an early conciliation conference, a conciliation conference will be held on a date stated in the notice.
- (2A) The respondent must advise the commissioner in writing of the respondent's address for service.
- (2B) If the respondent is giving a written response, the respondent must also—
- (a) give the written response to the commissioner and give a copy of the written response to the complainant and any other respondent; and
  - (b) advise the commissioner whether the written response, or a copy of the written response, has been given to the complainant and any other respondent.
- (3) If the respondent does not, within the 28 days mentioned in subsection (2)(d), give the commissioner a written response or ask the commission to arrange for an early conciliation conference, the notice has effect as a direction under section 159(1) to the respondent to take part in a conciliation conference on the date stated in the notice under subsection (2)(g).
- (4) The giving of the notice to the respondent does not stop the commissioner from exercising, at any time, the commissioner's power under section 159(1) to direct the complainant and the respondent to take part in a conciliation conference—
- (a) whether or not the 28 days mentioned in subsection (2)(d) has expired; and
  - (b) whether or not the commissioner has received any communication from the respondent.

- (5) The stated date for subsection (2)(g) must be not more than 14 days after the 28 days mentioned in subsection (2)(d).

144 Applications for orders protecting complainant's interests (before reference to tribunal)

- (1) At any time before a complaint is referred to the tribunal, the complainant or the commissioner may apply, as provided under the relevant tribunal Act, to the tribunal for an order prohibiting a person from doing an act that might prejudice—
- (a) the investigation or conciliation of the complaint; or
  - (b) an order that the tribunal might make after a hearing.
- (2) A party or the commissioner may apply, as provided under the relevant tribunal Act, to the tribunal for an order varying or revoking an order made under subsection (1).
- (3) If the tribunal is satisfied it is in the interests of justice, an application for an order under subsection (1) may be heard in the absence of the respondent to the application.

145 Anonymity

- (1) If, any time before a complaint is referred to the tribunal, the commissioner is of the reasonable opinion that the preservation of anonymity of a person who is, or has been, involved in a proceeding under the Act is necessary to protect the work security, privacy or any human right of the person, the commissioner may give a direction prohibiting the disclosure of the person's identity.
- (2) A person must comply with a direction.
- Maximum penalty—
- (a) in the case of an individual—35 penalty units; or
  - (b) in the case of a corporation—170 penalty units.
- (3) It is an excuse to an offence against subsection (2) if the defendant has a reasonable excuse.

- (4) In this section, a reference to involvement in a proceeding under the Act includes—
- (a) making a complaint under the Act and continuing with the complaint, whether by investigation, conciliation, hearing or otherwise; and
  - (b) being a respondent to such a complaint; and
  - (c) involvement in a prosecution for an offence against the Act; and
  - (d) supplying information and producing documents to a person who is performing a function under the Act; and
  - (e) appearing as a witness in a proceeding under the Act.

Subdivision 2      Representative complaints

146      Who may make representative complaint

- (1) A person may make a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Act as a representative complaint on behalf of a class of persons of which the person is a member if—
- (a) all members of the class may make a complaint under section 134(1)(a) about the alleged contravention; and
  - (b) all of the complaints the members of the class may make under section 134(1)(a) about the alleged contravention—
    - (i) relate to, or arise out of, conduct of the same person; and
    - (ii) relate to, or arise out of, the same, similar or related circumstances; and
    - (iii) give rise to a substantial common issue of law or fact.
- (2) Also, a registered employee organisation may make a representative complaint about an alleged contravention of the Act as a representative complaint on behalf of a class of persons if—

- (a) all members of the class are members of the organisation; and
  - (b) the alleged contravention is a work-related matter; and
  - (c) subsection (1)(a) and (b) apply in relation to the members of the class.
- (3) A complaint may be made under subsection (1) or (2) on behalf of a class of persons without the consent of the members of the class.

147 Additional requirements for form of representative complaint

- (1) A representative complaint must—
  - (a) describe or otherwise identify the members of the class of persons for which the complaint is made; and
  - (b) specify the nature of the complaints made on behalf of the members of the class; and
  - (c) specify the nature of the relief sought.
- (2) In describing or otherwise identifying the members of the class of persons, it is not necessary to name them or specify how many there are.

148 Effect of representative complaint on persons who are members of class represented

- (1) A person who is a member of a class of persons to which a representative complaint relates—
  - (a) may, by written notice given to the commissioner at any time before the complaint is finally dealt with by the commissioner, opt out of the representative complaint; and
  - (b) is not entitled to make a separate complaint in relation to the conduct constituting the alleged contravention of the

Act to which the representative complaint relates, unless the person opts out under paragraph (a).

- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply or stops applying to a class member for a representative complaint, other than the complainant, if—
  - (a) the commissioner amends the representative complaint under section 151; or
  - (b) the representative complaint lapses under section 142 or 167(4)(c) or division 5.
- (3) Also, subsection (1)(b) does not apply to a class member for a representative complaint, other than the complainant, if—
  - (a) the representative complaint is referred to the tribunal; and
  - (b) any of the following happens—
    - (i) the complaint lapses under section 193;
    - (ii) the tribunal decides not to deal with the complaint as a representative complaint under section 194;
    - (iii) the class member opts out of the representative complaint under section 195;
    - (iv) the tribunal orders that the representative complaint no longer continue as a representative complaint under section 198 or 199.

149 Effect of representative complaint on persons who are not members of class represented

- (1) The making of a representative complaint about an alleged contravention of the Act does not prevent a person who is not a member of the class of persons to which the representative complaint relates making a complaint in relation to the conduct constituting the alleged contravention.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) also applies to a person who has opted out of the representative complaint under section 148 or 195.

150 Complaint may be amended to be representative complaint

- (1) If the commissioner is satisfied that a complaint made by or on behalf of a number of persons could be dealt with as a representative complaint if the persons on whose behalf the complaint is made are increased, reduced or otherwise altered, the commissioner may amend the complaint so that the complaint can be dealt with as a representative complaint.
- (2) However, the commissioner may amend the complaint under subsection (1) only if the person who made the complaint consents to the amendment and to the complaint being dealt with as a representative complaint.

151 Representative complaint may be amended to be non-representative complaint

- (1) This section applies if the commissioner is satisfied—
  - (a) that a complaint has been wrongly made as a representative complaint; or
  - (b) it is in the interests of justice that the matter the subject of a complaint made as a representative complaint be dealt with other than as a representative complaint because—
    - (i) the complaint will not provide an efficient and effective way of dealing with the complaints of the class members for the complaint; or
    - (ii) the complainant is not able to adequately represent the interests of the class members for the complaint.
- (2) The commissioner may amend the complaint so that the complaint can be dealt with as a complaint other than as a representative complaint.

152 Substitution of complainant

- (1) This section does not apply in relation to a representative complaint made by a registered employee organisation as provided under section 146(2).
- (2) If the complainant for a representative complaint gives the commissioner written notice under section 170 that the complainant does not want to continue with the complaint, the commissioner may substitute another class member as the complainant with the consent of the other class member.
- (3) If the commissioner considers that the complainant is not able to adequately represent the interests of the class members for the complaint, the commissioner may substitute another class member as the complainant with the consent of the other class member.

152A Commissioner may give directions

The commissioner may give directions about the conduct of a representative complaint while it is being dealt with by the commissioner.

Subdivision 3 Complaints by dismissed workers

153 Dismissed worker lodges complaint first

If, but for this section—

- (a) a worker is dismissed in circumstances entitling the worker to—
  - (i) lodge a complaint with the commissioner under the Act; and
  - (ii) apply for industrial relief; and
- (b) the worker does not apply for industrial relief before lodging a complaint and being notified under section 141 that the complaint has been accepted;

the worker may only proceed with the complaint and may not later apply for industrial relief in respect of the circumstances.

154 Dismissed worker applies for industrial relief first

If—

- (a) a worker is dismissed in circumstances entitling the worker to—
  - (i) lodge a complaint with the commissioner under the Act; and
  - (ii) apply for industrial relief; and
- (b) the worker applies for industrial relief before lodging a complaint;

the worker may proceed with both the complaint and the application for industrial relief, but the tribunal may not make an order in respect of the complaint requiring the reinstatement or re-employment of the worker.

Division 2 The investigation process

154A Investigation of complaint

The commissioner may investigate a complaint at any time after the complaint is received by the commissioner.

155 Requirement to initiate investigation

- (1) The commissioner must initiate an investigation if—
  - (a) requested to do so by the Minister; or
  - (b) QCAT or the industrial relations commission becomes aware of circumstances that may constitute a contravention of the Act and refers the matter to the commissioner.
- (2) The commissioner may initiate an investigation if—

- (a) during the course of carrying out the commission's functions, a possible case of a contravention of the Act against a group or class of people is discovered, the matter is of public concern and the Minister agrees; or
  - (b) an allegation is made that an offence against the Act has been committed; or
  - (c) during the course of carrying out the commission's functions, a possible offence against the Act is discovered.
