- (b) a domestic violence order within the meaning of the Domestic and Family Violence Act (NT), section 4, definition domestic violence order, paragraph (a);
- (c) an FVO, interim FVO or PFVO under the Family Violence Act 2004 (Tas);
- (d) a protection order or after-hours order under the Family Violence Act 2016 (ACT);
- (e) a family violence intervention order or family violence safety notice under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic);

- (f) an intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 (SA) that includes a declaration under section 15A of that Act that the order addresses a domestic violence concern;
- (g) a family violence restraining order or police order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (WA).

5 Declared registered foreign orders

For section 174(b) of the Act, a New Zealand order that is also 1 of the following is declared to be a registered foreign order—

- (a) an external protection order—
 - (i) within the meaning of the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 (NSW), section 94, definition external protection order, paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) that is registered under that Act;
- (b) an external order—
 - (i) within the meaning of the Domestic and Family Violence Act (NT), section 4, definition external order, paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) that is registered under that Act;
- (c) an external family violence order under the Family Violence Act 2004 (Tas) that is registered under that Act;
- (d) a New Zealand FVO under the Family Violence Act 2016 (ACT) that is registered under that Act;
- (e) a corresponding New Zealand order under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic) that is registered under that Act;

- (f) a foreign intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 (SA) that is registered under that Act.

6 Registration of New Zealand order—Act, s 176N

- (1) For section 176N(6) of the Act, the clerk of the court registers a New Zealand order by entering details of the order in a register kept by the clerk for registering New Zealand orders.
- (2) The clerk of the court must keep the register in a physical or electronic form.
