This Act may be cited as the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 6 June 2002.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

This Act generally consolidates existing laws incidental to the operation of the Assembly.

5 Relationship between this Act and some other Acts about Parliament

- (1) This Act contains laws incidental to the operation of the Assembly.
- (2) The Constitution of Queensland 2001—
 - (a) contains basic statements about the Assembly's membership and procedures and its powers, rights and immunities; and
 - (b) provides for the duration of the Assembly.
- (3) The Constitution Act 1867 requires a Legislative Assembly to exist, declares the Parliament of Queensland and law-making power in Queensland and has some provisions about the office of Governor.

Note—

See also the Australia Act 1986 (Cwlth), sections 2 (Legislative powers of Parliaments of States), 3 (Termination of restrictions on legislative powers of Parliaments of States) and 6 (Manner and form of making certain State laws).

- (4) The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1934 prohibits provision being made for the existence of another legislative body except as provided in the Act.

Chapter 2 Proceedings in the Assembly

Part 1 Protection and definition

8 Assembly proceedings can not be impeached or questioned

- (1) The freedom of speech and debates or proceedings in the Assembly can not be impeached or questioned in any court or place out of the Assembly.
- (2) To remove doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) is intended to have the same effect as article 9 of the Bill of Rights (1688) had in relation to the Assembly immediately before the commencement of the subsection.

9 Meaning of proceedings in the Assembly

- (1) Proceedings in the Assembly include all words spoken and acts done in the course of, or for the purposes of or incidental to, transacting business of the Assembly or a committee.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), proceedings in the Assembly include—
 - (a) giving evidence before the Assembly, a committee or an inquiry; and
 - (b) evidence given before the Assembly, a committee or an inquiry; and
 - (c) presenting or submitting a document to the Assembly, a committee or an inquiry; and
 - (d) a document tabled in, or presented or submitted to, the Assembly, a committee or an inquiry; and
 - (e) preparing a document for the purposes of, or incidental to, transacting business mentioned in paragraph (a) or (c); and

- (f) preparing, making or publishing a document (including a report) under the authority of the Assembly or a committee; and
 - (g) a document (including a report) prepared, made or published under the authority of the Assembly or a committee.
- (3) Despite subsection (2)(d), section 8 does not apply to a document mentioned in subsection (2)(d)—
- (a) in relation to a purpose for which it was brought into existence other than for the purpose of being tabled in, or presented or submitted to, the Assembly or a committee or an inquiry; and
 - (b) if the document has been authorised by the Assembly or the committee to be published.

Example—

A document evidencing fraud in a department tabled at a portfolio committee inquiry can be used in a criminal prosecution for the fraud if the document was not created for the committee's inquiry and the committee has authorised the document to be published.

- (4) If the way in which a document is dealt with has the effect that—
- (a) under an Act; or
 - (b) under the rules, orders, directions or practices of the Assembly;

the document is treated, or accepted, as having been tabled in the Assembly for any purpose, then, for the purposes of this Act, the document is taken to be tabled in the Assembly.

- (5) For this section, it does not matter what the nature of the business transacted by a committee is or whether the business is transacted under this Act or otherwise.

Part 2 Miscellaneous

9A Definitions for pt 2

exceptional circumstances means circumstances arising from the COVID-19 emergency that make it impractical for some or all members to travel to or meet in the parliamentary precinct.

parliamentary precinct see the Parliamentary Service Act 1988, section 4.

present, in relation to a member at a meeting of the Assembly or a Committee of the Whole House, includes, when the Assembly or the Committee is meeting in exceptional circumstances, the member being present at the meeting—

10A Sitting and transacting business in exceptional circumstances

- (1) In exceptional circumstances, a meeting of the Assembly or a Committee of the Whole House may be held, and business transacted, using any technology that enables reasonably continuous and contemporaneous communication between the Speaker or Deputy Speaker presiding and the members present other than members present by proxy, and between the members present other than members present by proxy.
- (2) For the purposes of a meeting held and business transacted in exceptional circumstances, the provisions of this Act are to be applied—
 - (a) with necessary and appropriate modifications that may be prescribed in the standing rules and orders of the Assembly; or
 - (b) in the absence of the prescription mentioned in paragraph (a), with modifications the Speaker determines to be necessary and appropriate in the circumstances.

Example of a necessary and appropriate modification

The standing rules and orders of the Assembly might provide that if, during a meeting conducted under this section, a member who is present by electronic means is voting as and for an absent member under section 20, references to voting inside the bar or outside the bar are to be read as requiring the member to declare to the Speaker or Deputy Speaker presiding whether the member is voting for the absent member and in the member's own right, or for the absent member only.

11 Standing rules and orders may be made

- (1) The Assembly may prepare and adopt standing rules and orders that appear to the Assembly best adapted to conduct proceedings in the Assembly.

- (3) A standing rule or order becomes binding and of force on adoption by the Assembly or at another time decided by the Assembly.

12 Quorum

- (1) For all purposes, the Speaker holding office on the Assembly's expiry or dissolution continues to hold the office until the day before the Assembly's first sitting day after a general election.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even if the Speaker—
- (a) is not a candidate for election as a member at the general election; or
 - (b) is a candidate for election as a member at the general election and is not elected.

16 Deputy Speaker in particular circumstances

- (1) This section does not affect the way in which the Assembly is presided over when it is sitting in the absence of the Speaker.
- (2) The way in which the Assembly is presided over when it is sitting in the absence of the Speaker is decided under the standing rules and orders and any resolution of the Assembly.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the Deputy Speaker may act as the Speaker—
- (a) during a vacancy in the Speaker's office; or
 - (b) during a period when the Speaker is absent from duty or from the State or is, for another reason, unable to perform the duties of the office.
- (4) If the Deputy Speaker is for any reason unable to act as Speaker at a time mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b), the most senior temporary Deputy Speaker, who is able to act as Speaker, may act as the Speaker.

- (5) For subsection (4), as between temporary Deputy Speakers the most senior temporary Deputy Speaker is the one who has continually served longest as a member.
- (6) A person acting as the Speaker may be referred to as the Deputy Speaker.

Part 4 Deputy Speaker

17 Deputy Speaker

- (1) The members of the Assembly must as soon as practicable on sitting after every general election proceed to appoint a member to be Deputy Speaker.
- (2) The Deputy Speaker must preside at all meetings of a Committee of the Whole House, unless otherwise provided by the standing rules and orders.
- (3) The Deputy Speaker stops holding office on his or her resignation or removal by a vote of the Assembly.
- (4) On the Deputy Speaker's death, resignation or removal by a vote of the Assembly, the members must proceed to appoint another member to be the Deputy Speaker before proceeding to any other business.

18 Deputy Speaker continues to hold office on Assembly's expiry or dissolution

- (1) For all purposes, the Deputy Speaker holding office on the Assembly's expiry or dissolution continues to hold the office until the day before the Assembly's first sitting day after a general election.
- (2) To remove doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) applies to the Deputy Speaker acting as Speaker under section 16(3) for the purposes of section 15(1).
- (3) Subsection (1) applies even if the Deputy Speaker—

- (a) is not a candidate for election as a member at the general election; or
- (b) is a candidate for election as a member at the general election and is not elected.

Part 5 Proxy voting

19 Member who may give proxy

- (1) This section applies if, as evidenced by the certificates of at least 2 doctors, a member (the absent member) stated in the certificates is in a state of ill health that prevents the member, during a period stated in the certificates, from attending any sittings of the Assembly.
- (2) The absent member may notify the Speaker in writing that the member desires to vote as a member at every sittings of the Assembly and of every Committee of the Whole House—
 - (a) by way of a named proxy who is also a member (the first proxy); or
 - (b) if the first proxy is not present, by another named proxy, who is also a member (the second proxy).
- (3) The absent member or, if the member is unable to do so through ill health, another member on the member's behalf, must present the certificates and notification to the Speaker.
- (4) The Speaker must read the certificates and notification to the Assembly—
 - (a) if the Assembly is sitting on the day the Speaker receives them—on that day; or
 - (b) if the Assembly is not sitting on that day—on the next sitting day.
- (5) If the Speaker declares that the Speaker is satisfied that the matters stated in the certificates are true, at any division at any sittings of the Assembly or any Committee of the Whole House during the period stated in the certificates, subject to section 23, the proxy may vote as and for the absent member.

- (6) Under subsection (5), the first proxy may vote, or, if the first proxy is absent, the second proxy may vote.
- (7) The proxy may vote as and for the absent member either without voting in the proxy's own right or in addition to voting in the proxy's own right.

20 How the proxy votes

- (1) The proxy is to vote by declaring to the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker, as the case may be, during the taking of the votes on the division, that the proxy votes as and for the absent member for the 'ayes' or for the 'noes'.
- (2) If the vote is for the 'ayes', the tellers for the 'ayes' must count it accordingly, and, if the vote is for the 'noes', the tellers for the 'noes' must count it accordingly.
- (3) A vote so declared is as effectual as if the absent member had been personally present in the Assembly on the taking of the votes on the division and had voted on the side of the question for which the member's vote has been so declared by proxy.
- (4) A member who, as a proxy, votes as and for the absent member, and does not vote in the member's own right, must declare the vote as and for the absent member from outside the bar of the Assembly.
- (5) If the member declares the vote as and for the absent member within the bar, the member must be taken to vote also in the member's own right on the side of the question which the member's place in the division indicates.

21 How a proxy is substituted

- (1) This section applies if, during the period stated in the certificates, the absent member notifies the Speaker in writing that the member desires to substitute as the member's first proxy and second proxy or either of them 2 other named members or 1 other named member, as the case may be.

- (2) The Speaker must read the notification to the Assembly—
 - (a) if the Assembly is sitting on the day the Speaker receives the notification—on that day; or
 - (b) if the Assembly is not sitting on that day—on the next sitting day.
 - (3) On the notification under subsection (2) being read to the Assembly by the Speaker, the other members or member named in the notification—
 - (a) becomes the first proxy and the second proxy or the first proxy or the second proxy, as the case may be, in substitution for the members or member who had been authorised to vote as and for the absent member; and
 - (b) as the proxies or proxy, may vote as and for the absent member as provided under section 20.

22 End of certificates, notification and Speaker's declaration on last day of session—renewal

- (1) The certificates, notification and Speaker's declaration under this part are ineffective beyond the last day of the session of the Assembly in which the certificates, notification and declaration were received or made.
- (2) However, if the ill health of the absent member and the absent member's inability to attend any sittings of the Assembly continue or are likely to continue beyond the period stated in the certificates, or beyond the last day of the session of the Assembly in which the certificates were received, the certificates, notification, and declaration may be renewed whenever necessary.

23 End of proxy

- (1) No further vote of the absent member may be declared by proxy if, during the period stated in the certificates and after any declaration made by the Speaker in relation to the member—

[s 24]

- (a) the member attends any sittings of the Assembly or any Committee of the Whole House; or
 - (b) the Speaker declares to the Assembly that the Speaker is satisfied that the member is able to attend the sittings; or
 - (c) the Speaker reads to the Assembly a notification by the member that the member desires that the member's vote is to be no longer declared by proxy.
- (2) When the absent member notifies the Speaker in writing that the member desires that the member's vote be no longer declared by proxy, the Speaker must read the notification to the Assembly—
- (a) if the Assembly is sitting on the day the Speaker receives the notification—on that day; or
 - (b) if the Assembly is not sitting on that day—on the next sitting day.
