46 Rules of incorporated association on registration

- (1) If the proposed rules adopted by an association under section 6(1)(b) are the model rules (the adopted model rules), on registration—
  - (a) the rules of the incorporated association consist of—
    - (i) the association’s registered name; and
    - (ii) the objects for the association stated in the application for incorporation of the association; and
    - (iii) the adopted model rules; and
  - (b) the chief executive must make an entry in the register stating the adopted model rules are the rules of the association.
- (2) If the proposed rules adopted by an association under section 6(1)(b) are not the model rules, on registration—
  - (a) the rules of the incorporated association consist of—
    - (i) the association’s registered name; and
    - (ii) the objects for the association stated in the application for incorporation of the association; and
    - (iii) the proposed rules; and
  - (b) the chief executive must make an entry in the register stating the association’s proposed rules are the rules of the association.
- (3) An entry in the register stating an association’s proposed rules are the rules of the association does not validate, or cure any defect in, the rules.

47 Additional provisions in model rules

- (1) If the rules of an incorporated association do not provide for a matter, and a provision of the model rules in force after the registration of the association provides for the matter (the additional provision), the rules of the incorporated association are taken to include the additional provision.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the ability of an incorporated association to amend its rules under this Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the rules of an incorporated association provide that the subsection does not apply.

47A Grievance procedure

- (1) The rules of an incorporated association may set out a grievance procedure for dealing with any dispute under the rules between—
  - (a) a member and another member; or
  - (b) a member and the management committee; or
  - (c) a member and the association.
- (2) The grievance procedure must include mediation and may provide for a person to decide the outcome of the dispute.
- (3) A member may appoint any person to act on behalf of the member in the grievance procedure.
- (4) In applying the grievance procedure, the association must ensure that—
  - (a) each party to the dispute has been given an opportunity to be heard on the matter the subject of the dispute; and

- (b) the mediator, and any person engaged under the rules to decide the outcome of the dispute, is unbiased.
  - (5) If a member has initiated a grievance procedure in relation to a dispute between the member and the association, the association must not take disciplinary action against any of the following persons in relation to the matter the subject of the grievance procedure until the grievance procedure has been completed—
    - (a) the member who initiated the grievance procedure (the complainant member);
    - (b) a member of the association appointed by the complainant member under subsection (3) to act on behalf of the complainant member in the grievance procedure.
  - (6) If the rules of an incorporated association do not set out a grievance procedure that is consistent with subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5), the rules of the association are taken to include the provisions of the model rules providing for the grievance procedure.
  - (7) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (6) applies even if the rules of an incorporated association provide, as permitted under section 47(3), that section 47(1) does not apply.

17 Amendment of s 48 (Application to register amendment of rules)

(1) Section 48—

insert—

- (1A) An amendment under subsection (1) may include the replacement of the association's rules with the model rules.

[s 18]

(2) Section 48—

insert—

(4A) Subsection (6) does not apply to an amendment mentioned in subsection (2).

(3) Section 48(1A) to (8)—

renumber as section 48(2) to (11).

18 Amendment of s 49 (Registration of amendment)

Section 49(2)—

omit, insert—

(2) On registration of the amendment, the incorporated association's rules are—

(a) for an amendment to replace the association's rules with the model rules—
the model rules; or

(b) otherwise—the association's rules as amended.

70B Disclosure of material personal interest

- (1) A member of the management committee of an incorporated association who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a management committee meeting must, as soon as the member becomes aware of the interest, disclose the nature and extent of the interest to the management committee.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) A member of the management committee of an incorporated association who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a management committee meeting must disclose the nature and extent of the interest at the next general meeting of the association.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to a material personal interest—
  - (a) that exists only because the member—
    - (i) is an employee of the association; or
    - (ii) is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the association is established; or
  - (b) that the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the association.
- (4) If a member of the management committee of an incorporated association discloses a material personal interest in a contract or proposed contract under this section, and the member has complied with section 70C(1) or the member's interest is not required to be disclosed because of subsection (3)—
  - (a) the contract is not liable to be avoided by the association on any ground arising from the fiduciary relationship between the member and the association; and
  - (b) the member is not liable to account for profits derived from the contract.
- (5) A disclosure of a material personal interest required under subsection (1) or (2) must give details of—
  - (a) the nature and extent of the interest; and

- (b) how the interest is related to the activities of the association.
- (6) The members of the management committee of an incorporated association must ensure the details mentioned in subsection (5) are—
- (a) recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the management committee at which the disclosure is made; and
  - (b) if a member of the association asks for the details—given to the member.

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—4 penalty units.

70C Voting on matter in which member has material personal interest

- (1) A member of the management committee of an incorporated association who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a meeting of the management committee must not—
- (a) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
  - (b) vote on the matter.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a material personal interest—
- (a) that exists only because the member belongs to a class of person for whose benefit the association is established; or
  - (b) that the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the association.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the management committee, other than the members who have a material personal interest in the matter, decide the member who has a material personal interest in the matter may—

- (a) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
  - (b) vote on the matter.
- (4) If the management committee decides under subsection (3) that a member of the committee who has a material personal interest in a matter may be present at a meeting while the matter is being considered, or may vote on the matter, the committee must ensure that—
- (a) the committee's decision is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and disclosed at the next general meeting of the association; and
  - (b) details of the committee's decision are given to a member of the association, if requested by the member.

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—4 penalty units.

- (5) If there are not enough management committee members to form a quorum to consider a matter because of subsection (1)—
- (a) 1 or more committee members, including the members who have a material personal interest in the matter, may call a general meeting; and
  - (b) the general meeting may pass a resolution to deal with the matter.

70D Disclosure of remuneration and other benefits

- (1) The members of the management committee of an incorporated association must ensure the prescribed details of the remuneration paid or other benefits given for the financial year to the following persons, if any, is presented to the association's annual general meeting in the way prescribed by regulation—

- (a) each member of the management committee of the association;
- (b) each senior staff member of the association;
- (c) each relative of a person mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—10 penalty units.

(2) In this section—

relative, of a person, means a spouse, parent, sibling, child, grandparent or grandchild of the person.

remuneration—

- (a) includes salary, allowances and other entitlements; and
- (b) does not include reimbursement of out of pocket expenses.

senior staff member, of an incorporated association, means a person who—

- (a) makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the activities of the association; or
- (b) has the capacity to affect significantly the association's financial standing.

Division 3      Duties of officers

70E Duty of care and diligence

(1) An officer of an incorporated association must

[s 31]

exercise the officer's powers and discharge the officer's duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person would exercise if that person—

- (a) were an officer of the association in the association's circumstances; and
- (b) occupied the office held by, and had the same responsibilities within the association as, the officer.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) An officer of an incorporated association who makes a business judgment is taken to meet the requirements of subsection (1), and the officer's equivalent duties at common law and in equity, in relation to the judgment if the officer—
  - (a) makes the judgment in good faith for a proper purpose; and
  - (b) does not have a material personal interest in the subject matter of the judgment; and
  - (c) is informed about the subject matter of the judgment to the extent the officer reasonably believes to be appropriate; and
  - (d) reasonably believes the judgment is in the best interests of the association.
- (3) In this section—

business judgment means any decision to take or not to take action in relation to a matter relevant to the operations of the incorporated association.

70F Duty of good faith

An officer of an incorporated association must exercise the officer's powers and discharge the officer's duties—

- (a) in good faith in the best interests of the association; and
- (b) for a proper purpose.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

70G Use of position

An officer of an incorporated association must not improperly use the officer's position to—

- (a) gain, directly or indirectly, a pecuniary benefit or material advantage for the officer or another person; or
- (b) cause detriment to the association.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

70H Use of information

- (b) cause detriment to the association.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

70I Duty to prevent insolvent trading

- (1) A person who was a member of the management committee of an incorporated association, or took part in the management of an incorporated association, at the time the association incurred a debt commits an offence if—

- (a) the association was insolvent at the time the debt was incurred or becomes insolvent by incurring that debt, or by incurring at that time debts including that debt; and
- (b) immediately before the debt was incurred—
  - (i) there were reasonable grounds to expect that the association was insolvent; or
  - (ii) there were reasonable grounds to expect that, if the association incurred the debt, the association would become insolvent.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) In any proceedings against a person under subsection (1) it is a defence if the accused proves that—
  - (a) the debt was incurred without the accused's express or implied authority or consent; or
  - (b) at the time the debt was incurred, because of illness or for some other good reason, the accused did not take part in the management of the association; or
  - (c) at the time the debt was incurred, the accused had reasonable grounds to expect, and did expect, that the association was solvent at that time and would remain solvent even if it incurred that debt and any other debts that it incurred at that time.

70J Reliance on information or advice

- (1) This section applies if the reasonableness of the reliance of an officer of an incorporated association on information or advice given to the officer arises in a proceeding brought to decide whether the officer has performed a duty under this Act or an equivalent duty at common law or in equity.

- (2) Unless the contrary is proved, the officer's reliance on the information or advice is taken to be reasonable if—
- (a) the information or advice was given or prepared by—
    - (i) an employee of the association whom the officer reasonably believed to be reliable and competent in relation to the matters concerned; or
    - (ii) a professional advisor or expert in relation to the matters that the officer reasonably believed to be within that person's professional or expert competence; or
    - (iii) another officer of the association in relation to matters within the other officer's authority; or
    - (iv) a sub-committee of the association of which the officer was not a member in relation to matters within the sub-committee's authority; and
  - (b) the reliance was made—
    - (i) in good faith; and
    - (ii) after making an independent assessment of the information or advice, having regard to the officer's knowledge of the association and the complexity of the structure of the association.
