Work Health and Safety Act 2011

An Act to provide comprehensively for work health and safety, to provide for a new definition of asbestos in particular legislation and for a work health and safety levy, to amend other legislation as a consequence, and to amend the Workers’ Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 for particular purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Introduction

1 Short title
This Act may be cited as the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

2 Commencement
(1) The following provisions commence on 1 January 2014—
   (a) part 18, division 2;
   (b) sections 391 and 401;
   (c) schedule 4, part 1.
(2) Sections 395, 396, 397(2) and 398 to 400 commence immediately after the commencement of sections 391 and 401.
(3) The remaining provisions commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

[s 1]
Division 2  Object

3  Object

(1) The main object of this Act is to provide for a balanced and nationally consistent framework to secure the health and safety of workers and workplaces by—

(a) protecting workers and other persons against harm to their health, safety and welfare through the elimination or minimisation of risks arising from work or from particular types of substances or plant; and

(b) providing for fair and effective workplace representation, consultation, cooperation and issue resolution in relation to work health and safety; and

(c) encouraging unions and employer organisations to take a constructive role in promoting improvements in work health and safety practices, and assisting persons conducting businesses or undertakings and workers to achieve a healthier and safer working environment; and

(d) promoting the provision of advice, information, education and training in relation to work health and safety; and

(e) securing compliance with this Act through effective and appropriate compliance and enforcement measures; and

(f) ensuring appropriate scrutiny and review of actions by persons exercising powers and performing functions under this Act; and

(g) providing a framework for continuous improvement and progressively higher standards of work health and safety; and

(h) maintaining and strengthening the national harmonisation of laws relating to work health and safety and to facilitate a consistent national approach to work health and safety in Queensland.
(2) In furthering subsection (1)(a), regard must be had to the principle that workers and other persons should be given the highest level of protection against harm to their health, safety and welfare from hazards and risks arising from work or from particular types of substances or plant as is reasonably practicable.

Note—
The numbering of this Act closely corresponds to the same numbering in a model Bill prepared for and approved by the Council of Australian Governments. To maximise uniformity between this Act and the model Bill, the numbers of some sections in the model Bill that are not relevant have not been used in the numbering of this Act, unless required for provisions particular to the State. Adoption of the numbering of the model Bill also results in alphanumeric numbering being used to insert further provisions particular to the State.

(a) may do the things at the place and in the way that the inspector reasonably requires to assist the inspector to exercise compliance powers; but

(b) must not do anything that the inspector does not have power to do, except as permitted under a search warrant.

(3) Anything done lawfully by the assistant is taken for all purposes to have been done by the inspector.

Subdivision 2 Search warrants

167 Search warrants

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a search warrant for a place.

(2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—
The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration.
(4) The magistrate may issue a search warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—
   (a) there is a particular thing or activity (the evidence) that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act; and
   (b) the evidence is, or may be within the next 72 hours, at the place.

(5) The search warrant must state—
   (a) that a stated inspector may, with necessary and reasonable help and force, enter the place and exercise the inspector’s compliance powers; and
   (b) the offence for which the search warrant is sought; and
   (c) the evidence that may be seized under the search warrant; and
   (d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and
   (e) the date, within 7 days after the search warrant’s issue, the search warrant ends.

167A Electronic application

(1) An application under section 167 may be made by phone, fax, email, radio, videoconferencing or another form of electronic communication if the inspector reasonably considers it necessary because of—
   (a) urgent circumstances; or
   (b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the inspector’s remote location.

(2) The application—
   (a) may not be made before the inspector prepares a written application under section 167(2); but
   (b) may be made before the application is sworn.
(3) The magistrate may issue the warrant (the original warrant) only if the magistrate is satisfied—

(a) it was necessary to make the application under this section; and

(b) the way the application was made was appropriate.

(4) After the magistrate issues the original warrant—

(a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the warrant to the inspector, including, for example, by sending a copy by fax or email, the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the warrant to the inspector; or

(b) otherwise—

(i) the magistrate must tell the inspector the information mentioned in section 167(5); and

(ii) the inspector must complete a form of warrant, including by writing on it the information mentioned in section 167(5) provided by the magistrate.

(5) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection (4)(a), or the form of warrant completed under subsection (4)(b) (in either case the duplicate warrant), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant.

(6) The inspector must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—

(a) the written application complying with section 167(2); and

(b) if the inspector completed a form of warrant under subsection (4)(b)—the completed form of warrant.

(7) The magistrate must keep the original warrant and, on receiving the documents under subsection (6)—

(a) attach the documents to the original warrant; and

(b) give the original warrant and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant Magistrates Court.
(8) Despite subsection (5), if—
   (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and
   (b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence;
the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power.

(9) This section does not limit section 167.

(10) In this section—
   relevant Magistrates Court, in relation to a magistrate, means the Magistrates Court that the magistrate constitutes under the Magistrates Act 1991.

Note—
In relation to the numbering of this section, see the note to section 3.

   (a) announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the place; and
   (b) give any person at the place an opportunity to allow that entry.

(2) However, the inspector or an assistant to the inspector is not required to comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is needed to ensure—
   (a) the safety of any person; or
   (b) that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.
Copy of warrant to be given to person with management or control of place

(a) with the consent of the person with management or control of the place; or

(b) under the authority conferred by a search warrant; or

(c) for the purpose only of gaining access to a suspected workplace, but only—

(2) However, the answer to a question or information or a document provided by an individual, and other evidence directly or indirectly derived from the answer, information or document, is not admissible as evidence against that individual in civil or criminal proceedings other than proceedings arising out of the false or misleading nature of the answer, information or document.

(3) If—

(a) the acts or omissions constituting the contravention continue after the repeal; and
(b) the continuing acts or omissions contravene a duty imposed by a provision of this Act;

proceedings may be taken against the person under the provision of this Act to the extent of the continuation of the acts or omissions after the repeal.

281 Application of this Act and repealed Act in relation to other particular provisions

(1) This section applies to an obligation imposed by any of the following provisions of the repealed Act—

(f) section 33;
(g) section 34;
(h) section 34A.

(2) If a contravention of the obligation happens before the repeal, proceedings may be taken or continued against the person who contravened the obligation, and the person may be punished, as if the repeal had not happened.

(3) If—
(a) a particular activity of a person would be a contravention of the obligation if all the acts or omissions involved happened before the repeal; but
(b) some of the acts or omissions happen before, and some after, the repeal; the proceedings may be taken against the person for the activity as a contravention of the obligation as if the repeal had not happened.

(4) However, subsection (3) only applies if proceedings against the person for the activity are commenced—
(a) for an activity to which the provisions mentioned in subsection (1)(b), (c) or (f) relate—within 2 years after the repeal; or
(b) otherwise—within 1 year after the repeal.

(5) Also, the person can not be convicted of the contravention under subsection (3) unless the acts or omissions would also be a contravention of a corresponding duty under this Act if they all happened after the repeal.
(6) Subsections (3) and (4) do not prevent proceedings being commenced against the person under this Act solely for any acts of omissions involved in the activity that happen after the repeal.

282 Investigations and proceedings generally

Example—

Before the repeal, an authorised officer gives a directive under the repealed Act, section 90. As a result of the response to the directive, or a lack of response to the directive, an inspector appointed under this Act gives a directive under section 91 of the preserved provisions.

   (a) if the context permits, continues to have effect for the purposes of this Act; and
   (b) if the context permits, is taken to have been exercised under a corresponding provision of this Act by an inspector appointed under this Act.

(3) However, subsection (2) does not apply to an exercise of an authorised person’s power to which section 302 applies.

   (a) a cost recovery notice issued before the repeal or under subsection (1); and
   (b) to any amount for which the notice was issued.
305 Appeals

(1) The repealed Act, part 9 continues to apply to a decision made under the repealed Act as if the repealed Act had not been repealed.

(2) For the repealed Act, section 154F, applied under subsection (1), a reference to the chief executive of the department is taken to be a reference to the regulator.

306 Regulation-making power for major hazard facility

A regulation may make provision for declaring whether or how any matter defined, decided, notified, done or otherwise arising under the repealed Act, part 4 or 5, is to have continuing effect for the regulation, including a continuing effect as modified for the purpose of the regulation.

Examples—

1 A regulation may declare that a facility classified as a major hazard facility by the chief executive under the repealed Act, part 4, is taken, under the regulation, to be a facility registered or licensed as a major hazard facility by the regulator.

(g) a mixture containing 1 or more of the minerals mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (f).

Note—

Paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (f) mention mineral silicates that use the same mineral term for both the asbestiform and non-asbestiform varieties. The word ‘asbestos’ has been included when listing these minerals to emphasise that only the asbestiform habit of these minerals is regulated as asbestos.

cooling tower means a device for lowering the temperature of water by evaporative cooling in which atmospheric air passes through sprayed water exchanging heat, and includes a device incorporating a refrigerant or water heat exchanger.

Part 2  Relationship with other Acts

Division 1  Mining safety and related matters

1 Definition for div 1

   In this division—

   P&G Act means the Petroleum and Gas (Production and Safety) Act 2004.

2 Relationship with mining Acts

   (1) This Act does not apply to—

   (a) a coal mine to which the Coal Mining Safety and Health Act 1999 applies; or

   (b) a mine to which the Mining and Quarrying Safety and Health Act 1999 applies; or

   (c) subject to subsections (2) and (3), operating plant under the P&G Act, other than specified P&G Act authorised activity, for any of the following—

   (i) a 1923 Act petroleum tenure under the Petroleum Act 1923;

   (ii) a petroleum authority under the P&G Act;

   (iii) a GHG authority under the Greenhouse Gas Storage Act 2009;

   (iv) a geothermal tenure under the Geothermal Energy Act 2010.
(v) a mining tenement under the Mineral Resources Act 1989.

(2) Despite subsection (1)(c)—
   (a) this Act applies to construction work for operating plant under the P&G Act, unless the work is—
       (i) the commissioning of an operating plant; or
       (ii) the process called ‘rigging up and down’ of a drill rig; and
   (b) both this Act and the P&G Act apply to construction work for a stage of operating plant or proposed operating plant mentioned in section 672(2) of that Act, unless the work is work mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii).

(3) Despite subsection (1)(c), a regulation under this Act applying in relation to a hazardous chemical or major hazard facility applies in relation to the chemical or facility even though it is at, or is, operating plant excluded from the application of this Act by subsection (1)(c).

(4) Subject to subsection (3), if this Act, for a health and safety matter, conflicts with the P&G Act, that Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

(5) In this section—

   hazardous chemical means a hazardous chemical under a regulation.

   major hazard facility means a major hazard facility under a regulation.

   specified P&G Act authorised activity means an authorised activity mentioned in the P&G Act, section 670(6) that is not operating plant under the P&G Act, because of section 670(7)(b) of that Act.

3 Relationship with P&G Act relating to design or manufacture of operating plant

(1) This section applies if—
(a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application to a matter, relating to the design or construction of proposed operating plant under the P&G Act, that impacts on the integrity or safe use of the plant; and

(b) the P&G Act also has application to the matter.

(2) This Act does not have application to the matter to the extent that the P&G Act has application to the matter.

Division 2  Electrical safety

4 Relationship with Electrical Safety Act 2002

(1) This section applies if—

(a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application in particular circumstances; and

(b) the Electrical Safety Act 2002 also has application in the circumstances.

(2) This Act does not have application in the circumstances to the extent that the Electrical Safety Act 2002 has application.

Example for subsection (2)—

Section 19(1) of this Act provides, among other matters, for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a person who conducts a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of workers mentioned in the section while the workers are at work in the business or undertaking.

The Electrical Safety Act 2002, section 30(1), provides for circumstances (the electrical safety circumstances) in which a duty is imposed on that person to ensure the person’s business or undertaking is conducted in a way that is electrically safe.

Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act to the extent it is mentioned above, that apart from this section would apply to the electrical safety circumstances, does not include a duty to ensure the person’s business or undertaking is conducted in a way that is electrically safe.
Division 3  Rail safety

5  Relationship with Rail Safety National Law (Queensland)

(1) This section applies if—

(a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would apply in particular circumstances; and

(b) the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, division 3 also applies in the circumstances.

(2) This Act does not apply in the circumstances to the extent that the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, division 3 applies.

Note—
See the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, division 2 for an explanation of the operation of that Law and this Act in circumstances in which both that Law and this Act apply.

Example for subsection (2)—

Section 19(1) of this Act provides, among other matters, for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a person who conducts a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of workers mentioned in the section while the workers are at work in the business or undertaking.

The Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, division 3 also provides for circumstances (the rail safety circumstances) in which a duty is imposed on a rail transport operator to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of rail safety workers while at work in the operator’s railway operations.

Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act that, apart from this section, would apply in the rail safety circumstances does not include a duty to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of rail safety workers while at work in the operator’s railway operations.

Division 4  Recreational water activities

6  Relationship with Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011

(1) This section applies if—
(a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application in particular circumstances; and

(b) the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16 also has application in the circumstances.

(2) This Act does not have application in the circumstances to the extent that the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16 has application.

Example for subsection (2)—

Section 19 of this Act provides, among other matters, for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a person who conducts a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of persons mentioned in the section.

If the business or undertaking provides recreational water activities, the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16, provides that a duty is imposed on the person conducting the business or undertaking to ensure it is conducted in a way that ensures the health and safety of persons for whom the activities are provided.

Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act continues to apply to persons covered by section 19 (for example, workers) for whom the recreational water activities are not being provided, and the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011 applies to the persons for whom the recreational water activities are provided.

Division 5 Other legislation

7 Generally

(1) Subject to divisions 1 to 4, a person on whom a health and safety duty is imposed must discharge the duty even though another Act may prescribe a lesser duty in the same circumstances.

(2) This Act does not limit the following—

(a) the Explosives Act 1999;

(b) the Heavy Vehicle National Law (Queensland);

(c) the Public Safety Preservation Act 1986;

(d) the Radiation Safety Act 1999;

(e) the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994;
(f) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), to the extent to which an Act or Law mentioned in subsection (2) is inconsistent with this Act, that Act or Law prevails.
