	141C Purpose of part		16
	The purpose of this part is to provide for the making of firearm prohibition orders in order to—		17 18
	(a) promote public safety and security; and		19
	(b) disrupt and deter firearm related crime, including reducing the risk of firearms being used in the commission of offences.		20 21 22
	141D Definitions for part		23
	In this part—		24
	court means—		25

[s 73]

(a) in relation to a firearm prohibition order in relation to a child—the Childrens Court constituted by a Childrens Court magistrate; or	1 2 3 4
(b) otherwise—the Magistrates Court.	5
criminal history , of a person, means the convictions, including spent convictions, whether or not recorded, against the person for offences in Queensland or elsewhere.	6 7 8 9
firearm includes an antique firearm and a replica of a firearm.	10 11
firearm prohibition order means a firearm prohibition order under section 141G or 141H.	12 13
firearm related item means—	14
(a) ammunition; or	15
(b) a magazine for a firearm; or	16
(c) a silencer or another device or thing that is made or used, is capable of being used or is intended to be used for reducing the sound caused by discharging a firearm; or	17 18 19 20
(d) another thing prescribed by regulation to be a firearm related item.	21 22
 Division 2	 Making firearm prohibition orders 23 24
 Subdivision 1	 Considerations for making firearm prohibition orders 25 26
 141E Matters to consider for making firearm prohibition orders—adults	 27 28
(1) This section applies if the commissioner or the	29

court is considering whether it is in the public interest to make a firearm prohibition order in relation to an adult.	1 2 3
(2) The commissioner or the court may have regard to the following—	4 5
(a) the individual’s criminal history;	6
(b) the individual’s domestic violence history, including whether the individual—	7 8
(i) is or has been subject to a domestic violence order; or	9 10
(ii) is or has been named as a respondent in an application for a domestic violence order;	11 12 13
(c) whether the individual is or has been a participant in—	14 15
(i) a criminal organisation; or	16
(ii) a terrorist organisation;	17
(d) whether the individual is an associate of a recognised offender;	18 19
(e) whether the individual has communicated in a public forum, or to another person, that the individual intends or wishes to commit a serious offence;	20 21 22 23
Examples of public forums—	24
social media sites, online forums	25
(f) whether the individual is or has been subject to a relevant order made by a court and the circumstances surrounding the making of the order;	26 27 28 29

- an order made by a court under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003 1
3
- (g) the individual’s behaviour, particularly 4 violent or aggressive behaviour or behaviour 5 involving the use of a weapon; 6
- (h) the risk the individual poses to public safety 7 or security, and the extent to which making 8 the firearm prohibition order will reduce the 9 risk; 10
- (i) any other matter or information that 11 indicates possession of a firearm or firearm 12 related item by the individual would be 13 likely to pose a risk to public safety or 14 security. 15
- (3) In considering a matter under subsection (2), the 16 commissioner or the court may have regard to 17 criminal intelligence. 18
- (4) For this section, an individual is an associate of a 19 recognised offender if the individual— 20
 - (a) has a romantic or familial relationship with 21
the offender; or 22
 - (b) associates with the offender in a way that 23 involves seeking out or accepting the 24 offender’s company, whether the association 25 happens in person or in another way, 26 including, for example, electronically. 27
- (5) In this section— 28
 - criminal organisation see the Penalties and 29
Sentences Act 1992, section 161O. 30
 - recognised offender see the Criminal Code, 31

 - terrorist organisation see the Criminal Code 33
(Cwlth), section 102.1(1). 34

141F Matters to consider for making firearm prohibition orders—children	1
	2
(1) This section applies if the commissioner or the court is considering whether it is in the public interest to make a firearm prohibition order in relation to a child.	3 4 5 6
(2) The commissioner or the court must have regard to the following matters—	7 8
(a) the desirability of strengthening and preserving the relationship between the child and their parents and family;	9 10 11
(b) the desirability of not interrupting or disturbing the child’s living arrangements, education, training or employment;	12 13 14
(c) the desirability of minimising adverse effects on the child’s reputation that may arise from making the firearm prohibition order;	15 16 17 18
(d) the age and maturity of the child.	19
(3) Also, the commissioner or the court may have regard to the following—	20 21
(a) the child’s criminal history;	22
(b) the child’s behaviour, particularly violent or aggressive behaviour, behaviour that constitutes domestic and family violence or behaviour involving the use of a weapon;	23 24 25 26
(c) the risk the child poses to public safety or security, and the extent to which making the firearm prohibition order will reduce the risk;	27 28 29 30
(d) any other matter or information that indicates possession of a firearm or firearm related item by the child would be likely to pose a risk to public safety or security.	31 32 33 34

[s 73]

- (4) In considering a matter under subsection (3), the commissioner or the court may have regard to criminal intelligence. 1

Subdivision 2 Making of firearm prohibition orders 4 5

141G Commissioner may make firearm prohibition orders 6 7

- (1) The commissioner may make a firearm prohibition order prohibiting an individual from acquiring, possessing or using, or attempting to acquire, possess or use, a firearm or firearm related item. 8
10
12

- (2) However, the commissioner may make the firearm prohibition order only if satisfied it is in the public interest to do so. 13
15

- (3) Also, the commissioner may make the firearm prohibition order only if the individual is 14 years or older. 16
18

- (4) The firearm prohibition order has effect for the period, of not more than 60 days, stated in the order. 19 20

Note— 22

For when a firearm prohibition order takes effect, see section 141J. 23
24

- (5) The commissioner may revoke a firearm prohibition order made by the commissioner at any time. 25 26

141H Court may make firearm prohibition orders 28

- (1) The court may make a firearm prohibition order prohibiting an individual from acquiring, possessing or using, or attempting to acquire, 29

possess or use, a firearm or firearm related item.	1
(2) The court may make the firearm prohibition order—	2 3
(a) on the court’s own initiative; or	4
Example for paragraph (a)—	5
on the court’s own initiative on the conviction of the individual for an offence	6 7
(b) on application by the commissioner under section 141M.	8 9
(3) However, the court may make the firearm prohibition order only if satisfied it is in the public interest to do so.	10 11 12
(4) Also, the court may make the firearm prohibition order only if the individual is 14 years or older.	13 14
(5) The firearm prohibition order has effect for the period of—	15 16
(a) if the individual is an adult—10 years; or	17
(b) if the individual is a child—5 years.	18
Note—	19
For when a firearm prohibition order takes effect, see section 141J.	20 21
(6) However, the firearm prohibition order may state that the order has effect for a shorter period if the court is satisfied the shorter period is appropriate in the circumstances, having regard to the risk the individual poses to public safety or security.	22 23 24 25 26
(7) The court may revoke a firearm prohibition order made by the court only if—	27 28
(a) the commissioner applies for the revocation; or	29 30
(b) the order is in relation to a child and has been reviewed under division 5.	31 32

[s 73]

141I Content of firearm prohibition orders	1
A firearm prohibition order must state the following—	2 3
(a) information identifying the individual the subject of the order;	4 5
(b) the day the order is made;	6
(c) the period the order has effect;	7
(d) the effect of division 3, including that a person may commit an offence and be subject to a penalty under that division;	8 9 10
(e) that police may conduct searches under division 4;	11 12
(f) that the individual may appeal against the decision to make the order;	13 14
(g) how, and the period within which, the individual may appeal.	15 16
141J When firearm prohibition orders take effect	17
A firearm prohibition order in relation to an individual takes effect—	18 19
(a) if the order is made by the court and the individual is present in court when the order is made—when the order is made; or	20 21 22
(b) otherwise—when a police officer serves the order or a copy of the order on the individual under section 141P.	23 24 25
141K Parent and particular chief executives to be notified of orders in relation to children	26 27
(1) This section applies if a firearm prohibition order takes effect in relation to a child.	28 29
(2) A police officer must, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the following persons of the	30 31

- order— 1
- (a) a parent of the child, unless no parent of the 2 child can be contacted after making all 3 reasonable inquiries; 4
- (b) the chief executive (communities) or a 5 person, nominated by that chief executive 6 for the purpose, who holds an office within 7 the department for which the chief executive 8 has responsibility; 9
- (c) if the chief executive (child safety) has 10 custody or guardianship of the child under 11
the Child Protection Act 1999, that chief 12 executive or a person, nominated by that 13 chief executive for the purpose, who holds 14 an office in the department for which the 15 chief executive has responsibility. 16
- (3) If no parent of the child can be contacted after 17 making all reasonable inquiries, a police officer 18 must make a record of the inquiries made. 19
- (4) In this section— 20
- chief executive (child safety) means the chief 21
executive of the department in which the Child 22 Protection Act 1999 is administered. 23
- chief executive (communities) means the chief 24
executive of the department in which the Youth 25 Justice Act 1992 is administered. 26
- parent— 27
- (a) means a parent within the meaning of the 28
Youth Justice Act 1992, schedule 4; and 29
- (b) includes a person who is apparently a parent 30 of a child. 31

[s 73]

141L Further firearm prohibition orders may be made	1 2
(1) The expiry of a firearm prohibition order in relation to an individual does not prevent the commissioner or the court from making a further firearm prohibition order in relation to the individual.	3 4 5 6 7
(2) Subsection (3) applies if an individual has been subject to a firearm prohibition order made by the commissioner within the previous 12 months.	8 9 10
(3) Despite subsection (1), the commissioner may not make a further firearm prohibition order in relation to the individual unless the commissioner reasonably believes an application to the court for a firearm prohibition order in relation to the individual under section 141M may not be decided sufficiently quickly by the court to ensure public safety or security.	11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18
(4) The commissioner must apply to the court for a firearm prohibition order in relation to the individual under section 141M within 3 business days after the day the further firearm prohibition order is made under subsection (3).	19 20 21 22 23

Subdivision 3 Applications to court for firearm prohibition orders	24 25
---	----------

141M Applications to court by commissioner	26
(1) The commissioner may apply to the court for a firearm prohibition order to be made in relation to an individual.	27 28 29
(2) The application must state the following—	30
(a) information identifying the individual;	31

- (b) the reasons why the commissioner considers it is in the public interest to make the firearm prohibition order, including the facts and circumstances in support of the reasons; 1
4
- (c) that the individual may respond to the application under section 141N; 5 6
- (d) the commissioner’s address for service of any response to the application; 7 8
- (e) that if the individual does not appear at the hearing of the application, a firearm prohibition order may be made in the individual’s absence; 9 10
12
- (f) if the individual is subject to a firearm prohibition order made by the commissioner—that, unless the court orders otherwise, the order remains in effect until— 13
14
15
16
17
- (i) a firearm prohibition order made by the court takes effect; or 18 19
- (ii) if no firearm prohibition order is made by the court—the application is finally determined by the court or is withdrawn. 20 21
23
- (3) The application must be accompanied by any affidavit the commissioner intends to rely on at the hearing of the application. 24
25
26
- (4) The commissioner must give the individual a copy of the application and any accompanying affidavit as soon as reasonably practicable after the application is made. 27 28
30

141N Responses to applications 31

- (1) The individual may respond to the application by filing a response with the court. 32
33

[s 73]

(2) The response must—	1
(a) state the nature of the response; and	2
(b) state the facts and circumstances relied on by the individual in responding to the application; and	3 4 5
(c) be accompanied by any affidavit the individual intends to rely on at the hearing of the application.	6 7 8
(3) The individual must, as soon as practicable after the response is filed, give the commissioner a copy of the response and any accompanying affidavit by leaving the documents at, or sending them to, the address for service stated in the application.	9 10 11 12 13 14
141O Continuation of firearm prohibition orders if application made to court	15 16
(1) This section applies if, when the application is made, the individual is subject to a firearm prohibition order made by the commissioner.	17 18 19
(2) Unless the court orders otherwise, the firearm prohibition order made by the commissioner continues in effect until—	20 21 22
(a) a firearm prohibition order made by the court takes effect; or	23 24
(b) if no firearm prohibition order is made by the court—the application is finally determined by the court or is withdrawn.	25 26 27
(3) Subsection (2) applies despite section 141G(4).	28
Subdivision 4 Service of firearm prohibition orders and directions relating to service	29 30 31 32

141P Personal service of firearm prohibition orders	1
(1) This section applies if a firearm prohibition order is made in relation to an individual—	2 3
(a) by the commissioner; or	4
(b) by the court and the individual is not present in court when the order is made.	5 6
(2) A police officer must—	7
(a) serve the firearm prohibition order, or a copy of the order, personally on the individual the subject of the order; and	8 9 10
(b) tell the individual on whom the order or copy is served that the order is a firearm prohibition order.	11 12 13
(3) However, if the individual does not accept the firearm prohibition order, the police officer may serve the order on the individual by—	14 15 16
(a) putting the order, or a copy of the order, down in the individual’s presence; and	17 18
(b) telling the individual that the order is a firearm prohibition order.	19 20
(4) If practicable, service under this section must be electronically recorded by a police officer.	21 22
(5) In this section—	23
electronically recorded see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 , schedule 6.	24 25
141Q Power to give directions to facilitate personal service of firearm prohibition orders	26 27
(1) This section applies if—	28

[s 73]

- (b) a police officer reasonably suspects an individual is the individual the subject of the order. 1
3
- (2) A police officer may, for the purpose of enabling a police officer to serve the firearm prohibition order under section 141P, do any of the following— 4
7
 - (a) if it is necessary to confirm the identity of the individual—direct the individual— 8 9
 - (i) to state the individual’s name and address; and 10 11
 - (ii) to give evidence of the stated name and address if, in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the individual to be in possession of the evidence; 12
13
15
16
 - (b) direct the individual to remain at a stated appropriate place at or near the individual’s current location for a stated period; 17
19
 - (c) direct the individual to attend a stated police station immediately or within a stated period; 20
22
 - (d) direct the individual to accompany a police officer to the nearest police station or another stated place. 23
25
- (3) In giving the direction, the police officer must tell the individual the following matters— 26 27
 - (a) why the individual is being given the direction; 28 29
 - (b) if the direction is to accompany a police officer to a place— 30 31
 - (i) where the place is; and 32
 - (ii) how the individual is to move to the place, including whether a police 33

- officer will remain in the presence of 1
the individual; and 2
- (iii) that the individual may be searched 3 before being transported to the place by 4 a police officer; and 5
- (iv) that the individual may be directed to 6 leave, at the individual's current 7 location, anything found in the search 8 that may be used to cause harm to the 9 individual or another person; and 10
- (v) that anything found in the search may 11 be seized if a police officer reasonably 12 suspects the thing is evidence of the 13 commission of an offence; 14
- (c) that the individual is not under arrest or in 15 custody while complying with the direction. 16

141R Limits on directions 17

- (1) For a direction given under section 141Q(2)(b), 18
the period an individual may be directed to remain 19 at a place is— 20
- (a) 1 hour; or 21
- (b) a longer period, of not more than 2 hours, if 22
the longer period is reasonably necessary in 23 the circumstances for enabling service of a 24 firearm prohibition order on the individual 25 personally. 26
- (2) For a direction given under section 141Q(2)(c) or 27
(d), the stated place must be within a reasonable 28 distance of the individual's current location, 29 having regard to the particular circumstances. 30

141S Powers relating to particular directions 31

- (1) This section applies if— 32

[s 73]

- (a) a police officer directs an individual under section 141Q(2)(d) to accompany a police officer to a place; and 1
3
- (b) the individual is to be transported by a police officer to the place. 4 5
- (2) Before the individual is transported to the place, a police officer may— 6 7
 - (a) search the individual for anything in the individual’s possession that may be used to cause harm to the individual or another person; and 8
11
 - Note—* 12
See the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 20, part 3 for safeguards that apply to a search under this paragraph. 13
15
 - (b) direct the individual to leave at the individual’s current location a thing found in the search that may be used to cause harm to the individual or another person; and 16
17
19
 - (c) seize a thing found in the search that the police officer reasonably suspects is evidence of the commission of an offence. 20
22
- (3) A thing seized under subsection (2)(c) is, for the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 622, taken to have been seized under that Act. 23
24
26

141T Offence warning 27

- (1) A police officer giving a direction to an individual under section 141Q(2) or 141S(2)(b) must warn the individual— 28
30
 - (a) it is an offence not to comply with the direction unless the individual has a reasonable excuse; and 31 32

(b) the individual may be arrested for the offence.	1 2
(2) The police officer must give the individual a reasonable opportunity to comply with the direction.	3 4 5
(3) If the individual fails to comply with the direction, a police officer must, if practicable—	6 7
(a) repeat the warning mentioned in subsection (1); and	8 9
(b) give the individual a further reasonable opportunity to comply with the direction.	10 11
141U Offence to contravene direction	12
(1) An individual must comply with a direction given to the individual under section 141Q(2) or 141S(2)(b) unless the individual has a reasonable excuse.	13 14 15 16
Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	17
(2) However, an individual does not commit an offence against subsection (1) unless—	18 19
(a) the individual is the individual the subject of the firearm prohibition order to which the direction relates and the order has not been served on the individual under section 141P; and	20 21 22 23 24
(b) the individual has been given a warning under section 141T(1) in relation to the direction.	25 26 27

141V Licenses, permits and approvals	1
automatically revoked if firearm prohibition	2
order made	3
(1) This section applies if a firearm prohibition order is made in relation to an individual.	4 5
(2) A licence, permit or approval held by the individual is automatically revoked.	6 7
(3) A licence, permit or approval held by a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated, is automatically revoked if the individual is the body's representative.	8 9 10 11
(4) The revocation takes effect—	12
(a) if the firearm prohibition order is made by the court and the individual is present in court when the order is made—on the making of the order; or	13 14 15 16
(b) otherwise—when a police officer serves the order or a copy of the order on the individual under section 141P.	17 18 19
(5) In this section—	20
approval means an approval granted by an authorised officer under this Act and in force at the material time.	21 22 23
permit means a permit issued under this Act and in force at the material time.	24 25
141W Surrender of authorities, firearms and firearm related items	26 27
(1) This section applies to an individual the subject of a firearm prohibition order.	28 29
(2) When the firearm prohibition order takes effect, the individual must immediately give to a police officer a relevant authority held by the individual that is in the individual's physical possession.	30 31 32 33

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.	1 2
(3) When the firearm prohibition order takes effect, the individual must also immediately give to a police officer any firearm or firearm related item the individual physically possesses.	3 4 5 6
Notes—	7
1 See section 141Y(1) and (2) for offences relating to the possession of a firearm or firearm related item by an individual subject to a firearm prohibition order.	8 9 10 11
2 See also section 141Y(3) and (4).	12
(4) If the individual can not immediately give a police officer a relevant authority held by the individual or a firearm or firearm related item in the individual's possession, a police officer may direct the individual—	13 14 15 16 17
(a) to give the authority, firearm or firearm related item to a police officer in a stated way and within a stated reasonable period of not more than 24 hours after the direction is given; or	18 19 20 21 22
(b) to give information about the location of the authority, firearm or firearm related item and any other information necessary to enable a police officer to locate and seize it; or	23 24 25 26 27
(c) to accompany a police officer to the location of the authority, firearm or firearm related item so it can be given to or seized by the police officer.	28 29 30 31
Example of when a firearm can not be immediately given—	32
A police officer serves a firearm prohibition order on an individual at a place that is not the individual's home and a firearm the individual possesses is stored at the individual's home.	33 34 35 36
(5) The individual must comply with a direction	37

[s 73]

given to the individual under subsection (4).	1
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.	2 3
(6) In this section, a reference to a relevant authority held by the individual includes—	4 5
(a) a reference to a relevant authority held by a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated, if the individual is the body’s representative; and	6 7 8 9
(b) a reference to a relevant authority, including a relevant authority to which paragraph (a) applies, that has been automatically revoked under section 141V.	10 11 12 13
(7) In this section—	14
approval means an approval granted by an authorised officer under this Act and in force at the material time.	15 16 17
permit means a permit issued under this Act and in force at the material time.	18 19
relevant authority means—	20
(a) a licence, permit or approval; or	21
(b) an authority under the Explosives Act 1999 which authorises a person to purchase small arms ammunition under that Act.	22 23 24
141X Collection of firearms in particular circumstances	25 26
(1) This section applies if an individual—	27
(a) gives a firearm to a police officer under section 141W(3) or (4)(a); or	28 29
(b) complies with a direction under section 141W(4)(b) or (c) in relation to a firearm.	30 31
(2) The individual may, within 3 months after the day	32

- the firearm is given to or seized by a police officer, make arrangements with a police officer for a licensed dealer or licensed armourer to collect the firearm if the individual—
- (a) has consigned the firearm to the licensed dealer or licensed armourer for sale; and
 - (b) has given the police officer a copy of the transaction notification for the consignment.

141Y Acquiring, possessing and using firearms and firearm related items

- (1) An individual who is subject to a firearm prohibition order must not—
 - (a) acquire, possess or use a firearm; or
 - (b) attempt to acquire, possess or use a firearm.Maximum penalty—500 penalty units or 13 years imprisonment.
- (2) An individual who is subject to a firearm prohibition order must not—
 - (a) acquire, possess or use a firearm related item; or
 - (b) attempt to acquire, possess or use a firearm related item.Maximum penalty—200 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.
- (3) However, an individual does not contravene subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) in relation to a firearm or firearm related item if—
 - (a) the firearm or firearm related item is in the individual's possession when the firearm prohibition order takes effect; and
 - (b) either—

[s 73]

- (i) the individual gives the firearm or firearm related item to a police officer under section 141W(3) or (4)(a); or
 - (ii) the individual complies with a direction under section 141W(4)(b) or (c), enabling a police officer to seize or otherwise take the firearm or firearm related item.
- (4) For this section, an individual is taken to possess a firearm or firearm related item if there is proof that, at the material time, the firearm or firearm related item was in or on a place at which the individual resided or of which the individual was the owner or the occupier or concerned in the management or control.
- (5) However, it is a defence to an offence against subsection (1) or (2) for the individual to prove the individual did not know and did not have reason to suspect that the firearm or firearm related item was in or on a place mentioned in subsection (4).
- (6) In this section—
resided, in relation to a place, includes slept at the place on a regular or frequent basis.

141Z Supply of firearms and firearm related items

- A person must not supply a firearm or firearm related item to an individual subject to a firearm prohibition order if the person knows the individual is subject to the order.
- Maximum penalty—
- (a) for a firearm—500 penalty units or 13 years imprisonment; or
 - (b) for a firearm related item—200 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

141ZA Attending particular premises and events	1
(1) An individual who is subject to a firearm prohibition order must not attend—	2 3
(a) a place endorsed on a dealer’s licence or an armourer’s licence under section 16(1)(b)(iii); or	4 5 6
(b) an arms fair approved under section 79(2); or	7 8
(c) an event or meeting held by an approved historical society; or	9 10
(d) an approved range; or	11
(e) a shooting gallery approved under section 111; or	12 13
(f) a shooting range; or	14
(g) an event or meeting held by a shooting club; or	15 16
(h) premises or an event prescribed by regulation.	17 18
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment.	19 20
(2) For subsection (1)(h), a regulation may prescribe premises or an event only if the commissioner is satisfied a firearm or firearm related item is likely to be stored or present on the premises, or on the premises at which the event is held.	21 22 23 24 25
141ZB Notifying commissioner of change of address	26 27
An individual subject to a firearm prohibition order must give the commissioner written notice of a change to the individual’s residential address within 24 hours of the change occurring.	28 29 30 31
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	32

	(a) stop and detain the individual;	25
	(b) search the individual and anything in the individual’s possession for a firearm or firearm related item.	26 27 28

See the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 20, part 3 for safeguards that apply to a search under this section.

141ZF Power to search vehicles

- (1) This section applies in relation to a vehicle if an individual who is subject to a firearm prohibition order—
- (a) is the registered operator of the vehicle; or
 - (b) is driving or riding the vehicle, or is in charge or control of the vehicle; or
 - (c) is a passenger in or on the vehicle; or
 - (d) ordinarily has access to, or use of, the vehicle.
- (2) A police officer may do the following in relation to the vehicle—
- (a) stop the vehicle;
 - (b) detain the vehicle and anyone in or on the vehicle;
 - (c) search the vehicle and anything in or on the vehicle for a firearm or firearm related item.
- (3) In this section—
- registered operator*, of a vehicle, see the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, schedule 4.

141ZG Power to search premises

- (1) A police officer may enter and search relevant premises for a firearm or firearm related item.
- (2) In this section—
- relevant premises* means—

[s 73]

(a)	premises owned or occupied by, or in the care or under the control or management of, an individual subject to a firearm prohibition order; or	1 2 3 4
(b)	premises at which an individual subject to a firearm prohibition order resides; or	5 6
(c)	a vehicle on premises mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).	7 8
	resides , in relation to premises, includes sleeps at the premises on a regular or frequent basis.	9 10
	141ZH Power to seize items	11
(1)	A police officer may seize a firearm or firearm related item found during a search under this division.	12 13 14
(2)	A thing seized under this section is, for the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 , section 622, taken to have been seized under that Act.	15 16 17
Division 5	Annual review of firearm prohibition orders in relation to children	18 19 20
	141ZI Application of division	21
	This division applies if—	22
(a)	a child is subject to a firearm prohibition order made under section 141H; and	23 24
(b)	either—	25
(i)	the order has been in effect for more than 1 year; or	26 27

- (ii) the order has been in effect for more than 1 year since it was last reviewed under this division.

141ZJ Applications for review by commissioner

- (1) The commissioner must apply to the court for a review of the firearm prohibition order.
- (2) The application must be made not later than—
- (a) if section 141ZI(b)(i) applies—the day that is 7 days after the first anniversary of the day the firearm prohibition order took effect; or
- (b) if section 141ZI(b)(ii) applies—the day that is 1 year after the day the last review was finalised.
- (3) The commissioner must give the child a copy of the application as soon as reasonably practicable after it is made.

141ZK Content of applications

- The application must—
- (a) include any information about the child the commissioner considers is relevant to the review; and
- (b) include an assessment of whether the firearm prohibition order should remain in effect, or whether it would be more appropriate to revoke the order; and
- (c) state that the child may respond to the application under section 141ZL; and
- (d) state the commissioner’s address for service of any response to the application.

[s 73]

141ZL Responses to applications	1
(1) The child may respond to the application by filing a response with the court within 14 days after the day a copy of the application is given to the child under section 141ZJ(3).	2 3 4 5
(2) The child must, within the period stated in subsection (1), give the commissioner a copy of the response by leaving the document at, or sending it to, the address for service stated in the application.	6 7 8 9 10
(3) The child's response may—	11
(a) respond to the assessment mentioned in section 141ZK(b); and	12 13
(b) include any information relied on by the child for the response.	14 15
Example of information—	16
evidence that the child has completed a rehabilitation program since the firearm prohibition order was made	17 18 19
141ZM Conduct of reviews	20
(1) In conducting the review of the firearm prohibition order, the court must decide whether it remains in the public interest for the order to remain in effect or whether it is more appropriate to revoke the order, having regard to the risk the child poses to public safety or security.	21 22 23 24 25 26
(2) The court may decide it is more appropriate to revoke the order only if the child's circumstances have changed since the firearm prohibition order was made.	27 28 29 30
(3) The court may conduct the review on the papers unless satisfied it is in the interests of justice to conduct a hearing.	31 32 33

Division 6	Appeals	1
141ZN Definition for division		2
In this division—		3
appellate court , in relation to an appeal under this		4
division, means the court to which the appeal is		5
made under section 141ZO.		6
141ZO Who may appeal		7
(1) An individual subject to a firearm prohibition		8
order may appeal against the decision to make the		9
order to—		10
(a) if the order was made under section 141G		11
and the individual is a child—the Childrens		12
Court constituted by a Childrens Court		13
magistrate; or		14
(b) if the order was made under section 141G		15
and the individual is an adult—the		16
Magistrates Court; or		17
(c) if the order was made under section 141H		18
and the individual is a child—the Childrens		19
Court constituted by a Childrens Court		20
judge; or		21
(d) if the order was made under section 141H		22
and the individual is an adult—the District		23
Court.		24
(2) Subsection (3) applies if—		25
(a) the commissioner applies to the court under		26
section 141M for a firearm prohibition order		27
to be made in relation to an individual; and		28
(b) the court decides not to make the order.		29
(3) The commissioner may appeal against the		30
decision not to make the firearm prohibition order		31

141ZP How to start appeals 7

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| (1) The appeal is started by filing written notice of the appeal with the registrar of the appellate court. | 8
9 |
| (2) The notice of appeal must be filed within 28 days after— | 10
11 |
| (a) for an appeal under section 141ZO(1)—the day the firearm prohibition order took effect; or | 12
14 |
| (b) for an appeal under section 141ZO(3)—the day the decision being appealed against was made. | 15
17 |
| (3) The appellant must— | 18 |
| (a) for an appeal under section 141ZO(1)—serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the commissioner; or | 19
| (b) for an appeal under section 141ZO(3)— | 22 |
| (i) serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the individual to whom the decision being appealed against relates; and | 23
25 |
| (ii) file a copy of the notice of appeal in the court that made the decision. | 26
27 |
| (4) The appellate court may, at any time, extend the period for filing the notice of appeal. | 28
29 |
| (5) The notice of appeal must state fully the grounds of the appeal and the facts relied on. | 30
31 |

141ZQ Effect of firearm prohibition orders not stayed by appeal	1
	2
(1) The start of an appeal does not—	3
(a) affect the operation of a firearm prohibition order; or	4
	5
(b) prevent the taking of action in relation to a firearm prohibition order.	6
	7
(2) However, the appellate court may order the suspension of the operation of the firearm prohibition order or stay any proceeding under the order if satisfied it would be appropriate to do so having regard to—	8
	12
(a) the likely impact of the suspension or stay on the protection of public safety or security; and	13
	14
	15
(b) any other matter the appellate court considers relevant.	16
	17
141ZR Hearing procedures	18
(1) An appeal under section 141ZO(1) against the making of a firearm prohibition order must be decided—	19
(a) for a firearm prohibition order made under section 141G—on the evidence before the commissioner when making the order; or	22
	24
(b) for a firearm prohibition order made under section 141H—on the evidence and proceedings before the court that made the order.	25
	26
	28
(2) An appeal under section 141ZO(3) against a decision not to make a firearm prohibition order must be decided on the evidence and proceedings before the court that made the decision.	29
	30
	32
(3) However, the appellate court may order that the	33

[s 73]

appeal be heard afresh, in whole or part.	1
141ZS Powers of appellate court	2
(1) In deciding an appeal against a decision, the appellate court may—	3 4
(a) confirm the decision; or	5
(b) vary the decision; or	6
(c) set aside the decision and substitute another decision; or	7 8
(d) if the decision was made by a court—set aside the decision and remit the matter to the court that made the decision.	9 10 11
(2) The decision of the appellate court upon an appeal is final and conclusive.	12 13
Division 7 Miscellaneous	14
141ZT Confidentiality of criminal intelligence	15
(1) This section applies in relation to the following proceedings before a court—	16 17
(a) an application for a firearm prohibition order under division 2, subdivision 3;	18 19
(b) a review of a firearm prohibition order under division 5;	20 21
(c) an appeal under division 6;	22
(d) a review under the Judicial Review Act 1991 of a decision made in relation to the making of a firearm prohibition order under division 2 or the review of a firearm prohibition order under division 5.	23 24 25 26 27
(2) The court must, on the application of the commissioner, take steps to maintain the	28 29

- confidentiality of information classified by the commissioner as criminal intelligence, including steps to receive evidence and hear argument about the information in the absence of—
- (a) the parties to the proceedings and their representatives; and
 - (b) the public.
- (3) Also, the court may, as it considers appropriate to protect the confidentiality of criminal intelligence, receive evidence consisting of or relating to information classified by the commissioner as criminal intelligence by way of affidavit of a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent.
- (4) If the court considers information has been incorrectly classified by the commissioner as criminal intelligence, the commissioner may withdraw the information from consideration by the court.
- (5) Information that is withdrawn by the commissioner under subsection (4) must not be—
- (a) disclosed to any person; or
 - (b) taken into consideration by the court.
- (6) If a decision is made by the court on the basis of information that is classified by the commissioner as criminal intelligence, the only reason required to be given is that the decision was made in the public interest.
- (7) The Public Records Act 2023 does not apply to activities of, or records made or kept by, the court to the extent that Act would otherwise enable criminal intelligence to be disclosed.
- (8) In this section—
- criminal intelligence means criminal intelligence that could, if disclosed, reasonably be expected—

[s 73]

- (a) to prejudice a criminal investigation; or 1
- (b) to enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information to be ascertained; or 2
4
- (c) to endanger a person's life or physical safety; or 5 6
- (d) to prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of an Act; or 7
10
11
- (e) to prejudice the maintenance or enforcement of a lawful method or procedure for protecting public safety or security. 12

141ZU Records to be kept 15

- (1) The commissioner must keep a register about firearm prohibition orders made under this part. 16 17
- (2) The register must state the following matters for each calendar year— 18 19
 - (a) the number of firearm prohibition orders made by the commissioner in the year; 20 21
 - (b) the number of firearm prohibition orders made by the court in the year; 22
23
 - (c) the number of firearm prohibition orders made in relation to children in the year; 24
25
 - (d) the number of firearm prohibition orders revoked in the year. 26 27
- (3) The register must also include the following particulars for each firearm prohibition order made in a calendar year— 28
29
30
 - (a) the day the order was made; 31
 - (b) details of the individual subject to the order; 32

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| (c) the period the order is in effect; | 1 |
| (d) whether the decision to make the order was appealed against and, if so, the outcome of the appeal; | 2
4 |
| (e) details of any items given to or seized by a police officer under section 141W; | 5
| (f) details of any actions taken by a police officer in relation to the order under division 4, including any noncompliance with the division by a police officer in taking the action; | 7
10
11 |
| (g) details of any firearms or firearm related items seized by a police officer in exercising powers in relation to the order under division 4; | 12
14
15 |
| (h) details of any charges made against the individual under this Act; | 16
17 |
| (i) details of any charges made against the individual under another Act arising from a search under division 4. | 18
| (4) The commissioner must ensure the public interest monitor has access to the register for the purpose of performing the monitor's functions under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 , chapter 21, part 5. | 21
23
24
| (5) In this section—

public interest monitor means the public interest monitor appointed under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 , section 740. | 26

	Division 9	Transitional provisions for Queensland Community Safety Act 2024	25 26 27
	196 Definition for division	28
	In this division—	29
	new , for a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from the commencement.	30 31

[s 77]

197 Existing applications relating to licences	1
(1) This section applies to an application made, but not decided, under former part 2 before the commencement.	2 3 4
(2) The application is taken to be an application under new part 2.	5 6
(3) Anything done in relation to the application under the Act before the commencement is taken to have been done in relation to the application under the Act as in force from the commencement.	7 8 9 10 11
(4) In this section— former part 2 means part 2 as in force from time to time before the commencement.	12 13 14
198 Existing reviews of decisions	15
(1) This section applies if—	16
(a) before the commencement, a person applied for a review of a decision in relation to a licence under section 142(1)(a), (aa) or (e); and	17 18 19 20
(b) immediately before the commencement, the review had not been decided.	21 22
(2) In hearing or deciding the review, or any proceeding relating to the review, this Act as in force from the commencement applies.	23 24 25
199 Advising of particular events happening before commencement	26 27
(1) This section applies in relation to a licence in effect immediately before the commencement if—	28 29 30

- (a) on the commencement, the licensee or the licensee's representative is a disqualified person; or
- (b) within 10 years before the day this section commences, the licensee or the licensee's representative—
- (i) has been convicted of a class A serious offence or a class B serious offence; or
- (ii) has been released from lawful custody in relation to a conviction for a class A serious offence or a class B serious offence; or
- (iii) has been subject to a supervision order in relation to a conviction for a class A serious offence or a class B serious offence; or
- (c) before the commencement, the licensee or the licensee's representative was charged with a serious offence and the charge has not been dealt with.
- (2) New section 24 applies in relation to the licensee as if—
- (a) the licensee or the licensee's representative being a disqualified person, or the happening of an event mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (c), were a change under new section 24; and
- (b) a reference in new section 24(1) to within 14 days of the happening of an event mentioned in section 24(2) were a reference to within 90 days after the day this section commences.
- Note—*
- See section 34 for the offence of contravening of a licence condition.

[s 78]

- (3) For subsection (1), it is irrelevant whether or not the conviction is a spent conviction, provided the conviction is recorded. 1

	After section 789B—	2
	insert—	3
	Part 1AA	4
	Electronic service of documents	5
	789C Application of part	6
	This part applies in relation to any power or responsibility a police officer has under this Act or another Act that permits or requires the police officer to personally serve a prescribed document on a person.	7 8 9 10 11
	Note—	12
	See also sections 11 and 12.	13
	789D Definitions for part	14
	In this part—	15
	prescribed document means a document mentioned in schedule 5A.	16 17
	related document means a document to which a consent given under this part applies under section 789I.	18 19 20
	789E Serving documents by electronic communication	21 22
	(1) A police officer may serve a prescribed document on a person by electronic communication sent to a unique electronic address of the person if—	23 24 25
	(a) the police officer reasonably believes, having regard to the circumstances—	26 27

- (i) the electronic communication will be received by the person within a reasonable time; and
- (ii) the electronic communication would be readily accessible by the person so as to make the document useable by subsequent reference; and
- (iii) it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances given the purpose and effect of the document; and
- (b) the police officer has made a reasonable effort to ensure the person understands the purpose and effect of the document; and
- (c) the person has given consent under this part for service of the document by electronic communication; and
- (d) the person's consent has not ceased to have effect under section 789J; and
- (e) the person has nominated the person's unique electronic address for service by electronic communication.
- (2) Also, the police officer may serve a related document on the person by electronic communication sent to the person's nominated unique electronic address if the person's consent has not ceased to have effect under section 789J.
- (3) However, the police officer must not serve the prescribed document or related document on a person under this section if the police officer reasonably suspects the person is—
- (a) a child under 16 years; or
- (b) a person with impaired capacity.
- (4) This section does not prevent a police officer from—

[s 85]

(a) personally serving the prescribed document or related document on the person; or	1 2
(b) serving the prescribed document or related document on a lawyer acting for the person in a proceeding.	3 4 5
789F When service by electronic communication is effected	6 7
(1) This section applies if a police officer serves a prescribed document or related document on a person under section 789E.	8 9 10
(2) Unless the contrary is proved, for this Act and any other Act, the prescribed document or related document is taken to be personally served on the person on the day and at the time the document was sent by electronic communication to the person's nominated unique electronic address.	11 12 13 14 15 16
789G Consent for service by electronic communication	17 18
(1) Before asking a person to give consent for service of a prescribed document by electronic communication, a police officer must ensure the person is given the explanation required under section 789H.	19 20 21 22 23
(2) A person may give consent only in the presence of a police officer in accordance with this part.	24 25
789H Matters relating to consent for service by electronic communication	26 27
(1) For section 789G, a police officer must explain each of the following matters to the person—	28 29
(a) the purpose and effect of the prescribed document;	30 31

- (b) if reasonably practicable in the circumstances, what related documents are included in the consent;
- (c) the nature of the consent;
- (d) that the person may refuse to give consent;
- (e) that if the person gives consent, the person may withdraw the person's consent by written notice given to the commissioner;
- (f) that if the person does not withdraw the person's consent, the consent ceases to have effect on the earliest of—
- (i) 6 months after the day the consent is given; or
 - (ii) if the person is detained in a corrective services facility or a detention centre—the day the person is detained; or
 - (iii) if the person is detained in an authorised mental health service or public sector health service facility under the Mental Health Act 2016—the day the person is detained.
- (2) The police officer may give the explanation to the person orally or in the approved form.
- (3) If the police officer gives the explanation to the person orally, the explanation must be given in a language or in a way likely to be readily understood by the person.

789I Consent applies to related documents

- (1) This section applies if a person gives consent for service of a prescribed document by electronic communication under this part.
- (2) If a proceeding under an Act is started in relation to the prescribed document, or for another matter 1 arising from the circumstances stated in the 2 document, the consent given by the person applies 3 to any document permitted or required to be 4 served for the proceeding. 5

[s 85]

- (3) Also, if an Act permits or requires a document to 6 be served in relation to a matter stated in the 7 prescribed document, the consent applies to the 8 document. 9

789J Withdrawal of consent etc. 10

- (1) A person may by written notice given to the 11 commissioner withdraw the person's consent for 12 service of a prescribed document and any related 13 document by electronic communication under 14
this part. 15

- (2) The person's consent ceases to have effect for this 16 part in relation to the prescribed document and 17 any related document when the commissioner 18 receives the notice. 19

- (3) Also, if the person's consent is not withdrawn 20 under subsection (1), the consent ceases to have 21 effect for this part on the earliest of— 22

(a) 6 months after the day the consent is given; 23 or 24

(b) if the person is detained in a corrective 25 services facility or a detention centre—the 26 day the person is detained; or 27

(c) if the person is detained in an authorised 28 mental health service or public sector health 29 service facility under the Mental Health Act 30 2016—the day the person is detained. 31

- (4) Subsection (5) applies if— 32

(a) the person's consent ceases to have effect 33 for this part; and 34

- (b) before the consent ceases to have effect, a document is served on a person under section 789E. 1
3
- (5) The service of the document on the person under section 789E is not invalid merely because the person's consent ceased to have effect after service was effected. 4
5
7

789K Record of explanation, consent and unique electronic address 8
9

- (1) This section applies if a person gives consent for service of a prescribed document by electronic communication under this part in the presence of a police officer. 10
11
13
- (2) The police officer must ensure all of the following matters are recorded— 14 15
- (a) the explanation given to the person under section 789H; 16 17
- (b) the person's consent; 18
- (c) the person's nominated unique electronic address and an acknowledgement by the person of that address. 19
21
- (3) One or more of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) may be given orally and recorded electronically. 22
24
- (4) If the person's consent is only in writing, the police officer must ensure that the person's consent is signed by the person. 25
26
27

789L Evidentiary provision 28

For a proceeding under an Act, a certificate signed by the commissioner stating any of the following matters is evidence of what it states, unless the contrary is proved— 29 30
31
32

[s 85]

- (a) a prescribed or related document is, or was, on a stated day sent by the police officer to a person's nominated unique electronic address; 1

Part 1AB Electronically signing documents 8 9

789M Approved method for electronically signing documents 10 11

- (1) The commissioner may approve a method for electronically signing a document under section 789N. 12
14
- (2) The commissioner must be satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances, that the method approved under this section is a reliable method for identifying a signatory of a document. 15
16
18
- (3) Also, the commissioner must not approve a method prescribed under the Oaths Act 1867, section 13A as a method that is not an accepted method. 19 20
22

789N Police officers may electronically sign documents 23 24

[s 91]

- (2) A driver of a motor vehicle who commits a racing, burn out or other hooning offence may not be convicted of both—
- (a) an offence against subsection (1)(a) for participating in a hooning group activity by committing the racing, burn out or other hooning offence; and
 - (b) the racing, burn out or other hooning offence.
- (3) Without limiting what may be a reasonable excuse for subsection (1)(b), a person has a reasonable excuse for spectating a hooning group activity if—
- (a) the person is a journalist gathering information for the purpose of journalism; or
 - (b) the person is gathering information for the purpose of reporting the information to the police.
- (4) In this section—
- gathering includes recording.
- hooning group activity means a group activity involving a motor vehicle being used to commit a racing, burn out or other hooning offence.
- spectate a hooning group activity—
- (a) means remain at the place where the activity is being carried on and watch the activity; and
 - (b) does not include, for a person moving through or past the place where the activity is being carried on, stop momentarily to watch the activity before moving on.

	(a) the person has not, within 5 years before the contravention, committed a drink driving offence; and	23 24 25
	(b) the person holds a Queensland driver licence authorising the person to drive the vehicle on the road.	26 27 28
	(2) However, an infringement notice can not be served on a person for a contravention of section 79(2)(a) or (b) if any of following circumstances	29 30 31

- apply— 1
- (a) the motor vehicle is a motor vehicle 2
mentioned in section 79(2C); 3
- (b) the person is an interlock driver; 4
- (c) the person’s Queensland driver licence is— 5
- (i) a learner, probationary, provisional or 6 restricted licence; or 7
- (ii) a driver licence receipt for a learner, 8 probationary, provisional or restricted 9 licence. 10
- (3) The authorised person who serves the 11 infringement notice must, when the infringement 12 notice is served, also give the person a written 13 notice that states the following matters— 14
- (a) the name of the person; 15
- (b) the details of the infringement notice served 16 on the person; 17
- (c) that the person will be disqualified under 18
section 79I from holding or obtaining a 19
Queensland driver licence for a period of 2 months unless the person elects to have the 20

(a) an offence against section 79(1), involving a motor vehicle, while under the influence of liquor;	2 3 4
(b) an offence against section 79(1F) or (2) involving a motor vehicle;	5 6
(c) an offence against section 79(2A), (2B), (2J), (2K) or (2L);	7 8
(d) an offence under section 80(11), involving a motor vehicle, in relation to failing to provide—	9 10 11
(i) a specimen of breath for analysis; or	12
(ii) a specimen of blood for a laboratory test if the requisition to which the failure relates was made for the purpose of determining the concentration of alcohol (if any) in the person's blood;	13 14 15 16 17 18
(e) an offence against the Criminal Code, section 328A(1) or (4), involving a motor vehicle, when accompanied by the circumstance of aggravation that at the time of committing the offence the offender was adversely affected by alcohol.	19 20 21 22 23 24
79I Administrative disqualification for driving while over general alcohol limit but not over middle alcohol limit	25 26 27
(1) This section applies if, under section 79H, an infringement notice is served on a person for a contravention of section 79(2)(a) or (b).	28 29 30
(2) The person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence for a period of 2 months (the administrative disqualification period).	31 32 33 34

- (3) The administrative disqualification period for the person starts on the day that is 28 clear days after the date of the infringement notice. 1
3
- (4) However, the person is not disqualified under subsection (2) if either of the following circumstances apply before the start of the administrative disqualification period for the person— 4
6
8
- (a) the person elects to have the matter of the offence decided in a Magistrates Court under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 22(1)(b); 9 10
12
- (b) the infringement notice is cancelled or withdrawn under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999. 13
15
- (5) Also, if the person is disqualified under subsection (2) and either of the following circumstances apply, the administrative disqualification period for the person immediately ends— 16
17
19
20
- (a) the person elects under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 41(1)(c), 51(1)(a) or 56(1)(d) to have the matter of the offence decided in a Magistrates Court; 21 22
24
- (b) the infringement notice is cancelled or withdrawn under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999. 25
26
27
- (6) The chief executive must, as soon as practicable and before the administrative disqualification period for the person starts, give the person a written notice that states the following matters— 28
29
30
31
- (a) the name of the person; 32
- (b) that the person will be disqualified under this section from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence for a period of 2 months unless the person elects to have the 33

- matter decided in a Magistrates Court under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 22(1)(b);
- (c) a description of when the period of disqualification will start;
- (d) that the person may be taken to be convicted of an offence under section 79(2)(a) or (b)
under section 79J;
- (e) any other matter prescribed by regulation.
- (7) Failure to comply with subsection (6) does not affect the validity of the disqualification of the person under this section nor anything done or not done in relation to the disqualification.

79J Effect of administrative disqualification

- (1) This section applies in relation to an administrative disqualification of a person.
- (2) On the day the administrative disqualification period for the person starts, the person is taken to have been convicted of an offence against section 79(2)(a) or (b) for the purposes of—
- (a) section 79, 86 or 87; and
- (b) part 3A; and
- (c) part 3B; and
- (d) section 127 as if the conviction of an offence against section 79(2)(a) or (b) under this section resulted in the person being disqualified.
- (3) However, if the administrative disqualification of the person immediately ends under section 79I(5)—
- (a) the person is taken not to have been convicted of the offence despite subsection
(2); and

	(b) the person’s Queensland driver licence is taken not to have been cancelled despite subsection (2) and section 127; and	1 2 3
	(c) the person is entitled, if the person complied with section 130, to have the person’s Queensland driver licence returned within a reasonable period.	4 5 6 7

	56A Temporary transfer of child on remand	9
	(1) This section applies if—	10
	(a) the commissioner of the police service has taken immediate custody of a child under section 56(2)(a); and	11 12 13
	(b) the child has not been delivered into the custody of the chief executive under section 56(2)(b); and	14 15 16
	(c) the child is in custody in a watch-house.	17
	(2) The chief executive may take the child into the temporary custody of the chief executive for the purpose of enabling the child to participate in activities, programs or services at a specified detention centre for a period on a specified day (the temporary transfer period).	18 19 20 21 22 23
	(3) However, the chief executive may take the child into the chief executive’s temporary custody under subsection (2) only if—	24 25 26
	(a) the child agrees; and	27
	(b) the commissioner of the police service has agreed in writing.	28 29
	(4) In deciding whether to take the child into the chief executive’s temporary custody under subsection (2), the chief executive must have regard to—	30 31 32

- (a) the matters mentioned in section 56(4); and 1
- (b) the practicality of transporting the child 2 between the watch-house where the child is 3 held in custody and the specified detention 4 centre, including, for example, the distance 5 between the watch-house and the detention 6 centre and the availability of suitable 7 transportation. 8
- (5) If the chief executive takes the child into the chief 9
executive’s temporary custody under subsection 10 (2), the chief executive may ask the chief 11 executive of another department prescribed by 12 regulation to assist with the transportation of the 13 child between the watch-house and the specified 14 detention centre. 15
- (6) The chief executive must return the child to the 16
custody of the commissioner of the police service 17 before the end of the temporary transfer period 18
unless— 19
- (a) both of the following apply— 20
- (i) the chief executive notifies the 21
commissioner of the police service 22 under section 56(3)(a) of the date from 23 which delivery of the child into the 24 chief executive’s custody will be 25 accepted (the formal transfer date); 26
- (ii) the formal transfer date is during the 27
period the child is in the chief 28
executive’s temporary custody under 29
this section; or 30
- (b) unforeseen circumstances reasonably 31 prevent the return of the child to the custody 32
of the commissioner. 33
- Examples of unforeseen circumstances—* 34
- a natural disaster prevents travel between the 35 detention centre and the watch-house 36

[s 120]

- the child requires urgent medical treatment and must stay in hospital 1 2
- (7) If the child is not returned to the custody of the commissioner of the police service under subsection (6)(b), the chief executive must— 3
5
 - (a) inform the child and the commissioner as soon as reasonably practicable of the unforeseen circumstances and when the chief executive expects to return the child to the custody of the commissioner of the police service; and 6
9
10
11
 - (b) return the child to the custody of the commissioner as soon as reasonably practicable unless— 12
14
 - (i) the chief executive notifies the commissioner under section 56(3)(a) of the date from which delivery of the child into the chief executive’s custody will be accepted (also the formal transfer date); and 15
16
17
18
19
20
 - (ii) the formal transfer date is before the child could be returned to the custody of the commissioner because of the unforeseen circumstances. 21
22
24
- (8) While the child is in the chief executive’s temporary custody under this section, the child is taken to be detained in custody in the specified detention centre. 25
26
28
- (9) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the temporary transfer of custody of a child by the commissioner of the police service to the chief executive under this section does not constitute delivery of the child into the chief executive’s custody under section 56(3). 29

	After section 148—	8
	insert—	9
	148A Admissibility of evidence obtained while participating in particular programs	10 11
	(1) The following are not admissible in evidence against a child in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding—	12 13 14
	(a) an admission made by the child in the course of, for the purpose of, or as a condition of, participating in a youth justice program;	15 16 17 18
	(b) evidence directly or indirectly derived from an admission mentioned in paragraph (a).	19 20
	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a proceeding for an offence committed or allegedly committed by the child while participating in a youth justice program.	21 22 23 24
	(3) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to an admission made by the child includes—	25 26
	(a) any written material made by the child; and	27
	Example—	28
	a written apology given as a requirement of a conference agreement	29 30

[s 123]

	(b) anything said or done by the child that makes it evident the child committed an offence.	1 2 3
	(4) However, evidence that would otherwise be inadmissible in a proceeding because of subsection (1)—	4 5 6
	(a) is admissible if the child agrees to its admission; or	7 8
	(b) for evidence from participation in a conference or alternative diversion program—is admissible in a proceeding under part 7, division 2.	9 10 11 12
	(5) In this section—	13
	youth justice program means—	14
	(a) a conference; or	15
	(b) an alternative diversion program; or	16
	(c) a program or service established by the chief executive under section 302.	17 18

2
- (6) The chief executive must return the child to the 3
custody of the commissioner of the police service 4 before the end of the temporary transfer period 5
unless— 6
- (a) both of the following apply— 7
- (i) the chief executive notifies the 8 commissioner under section 210(3)(a) 9 of the date from which delivery of the 10 child into the chief executive’s custody 11 will be accepted (the formal transfer 12 date); 13
- (ii) the formal transfer date is during the 14
period the child is in the chief 15
executive’s temporary custody under 16
this section; or 17
- (b) unforeseen circumstances reasonably 18
prevent the return of the child to the custody 19
of the commissioner. 20
- Examples of unforeseen circumstances—* 21
- a natural disaster prevents travel between the 22
detention centre and the watch-house 23
 - the child requires urgent medical treatment 24 and must stay in hospital 25
- (7) If the child is not returned to the custody of the 26 commissioner of the police service under 27 subsection (6)(b), the chief executive must— 28
- (a) inform the child and the commissioner as 29 soon as reasonably practicable of the 30 unforeseen circumstances and when the 31 chief executive expects to return the child to 32
the custody of the commissioner; and 33
- (b) return the child to the custody of the 34 commissioner as soon as reasonably 35 practicable unless— 36

	(i) the chief executive notifies the commissioner under section 210(3)(a) of the date from which delivery of the child into the chief executive’s custody will be accepted (also the formal transfer date); and	1 2 3 4 5 6
	(ii) the formal transfer date is before the child could be returned to the custody of the commissioner because of the unforeseen circumstances.	7 8 9 10
	(8) While the child is in the chief executive’s temporary custody under this section, the child is taken to be detained in the specified detention centre.	11 12 13 14
	(9) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the temporary transfer of custody of a child by the commissioner of the police service to the chief executive under this section does not constitute delivery of the child into the chief executive’s custody under section 210(3).	15 16 17 18 19 20

	In this division—	16
	detainee includes a person liable to serve a period of detention under this Act.	17 18
	prison transfer notice see section 276F(2).	19
	review application , for subdivision 4, see section 276J(2).	20 21
	temporary delay means a delay of 6 months or less.	22 23
	276B Particular detainees liable to be transferred to corrective services facility	24 25
	(1) The following persons are liable to be transferred from a detention centre to a corrective services	26 27

facility under this division—	1
(a) a person in detention who turns 18 years while serving a period of detention;	2 3
(b) a person beginning detention who is 18 years or older when beginning detention;	4 5
(c) a person who is remanded in custody in detention in relation to a charge of an offence and who turns 18 years during the period of remand;	6 7 8 9
(d) a person who is 18 years or older when remanded in custody in detention in relation to a charge of a child offence.	10 11 12
(2) In this section—	13
beginning detention includes returning to detention to continue or complete a period of detention because of a contravention of a conditional release order or supervised release order.	14 15 16 17 18
child offence means an offence committed by a child.	19 20
Subdivision 2 Decision about giving prison transfer notice	21 22
276C Decision by chief executive about giving prison transfer notice	23 24
(1) This section applies if the chief executive becomes aware that a detainee—	25 26
(a) is liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B; or	27 28
(b) is at least 17 years and 10 months and will be liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B.	29 30 31

[s 126]

- (2) The chief executive must decide, on the basis of the information available to the chief executive, whether—
- (a) to give the detainee a prison transfer notice as soon as practicable; or
 - (b) to temporarily delay giving the detainee a prison transfer notice; or
 - (c) to not give the detainee a prison transfer notice.
- (3) The chief executive may decide to temporarily delay giving the detainee a prison transfer notice, or to not give the detainee a prison transfer notice, only if the chief executive is satisfied—
- (a) there are special circumstances; and
 - (b) the decision would not cause the detainee to be detained at a detention centre after the detainee turns 18 years and 6 months.
- (4) Without limiting the matters the chief executive may have regard to, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters in making a decision mentioned in subsection (3)—
- (a) any vulnerability of the detainee;
 - (b) any interventionist, rehabilitation or similar activities being undertaken by the detainee and the availability of those activities if the detainee is transferred;
 - (c) whether a decision to delay the transfer of the detainee, or not to transfer the detainee, would prejudice the security or good order of the detention centre at which the detainee is, or is to be, detained;
 - (d) whether a decision to delay the transfer of the detainee, or not to transfer the detainee, would prejudice the safety or wellbeing of any detainee at the detention centre at which the detainee is, or is to be, detained.	1 2

(5) This section does not apply if a court has made an order under section 136(2) or 139(2), or subdivision 5, in relation to the detainee.	3 4 5
276D Notice of decision to delay giving, or not to give, prison transfer notice	6 7
(1) This section applies if the chief executive makes a decision mentioned in section 276C(3) to temporarily delay giving the detainee a prison transfer notice, or not to give the detainee a prison transfer notice.	8 9 10 11 12
(2) As soon as reasonably practicable after making the decision, the chief executive must give the detainee written notice of the decision including reasons for the decision.	13 14 15 16
(3) Also, the notice must state that a prison transfer notice will not be given to the detainee, or that a prison transfer notice will not be given to the detainee before a specified date, unless—	17 18 19 20
(a) a circumstance relevant to the chief executive’s decision no longer exists; or	21 22
(b) the detainee poses a risk to the safety or wellbeing of any detainee at the detention centre at which the detainee is, or is to be, detained; or	23 24 25 26
(c) the detainee requests to be given a prison transfer notice.	27 28
Subdivision 3 Giving of prison transfer notice	29 30

[s 126]

276E Application of subdivision	1
This subdivision applies in relation to a detainee who—	2 3
(a) is liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B; or	4 5
(b) is at least 17 years and 10 months and will be liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B.	6 7 8
276F Giving prison transfer notice	9
(1) The chief executive—	10
(a) must give the detainee a prison transfer notice if the chief executive has decided under section 276C(2)(a) to give the detainee a prison transfer notice as soon as practicable; or	11 12 13 14 15
(b) must give the detainee a prison transfer notice if the detainee has requested that the chief executive give the detainee a prison transfer notice; or	16 17 18 19
(c) if a court has made an order under section 136(2) or 139(2), or subdivision 5 in relation to the detainee—may give the detainee a prison transfer notice only if the chief executive is satisfied there has been a significant change in the circumstances of the detainee since the court made the order; and	20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27
(d) if the chief executive has made a decision mentioned in 276C(3) in relation to the detainee—may give the detainee a prison transfer notice if the chief executive considers section 276D(3)(a) or (b) applies.	28 29 30 31 32
(2) A prison transfer notice is a written notice stating the following matters—	33 34

- (a) the day the detainee will be transferred to a corrective services facility (the transfer day);
- (b) the interventionist, rehabilitation or similar activities that will be available for the detainee at the corrective services facility;
- (c) any information of which the chief executive is aware that is relevant to the matters mentioned in section 276C(4)(c) and (d);
- (d) if the detainee is serving a period of detention—
- (i) the period of detention the detainee remains liable to serve; and
- (ii) the day on which the detainee is required to be released from detention under section 227;
- (e) that the detainee may make submissions to the chief executive about the transfer, and may apply to the chief executive under subdivision 4 for a review of the chief executive's decision, within 5 business days of—
- (i) if the detainee has consulted a lawyer in accordance with section 276G—the day of the consultation; or
- (ii) if the detainee has refused to consult a lawyer in accordance with section 276G—the day of the refusal;
- (f) if the notice is given under subsection (1)(c)—a description of the significant change in circumstances;
- (g) if the notice is given under subsection (1)(d)—a description of the matters mentioned in section 276D(3)(a) or (b)

which formed the basis of the chief executive's decision.	1 2
(3) The transfer day must be a day at least 1 month after—	3 4
(a) the day the detainee turns 18 years; or	5
(b) if the detainee is 18 years or over at the time the prison transfer notice is given to the detainee—the day the notice is given to the detainee.	6 7 8 9
(4) If the prison transfer notice is given under subsection (1)(b), the chief executive must give the prison transfer notice to the detainee within 5 business days of the day of the detainee's request.	10 11 12 13
276G Chief executive to facilitate consultation with lawyer	14 15
(1) As soon as reasonably practicable after a prison transfer notice is given to the detainee under section 276F, the chief executive must facilitate a consultation between the detainee and a lawyer.	16 17 18 19
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the detainee refuses the consultation.	20 21
276H Copy of prison transfer notice to be given to chief executive (corrective services)	22 23
The chief executive must give the chief executive (corrective services) a copy of the prison transfer notice as soon as reasonably practicable after the notice is given to the detainee.	24 25 26 27
276I When detainee may be transferred	28
(1) The chief executive must not transfer the detainee to a corrective services facility in accordance with the prison transfer notice until at least 10 business	29 30 31 days after the day the detainee consulted a lawyer, 1 or refused to consult a lawyer, in accordance with 2 section 276G. 3

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the detainee is 4 transferred to the corrective services facility 5 earlier with the detainee's agreement. 6

(3) This section applies subject to sections 276M and 7
276W. 8

Subdivision 4 Review by chief executive 9

276J Application to chief executive for review 10

(1) A detainee given a prison transfer notice may 11 apply to the chief executive for a review of the 12 chief executive's decision to give the detainee the 13 prison transfer notice. 14

(2) An application made under subsection (1) is a 15 review application. 16

(3) The review application must be made within 5 17 business days of— 18

(a) if the detainee consulted a lawyer in 19 accordance with section 276G—the day of 20
the consultation; or 21

(b) if the detainee refused to consult a lawyer in 22
accordance with section 276G—the day of 23
the refusal. 24

(4) On receipt by the chief executive of the review 25 application, the detainee's transfer is stayed until 26 the application is decided, withdrawn or 27
otherwise ends. 28

276K Chief executive to decide application 29

(1) The chief executive may decide to temporarily 30

[s 126]

delay the transfer of the detainee, or not to transfer the detainee, to a corrective services facility under the notice only if the chief executive is satisfied—	1 2 3
(a) there are special circumstances; and	4
(b) the decision would not cause the detainee to be detained in a detention centre after the detainee turns 18 years and 6 months.	5 6 7
(2) Without limiting the matters the chief executive may have regard to, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters in making a decision under subsection (1)—	8 9 10 11
(a) any submissions made by the detainee within the period stated in the prison transfer notice under section 276F(2)(e);	12 13 14
(b) any vulnerability of the detainee;	15
(c) any interventionist, rehabilitation or similar activities being undertaken by the detainee and the availability of those activities if transferred;	16 17 18 19
(d) whether a decision to delay the transfer of, or not to transfer, the detainee would prejudice the security or good order of the detention centre at which the detainee is, or is to be, detained;	20 21 22 23 24
(e) whether a decision to delay the transfer of, or not to transfer, the detainee would prejudice the safety or wellbeing of any detainee at the detention centre at which the detainee is, or is to be, detained.	25 26 27 28 29
276L Action to be taken by chief executive after deciding application	30 31
(1) If the chief executive makes a decision under section 276K(1), the chief executive must—	32 33

- (a) if the decision is to temporarily delay the transfer—decide a new day for the transfer of the detainee to a corrective services facility (the new transfer day); and
- (b) inform the chief executive (corrective services) of—
- (i) if the decision is to temporarily delay the transfer—the new transfer day; or
- (ii) if the decision is not to transfer the detainee—the decision.
- (2) The new transfer day must be a day—
- (a) after the transfer day stated in the prison transfer notice; and
- (b) no earlier than when the detainee becomes liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B; and
- (c) no later than 6 months after the detainee turns 18 years.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after deciding the review application, the chief executive must—
- (a) give the detainee notice of the decision, including, if the decision is to temporarily delay the transfer, notice of the new transfer day; and
- (b) give the detainee reasons in writing for the decision; and
- (c) facilitate a consultation between the detainee and a lawyer unless the detainee refuses the consultation; and
- (d) if the decision is not to change the decision the subject of the review application—inform the detainee of the right of review under subdivision 6.

[s 126]

276M When detainee may be transferred	1
(1) After the review application has been decided, the chief executive must not transfer the detainee to a corrective services facility in accordance with the prison transfer notice that is the subject of the application before—	2 3 4 5 6
(a) if the chief executive decides to temporarily delay the transfer—the new transfer day decided under section 276L(1)(a); or	7 8 9
(b) if the chief executive decides not to change the decision the subject of the review application—the day that is 10 business days after the day the detainee consulted a lawyer, or refused to consult a lawyer, in accordance with section 276L(3)(c).	10 11 12 13 14 15
(2) However, if the chief executive decides not to transfer the detainee to a corrective services facility, the chief executive must not transfer the detainee to a corrective services facility.	16 17 18 19
(3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the detainee is transferred to the corrective services facility earlier with the detainee’s agreement.	20 21 22
276N Chief executive’s power to give new prison transfer notice—significant change in circumstances	23 24 25
(1) After deciding the review application, the chief executive may give the detainee a further prison transfer notice (a new prison transfer notice) only if the chief executive is satisfied there has been a significant change in circumstances of the detainee since the chief executive made the decision.	26 27 28 29 30 31 32
(2) If the chief executive is satisfied there has been a significant change in circumstances of the detainee since the making of the decision, the new	33 34 35

- prison transfer notice must state the significant change in circumstances. 1 2
- (3) If the new prison transfer notice is given to the detainee— 3
4
- (a) subdivisions 2 and 3 apply, for the giving of the notice, as if the notice were given under section 276F(1)(a) except that the transfer day stated in the notice must be at least 1 month after the new prison transfer notice is given; and 5
6
7
8
9
10
- (b) the prison transfer notice that was the subject of the review application ceases to have effect. 11

276O Persons to whom subdivision applies 17

This subdivision applies if, when a court makes a detention order against a person for an offence, the person becomes liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B. 18 19 20
21

276P Application to sentencing court for temporary delay of transfer 22
23

The person may immediately apply to the court for an order to delay the person's transfer to a corrective services facility for a period of 6 months or less. 24
25
26
27

276Q Court to decide application 28

- (1) The court may grant the application only if satisfied— 29
30

[s 126]

- (a) there are special circumstances; and 1
- (b) the delay would not cause the person to be 2 detained in a detention centre after the 3 person turns 18 years and 6 months. 4
- (2) Without limiting the matters the court may have 5 regard to, the court must have regard to the 6 following matters in deciding the application— 7
 - (a) any vulnerability of the person; 8
 - (b) any interventionist, rehabilitation or similar 9 activities being undertaken by the person 10 and the availability of those activities if 11 transferred; 12
 - (c) whether a decision to delay the transfer of 13
the person would prejudice the security or 14 good order of the detention centre at which 15
the person is, or is to be, detained; 16
 - (d) whether a decision to delay the transfer of 17
the person would prejudice the safety or 18 wellbeing of any detainee at the detention 19 centre at which the person is, or is to be, 20 detained. 21
- (3) If the court grants the application— 22
 - (a) the court must decide a day for the transfer 23 of the person to a corrective services facility 24
(the new transfer day); and 25
 - (b) the chief executive must inform the chief 26 executive (corrective services) of the new 27 transfer day. 28
- (4) If the chief executive agrees to the application— 29
 - (a) subsections (1) and (2) do not apply; and 30
 - (b) the court's proper officer may grant the 31 application. 32
- (5) If the court's proper officer grants the application 33
under subsection (4)— 34

(a)	the court’s proper officer must decide a day for the transfer of the person to a corrective services facility (also the new transfer day); and	1 2 3 4
(b)	the chief executive must inform the chief executive (corrective services) of the new transfer day.	5 6 7
(6)	For this section, the new transfer day must be a day—	8 9
(a)	no earlier than the day that is 1 month after the person becomes liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B; and	10 11 12 13
(b)	no more than 6 months after the detainee turns 18 years.	14 15
276R When detainee may be transferred if application granted		16 17
If the court grants the application, the chief executive may transfer the person to a corrective services facility as soon as reasonably practicable on or after the new transfer day decided under section 276Q(3)(a) or (5)(a).		18 19 20 21 22
Subdivision 6 Review by Childrens Court of chief executive’s decision		23 24 25
276S Application of subdivision		26
This subdivision applies if the chief executive decides, on a review application made by a detainee under subdivision 4, not to change the decision of the chief executive to give the detainee the prison transfer notice the subject of		27 28 29 30 31

[s 126]

the review application. 1

276T Application for review by Childrens Court 2

- (1) The detainee may apply to the Childrens Court for a review of the chief executive’s decision. 3 4
- (2) The application for review must be made within 5 business days of— 5 6
 - (a) if the detainee consulted a lawyer in accordance with section 276L(3)(c)—the day of the consultation; or 7
9
 - (b) if the detainee refused to consult a lawyer in accordance with section 276L(3)(c)—the day of the refusal. 10
12
- (3) On receipt by the Childrens Court of the application, the detainee’s transfer is stayed until the application is decided, withdrawn or otherwise ends. 13
14
15
16

276U Childrens Court to hear and decide application 17
18

- (1) The Childrens Court must hear and decide a review of the chief executive’s decision by way of a fresh hearing on the merits. 19 20
21
- (2) The Childrens Court may— 22
 - (a) decide that the detainee not be transferred to a corrective services facility; or 23 24
 - (b) affirm the transfer day stated in the prison transfer notice given to the detainee; or 25
26
 - (c) decide a new day for the transfer of the detainee to a corrective services facility for the purposes of the prison transfer notice (the new transfer day). 27 28
29
30
- (3) The new transfer day must be a day— 31

- (a) no earlier than the day the detainee becomes liable to be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276B; and
- (b) no more than 6 months after the detainee turns 18 years.
- (4) The proceeding on the application must be heard by the Childrens Court constituted by a Childrens Court judge.

276V Notice of decision to be given to chief executive (corrective services)

As soon as reasonably practicable after the Childrens Court decides a new transfer day for the detainee under section 276U(2)(c), the chief executive must inform the chief executive (corrective services) of the new transfer day.

276W Chief executive's power to transfer detainee

- (1) The chief executive may transfer the detainee to a corrective service facility in accordance with the prison transfer notice the subject of the application as soon as reasonably practicable on or after—
- (a) if the Childrens Court affirmed the transfer day stated in the prison transfer notice—the stated transfer day; or
- (b) if the Childrens Court decided a new transfer day under section 276U(2)(c)—the new transfer day.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the chief executive decides that the detainee not be transferred to a corrective services facility.

[s 126]

276X When chief executive may give new prison transfer notice—significant change in circumstances	1 2 3
(1) If the Childrens Court decided that the detainee should not be transferred to a corrective services facility under section 276U(2)(a) or decided a new transfer day for the detainee under section 276U(2)(c), the chief executive may not give the detainee a further prison transfer notice (a new prison transfer notice) unless the chief executive is satisfied there has been a significant change in circumstances since the court’s decision.	4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12
(2) If the chief executive is satisfied there has been a significant change in circumstances since the court’s decision, the new prison transfer notice must state the significant change in circumstances.	13 14 15 16 17
(3) If the new prison transfer notice is given to the detainee—	18 19
(a) subdivisions 2 and 3 apply, for the giving of the notice, as if the notice were given under section 276F(1)(a) except that the transfer day stated in the notice must be at least 1 month after the new prison transfer notice is given; and	20 21 22 23 24 25
(b) the prison transfer notice that was the subject of the review application ceases to have effect.	26 27 28

Subdivision 7 Other provisions 29

276Y Persons over 18 years and 6 months should not be detained at a detention centre 30 31

(1) This Act is subject to the overriding principle that it is in the best interests of the welfare of all detainees at a detention centre that persons who	32 33 34
---	----------------

- are 18 years and 6 months or older are not detained at the centre. 1 2
- (2) To give effect to the principle— 3
- (a) a person who is 18 years and 6 months or older must not— 4
5
- (i) enter a detention centre to begin serving a period of detention; or 6 7
- (ii) return to a detention centre to continue or complete a period of detention, including, for example, returning because of a contravention of a conditional release order or supervised release order; and 8 9
10
11
12
13
- (b) an application for a temporary delay of a transfer and a review application is of no effect if the applicant is 18 years and 6 months or older; and 14 15
16
17
- (c) an application for a temporary delay of a transfer and a review application lapses when the applicant turns 18 years and 6 months. 18 19 20
21
- (3) If the application of subsection (2)(a) prevents a person from being detained at a detention centre, the person must instead be held at a corrective services facility. 22
23
24
25
- (4) This section applies despite anything else in this Act. 26
27
- (5) In this section— 28
- application for a temporary delay of a transfer means an application made under subdivision 5. 29 30
- review application means an application made under subdivision 4 or 6. 31

276Z Application of Corrective Services Act 2006	1
(1) This section applies in relation to a person—	2
(a) who is transferred to a corrective services facility under subdivision 3, 4, 5 or 6; or	3 4
(b) who is being held at a corrective services facility under section 276Y.	5 6
(2) For holding the person at a corrective services facility—	7 8
(a) the person is taken to be a prisoner subject to the Corrective Services Act 2006 ; and	9 10
(b) any rights, liberties or immunities of the person as a detainee are not preserved, transferred or otherwise applicable for the person as a prisoner; and	11 12 13 14
(c) if the person is serving a period of detention, or liable to serve a period of detention—	15 16
(i) the person is liable to serve a term of imprisonment equal to the period of detention the person remains liable to serve on the transfer; and	17 18 19 20
(ii) the day the person would otherwise have been released under section 227, for the period of detention, is the day the person is to be released on parole under the Corrective Services Act 2006 .	21 22 23 24 25 26
(3) However, the release of the person is subject to the Corrective Services Act 2006 as if granted under a court ordered parole order (the statutory parole order) and the provisions of that Act applying to parole orders also apply to the statutory parole order.	27 28 29 30 31 32
