Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

(6) In preparing a proposed amendment, a council must have regard to relevant provisions of the model constitutions.

(7) An amendment has no effect until it is approved by the chief executive.

(c) whether its provisions are otherwise sufficient, clear and appropriate.

60 Model constitutions for school councils

(2) Each school council must have regard to the model constitutions when preparing and adopting amendments of its constitution.

13 See section 63 (Quorum) to calculate the quorum for a particular school council.
Division 5  Council business

61  Conduct of business

(3) This section is subject to this Act, including, for example, section 64.

   (b) whose remaining allocation will be 4, or less than 4, semesters at the end of the calendar year.

(2) By the end of the calendar year, the principal of the State educational institution must give written notice to each student about the student’s remaining allocation after the end of semester 2 of the calendar year.

(3) The notice must state—
   (a) the principal’s decision; and
   (b) the reasons for the decision; and
   (c) that if the student is not satisfied about the decision the person may make a submission to the principal’s supervisor against the decision; and

(3) If the student to whom written notice must be given is under 18 years, the written information must be given also to—
   (a) if a parent has care and control of the student—the parent; or
(b) if another adult has care and control of the student—the adult.

(4) For a person mentioned in subsection (1)(b), the notice must be given before the student begins to repeat the year.

125B Copy of notices under this part to be given to parent etc.

(1) If a person is required, under this part, to give a notice to a student and the student is under 18 years, the person must, as soon as possible, give a copy of the notice to—

(a) if a parent has care and control of the student—the parent; or

(b) if another adult has care and control of the student—the adult.

(3) After the principal has made the decision, the principal must—

(a) promptly tell the student about the decision; and

(b) within 7 days after telling the student about the decision—give written notice to the student about the principal’s decision and reasons for the decision.

(4) However, if the principal does not grant the application for the semester, or for both semesters, as applied for by the student, the written notice must also state—
