2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Part 2 Amendment of Legal Profession Act 2007

3 Act amended

This part amends the Legal Profession Act 2007.

Note—

See also the amendments in schedule 1.

4 Amendment of s 10 (Information notices)

(1) Section 10(1)—

omit, insert—

(1) An information notice is a written notice to a person about a decision relating to the person stating—

(a) the decision; and

(b) the reasons for the decision; and

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(c) if the person may appeal to the Supreme Court or another court against the decision—

(i) that the person may appeal to the court against the decision; and

(ii) the day by which the appeal must be started.

Note—

See sections 265(4) and 277(4) in relation to appeals that may, in the circumstances, be made to a court other than the Supreme Court.

(2) Section 10(3), 'apply for a review, or appeal,'—

omit, insert—

appeal

(3) Section 10(3), 'to apply for review or'— omit.

5 Amendment of s 26 (Associates who are disqualified or convicted persons)

Section 26(4)(b), from 'apply' to 'decision'—

omit, insert—

appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision

6 Amendment of s 29 (Definitions for pt 2.3)

(1) Section 29, definition Supreme Court, paragraph (a), 'a single Supreme Court judge'—

omit, insert—

a single judge of the Supreme Court

(2) Section 29, definition Supreme Court, after paragraph (a)—

insert—

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(aa) for giving a direction mentioned in section 32(3)(b)—a single judge of the Supreme Court; or

(ab) for deciding an appeal made under section 33A—a single judge of the Supreme Court; or

(3) Section 29, definition Supreme Court, paragraphs (aa) to (b)— renumber as paragraphs (b) to (d).

7 Amendment of s 32 (Early consideration of suitability)

(1) Section 32(3)(b), 'tribunal'—

omit, insert—

Supreme Court

(2) Section 32—

insert—

(3A) If an application is referred to the Supreme Court under subsection (3)(b), the court may give a direction to the board as the court considers appropriate.

Section 33—

omit, insert—

33 Appeal to Court of Appeal against board's refusal to make suitability declaration

(1) This section applies if, on referral of an application under section 32(3)(b), the Supreme Court directs the board to refuse to make a declaration mentioned in section 32(2).

(2) The board must give the applicant for the declaration an information notice about the refusal.

(3) The applicant may, within 28 days after being given the information notice, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the refusal.

(4) The appeal is by way of rehearing on the evidence given in the matter before the Supreme Court.

(5) However, subsection (4) does not prevent the Court of Appeal from giving leave to introduce further evidence, whether fresh, additional or substituted, if the court considers the further evidence may be material to the appeal.

(6) The Court of Appeal may make any order it considers appropriate on the appeal.

(7) For the appeal, section 10(1) applies to the information notice as if the reference in the provision to the decision were a reference to the refusal mentioned in subsection (1).

33A Appeal to Supreme Court against board's refusal to make suitability declaration

(1) This section applies if the board decides under section 32(3)(c) to refuse to make a declaration

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Chapter 6B Provisions about proceedings before Supreme Court

Part 6B.1 General matters

581P Application of part

This part applies in relation to a proceeding before the Supreme Court under a provision of this Act mentioned in schedule 1.

581PA Procedure for conducting proceeding

When conducting the proceeding, the Supreme Court—

(a) must act as quickly, and with as little formality and technicality, as is consistent with a fair and proper consideration of the issues before it; and

(b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and

(c) may inform itself in any way it considers appropriate.

581PB Prohibited publication about hearing of proceeding

(1) Before, during or immediately after the hearing of the proceeding, the Supreme Court may make an order prohibiting the publication of information stated in the order relating to—

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(a) the proceeding; or

(b) the hearing; or

(c) an order of the court.

(2) A person must not contravene an order under subsection (1).

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(3) A person must not publish or allow someone else to publish—

(a) a question disallowed by the Supreme Court at the hearing; or

(b) an answer given to a question disallowed by the Supreme Court at the hearing.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(4) Also, the Supreme Court may make an order prohibiting—

(a) the issue of the entire or part of a copy of the record made under the Recording of Evidence Act 1962; or

(b) the publication of the entire or part of a copy of the record made under the Recording of Evidence Act 1962.

(5) A person must not contravene an order under subsection (4).

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(6) In this section—

publish includes publish on radio, television or the internet.

record includes an audio recording.

Part 6B.2 Discipline applications

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Division 1 Preliminary

581PC Application of part

This part applies in relation to a proceeding before the Supreme Court for a discipline application.

Division 2 General provisions

Division 3 Panels and related matters

581PG Panel to help Supreme Court hear and decide discipline application

(1) For hearing and deciding a discipline application, the Supreme Court is to be helped by 2 panel members chosen by the registrar and approved by the judge presiding over the proceeding.

(2) However, the panel members do not constitute the Supreme Court for hearing and deciding the discipline application.

(3) The panel members mentioned in subsection (1) must be—

(a) 1 member of the lay panel; and

(b) 1 of the following members—

(i) if the complaint is about the conduct of a person who, at the time of performing the acts or omitting to do the acts constituting the conduct complained of, was a barrister or, in the opinion of the presiding judge, was engaged in legal practice in the manner of a barrister—a member of the practitioner panel who is a barrister;

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(ii) otherwise—a member of the practitioner panel who is a solicitor.

(4) The registrar must keep a record of the names of the panel members helping the Supreme Court and the discipline application for which the hearing is held.

581PH Continuing hearing with only 1 panel member

(1) This section applies if—

(a) 1 of the panel members mentioned in section 581PG(1) (the former panel member) is helping, or is about to help, the Supreme Court hear and decide a discipline application; and

(b) any of the following events happens—

(i) the appointment of the panel member is ended or terminated under section 581PL(1) or (2);

(ii) the panel member disqualifies themself in relation to the hearing under section 581PN(2);

(iii) the panel member becomes unavailable to help, or to continue to help, the court hear and decide the application;

(iv) the panel member otherwise stops being a panel member or stops helping the court to hear and decide the application; and

(c) the other panel member can continue to help the court hear and decide the application.

(2) Despite section 581PG(1), the Supreme Court may continue to hear and decide the discipline application in the absence of the former panel member if the court considers—

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(a) it is in the interests of justice to continue to hear and decide the application; and

(b) that not continuing to hear and decide the application would cause undue delay or expense for a party to the application.

(3) This section does not authorise the Supreme Court to hear and decide a discipline application without being helped by at least 1 panel member.

Part 6B.3 Particular appeals to Supreme Court

581PP Application of part

This part applies in relation to an appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision under a provision of this Act mentioned in schedule 1, part 1.

581PQ Starting appeal

The appeal must be started within—

(a) for a person who has been given an information notice about the decision—28 days after the day the person is given the notice; or

(b) for a person who has not been given an information notice about the decision—28 days after the day the person becomes aware of the decision.

Note—

See, however, section 15(2) under which the Supreme Court may allow an appeal after the stated number of days to appeal.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

581PR Appeal against decision of board etc.

(1) This section applies if the decision was made by the board, the bar association or the law society (each the decision-maker) under this Act.

(2) The appeal is by way of a fresh hearing unaffected by the decision.

(3) Fresh evidence or evidence in addition to, or in substitution for, the evidence before the decision-maker may be given on the appeal.

581PS Appeal against decision of committee

(1) This section applies if the decision was made by the committee.

(2) The appeal is by way of rehearing on the evidence given in the matter before the committee.

(3) However, subsection (2) does not prevent the Supreme Court from giving leave to introduce further evidence, whether fresh, additional or substituted, if the court considers the further evidence may be material to the appeal.

581PT Orders on appeal

In the proceeding for the appeal, the Supreme Court may make any of the following orders—

(a) an order confirming or amending the decision;

(b) an order setting aside the decision and substituting its own decision;

(c) an order setting aside the decision and returning the matter for reconsideration to the entity that made the decision, with the directions the court considers appropriate;

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(d) any other order the court considers appropriate.

Part 6B.4 Matters relating to costs

581PU Application of part

Unless otherwise provided, this part applies in relation to a proceeding before the Supreme Court under a provision of this Act mentioned in schedule 1.

581PV Costs for particular proceedings

(1) Each party to the proceeding must bear the party's own costs of the proceeding.

(2) Subsection (1) applies subject to subsection (3) and sections 581PW and 581PX.

(3) The Supreme Court may make an order requiring a party to the proceeding to pay all or a stated part of the costs of another party to the proceeding if the court considers the interests of justice require it to make the order.

(4) This section does not apply in relation to a proceeding for a discipline application.

Note—

For orders for costs for proceedings for discipline applications, see section 462.

581PW Costs against lawyer or other representative in interests of justice

(1) This section applies if the Supreme Court considers a lawyer for, or another representative of, a party to the proceeding, rather than the party, is responsible for unnecessarily disadvantaging another party to the proceeding.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(2) The Supreme Court may make an order for costs requiring the lawyer or representative to pay a stated amount to the other party as compensation for the unnecessary costs.

(3) Before making an order for costs under subsection (2), the Supreme Court must give the lawyer or representative a reasonable opportunity to be heard in relation to making the order.

581PX Costs against intervening parties

(1) If the Attorney-General intervenes in the proceeding for the State, the Supreme Court may make an order for costs requiring the State to pay a stated amount to a party to the proceeding as compensation for all or a part of the costs reasonably incurred by the party as a result of the intervention.

(2) If the Supreme Court gives leave to a person to intervene in the proceeding, the court may make an order for costs requiring the person to pay a stated amount to a party to the proceeding as compensation for all or a part of the costs reasonably incurred by the party as a result of the intervention.

Division 3 Statements of reasons

713C Obtaining statement of reasons

(1) This section applies if—

(a) the bar association, the board or the law society (each a decision-maker) makes a decision under this Act; and

(b) a person may appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision; and

(c) the person has not been given a written statement of the reasons for the decision.

(2) The person may ask the decision-maker to give the person a written statement of the reasons for the decision.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(3) The request must—

(a) be in writing, whether in paper or electronic form; and

(b) be made within 14 days after—

(i) if the person was notified of the decision—the day the person was notified; or

(ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—the day the person became aware of the decision.

(4) The decision-maker must give the person the statement within a reasonable period of not more than 28 days after the request is made.

Note—

See the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 27B in relation to the content of the statement.

713D Court order requiring statement of reasons be given

(1) This section applies if—

(a) under section 713C, a person has asked a decision-maker for a written statement of the reasons for a decision; and

(b) the decision-maker has not given the person the statement under section 713C(4).

(2) The person may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that the decision-maker give the person the statement.

(3) If the person applies for an order under subsection (2), the person must give written notice of the application to the decision-maker.

(4) If the Supreme Court is satisfied the person is entitled to receive the statement, the court may make an order requiring the decision-maker to give the person the statement within the period of not more than 28 days stated in the order.

713E Further statement

(1) This section applies if, under this division, a decision-maker gives a person a written statement of the reasons for a decision—

(a) under section 713C(4); or

(b) in response to an order under section 713D(4).

(2) The person may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under this section against the decision-maker.

(3) If the Supreme Court considers the statement does not contain adequate particulars of the reasons for the decision, the court may make an order requiring the decision-maker to give the person, within a stated period, an additional statement containing further and better particulars about stated matters.

Part 10 Transitional provisions for Legal Profession (Strengthening Disciplinary Matters) Amendment Act 2026

Division 1 Preliminary

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

789 Definitions for part

In this part—amendment Act means the Legal Profession (Strengthening Disciplinary Matters) Amendment Act 2026.

former, in relation to a provision of this Act, whether generally or by reference to a stated provision, means the provision as in force from time to time before the commencement of the transitional provision in which the term is used.

hear or decide, an application, does not include conducting a proceeding for making an order or another decision pending the final hearing of the application.

new, in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from the commencement of the transitional provision in which the term is used.

transitional provision means a provision of this part.

Division 2 Making and deciding applications and related matters

790 Applications for review of decisions previously reviewable by tribunal

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, an entity made a decision affecting a person under this Act; and

(b) immediately before the commencement—

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(i) the person could have, but had not, applied to the tribunal for a review of the decision under a former provision; and

(ii) the period allowed for making the application under the QCAT Act, section 33 (the original period) had not ended; and

(c) the person would be able to appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision under a new provision if the decision were made after the commencement.

(2) The person may, within the original period, appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision under the new provision.

(3) If the person does not appeal against the decision within the original period, the Supreme Court may allow the person to appeal against the decision after the original period has ended if the court considers it appropriate having regard to the extent of, and reasons for, the delay.

791 Existing applications tribunal has started to hear or decide

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement—

(i) an application was made, referred or transferred to the tribunal under a former provision (the existing application); and

(ii) the tribunal had started to hear or decide, but had not finished hearing or deciding, the application; and

(b) after the commencement, an application (however called) or an appeal seeking relief

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

in the nature of the relief sought in the existing application would be authorised or required under a new provision to be made, referred or transferred to the Supreme Court.

(2) The tribunal must continue to deal with the existing application as if the amendment Act had not been enacted.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the tribunal may make an order or give a direction in relation to the existing application that the tribunal could have made or given under this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

792 Application of new s 32 to particular directions

The reference in new section 32(5) to a direction given under new section 32(4) includes a reference to a direction given by the tribunal under former section 32(3)(b), whether before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

793 Application of new s 70 to particular reviews

The reference in new section 70(4)(a) to a successful appeal against a decision under that section includes a reference to a successful application to the tribunal under former section 70(3) for a review of the decision under that section, whether the application was decided before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

794 Application of new s 98 to particular reviews

(1) The reference in new section 98(1)(b) to a lawyer being successful in an appeal to the Supreme

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Court against a decision includes a reference to the lawyer being successful in an application to the tribunal for a review of the decision, whether the application was decided before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

(2) The reference in new section 98(2) and (3)(b)(ii) to the result of the appeal includes a reference to the result of the review mentioned in subsection (1).

795 Application of new s 375 to particular periods

The reference in new section 375(1)(c) to a further period allowed by the Supreme Court under new section 375(4) includes a reference to a further period allowed by the tribunal on an application mentioned in former section 375(1)(c), whether the application was decided before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

796 Application of new s 377 to particular periods

The reference in new section 377(2)(c) to a further period allowed by the Supreme Court under new section 377(6) includes a reference to a further period allowed by the tribunal as mentioned in former section 377(2)(c), whether before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

797 Application of new s 396 to particular reviews

The reference in new section 396(5), definition allowed amount to an appeal to the Supreme Court against a claim decided by the law society includes a reference to a review by the tribunal mentioned in former section 396(5), definition allowed amount, whether the review was decided before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

798 Application of new s 474 to particular disciplinary action

New section 474 applies in relation to disciplinary action as if a reference in the section to a review included a reference to a review by the tribunal under a former provision, whether the review was decided before the commencement or after the commencement under section 791.

799 Application of new s 581QQ to particular decisions and directions of tribunal

(1) This section applies if, after the commencement, the tribunal makes an order or gives a direction under section 791.

(2) New section 581QQ applies in relation to the order or direction as if—

(a) the order or direction had been made or given by the Supreme Court; and

(b) the reference in new section 581QQ(4) to the Supreme Court were a reference to the tribunal.

(3) However, if the order is made under former section 469(1), new section 581QQ as applied under subsection (2) applies in relation to the order subject to new section 581QS.

800 Existing applications tribunal has not started to hear or decide

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement—

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(i) an application was made, referred or transferred to the tribunal under a former provision (the existing application); and

(ii) the tribunal had not started to hear or decide the application; and

(b) after the commencement, an application (however called) or an appeal seeking relief in the nature of the relief sought in the existing application would be authorised or required under a new provision to be made, referred or transferred to the Supreme Court.

(2) On the commencement, the existing application is transferred to the Supreme Court.

(3) The Supreme Court must deal with the existing application as if the application had been made, referred or transferred to the Supreme Court under the new provision.

Division 3 Orders and related matters

801 Enforcement of particular tribunal orders

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, the tribunal made—

(i) an order under former section 456, former section 462 or former part 4.10; or

(ii) an order under the QCAT Act as mentioned in former section 457(1)(b); or

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(b) after the commencement, the tribunal makes an order mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) under section 791.

(2) Former section 457 continues to apply in relation to the order as if the amendment Act had not been enacted.

802 Compliance with particular tribunal orders

(1) This section applies if—

(a) before the commencement, the tribunal made an order under former section 456 or former section 460; or

(b) after the commencement, the tribunal makes an order mentioned in paragraph (a) under section 791.

(2) Former section 461 continues to apply in relation to the order as if the amendment Act had not been enacted.

803 Confidentiality of client communications relating to discipline application or disciplinary action of tribunal

(1) This section applies in relation to—

(a) a discipline application the tribunal was hearing under former part 4.9 before the commencement or has continued to hear under section 791 after the commencement; or

(b) disciplinary action mentioned in former section 471, definition disciplinary action instigated by the tribunal before the commencement or under section 791 after the commencement.

(2) Former section 491 continues to apply in relation to a requirement under the QCAT Act to answer a question or produce information or a document relating to a matter to which the discipline application or disciplinary action relates.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Division 4 Panel members

804 Continuation of appointment of panel member for Supreme Court

(1) This section applies to a person who, immediately before the commencement, was appointed as a panel member.

(2) From the commencement, the person's appointment continues for helping the Supreme Court to hear and decide discipline applications.

(3) Subsection (2) applies despite the terms of the person's appointment as a panel member.

(4) In a document relating to the person's appointment as a panel member, a reference to the tribunal may, if the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Supreme Court.

805 Panel members to finish helping tribunal for hearing

(1) This section applies to a panel member if—

(a) before the commencement, the panel member was helping the tribunal hear and decide a discipline application; and

(b) section 791 applies in relation to the application.

(2) The panel member must continue to help the tribunal hear and decide the discipline application under former section 599 as if the amendment Act had not been enacted.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(3) This section is not affected by section 804.

806 Entitlement of member of practitioner panel to remuneration for helping tribunal

(1) This section applies to a member of the practitioner panel who is helping the tribunal hear and decide a discipline application under section 805(2).

(2) The panel member is not entitled to be paid remuneration or allowances for sitting with the tribunal in relation to hearing and deciding the discipline application.

Division 5 Transitional regulation-making power

807 Transitional regulation-making power

(1) A regulation (a transitional regulation) may make provision about a matter for which—

(a) it is necessary to make provision to allow or facilitate the doing of anything to achieve the transition from the operation of this Act as in force before the commencement of the amendment Act to the operation of this Act as in force after the commencement of the amendment Act; and

(b) this Act does not provide or sufficiently provide.

(2) A transitional regulation may have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than the day this section commences.

(3) A transitional regulation must declare it is a transitional regulation.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

808 Expiry of division and transitional regulation

This division and any transitional regulation under section 807 expire on the day that is 2 years after the day this section commences.
