Building and Construction Industry Payments Regulation 2004

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Building and Construction Industry Payments Regulation 2004.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 July 2004.

2A Approval of Queensland Building and Construction Board's policies—Act, s 101(2)

For section 101(2) of the Act, the policies stated in schedule 1 are approved.

3 Adjudication qualification—Act, s 111(2)(b)

The following are prescribed for an adjudication qualification—

- (a) the name of the qualification is Certificate in Adjudication;
- (b) a body mentioned in schedule 1A, part 1 may issue the qualification;
- (c) the name of the adjudication competency to be achieved is Building and Construction Industry Payments Adjudication;
- (d) the elements that must be successfully completed are the elements mentioned in schedule 1A, part 2.

3A Lodgement of adjudication applications—Act, s 111(2)(c)(i)

- (1) For section 111(2)(c)(i) of the Act, an adjudication application must be lodged between 8a.m. and 5p.m. on a business day.
- (2) An application lodged after 5p.m. is taken to be lodged on the following business day.

3B Mandatory transition training and cost of training—Act, s 120(1)

- (1) For section 120(1) of the Act—
 - (a) the mandatory transition training is the ‘Mandatory Transitional Training Course’ approved by the commission and notified by the commission on the commission’s website; and
 - (b) the cost of the training is $650.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that an adjudicator who has completed the Mandatory Transitional Training Course before the commencement of this section is taken to have complied with the condition imposed under section 120(1) of the Act.

4 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are stated in schedule 2.

5 Transitional provision for Building and Construction Industry Payments Amendment Regulation (No. 1) 2014

- (1) Despite their repeal by the amending regulation, section 3 and schedule 1, as in force immediately before the commencement, continue to apply in relation to a current adjudication qualification.

- (2) In this section—amending regulation means the Building and Construction Industry Payments Amendment Regulation (No. 1) 2014.

current adjudication qualification means a certificate that—

- (a) is held by an individual; and
- (b) was issued to the individual before the commencement;
and
- (c) was, immediately before the commencement, an adjudication qualification.
