prescribed offence or significant offence. 25
- (2) If a person is not charged with a section 29AA 26 offence before the person is sentenced, or is 27 otherwise dealt with, for the prescribed offence or 28 significant offence that is the subject of the 29
section 29AA offence, the person can not later be 30 charged with, or prosecuted for, the section 29AA 31 offence. 32
- (3) Despite any other law, in a proceeding for a 33
charge of a section 29AA offence against a 34 person— 35

- (a) evidence that the person is convicted of the prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of the section 29AA offence is admissible in the proceeding to prove the person committed the prescribed offence or significant offence; and

- (4) However, unless the evidence mentioned in subsection (3) is otherwise admissible, the court and, if there is a jury, the jury must not have regard to the evidence for any other purpose before receiving a plea of guilty or making any finding of guilt in relation to the section 29AA offence.
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply in relation to a proceeding for a charge of a section 29AA offence if the charge and a charge of the prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of the section 29AA offence are joined in the same complaint or indictment against the same person.
- (6) The person must not be asked to plead to the section 29AA offence unless and until the person is convicted of the prescribed offence or significant offence.
- (7) If the person is convicted of the prescribed offence or significant offence—

[s 12]

- (a) the court must then decide the section 29AA offence; and 1 2
- (b) a jury for a trial in relation to the prescribed offence or significant offence need not be sworn afresh in relation to the section 29AA offence. 3 4
5
6

29AD Court’s jurisdiction for section 29AA offence 7

- (1) Despite any other law, a court has jurisdiction to— 8 9
 - (a) hear and decide a charge of a section 29AA offence if the court has jurisdiction to hear and decide a charge of the prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of the section 29AA offence; or 10
11
12
13
14
 - (b) try a person charged with a section 29AA offence if the court has jurisdiction to try the person for a charge of the prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of the section 29AA offence; or 15
16
17
18
19
 - (c) hear and decide a charge of a section 29AA offence, or try a person charged with a section 29AA offence, if the court has dealt with the prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of the section 29AA offence. 20 21
22
23
25
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if a Magistrates Court is to hear and decide a charge of a prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of a section 29AA offence, the court has jurisdiction to hear and decide the section 29AA offence whether or not the charge of the section 29AA offence and the prescribed offence or significant offence are joined in the same complaint or indictment. 26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
- (3) If a Magistrates Court hears and decides a charge 35

- of a section 29AA offence summarily under subsection (1), the court has jurisdiction despite the time that has elapsed from the time when the matter of complaint of the charge arose.
- (4) Subject to this Act, the provisions of an Act in relation to hearing and deciding a charge of a prescribed offence or significant offence that is the subject of a section 29AA offence apply to a proceeding for a charge of the section 29AA offence as if the offence were the prescribed offence or significant offence.

29AE Meaning of convicted of an offence for ss 29AA and 29AC

- (1) For sections 29AA and 29AC, a person is convicted of an offence if the person is found or otherwise, whether or not a conviction is recorded.

- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to a person being found guilty of an offence includes a finding of guilt, within the meaning of the Youth Justice Act 1992, schedule 4, against the person as a child for the offence.
- (3) However, a person is not convicted of an offence
if the person's conviction for the offence is set aside or quashed.
