Subdivision 1 Preliminary

19 Meaning of substantially Australian owned

- (1) An entity is substantially Australian owned if it is—
 - (a) a listed corporation; or
 - (b) another corporation (a relevant entity) in which a significant proportion of the shares in the corporation is directly or ultimately owned, other than as a trustee, by an Australian entity; or
 - (c) a listed unit trust; or
 - (d) another trust (also a relevant entity) in which a significant proportion of trust interests in the trust are directly or ultimately owned, other than as a trustee, by an Australian entity.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if the commissioner can not reasonably decide if shares or trust interests in a relevant entity are ultimately owned by an Australian entity, including, for example, because of the complexity of the arrangements under which the shares or trust interests are held.
- (3) Despite subsection (1)(b) and (d), the relevant entity is substantially Australian owned if the commissioner is reasonably satisfied the shares or trust interests are probably ultimately owned by an Australian entity.

- (4) Despite subsections (1) to (3), a relevant entity is not substantially Australian owned if the commissioner considers, having regard to the relevant factors, that an ineligible individual may significantly benefit financially, other than as a trustee, from the relevant entity.
- (5) For subsection (4), the relevant factors are as follows—
- (a) the terms of the documents constituting the relevant entity;
 - (b) the circumstances in which the relevant entity was established;
 - (c) the operation of the relevant entity, including, for example, the way money and other assets of the entity are, and are likely to be, dealt with and distributed;
 - (d) the relationship between the ineligible individual and any other person in establishing or operating the relevant entity;
 - (e) if the relevant entity is a trust—
 - (i) whether the trustee is a listed corporation, a corporation to which subsection (1)(b) applies, an Australian citizen or a permanent resident; and
 - (ii) whether the trustee is accustomed to acting, or likely to act, in accordance with the directions or wishes of the ineligible individual;
 - (f) if the relevant entity is a corporation or a trust for which the trustee is a corporation, whether the corporation or its executive officers or shareholders are accustomed to acting, or likely to act, in accordance with the directions or wishes of the ineligible individual;
 - (g) other relevant matters.
- (6) In this section—

Australian entity means—

- (a) a listed corporation; or
- (b) a listed unit trust; or
- (c) an individual who is an Australian citizen or a permanent resident.

ineligible individual means an individual other than an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

listed corporation means a corporation in which a significant proportion of the shares in the corporation are quoted on the market operated by the Australian Securities Exchange.

listed unit trust means a unit trust in which a significant proportion of the units in the trust are quoted on the market operated by the Australian Securities Exchange.

reasonably satisfied means to be satisfied on grounds that are reasonable in the circumstances.

20 Meaning of ultimately owned

Shares in a corporation (the relevant property) or trust interests in a trust (also the relevant property) are ultimately owned by an entity (the ultimate owner) if, through a series of entities owning shares in corporations or trust interests in trusts, or a combination of any of them, there is a connection between the relevant property and the ultimate owner.

Subdivision 2 Particular eligibility criteria

21 Eligible applicants

- (1) Without limiting division 1, 2 or 4, to be eligible for a building boost grant for a transaction, an applicant must—
 - (a) have a relevant interest in the land on which the home is, or is to be, built; and
 - (b) comply with the occupancy requirement; and
 - (c) be any of the following—
 - (i) if applying as a trustee—a trustee of a trust that is substantially Australian owned;
 - (ii) an individual who is—
 - (A) at least 18 years of age at the transaction commencement day; and
 - (B) an Australian citizen or a permanent resident;
 - (iii) a corporation that is substantially Australian owned.
- (2) This section is subject to sections 22 and 26.

22 General restriction on eligibility

A building boost grant is payable only once for the following—

- (a) a particular eligible transaction;
- (b) a transaction relating to a particular home;
- (c) a particular relevant interest held in land on which a new home is, or is to be, built.

Example for paragraph (c)—

A person has a home (the first home) built on a parcel of land (the original parcel) owned by the person, for which a building boost grant is paid. The original parcel is subdivided and the person has another home (the second home) built on the subdivided part of the original parcel on which the first home is built. Because the grant has already been paid for the relevant interest in the original parcel, the grant is not payable for the same relevant interest for the building of the second home.

23 Eligibility for multiple grants

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), this Act does not prevent the same person from being entitled to receive 2 or more building boost grants for separate transactions.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) a person or a related person of that person has made 4 applications for building boost grants that have not been decided by the commissioner; or
 - (ii) the commissioner has previously paid, or authorised payment of, a building boost grant to a person or a related person of that person at least 4 times; and
 - (b) the person makes another application for a building boost grant for a transaction (the relevant transaction).
- (3) The applicant is entitled to receive a building boost grant for the relevant transaction only if the commissioner is satisfied, having regard to the relevant factors, that the transaction—
 - (a) has been entered into for a purpose that advances the purpose of the Act; and
 - (b) is not an artificial, blatant or contrived arrangement; and
 - (c) has not been entered into for the sole or main purpose of obtaining a building boost grant.
- (4) For subsection (3), the relevant factors are as follows—
 - (a) the relationship between the applicant and the following persons—
 - (i) the other party to the relevant transaction;

- (ii) a person providing financial assistance for the transaction;
 - (iii) a person with whom the applicant has entered, or is likely to enter, into a related arrangement;
 - (b) the form and substance of the relevant transaction and any related arrangement, including, for example—
 - (i) legal rights and obligations arising from the transaction or arrangement; and
