179O Restriction on cross-examination 8

- (1) This section applies if a person's victim impact 9 statement is given to the sentencing court under 10
section 179K(4)(a). 11
- (2) The person must not be cross-examined on the 12
content of the victim impact statement unless the 13
court is satisfied— 14
- (a) the content may materially affect the 15 sentence the court may impose in the 16
sentencing proceeding; and 17
- (b) it is in the interests of justice for the person 18
to be cross-examined. 19
- (3) If the person is cross-examined under subsection 20
(2), the court may make arrangements or give any 21
directions the court considers appropriate to— 22
- (a) protect the person from unnecessary trauma, 23
intimidation or distress; and 24
- (b) facilitate the person's participation in the 25
proceeding. 26

179P Review of part 27

| (i) the actual harm caused to an affected community by an offence; or                                                                                                                                                                                         | 11 |
| (ii) the likely harm caused to an affected community by an offence, having regard to the harm typically caused to a community by an offence of that kind; and                                                                                                 | 12 |
| (b) is signed and dated by the victims' commissioner; and                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 13 |
| (c) may have attached to it—                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 14 |

- (i) documents supporting the particulars, including, for example, relevant research, reports, statistics, submissions made by members of the affected community or personal statements; or
  - (ii) photographs, drawings or other images.
- victims' commissioner* means the victims' commissioner appointed under the Victims' Commissioner and Sexual Violence Review Board Act 2024.

179R Application of part

This part applies for sentencing an offender for an offence that is—

- (a) an offence against the Criminal Code, part 2, chapter 7A or sections 228A to 228DC; or
- (b) another offence prescribed by regulation for this section; or
- (c) an offence of attempting to commit, or conspiring to commit, an offence mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

Note—

Under the Youth Justice Act 1992, section 256A, this part also applies in relation to an offender who is a child.

179S Preparation of community impact statement

- (1) The victims' commissioner may give the prosecutor a community impact statement for an offence mentioned in section 179R if the commissioner considers—
  - (a) there is an affected community for the offence; and

[s 16]

- (b) it would be in the interests of justice to give the statement. 1 2
- (2) In considering the matters mentioned in subsection (1), the victims' commissioner may have regard to any information the victims' commissioner considers relevant, including, for example, any submissions made to the victims' commissioner by a member of the public. 3
6
7
8
- (3) In preparing the community impact statement, the victims' commissioner may consult with the affected community. 9 10
11
- (4) Also, the victims' commissioner may consult with the prosecutor to decide what, if any, details are appropriate to be given to the sentencing court. 12
13
15
- (5) If a community impact statement is given to the prosecutor electronically, the statement is taken to have been signed by the victims' commissioner. 16
17

179T Giving details of impact on the community during sentencing 19 20

- (1) The victims' commissioner is to be permitted to give the prosecutor for the offence a community impact statement for the purpose of the prosecutor informing the sentencing court. 21
22
24
- (2) If the victims' commissioner needs more time to give the prosecutor a community impact statement, the sentencing court may adjourn the sentencing proceeding for that purpose if it is reasonable to do so in the circumstances, having regard to the following matters— 25
26
27
28
29
30
  - (a) whether the victims' commissioner has had a reasonable opportunity to prepare the statement; 31
32
33
  - (b) the interests of justice; 34

- (c) whether adjourning the proceeding would unreasonably delay the sentencing of the offender. 1 2 3
- (3) If a community impact statement is given to the prosecutor, the prosecutor must— 4 5
- (a) give the statement to the sentencing court;
and 6 7
- (b) as soon as practicable after the sentencing court convicts an offender for the offence,
give the statement to— 8 9 10
- (i) the offender; and 11
- (ii) the offender's legal representative. 12
- (4) The fact that a community impact statement is absent at the sentencing does not, of itself, give rise to any inference that the offence caused little or no harm to the affected community. 13 14 15 16
- (5) Subject to section 179V, the sentencing court is to decide if, and how, the community impact statement is to be given to the court in accordance with the rules of evidence and the practices and procedures applying to the court. 17 18 19 20 21

179U Sentencing court may be given community impact statement despite irrelevant or inadmissible material 22 23 24

- (1) This section applies if a community impact statement includes material that is irrelevant to, or would otherwise be inadmissible in, the sentencing proceeding for the offence. 25 26 27 28
- (2) The sentencing court— 29
- (a) may be given the community impact statement under section 179T(3)(a); but 30 31
- (b) must disregard the irrelevant or inadmissible
material. 32 33

[s 17]

- (a) a community impact statement given to the sentencing court under section 179T(3)(a); and
  - (b) any submission or personal statement attached to the community impact statement.
- (2) A person must not be cross-examined on the content of the community impact statement, submission or personal statement unless the court is satisfied—
  - (a) the content may materially affect the sentence the court may impose in the sentencing proceeding; and
  - (b) it is in the interests of justice for the person to be cross-examined.
- (3) If a person is cross-examined under subsection (2), the court may make arrangements or give any directions the court considers appropriate to—
  - (a) protect the person from unnecessary trauma, intimidation or distress; and
  - (b) facilitate the person's participation in the proceeding.
