Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 2 November 2009. The reprint—

- shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c))
- incorporates all necessary consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(d)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have also been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’).

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

[s 4]

Part 2 Establishment and membership of tribunal

Division 1 Establishment

4 Land and Resources Tribunal

The Land and Resources Tribunal is established.

5 Tribunal not subject to direction

In exercising its jurisdiction conferred under this or another Act, the tribunal is not subject to the direction of the Minister.

6 Membership of tribunal

The members of the tribunal are—

- (a) the presiding members of the tribunal; and
- (b) the non-presiding members of the tribunal.

Division 2 Presiding members

7 Presiding members

- (1) The presiding members of the tribunal are—
 - (a) the president; and
 - (b) 1 or more deputy presidents.
- (2) Presiding members are to be appointed by the Governor in Council.
- (3) A presiding member's appointment continues until the presiding member retires or resigns under section 9 or the presiding member's appointment is terminated under section 13.

8 Eligibility for appointment as presiding member

- (1) A person is eligible for appointment as a presiding member only if the person—
 - (a) is eligible for appointment as a Supreme Court judge; and
Editor's note—
See the Constitution of Queensland 2001, section 59(1) (Appointment of judges).
 - (b) has, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, particular knowledge or experience of indigenous issues and of 1 or more of the following—
 - (i) mining or petroleum issues;
 - (ii) land issues;
 - (iii) something else considered by the Governor in Council to have substantial relevance to the duties of a presiding member.
- (2) In making an appointment of a presiding member, the Governor in Council must, to the extent it is practicable, make sure the eligibility for appointment of at least 1 of the presiding members holding appointment at any time includes eligibility under subsection (1)(b)(i).
- (3) The appointment of a person as a presiding member is not invalid merely because of a failure of the Governor in Council to comply with subsection (2) in making the appointment.

9 Retirement or resignation of presiding members

- (1) A presiding member must retire when the presiding member would be required to retire if the presiding member were a Supreme Court judge.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), a person who, before reaching 70 years, is a presiding member included in a panel constituting the tribunal for a proceeding, remains a presiding member to finish the proceeding.

[s 13]

- (3) However, the president may give a direction further limiting the extent to which the person remains a presiding member.
- (4) A person who is a presiding member may resign the person's office of president or deputy president by signed notice of resignation given to the Minister.

13 Termination of appointment of presiding member

- (1) The appointment of the president may be terminated for the same reason, and in the same way, the appointment of a Supreme Court judge may be terminated.
- (2) The appointment of a deputy president may be terminated for the same reason, and in the same way, the appointment of a District Court judge may be terminated.

14 Acting presiding member

- (1) The Governor in Council may appoint a person to act as a presiding member, for the period stated in the instrument of appointment, if—
 - (a) a person appointed as a presiding member is not available to carry out the person's duties as a presiding member; or
 - (b) there is a vacancy in the position of a presiding member.

- (2) For the period, the person is not a Land Court non-presiding member under section 15(2).
 - (3) However—
 - (a) the person's appointment as a member of the Land Court is otherwise unaffected; and
 - (b) in particular, the person may continue to perform duties as a member of the Land Court as well as performing duties as an acting presiding member.
 - (4) The person is not entitled to any salary or allowances in addition to the person's salary and allowances as a member of the Land Court unless the instrument of appointment under section 14 otherwise provides.
