5

(b) if the child was found abandoned as a newborn—the person taking care of the child.

6

7

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

8

(2) However, the registrar may accept an application completed by only 1 of the parents if the registrar is satisfied—

9

10

(a) the applicant is unable or unwilling to give information as to the other parent's identity or whereabouts; or

11

12

Examples—

13

1 The applicant does not know the other parent's identity.

14

2 The applicant does not know the other parent's whereabouts.

15

16

30

31

32

- (a) give the other parent—
 - (i) written notice of the application; and
 - (ii) at least 14 days written notice of the registrar’s intention to register the birth; and
 - (b) ask the other parent to sign an application.
- (4) A failure of the registrar to comply with subsection (3), or a failure of the parent of a child to sign an application as requested under subsection (3)(b), does not prevent the registration of the child’s birth or affect the validity of the registration.
- (5) Also, the registrar may accept an application from a person who is not responsible for having the child’s birth registered if the registrar is satisfied—
- (a) the child’s parents are unable, or unlikely, to apply to register the birth; and
 - (b) the person knows the relevant facts.
- (6) If the registrar does not receive an application under subsection (1), (2) or (5) for a birth, the registrar may require 1 of the following persons to apply to register the birth—
- (a) the person in charge of the place where the child was born;
 - (b) a person present at the birth;
 - (c) a person whom the registrar reasonably believes knows the relevant facts.
- (7) A person must comply with the registrar’s requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
