Policy objectives and the reasons for them

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) administers the statutes listed above (listed statutes). A number of regulations made under the listed statutes prescribe fees, charges and other amounts.

The Queensland Government Principles for Fees and Charges, December 2012 (the Fees and Charges Principles) require agencies to set fees and charges to accurately reflect the cost of providing their services and ensure these fees and charges maintain their value over time. Where a regular comprehensive review of fees and charges is not cost effective or no specific indexation method has been otherwise approved, agencies are required to annually apply the Government endorsed indexation factor to their fees and charges. The current Government endorsed indexation factor is 3.5%.

The main objective of the Justice Legislation (Fees) Amendment Regulation (No. 1) 2016 (the Amendment Regulation) is to index the DJAG's fees and charges for the listed statutes in accordance with the Fees and Charges Principles and by the Government endorsed indexation factor.

The Amendment Regulation also has the objective of correcting some minor errors identified within various DJAG subordinate legislation.

Achievement of policy objectives

The main objective of the Amendment Regulation is achieved by making amendments to the regulations under the listed statutes to index the amounts of fees and charges in accordance with the Fees and Charges Principles using the Government endorsed indexation factor of 3.5%.

The Amendment Regulation also indexes the offender levy under the Penalties and Sentences Regulation 2015 in line with the Government endorsed indexation factor.

Juror allowances and remuneration are increased annually by the Consumer Price Index. The Amendment Regulation increases these amounts by 1.7% for movements in the Brisbane All-Groups Consumer Price Index for the year to December 2015.

The Amendment Regulation includes the correction of minor errors identified in various DJAG subordinate legislation.

All amendments take effect on 1 July 2016.

Consistency with policy objectives of authorising law

The Amendment Regulation is consistent with the main policy objectives of each of the authorising laws.

Inconsistency with policy objectives of other legislation

The Amendment Regulation is not inconsistent with policy objectives of other legislation.

Benefits and costs of implementation

The Amendment Regulation will ensure that the relevant DJAG administered fees, charges and other prescribed amounts maintain their value over time. The Amendment Regulation will not substantially increase the financial burden on the community.

There are no anticipated implementation costs associated with the amendments.

Consistency with fundamental legislative principles

The Amendment Regulation does not conflict with the fundamental legislative principles.

Consultation

The Queensland Productivity Commission has been consulted with regard to the obligations imposed under the Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) System and has advised that a RIS is not required.
