	100DA Issuing direction when domestic violence order is in force	28 29
	(1) This section applies if—	30

[s 17]

- (a) a police protection direction is issued against a respondent; and
- (b) a domestic violence order is in force against the respondent naming the same aggrieved.
- (2) The respondent must comply with both the police protection direction and the domestic violence order.
- (3) However, if it is not possible to comply with both the police protection direction and the domestic violence order because they are inconsistent, the domestic violence order prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

100EA When application for protection order or variation of protection order must be made

- A police officer who issues a police protection direction against a respondent must apply for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, if when the direction is issued—
- (a) a protection order, temporary protection order or recognised interstate order relating to the respondent and aggrieved is in force and the police officer considers additional conditions are necessary or desirable to protect the aggrieved; or
 - (b) a proceeding relating to an application for a protection order or to vary a protection order relating to the respondent and the aggrieved is already before a court; or
 - (c) the police officer knows, or reasonably believes, the police protection direction would interact with or be inconsistent with—
 - (i) a family law order; or

	(ii) an order or a care agreement under the Child Protection Act 1999 ; or	1 2
	(d) a condition would prevent or limit contact between the respondent and a child of the respondent, regardless of whether an order or agreement mentioned in paragraph (c)(i) or (ii) is in force for the child; or	3 4 5 6 7
	(e) the police officer considers that to protect the aggrieved from further domestic violence by the respondent it is necessary or desirable for conditions to be imposed on the respondent that only a court may impose; or	8 9 10 11 12 13
	Examples of conditions that only a court may impose—	14 15
	• making an intervention order	16
	• imposing conditions on a protection order that may not be imposed on a police protection direction, such as a monitoring device condition under section 66B or a condition about possessing a thing used as a weapon under section 81	17 18 19 20 21 22
	(f) another police protection direction (a second direction) is in force, or is issued, that—	23 24 25
	(i) names the person who is the respondent in the police protection direction as the aggrieved in the second direction; and	26 27 28 29
	(ii) names the person who is the aggrieved in the police protection direction as the respondent in the second direction.	30 31 32
Clause 18	Amendment of s 100G (Standard conditions must be included)	33 34
	Section 100G(c)(iii), after ‘would be’—	35

Clause 19 Amendment of s 100H (Other conditions may be included) 3 4

(1) Section 100H(1) and (2)— 5
omit, insert— 6

- (1) A police protection direction may include any or 7
all of the following conditions— 8
- (a) a cool-down condition; 9
 - (b) a no-contact condition; 10
 - (c) an ouster condition; 11
 - (d) if the direction includes an ouster 12 condition—a return condition; 13
 - (e) a recovery condition. 14

(2) Section 100H(3), ‘subsection (2)’— 15
omit, insert— 16

subsection (1) 17

(3) Section 100H(3)(a)— 18
insert— 19

- (iii) protect a named person who is a child from 20 being exposed to domestic violence 21 committed by the respondent; and 22

(4) Section 100H(3)(d)(ii), ‘or no-contact condition’— 23
omit, insert— 24

, no-contact condition, return condition or 25 recovery condition 26

(5) Section 100H— 27

[s 20]

- (3A) A police protection direction that includes a condition mentioned in subsection (1) may also include any exception to the condition the police officer issuing the direction considers necessary or desirable.
- (6) Section 100H(3) to (4)— renumber as section 100H(2) to (4).

Clause 20 Insertion of new ss 100HA–100HE

After section 100H—

insert—

100HA Cool-down condition

- (1) A cool-down condition is a condition that prohibits the respondent from doing any or all of the following—
- (a) entering, attempting to enter, or remaining at, stated premises, or approaching within a stated distance of stated premises;
 - (b) approaching, or attempting to approach, within a stated distance of the aggrieved or a named person;
 - (c) contacting, attempting to contact, or asking someone else to contact, the aggrieved or a named person.
- (2) A cool-down condition ends on the date and time stated in the direction.
- (3) The date and time stated in the direction must be—
- (a) no more than 24 hours after the direction is issued; and
 - (b) reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the respondent, the aggrieved and any other person.

[s 20]

Example of an unreasonable date and time— 1
If a cool-down condition prohibits a respondent 2 from approaching stated premises, it would be 3 unreasonable for the condition to end at 3a.m., 4 when the respondent’s return to the premises may 5 disrupt other household members. 6

100HB No-contact condition 7

- (1) A no-contact condition is a condition that 8 prohibits the respondent from doing any or all of 9
the following— 10
- (a) approaching, or attempting to approach, 11
within a stated distance of the aggrieved or a 12
named person; 13
- (b) contacting, attempting to contact, or asking 14
someone else to contact, the aggrieved or a 15
named person; 16
- (c) locating, attempting to locate, or asking 17 someone else to locate, the aggrieved or a 18 named person if the aggrieved’s or named 19 person’s whereabouts are not known to the 20 respondent. 21
- (2) However, a no-contact condition does not 22 prohibit the respondent from asking— 23
- (a) a lawyer to contact the aggrieved or a named 24 person; or 25
- (b) another person, including a lawyer, to 26 contact or locate the aggrieved or a named 27 person for a purpose authorised under an 28
Act. 29
- (3) Also, a no-contact condition does not prohibit a 30 victim advocate from contacting or locating the 31 aggrieved or a named person in the circumstances 32 mentioned in section 61(1)(a) to (c). 33
- (4) In this section— 34 lawyer means a lawyer who is representing the respondent in relation to a proceeding.

victim advocate means a person engaged by an approved provider to provide advocacy for, and support of, an aggrieved or named person.

100HC Ouster condition

An ouster condition is a condition that prohibits the respondent from doing any or all of the following in relation to stated premises—

- (a) entering, attempting to enter, or remaining at the premises;
- (b) approaching within a stated distance of the premises.

100HD Return condition

(1) A return condition is a condition—

- (a) included in a police protection direction that also includes an ouster condition; and
- (b) that allows the respondent—
 - (i) if the respondent is no longer at the premises stated in the ouster condition—to return to the premises to recover stated personal property; or
 - (ii) if the respondent is at the premises stated in the ouster condition—to remain at the premises to remove stated personal property.

(2) However, a return condition may not allow the respondent to recover or remove personal property required to meet the daily needs of any person who continues to live in the premises stated in the ouster condition.

[s 20]

Examples of personal property required to meet daily needs—	1 2
household furniture, kitchen appliances	3
(3) Before imposing a return condition, the police officer must consider—	4 5
(a) the extent to which a matter relating to the condition must be supervised by a police officer; and	6 7 8
(b) if a police officer must supervise the matter, the need to impose a condition that the respondent must not approach within a stated distance of stated premises.	9 10 11 12
(4) A return condition may state either of the following, based on the time of service of the police protection direction on the respondent—	13 14 15
(a) the time at which, without contravening the police protection direction, the respondent may return to the premises and must leave the premises;	16 17 18 19
(b) for how long the respondent may, without contravening the police protection direction, remain at the premises.	20 21 22

100HE Recovery condition	23
(1) A recovery condition is a condition that requires the respondent—	24 25
(a) to return stated personal property to the aggrieved; or	26 27
(b) to allow the aggrieved access to stated personal property; or	28 29
(c) to allow the aggrieved to recover stated personal property; or	30 31

[s 21]

	(d) to allow the aggrieved to enter stated premises to facilitate action mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c); or	1 2 3
	(e) to do any act necessary or desirable to facilitate action mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d).	4 5 6
	(2) Before imposing a recovery condition, the police officer must consider—	7 8
	(a) the extent to which a matter relating to the condition must be supervised by a police officer; and	9 10 11
	(b) if a police officer must supervise the matter, the need to impose a condition that the respondent must not approach within a stated distance of stated premises.	12 13 14 15
	(3) A recovery condition may state either of the following, based on the time of service of the police protection direction on the respondent—	16 17 18
	(a) the time at which the respondent must leave stated premises;	19 20
	(b) the time at which the respondent may return to stated premises.	21 22

100JA Cross-direction in exceptional circumstances

- (1) This section applies if a police officer issues a police protection direction that names a person (the first person) as the respondent and another person (the second person) as the aggrieved.
- (2) The police officer may issue another police protection direction that names the first person as the aggrieved and the second person as the respondent only if the following exceptional circumstances apply—
 - (a) the police officer reasonably believes that each of the persons is in need of protection from the other person; and
 - (b) it is not possible for the officer to determine whether one person's need for protection is greater than the other person's need for protection.

See also section 100EA(f), which requires an application for a protection order or a variation of a protection order to be made if another police protection direction is issued under this section.

[s 25]

- (3) If a police officer is required to make an application for a protection order, or considers that an application for a protection order should be made, a police protection direction issued by a police officer must also—
 - (a) advise the respondent, the aggrieved and any named person that, under section 100QB, the police protection direction is taken to be an application for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, made by a police officer; and
 - (b) state the date and time for the hearing of the application for the protection order, or to vary the protection order, at the local Magistrates Court for the respondent; and
 - (c) state that, if the respondent fails to appear before the court, the local Magistrates Court for the respondent may—
 - (i) make a domestic violence order against the respondent in the respondent's absence; or
 - (ii) adjourn the matter and may, in the meantime, make a temporary protection order under part 3, division 2; or
 - (iii) order the issue of a warrant for the respondent to be taken into custody by a police officer and brought before the court; and
 - (d) if the date mentioned in paragraph (b) is more than 28 days after the day the police protection direction is issued, advise the respondent that—
 - (i) the matter of the application for the protection order, or to vary the protection order, will be mentioned in another Magistrates Court within 28	1

	days after the day the police protection	2
	direction is issued; and	3
(ii)	the other Magistrates Court will notify	4
	the respondent of the date, time and	5
	place of the mention; and	6
(iii)	the respondent may participate in the	7
	mention by attending the other	8
	Magistrates Court in person or by	9
	audio visual link or audio link; and	10
(iv)	the other Magistrates Court may, under	11
	part 3, division 2, make a temporary	12
	protection order at the mention whether	13
	or not the respondent participates in the	14
	mention.	15
(4)	For subsection (3)(b), the date must be—	16
(a)	within 14 business days after the police	17
	protection direction is issued; or	18
(b)	if the local Magistrates Court for the	19
	respondent does not sit during the time	20

[s 27]

- (aa) if the direction is required to be filed with the court under section 100QA—the effect of the direction being filed, including—
 - (i) that the direction is taken to be an application for a protection order, or for the variation of a protection order, made by a police officer; and
 - (ii) that the hearing of the application for the protection order or variation will be heard at the local Magistrates Court for the respondent at the date and time stated in the direction; and
 - (iii) the right of the respondent or aggrieved to obtain legal advice before attending court; and
- (3) Section 100Q(3)(aa) to (i)— renumber as section 100Q(3)(b) to (j).

- Clause 27 Insertion of new ss 100QA–100QC
- After section 100Q—
insert—
- 100QA Filing of police protection direction
- (1) This section applies if a police officer—
 - (a) issues a police protection direction; and
 - (b) is required to make an application for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, or considers that an application for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, should be made.
 - (2) The following documents must be filed in the local Magistrates Court for the respondent—
 - (a) a copy of the police protection direction;

- (b) a statement made and signed by the police officer stating—
 - (i) the grounds on which the police protection direction was issued; and
 - (ii) the nature of the protection order, or variation of the protection order, sought by the application for a protection order or variation of a protection order.
 - Note—*

Under section 100QB, a police protection direction filed under this section is taken to an application for a protection order, or a variation of a protection order, made by a police officer.
 - (3) The documents must be filed in the local Magistrates Court for the respondent before the earlier of the following—
 - (a) the date and time stated in the police protection direction for the hearing of the application for the protection order or to vary the protection order;
 - (b) the day that is 14 days after the day the direction was issued.
 - Note—*

Section 153 provides that a police officer may file a document in a proceeding under this Act by electronic or computer-based means.
 - (4) The statement must be served on the respondent—
 - (a) if the police protection direction has been personally served on the respondent and an address for service for the respondent is known—in any way; or
 - (b) otherwise—personally by a police officer.

[s 27]

- (5) Subsection (3) does not limit—
 - (a) the way in which the court may be informed, or inform itself, about the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(b); or
 - (b) the documents or evidence a party may file or give in the proceeding.
- (6) If the local Magistrates Court for the respondent will not be sitting within 28 days after the day the police protection direction is issued, the clerk of the local Magistrates Court for the respondent must make arrangements with the clerk of another Magistrates Court that will be sitting within 28 days after the day the direction is issued for—
 - (a) the matter of the application for the protection order, or to vary the protection order, to be listed for mention in the other Magistrates Court at the earliest opportunity; and
 - (b) the respondent, and the police officer or service legal officer responsible for the matter, to be notified of the date, time and place of the mention.
- (7) The reference in subsection (2)(b)(ii) to the application for a protection order, or variation of the protection order, is a reference to the application for a protection order, or variation of the protection order, the police protection direction is taken to be under section 100QB.
- (8) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) applies whether or not the police protection direction has been served on the respondent.

100QB Police protection direction taken to be application for protection order or variation of protection order	1 2 3
A police protection direction filed under section 100QA is taken to be—	4 5
(a) if paragraph (b) does not apply—an application for a protection order made by a police officer; or	6 7 8
(b) if there is an existing domestic violence order in place between the respondent and aggrieved—an application for a variation of a protection order made by a police officer.	9 10 11 12
100QC Effect of decision by court about police protection direction	13 14
(1) Part 3 applies to the court hearing and deciding an application for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, taken to have been made under section 100QB in relation to a police protection direction.	15 16 17 18 19
(2) However, in addition to the orders the court may make under part 3 in relation to the application, the court may also make—	20 21 22
(a) an order setting aside the police protection direction; or	23 24
(b) an order that the police protection direction ends on a stated day; or	25 26
(c) a decision to dismiss the application.	27
(3) If the court makes an order setting aside the police protection direction—	28 29
(a) the direction is taken never to have been issued; and	30 31
(b) the direction does not form part of the respondent’s domestic violence history; and	32 33

[s 28]

- (c) despite paragraphs (a) and (b), a proceeding may be started or continued against the respondent for an offence, committed before the direction was set aside, against section 177A or section 177AB.
- Note—*
For the effect of the setting aside of the police protection direction on the forfeiture of a weapon to the State, see
the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 714(4).
- (4) If the court makes an order that the police protection direction ends on a stated day—
 - (a) the direction ends on the stated day; and
 - (b) the part of the respondent’s domestic violence history relating to the direction must include the following information—
 - (i) the court’s order;
 - (ii) the day the direction ends under paragraph (a).
- (5) If the court decides to dismiss the application, the police protection direction continues unaffected by the application under section 100QA.
- (6) If the court makes either of the following orders under section 177 in relation to the respondent and aggrieved, the police protection direction ends—
 - (a) a domestic violence order;
 - (b) a recognised interstate order.

who is the aggrieved in relation to that order)’— 7
omit. 8
- (4) Section 100R(3)(c) and (d)— 9
omit. 10
- (5) Section 100R(3)(aa) to (e)— 11
renumber as section 100R(3)(b) to (d). 12
- (6) Section 100R(3)— 13
insert— 14
(f) a subsequent police protection direction 15 issued in relation to the same respondent 16 and same aggrieved takes effect and 17 identifies the same person in both police 18 protection directions as the person most in 19 need of protection in the relevant 20 relationship. 21
- (7) Section 100R(3), note, ‘100Y(5)’— 22
omit, insert— 23
100QC(3), 100S(3) 24
- (8) Section 100R— 25
insert— 26
(3A) Despite subsection (3)(a), if a police protection 27 direction (the further direction) is issued when 28 another police protection direction (the first 29 direction) is in force naming the same persons as 30 respondent and aggrieved, the further direction 31 continues in force until— 32

[s 29]

- (a) the end of 3 years from the day the first direction takes effect; or
 - (b) an event mentioned in subsection (3)(b) to (f) occurs.
- (9) Section 100R(3A) and (4)—
renumber as section 100R(4) and (5).

- (3) If the police commissioner revokes a police 2 protection direction under subsection (2)— 3
- (a) the revoked direction is taken never to have 4 been issued; and 5
- (b) the revoked direction does not form part of 6
the respondent's domestic violence history; 7
and 8
- (c) a proceeding against the respondent for an 9 offence, committed before the direction was 10 revoked, against section 177A that was 11 started but not finished before the direction 12 was revoked is discontinued; and 13
- (d) in a proceeding against the respondent for 14 an offence, committed before the direction 15 was revoked, against section 177AB that 16 was started but not finished before the 17 direction was revoked, the revoked direction 18 must be disregarded. 19
- Note—* 20
- For the effect of the revocation of the police protection 21
direction on the forfeiture of a weapon to the State, see 22
the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, 23
section 714(4). 24
- (4) The police commissioner must inform the 25
respondent, the aggrieved and any named person 26 about the amendment or revocation of a police 27 protection direction. 28
- (5) The police commissioner may delegate the 29 commissioner's powers under this section only to 30 a police officer— 31
- (a) of at least the rank of senior sergeant; or 32
- (b) who is the officer in charge of the police 33 station or police establishment from which 34
the direction was issued. 35

	177AA Repeated contravention of domestic violence order	24 25
	(1) A respondent against whom a domestic violence order is enforceable under section 177 commits an offence if the respondent—	26 27 28

- (a) contravenes the domestic violence order;
and
 - (b) within a period of 28 days immediately before the contravention, the respondent contravened the same domestic violence order, or another domestic violence order for the benefit of the same aggrieved, on at least 2 other occasions.
 - Maximum penalty—240 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.
 - (2) A proceeding may be started under subsection (1) against the respondent regardless of whether a proceeding has been started for an offence against section 177 for any of the contraventions of a domestic violence order mentioned in subsection (1).
 - (3) However, if the respondent is convicted or acquitted of an offence against section 177 for a particular contravention of a domestic violence order, that contravention must be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (1).
 - (4) For subsection (1)—
 - (a) each domestic violence order mentioned in subsection (1) must have been enforceable under section 177 against the respondent when the respondent contravened the order; and
 - (b) in a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1), section 177(4) and (5) applies in relation to the respondent.
 - (5) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection (1), the respondent may alternatively be convicted of an offence against section 177 if the court is satisfied an offence against that section is established by the evidence.
 - (6) It is not a defence in a proceeding for an offence particular contravention of a police protection	1

direction, that contravention must be disregarded	2
for the purposes of subsection (1).	3
(4) For subsection (1)—	4
(a) the court must consider whether each police	5
protection direction mentioned in subsection	6
(1) was issued in substantial compliance	7
with part 4, division 1A; and	8
(b) section 177A(4) applies in relation to each	9
police protection direction mentioned in	10
subsection (1).	11
(5) In a proceeding for an offence against subsection	12
(1), the respondent may alternatively be convicted	13
of an offence against section 177A if the court is	14
satisfied an offence against that section is	15
established by the evidence.	16
(6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if a police	17
protection direction mentioned in subsection (1)	18
protects any named persons, a contravention	19
mentioned in that subsection includes a	20
contravention in relation to any of the named	21
persons.	22

245 Definitions for division	1
In this division—	2
amendment Act means the Domestic and Family Violence Protection and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2026 .	3 4 5
former , in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force immediately before the commencement.	6 7 8
new , in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from the commencement.	9 10
 246 Application of new s 41F to particular proceedings	 11 12
New section 41F applies to a proceeding for an application for a protection order, or to vary a protection order, in the circumstances mentioned in new section 41F(1)(a) to (d) or (5)(a) to (d) whether the application was made before or after the commencement.	13 14 15 16 17 18
 247 Duration of police protection directions	 19
(1) This section applies to a police protection direction that took effect before the commencement.	20 21 22
(2) Former section 100R(3)(a) continues to apply to the police protection direction as if new section 100R(3)(a) had not commenced.	23 24 25
 248 Police review of police protection direction on police initiative	 26 27
(1) This section applies to a police review of a police protection direction started under former section 100T but not decided before the commencement.	28 29 30
(2) On the commencement the review is	31

discontinued.	1
249 Police review of police protection direction on application	2 3
(1) This section applies to a police review of a police protection direction started under former section 100U but not decided before the commencement.	4 5 6
(2) Former part 4, division 1A, subdivision 4 continues to apply to the review as if the amendment Act had not commenced.	7 8 9
250 Protected witnesses	10
New sections 150 and 151 apply in relation to a proceeding whether the application for the proceeding was made before or after the commencement.	11 12 13 14
251 Sensitive material	15
New sections 160, 160AA and 161A apply in relation to a proceeding whether the application for the proceeding was made before or after the commencement.	16 17 18 19
252 Application of ss 177AA and 177AB	20
(1) Sections 177AA and 177AB apply in relation to a domestic violence order or police protection direction that was in force immediately before the commencement.	21 22 23 24
(2) However—	25
(a) section 177AA applies in relation to a contravention by a respondent of a domestic violence order only if each contravention by the respondent mentioned in section	26 27 28 29

[s 53]

- 177AA(1) occurred after the 1
commencement; and 2
- (b) section 177AB applies in relation to a 3 contravention by a respondent of a police 4 protection direction only if each 5 contravention by the respondent mentioned 6
in section 177AB(1) occurred after the 7 commencement. 8

253 Police protection notice continues 9

- (1) This section applies in relation to— 10
 - (a) a police protection notice in force against a 11
respondent immediately before the 12
commencement; and 13
 - (b) an offence committed against former section 14
178 before the commencement in relation to 15
the notice. 16
- (2) A police protection notice mentioned in 17
subsection (1)(a) continues in force and remains 18 enforceable, and the former provisions of this Act 19 continue to apply in relation to the notice and to 20
the respondent against whom the notice is in force 21
as if the amendment Act had not commenced. 22
- (3) To remove any doubt, and without limiting the 23
Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 20, it is 24 declared that a proceeding for an offence 25 mentioned in subsection (1)(b) may be continued 26 or started, and the person may be convicted of and 27 punished for the offence, as if the amendment Act 28 had not commenced. 29
- (4) Subsection (3) applies despite the Criminal Code, 30
section 11. 31

254 Release conditions continue 32

- (1) This section applies in relation to— 33

- (a) release conditions imposed on a person under former section 125 that are in force immediately before the commencement; and
 - (b) an offence against former section 179 committed by a person before the commencement.
- (2) The release conditions continue in force and remain enforceable, and the former provisions of this Act continue to apply in relation to the release conditions and to a person in relation to whom release conditions are in force as if the amendment Act had not commenced.
- (3) To remove any doubt, and without limiting the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 20, it is declared that a proceeding for an offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) may be continued or started, and the person may be convicted of and punished for the offence, as if the amendment Act had not commenced.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies despite the Criminal Code, section 11.
