Chapter 3A Victims' advocate service

Part 1 Preliminary

137A Definitions

- In this chapter—
- authorisation*, for part 3, see section 137H(1).
- eligible person*, for a victim, means—
- (a) a nominee for the victim; or
 - (b) a recognised person for the victim; or
 - (c) any other entity prescribed by regulation to be an eligible person.
- function* includes power.
- government entity* means—

[s 6]

- (a) a public sector entity under the Public Sector Act 2022; or 1
2
- (b) the police service.
3
- guardian, of a child, means a person who is recognised in law as having the duties, powers, responsibilities and authority that, by law, parents have in relation to their children.
6
7
- head, of a government entity, means—8
- (a) for the office of the director of public prosecutions—the director of public prosecutions; or 9
10
11
- (b) otherwise—the chief executive of the government entity.
12
13
- nominee, for a victim, means an entity nominated under section 137F(1) if the nomination has not been withdrawn under section 137G.
14
15
16
- recognised person, for a victim, means—17
- (a) for a victim who is a child—a parent or guardian of the child; or 18
19
- (b) for a victim who is an adult with impaired capacity—20
21
- (i) an attorney appointed under an enduring power of attorney for the adult under the Powers of Attorney Act 1998; or 22
23
24
25
- (ii) a guardian appointed for the adult under the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000.
26
27
28
- victim means any of the following—29
- (a) a victim under section 5; 30
- (b) a person against whom an offence is committed, or alleged to have been committed, and the person's property is 31
32
33

- taken, destroyed or damaged because of the offence or alleged offence; 1
- (c) an eligible person under— 2
- (i) the Corrective Services Act 2006; or 3
- (ii) the Youth Justice Act 1992; 4
- (d) a person who may make an application for an information notice relating to a relevant patient under the Mental Health Act 2016, section 318(1). 5

137B Application of chapter 10

- This chapter applies— 11
- (a) in relation to a victim, irrespective of when the victim suffered harm or when the offence, or alleged offence, is committed against the victim; and 12
- (b) in relation to any record of information held by a government entity, irrespective of when the record is created. 13

137C Disclosure of information under chapter 19

To remove any doubt, it is declared that nothing in this chapter requires the head of a government entity to disclose information. 20

Example of when information may not be disclosed— 21

A person may decide to withhold information that may be disclosed under this chapter because the information is subject to legal professional privilege. 22

Part 2 Administration 27

137D Functions 28

- (1) The chief executive has the following functions— 29

[s 6]

- | | | |
|------|--|----|
| (a) | to support victims and eligible persons for | 1 |
| | victims to access information, including | 2 |
| | by— | 3 |
| (i) | requesting and receiving information | 4 |
| | for the victim or eligible person under | 5 |
| | this chapter; and | 6 |
| (ii) | giving the victim or eligible person | 7 |
| | information received under this | 8 |
| | chapter; | 9 |
| (b) | to support victims and eligible persons to | 10 |
| | access services for victims provided by | 11 |
| | government entities and non-government | 12 |
| | victim service providers; | 13 |
| (c) | to refer any person to services for victims | 14 |
| | provided by government entities and | 15 |
| | non-government victim service providers; | 16 |
| (d) | to provide general information to any person | 17 |
| | about— | 18 |
| (i) | services for victims provided by | 19 |
| | government entities and | 20 |
| | non-government victim service | 21 |
| | providers; and | 22 |
| (ii) | the administration of the criminal | 23 |
| | justice system. | 24 |
| (2) | However, it is not a function of the chief | 25 |
| | executive to access information or support a | 26 |
| | victim by making, signing or submitting an | 27 |
| | application for a victim or eligible person for a | 28 |
| | victim. | 29 |
| | Examples— | 30 |
| | • an application for victim assistance under chapter 3 | 31 |
| | • an application for registration of the victim on a | 32 |
| | register to receive regular information about an | 33 |
| | offender | 34 |

137E Delegations

- (1) The chief executive may delegate a function under section 137D to any appropriately qualified person or appropriately qualified entity.
- (2) If the chief executive delegates a function under subsection (1), the entity may, with the written approval of the chief executive, subdelegate a function delegated to the entity to another appropriately qualified person or appropriately qualified entity.

137F Nomination of entity as nominee

- (1) A victim, or a recognised person for the victim, may nominate an entity to act for the victim in relation to a function of the chief executive under section 137D(a) or (b).
- (2) The chief executive—
 - (a) must record the following information in relation to the nomination—
 - (i) the name of the victim to whom the nomination relates;
 - (ii) the name of the nominee;
 - (iii) if the nomination is made by a recognised person—the name of the recognised person and the relationship of the recognised person to the victim;
 - (iv) the day on which the nomination is made; and
 - (b) may record any other details the chief executive considers necessary in relation to the nomination or nominee.
- (3) The nomination may be made to the chief executive orally or in writing.
- (4) However, if the chief executive considers it necessary, the nomination must be made to the chief executive in writing.	1

(5) If the nominee is nominated by a recognised person for the victim, the recognised person must give the chief executive documentary evidence satisfying the chief executive of the relationship of the recognised person to the victim.	2 3 4 5 6
137G Withdrawal of nominee	7
(1) This section applies if—	8
(a) a victim or recognised person for the victim withdraws the nomination for the nominee; or	9 10 11
(b) the nominee no longer wishes to act as nominee for the victim.	12 13
(2) The victim, recognised person or nominee must give the chief executive notice, either orally or in writing—	14 15 16
(a) that the person is no longer the nominee for the victim; and	17 18
(b) of the day on which the nomination ends.	19
(3) The chief executive must keep a written record of the information given under subsection (2).	20 21
(4) If the nomination is withdrawn by a recognised person for the victim, the recognised person must give the chief executive documentary evidence satisfying the chief executive of the relationship of the recognised person to the victim.	22 23 24 25 26

Part 3	Information sharing	27
---------------	----------------------------	----

Division 1	Preliminary	28
-------------------	--------------------	----

137H Meaning of authorisation

- (1) For this part, a victim or eligible person for the victim may give the chief executive authority (an authorisation) to act for the victim in relation to the victims' advocate service.
- (2) The authorisation may be given to the chief executive orally or in writing.
- (3) The authorisation may be general or limited and, unless otherwise stated in the authorisation, applies to any request under section 137M.
- (4) An authorisation has effect unless it is withdrawn or ends under division 2.

137I Chief executive to have regard to victim's views or wishes

In deciding whether to act under an authorisation, the chief executive must have regard to the views or wishes of the victim.

Division 2 Authorisation by victim or eligible person

137J Verification of identity of victim or eligible person

- (1) This section applies if a victim or eligible person for a victim gives the chief executive an authorisation.
- (2) The chief executive must take reasonable steps to verify the identity of the victim or eligible person for the victim.
- (3) Also, if the authorisation is given by an eligible person for the victim who is a recognised person, the recognised person must give the chief executive documentary evidence satisfying the

[s 6]

chief executive of the relationship of the recognised person to the victim. 1 2

137K Withdrawal of authorisation 3

- (1) A victim or an eligible person for the victim may 4 withdraw an authorisation by notice, given to the 5
chief executive either orally or in writing— 6
 - (a) that the authorisation is withdrawn; and 7
 - (b) of the day on which the authorisation is 8 withdrawn. 9
- (2) The chief executive— 10
 - (a) must keep a written record of the 11
information given under subsection (1); and 12
 - (b) if a request given to the head of a 13 government entity under section 137M has 14 not been dealt with—must notify the head of 15
the government entity that the authorisation 16 is withdrawn. 17
- (3) If an authorisation is withdrawn by an eligible 18 person for the victim who is a recognised person, 19
the recognised person must give the chief 20 executive documentary evidence satisfying the 21
chief executive of the relationship of the 22
recognised person to the victim. 23

137L End of authorisation given by recognised person 24 25

- (1) An authorisation given by a recognised person for 26
a victim who is a child ends when the child is 18 27 years or more. 28
- (2) Also, an authorisation given by a recognised 29 person for a victim ends if the person stops being 30 a recognised person for the victim. 31
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if— 32

- (a) an authorisation ends; and 1
- (b) the chief executive is or becomes aware that 2 a request given to the head of a government 3 entity under section 137M has not been 4 dealt with. 5
- (4) The chief executive must notify the head of the 6 government entity that the authorisation has 7 ended. 8

Division 3 Requests for information 9

137M Chief executive may request information 10

- (1) This section applies if an authorisation is in effect 11 in relation to a victim. 12
- (2) The chief executive may request information for 13
the victim from the head of a government entity 14
if— 15
 - (a) the information is held by the government 16 entity in the performance of the entity's 17 functions under any Act or law; and 18
 - (b) the victim is entitled to be given the 19
information under an Act or law 20 administered by the government entity. 21
- (3) The request must be in accordance with the 22
authorisation. 23

Note— 24

See also section 137I. 25
- (4) In making the request, the chief executive must— 26
 - (a) identify the victim for whom the request is 27 made; and 28
 - (b) if the authorisation was given by an eligible 29 person for the victim—identify the eligible 30 person and the eligible person's relationship 31

[s 6]

- to the victim to give the authorisation for the victim.
 - (5) If the head of the government entity needs further information to deal with the request, the chief executive may give the head of the entity the information it needs to comply with the request in accordance with the authorisation.
 - (6) Despite subsection (2), the chief executive must not—
 - (a) pay any fee or other amount payable for a request, including an application fee or administrative fee in relation to a request for information; or
 - (b) make a request for information under—
 - (i) the Information Privacy Act 2009; or
 - (ii) the Right to Information Act 2009.
- 137N Government entity response to request
- (1) This section applies if a request for information is made to the head of a government entity under section 137M.
 - (2) If the head of the government entity is satisfied the information may be given to the victim under an Act or law, the head of the entity may give the information—
 - (a) to the chief executive; or
 - (b) directly to the victim or eligible person for the victim.
 - (3) If the head of the government entity gives the information directly to the victim or eligible person for the victim, the head of the entity must notify the chief executive that the information has been given to the victim or eligible person.
 - (4) Despite any other Act or law that would otherwise

- prohibit or restrict the giving of the information to the chief executive or the eligible person for the victim, subsection (2) applies to permit the disclosure of the information to the chief executive or eligible person.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that nothing in this section affects the operation of an Act or law, except as provided under subsection (4), in relation to—
- (a) dealing with a request for information; or
 - (b) deciding a request for information; or
 - (c) a limitation on the purposes for which the information may be used or disclosed.

137O Chief executive must give information to victim or eligible person

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is given information under section 137N, unless the chief executive is otherwise aware that the information has been given to the victim or eligible person for the victim.
- Note—*
- See also section 137N(3).
- (2) The chief executive must take reasonable steps to give the information to the victim or eligible person for the victim.
- (3) If information is given to the chief executive subject to a limitation on the purposes for which the information may be used or disclosed, the chief executive must inform the victim or eligible person for the victim of the limitation.
- Note—*
- See section 140 for restrictions on disclosing or giving access to information or documents obtained under this Act.
