Clause 27 Insertion of new pt 5, div 7

After section 142AL—

insert—

Division 7 Extended trading hours for significant public events

142AM Definitions for division

In this division—

declaration means a regulation made under section 142AN(1).

declared extended trading hours means extended trading hours declared under section 142AN.

significant public event means an event that the

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Minister is satisfied is of local, State or national significance.

142AN Declaration of extended trading hours for significant public events

(1) A regulation may declare extended trading hours for licensed premises in connection with a significant public event.

(2) The declaration must state the following—

(a) the dates (the declared days) for which extended trading hours apply for a significant public event;

(b) the extended trading hours that apply for each declared day;

(c) the licensed premises, or parts of licensed premises, to which the extended trading hours do, or do not, apply;

(d) the safe night precincts, local government areas or parts of the State in which the extended trading hours apply.

(3) Only the following days may be included in the declared days for a significant public event—

(a) a day on which the significant public event occurs;

(b) the day immediately following the significant public event;

(c) the day immediately before the significant public event if the Minister is satisfied the event will attract visitors to the area in which the event occurs.

(4) For subsection (2)(b), trading hours for licensed premises may be extended up to 10a.m. on a declared day (whether the trading hours normally end during the morning of that day or during the night before).

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(5) For subsection (2)(c), licensed premises may be specified by identifying the licences for the premises or the general location of the premises.

Example—

All nightclub licences within the local government area for the Gold Coast City Council.

(6) In recommending the making of a declaration to the Governor in Council the Minister must have regard to the main purposes of this Act.

(7) No compensation is payable by the State to any person because a declaration is revoked or amended.

142AO Consultation and publication

(1) Before recommending that the Governor in Council make a declaration, the Minister—

(a) must consult with the police commissioner about the proposed declaration; and

(b) may consult with any affected local government about the proposed declaration.

(2) As soon as practicable after a declaration is made, the Minister must ensure the declaration is published on the department's website.

(3) In this section—affected local government, for a declaration, means the local government for a local government area in which it is proposed under the declaration that extended trading hours apply to licensed premises.

142AP Conditions for declared extended trading hours

(1) A regulation may prescribe conditions (the

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

prescribed conditions) that apply to a licence for the purpose of declared extended trading hours.

(2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a prescribed condition may apply provisions of the Act to a licensee or licensed premises for declared extended trading hours.

(3) Unless stated otherwise in the regulation, the following conditions of a licence prevail over any prescribed conditions to the extent of any inconsistency—

(a) a condition imposed on a licence by the commissioner under section 107C;

(b) a condition imposed or amended by the commissioner under section 111;

(c) a condition imposed or amended by the commissioner as a consequence of taking disciplinary action in relation to a licence under section 137A.

(4) Unless stated otherwise in the regulation, prescribed conditions apply to a licence whether it is issued before or after the regulation prescribing the conditions commences.

142AQ Extension of particular obligations during declared extended trading hours

(1) An extended trading hours obligation is an obligation imposed on a licensee—

(a) under—

(i) this Act; or

(ii) a condition of a licence; or

(iii) an extended trading hours approval; or

(iv) an extended hours permit; and

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

(b) because the licensee sells liquor on licensed premises after midnight in an uninterrupted continuation of trade from the previous day.

(2) If an extended trading hours obligation applies to a licensee on the same day that declared extended trading hours apply to the licensee's licensed premises, the licensee must continue to comply with the obligation until the end of that day's declared extended trading hours.

Example—

If the declared extended trading hours applying to licensed premises end at 7a.m., the restriction on the sale or supply of rapid intoxication drinks by the licensee during the restricted period under part 6, division 1B ends at 7a.m. instead of 5a.m.

(3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the declared extended trading hours do not begin on a day until after the extended trading hours obligation ends on that day.

Example—

If the extended trading hours obligation ends for a licensee at 3a.m. and the declared extended trading hours applying to the licensee's licensed premises do not start until 5a.m., the obligation does not apply during the declared extended trading hours.

(4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if subsection (2) applies to a licensee, the licensee may be disciplined or prosecuted under this Act for not complying with an extended trading hours obligation during declared extended trading hours.

(5) This section applies despite any provision of this Act to the contrary.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

142AR Extension of particular obligations to additional days if declared extended trading hours apply

(1) An extended trading hours obligation is an obligation imposed on a licensee—

(a) under—

(i) a condition of a licence; or

(ii) an extended trading hours approval; and

(b) because the licensee sells liquor on licensed premises after midnight in an uninterrupted continuation of trade from the previous day.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if—

(a) an extended trading hours obligation applies to a licensee on 1 or more days a week (each an ordinary late trading day); and

(b) declared extended trading hours apply to the licensee's licensed premises on days (the additional days) that are not ordinary late trading days.

(3) The extended trading hours obligation also applies to the licensee on the additional days if the licensee sells liquor on the licensed premises after midnight in an uninterrupted continuation of trade from the previous day.

Example—

If an obligation of a licensee under an extended trading hours approval applies on Friday and Saturday, the obligation also applies for each day that the licensee sells liquor under the authority of the declared extended trading hours, regardless of whether those days are Friday or Saturday.

(4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if subsection (3) applies to a licensee, the licensee may be disciplined or prosecuted under this Act for not complying with an extended trading hours obligation during declared extended trading hours.

(5) This section applies despite any provision of this Act to the contrary.

142AS Authority during declared extended trading hours

If extended trading hours apply to licensed premises under a declaration, the declaration authorises the licensee to sell liquor during the extended trading hours in the licensed premises, subject to this Act and the conditions applying to the licence.

Clause 28 Amendment of s 142ZZC (Advertising)

(1) Section 142ZZC(1)—

omit, insert—

(1) A licensee or permittee must not advertise, or allow anyone to advertise, the availability of the following for consumption on the relevant premises—

(a) free liquor;

(b) multiple quantities of liquor.

Example for paragraph (b)—

2 drinks for the price of 1

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

(2) Section 142ZZC(3)—

omit.

(3) Section 142ZZC(4) and (5)—

renumber as section 142ZZC(3) and (4).

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Clause 29 Replacement of s 145 (Keeping licence or permit at licensed premises)

Section 145—

omit, insert—

145 Licence or permit must be kept at, or accessible from, premises

(1) A licensee or permittee must ensure the licence or permit, or a copy of the licence or permit, is kept available at the premises to which the licence or permit relates, unless the licensee or permittee has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

(2) For subsection (1), a licence or permit, or a copy of the licence or permit, is kept available at premises if—

(a) the licence or permit, or copy of the licence or permit, is kept at the premises; or

(b) a copy of the licence or permit can be accessed electronically from the premises.

Clause 30 Amendment of s 145A (Production of licence or permit on request)

(1) Section 145A—

insert—

(2A) For subsections (1) and (2), the person may produce the licence or permit by accessing a copy of the licence or permit electronically.

(2) Section 145A(2A) and (3)—

renumber as section 145A(3) and (4).

significant public event means an event that the Minister is satisfied is of local, State or national significance.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

32D Declaration of extended trading hours for significant public events

(1) A regulation may declare extended trading hours for licensed premises in connection with a significant public event.

(2) The declaration must state the following—

(a) the dates (the declared days) for which extended trading hours apply for a significant public event;

(b) the extended trading hours that apply for each declared day;

(c) the licensed premises for which the extended trading hours do, or do not, apply;

(d) the safe night precincts, local government areas or parts of the State in which the extended trading hours apply.

(3) Only the following days may be included in the declared days for a significant public event—

(a) a day on which the significant public event occurs;

(b) the day immediately following the significant public event;

(c) the day immediately before the significant public event if the Minister is satisfied the event will attract visitors to the area in which the event occurs.

(4) For subsection (2)(b), trading hours for licensed premises may be extended up to 8a.m. on a declared day (whether the trading hours normally end during the morning of that day or during the night before).

(5) For subsection (2)(c), licensed premises may be specified by identifying the licences for the premises or the general location of the premises.

Authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel

Example—

All wine producer licences within the local government area for the Southern Downs Regional Council.

(6) In recommending the making of a declaration to the Governor in Council the Minister must have regard to the objectives of this Act.
