- (2) The suspension of the person's Queensland driver licence, or authority to drive or learn to drive on a Queensland road under a non-Queensland driver licence, continues for a period that is equivalent to the length of the suspension period less any part of the suspension period served before the suspension was stayed under section 289AE.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a court convicts the person of the offence and disqualifies the person from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence.
- (4) In deciding the period of disqualification for the person whose licence is suspended under section 79BA of the Act, the court may take into account the period of suspension that has already been served under that section.

Chapter 10A Severe hardship permits

Part 1

Preliminary

328A Purpose of chapter

This chapter provides for section 150(1B) of the Act for—

- (a) the granting of a severe hardship permit for a person whose open licence or provisional licence has been suspended under a relevant provision; and
- (b) other matters relating to a severe hardship permit.

328B Definitions for chapter

In this chapter—

relevant provision means section 79BA(2) or (3) of the Act or section 285(5).

suspended open licence or provisional licence, of a person, means the person's open licence or provisional licence that has been suspended under a relevant provision.

Part 2 Chief executive may grant severe hardship permits

328C Chief executive may grant severe hardship permits authorising particular persons to continue to drive

- (1) This section applies in relation to a person who—
 - (a) has a suspended open licence or provisional licence; and
 - (b) is eligible to apply under part 3, and applies under part 4, for a severe hardship permit.
- (2) The chief executive may grant a severe hardship permit authorising the person to continue to drive motor vehicles under a Queensland driver licence in stated circumstances.

- (3) Despite the granting of a severe hardship permit to the person, the person is not authorised to drive a motor vehicle under a Queensland driver licence until the person obtains a replacement licence under section 328M.

Part 3 Eligibility to apply for severe hardship permits

328D Persons not eligible to apply for severe hardship permits—additional or existing charges

A person who has a suspended open licence or provisional licence is not eligible to apply for a severe hardship permit if, at the time the person committed the offence that resulted in the licence being suspended under a relevant provision—

- (a) the person is alleged to have committed an offence against section 79 or 80 of the Act or the Criminal Code, section 334I (each an additional offence) that resulted in the person being charged with the additional offence; or
- (b) the person has been previously charged with an offence against section 79 or 80 of the Act and that charge had not been dealt with by a court, withdrawn or otherwise discontinued.

328E Persons not eligible to apply for severe hardship permits—particular circumstances

A person who has a suspended open licence or provisional licence is not eligible to apply for a severe hardship permit if the act or omission that resulted in the charge or infringement notice for the suspended open licence or provisional licence happened, or is alleged to have happened, in any of the following circumstances—

- (a) while the person was engaged in an activity directly connected with the person's means of earning a living;
- (b) while the person was driving a motor vehicle the person was not authorised, under an open licence or a provisional licence, to drive;
- (c) while the person was driving a motor vehicle to which section 79(2B) of the Act applies;
- (d) while the person was driving a motor vehicle at a speed of more than 60km/h over the speed limit applying to the person under the Queensland Road Rules, section 20;
- (e) for a person who has been given a notice to choose and who, within the choice period, notifies the chief executive in writing that the person agrees to be of good behaviour while driving for a year under section 264(1)(b)—during the person's good behaviour year;
- (f) after the person had been given a notice to choose, but before the end of the choice period.

328F Persons not eligible to apply for severe hardship permits—suspension etc. within 5-year period

- (1) A person who has a suspended open licence or provisional licence is not eligible to apply for a severe hardship permit if, within 5 years before the licence was suspended—
 - (a) a Queensland driver licence held by the person was suspended or cancelled, or the person was disqualified from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence; or
 - (b) the person’s authority to drive, or learn to drive, on a Queensland road under a non-Queensland driver licence previously held by the person was suspended; or
 - (c) the person was not eligible to hold a Queensland driver licence under section 280, 281, 282, 283 or 287; or
 - (d) the person was convicted of—
 - (i) an offence against section 79 or 80(11) of the Act; or
 - (ii) an offence committed outside Queensland that, if committed in Queensland, would be an offence against section 79 or 80(11) of the Act; or
 - (e) the person has on at least 2 occasions been given a notice to choose and has, within the choice period, notified the chief executive in writing that the person agrees to be of good behaviour while driving for a year under section 264(1)(b).
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the reference to a suspension, cancellation or disqualification does not include the following—

- (a) a suspension under section 79(9) of the Act;
- (b) a suspension under section 79B(2) of the Act;
- (c) a 24-hour suspension under section 80(22AA) of the Act;
- (d) a suspension or cancellation that has been set aside under section 388(1);
- (e) a suspension, cancellation or disqualification that has been set aside by QCAT or a court;
- (f) a suspension, cancellation or disqualification because of the person's mental or physical incapacity;
- (g) a suspension under the State Penalties Enforcement Act 1999, section 105;
- (h) a suspension under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994, section 91ZJ;
- (i) a suspension that related to an infringement notice that has been withdrawn or cancelled.

Part 4 Making and deciding applications for severe hardship permits

328G Applying for severe hardship permits

- (1) A person who has a suspended open licence or provisional licence and who is eligible under part 3 may apply to the chief executive for the grant of a severe hardship permit.

Note—

See chapter 14, part 1 for requirements about the application.

- (2) The application must be accompanied by—
- (a) the fee prescribed by regulation; and
 - (b) the information the applicant intends to rely on for the application.

Note—

See also section 328H(3) and (4) for particular evidence the applicant must give to the chief executive.

- (3) If the person applies for the grant of a severe hardship permit, the suspension of the person's open licence or provisional licence is suspended until—
- (a) if the chief executive grants the severe hardship permit and the person applies for a replacement licence under section 328M that is granted—the day the replacement licence is issued; or
 - (b) if the chief executive grants the severe hardship permit and the person applies for a replacement licence under section 328M but the application is refused—the day the application is refused; or
 - (c) if the chief executive grants the severe hardship permit and the person does not apply for a replacement licence under section 328M—the end of 14 days after the severe hardship permit is granted; or
 - (d) if the chief executive refuses to grant the severe hardship permit—the day the application is refused.
- (4) For subsection (3)(b), (c) or (d), the suspension of the person's open licence or provisional licence continues for a period that is equivalent to the length of the suspension period less any part of the suspension period served before the suspension was suspended under subsection (3).

328H Deciding applications

- (1) The chief executive must consider an application for the grant of a severe hardship permit and, within 28 days after the application is made or a longer period agreed between the chief executive and the applicant, decide to—
 - (a) grant a severe hardship permit; or
 - (b) refuse to grant a severe hardship permit.
- (2) The chief executive may grant a severe hardship permit only if satisfied—
 - (a) a refusal to grant the severe hardship permit would cause severe hardship to the applicant or the applicant's family—
 - (i) by depriving the applicant of the applicant's means of earning a living; or
 - (ii) in another way; and
 - (b) when the severe hardship permit is granted, the applicant holds an open licence or a provisional licence that would be valid other than for the suspension, under a relevant provision, to which the permit relates.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a)(i), the applicant must give the chief executive—
 - (a) a statutory declaration made by the applicant outlining how a refusal to grant the severe hardship permit would cause severe hardship to the applicant, or the applicant's family, by depriving the applicant of the applicant's means of earning a living; and
 - (b) if the applicant is not self-employed—a statutory declaration made by the applicant's employer confirming the applicant would be deprived of the applicant's means of earning a living if the application were refused.

- (4) For subsection (2)(a)(ii), the applicant must give the chief executive—
 - (a) a statutory declaration made by the applicant outlining how a refusal to grant the severe hardship permit would cause severe hardship to the applicant or the applicant's family; and
 - (b) a statutory declaration made by a person other than the applicant or other documentary evidence, or certified copies of evidence, in support of each matter stated in the applicant's statutory declaration.

328I Matters severe hardship permits must and may state

- (1) If the chief executive decides to grant a severe hardship permit to a person, the permit must state the following—
 - (a) the severe hardship permit has effect—
 - (i) while the person holds a valid open licence or provisional licence; and
 - (ii) until the end of the permit period;
 - (b) while the severe hardship permit is in effect for the person, a Queensland driver licence held by the person is subject to the restrictions stated in the permit;
 - (c) despite the severe hardship permit, the person is not authorised to drive a motor vehicle under a Queensland driver licence until the person obtains a replacement licence under section 328M.
- (2) For subsection (1), the permit period is the period, starting on the day a replacement licence is obtained under section 328M, that is equivalent to the length of the period the person's suspended open licence or provisional licence would have been suspended under the relevant provision if the severe hardship permit had not been granted less any part of that period of suspension served before the severe hardship permit was granted.

- (3) The severe hardship permit must state the following restrictions—
 - (a) the purpose for which a motor vehicle may be driven under the person's Queensland driver licence;
 - (b) the class of motor vehicle that may be driven under the person's Queensland driver licence;
 - (c) the times at which, or period of time during which, a motor vehicle may be driven under the person's Queensland driver licence;
 - (d) that a motor vehicle may be driven under the person's Queensland driver licence only if the person is carrying a copy of the severe hardship permit.
- (4) The severe hardship permit may also state the following restrictions—
 - (a) where a motor vehicle may be driven under the person's Queensland driver licence, including, for example, the starting and ending places for journeys under the licence;
 - (b) whether passengers may be carried in a motor vehicle being driven under the person's Queensland driver licence, and if they can be carried, the names or other identifying details of the passengers who may be carried;

- (c) any other restriction the chief executive considers appropriate.

Examples of other restrictions for paragraph (c)—

- the person must wear the person's work uniform when driving under the person's Queensland driver licence
- the person must carry a logbook containing the details of all driving under the person's Queensland driver licence that is work-related travel, including, for example, start and end times, destinations and odometer readings

328J Decisions to grant or refuse to grant severe hardship permits

- (1) If the chief executive decides to grant to a person a severe hardship permit subject to the restrictions stated in the application, the chief executive must give the person written notice of the decision.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if the chief executive decides to—
 - (a) refuse to grant a severe hardship permit to a person; or
 - (b) grant a severe hardship permit to a person with different restrictions from the restrictions stated in the application.
- (3) The chief executive must give the person an information notice for the decision.

328K Duration of severe hardship permits

A severe hardship permit for a person has effect—

- (a) while the person holds a valid open licence or provisional licence; and
- (b) until the end of the permit period.

328L Effect of chief executive's decision

- (1) If the chief executive grants a severe hardship permit to a person—
 - (a) the suspension of the person's suspended open licence or provisional licence under a relevant provision ends when a replacement licence is issued to the person under section 328M; and
 - (b) while the severe hardship permit is in effect for the person, the person is authorised to continue to drive motor vehicles under a Queensland driver licence in the circumstances, and subject to the restrictions, stated in the permit.

Note—

See section 328C(3).

- (2) If the chief executive refuses to grant a severe hardship permit to a person, the suspension of the person's suspended open licence or provisional licence under a relevant provision continues until the suspension ends under that section.

Part 5 Obtaining replacement Queensland driver licence

328M Replacement Queensland driver licence if severe hardship permit granted

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive grants a severe hardship permit to a person.
- (2) The person must, within 14 days after the day the severe hardship permit is granted, apply for a replacement Queensland driver licence that—

- (a) is of the same class, category and type as the person's suspended open licence or provisional licence to which the severe hardship permit relates; and
- (b) includes a code indicating that the person who holds the licence is authorised to drive motor vehicles only under a severe hardship permit.

Note—

See chapter 14, part 1 for requirements about the application.

- (3) In deciding the application, the chief executive must—
 - (a) have regard to the severe hardship permit; and
 - (b) deal with the application as if it were an application under section 195.
- (4) Despite subsection (3)(b), the chief executive may refuse the application only if, under an Act—
 - (a) the person's open licence or provisional licence to which the severe hardship permit relates is suspended or cancelled, or the person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence, for a reason other than the reason that resulted in the suspension to which the severe hardship permit relates; or
 - (b) the person's open licence or provisional licence to which the severe hardship permit relates would have been suspended or cancelled, or the person would have been disqualified from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence, other than for the person's open licence or provisional licence being already suspended under a relevant provision.

Part 6 Variation of severe hardship permits

328N When persons may apply for permits to vary restrictions

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive grants a severe hardship permit authorising a person to continue to drive motor vehicles under a Queensland driver licence in stated circumstances; and
 - (b) the circumstances change.

Example—

A person is authorised under a severe hardship permit to continue to drive motor vehicles under a Queensland driver licence to and from a stated place of work, and the person's place of work changes.

- (2) The person may apply to the chief executive for a permit (a severe hardship variation permit) varying the restrictions that, under the severe hardship permit, apply to a Queensland driver licence held by the person.

328O Applying for severe hardship variation permits

- (1) An application for a severe hardship variation permit must be—
 - (a) made in the approved form; and
 - (b) accompanied by—
 - (i) a statutory declaration made by the applicant outlining why the variation mentioned in the application is necessary; and

- (ii) the information the applicant intends to rely on for the application.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1)(b)(ii), if the reason for the application is the applicant has changed employer, the applicant must give the chief executive a statutory declaration made by the applicant's new employer confirming the applicant—
 - (a) is currently employed by the new employer; and
 - (b) would be deprived of the applicant's means of earning a living if the application were refused.

328P Deciding applications

The chief executive may make a severe hardship variation permit only if the chief executive—

- (a) has had regard to the restrictions that, under the severe hardship permit, apply to a Queensland driver licence held by the applicant; and
- (b) considers the severe hardship permit should be varied because of a material change in circumstances; and
- (c) is satisfied that, if the restrictions were varied, the severe hardship permit as varied would continue to comply with section 328I(3) and (4).

328Q Matters severe hardship variation permits must state

If the chief executive decides to make a severe hardship variation permit for an applicant, the permit must state the restrictions as varied that apply to a Queensland driver licence held by the applicant for the remainder of the period the severe hardship permit is in effect for the applicant.

Part 7 Driving under severe hardship permits

328R Failure to comply with severe hardship permits

- (1) A person who is authorised to continue to drive motor vehicles under a severe hardship permit must comply with the permit, including the restrictions stated in the permit that apply to a Queensland driver licence held by the person.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) For subsection (1), the person must comply with the restrictions stated in the severe hardship permit, as varied by any severe hardship variation permit.
- (3) If a person is convicted by a court of an offence against subsection (1), the court must disqualify the person from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence for the following period—
 - (a) if the person is convicted during the permit period for the severe hardship permit—the period starting on the day of the conviction and ending on the day that is 3 months after the day the permit period ends;
 - (b) if the person is convicted after the permit period for the severe hardship permit has ended—a period of 3 months starting on the day of the conviction.

Part 3 Reviewing decisions relating to severe hardship permits

389A Application of part

This part applies to a person if—

- (a) the person has applied to the chief executive for a reconsideration of an original decision to refuse to grant a severe hardship permit or to grant a severe hardship permit with different restrictions from the restrictions stated in the person's application for a severe hardship permit; and
- (b) the person is dissatisfied with the reconsidered decision.

389B Definition for part

In this part—

relevant court, for a person, means—

- (a) if the person resides in a division of the Brisbane Magistrates Courts District—a Magistrates Court in the division; or
- (b) otherwise—a Magistrates Court in the Magistrates Courts district in which the person resides.

389C Starting review

- (1) The person may apply to a relevant court for a review of the reconsidered decision.
- (2) The review of the reconsidered decision is started by—

- (a) filing an application for review and any affidavit made under subsection (6) with the clerk of the relevant court; and
 - (b) serving a copy of the application and any affidavit made under subsection (6) on the chief executive—
 - (i) if the day of the hearing is more than 14 days after the application is filed—at least 14 days before the day of the hearing; or
 - (ii) if the day of the hearing is 14 days or less after the application is filed—as soon as possible before the day of the hearing; and
 - (c) complying with rules of court applicable to the review.
- (3) The application for review must be filed within 28 days after the person receives notice of the reconsidered decision.
 - (4) However, the relevant court may, at any time, extend the time for filing the application for review.
 - (5) The application for review must state fully the grounds for the review and the facts relied on.
 - (6) Without limiting section 389D(3), the applicant may file an affidavit with the court in support of the application outlining any changes in the applicant's circumstances, or in the circumstances affecting the applicant, since the applicant gave the chief executive a statutory declaration under section 328H(3) or (4) or 328O.
 - (7) The chief executive must, before the day of the hearing, file copies of the following documents—
 - (a) the applicant's application for a severe hardship permit;

- (b) any statutory declaration given by the applicant to the chief executive under section 328H(3) or (4) or 328O and any other document given by the applicant to the chief executive in relation to the application;
- (c) the applicant's traffic history, to the extent the traffic history is available to the chief executive;
- (d) the information notice for a decision to grant or refuse to grant a severe hardship permit given to the applicant under section 328J(3);
- (e) the applicant's application under section 387 for the reconsideration of the original decision mentioned in paragraph (d) and any documents given to the chief executive in relation to the application;
- (f) the written notice for the reconsidered decision given to the applicant under section 388(1)(c);
- (g) any other document the chief executive considered was relevant at the time of making the reconsidered decision.

389CA Making of application for review does not stay suspension or reconsidered decision

The filing of an application for review under this part does not stay—

- (a) the suspension of the applicant's open licence or provisional licence under the original decision; or
- (b) the operation of the reconsidered decision.

389D Hearing procedures

- (1) In deciding the review, the relevant court—

- (a) has the same powers as the chief executive in making the reconsidered decision; and
 - (b) is not bound by the rules of evidence, but may inform itself in any way it considers appropriate; and
 - (c) must comply with natural justice.
- (1A) If the application relates only to restrictions stated in a severe hardship permit, the court is not required, unless it is necessary for deciding the application, to reconsider whether the severe hardship permit the subject of the application should have been granted.
- (2) The application for review is heard by way of a fresh hearing, unaffected by the reconsidered decision.
- (3) Fresh evidence or evidence in addition to, or in substitution for, the evidence before the chief executive may be given in the hearing of the application for review.
- (4) If required by the court hearing the application for review, the applicant must attend as a witness to give evidence in relation to a matter relevant to the application.
- (4A) Also, other persons may be called as witnesses to give evidence in relation to a matter relevant to the application.
- (4B) The applicant or another witness may be cross-examined in relation to the evidence.
- (4C) The chief executive is a party to the application for review.
- (4D) The court may, if it considers it necessary, require the chief executive to—
- (a) give further evidence by affidavit, orally or in another form; or

- (b) make a further submission in relation to the application orally or in another form.
- (4E) However, unless the court requires the chief executive to give evidence, or make a submission, orally under subsection (4D), the chief executive is not required to appear at the hearing of the application.
- (4F) The court may, if appropriate, conduct all or a part of the hearing entirely on the basis of documents, without the parties, their representatives or witnesses appearing at the hearing.
- (5) The relevant court may—
 - (a) confirm the reconsidered decision; or
 - (b) set aside the reconsidered decision and substitute another decision.
- (6) However, the relevant court may grant a severe hardship permit only if satisfied—
 - (a) a refusal to grant the severe hardship permit would cause severe hardship to the person or the person’s family—
 - (i) by depriving the person of the person’s means of earning a living; or
 - (ii) in another way; and
 - (b) when the severe hardship permit is granted, the person holds an open licence or a provisional licence that would be valid other than for the suspension, under section 79BA(2) or (3) of the Act or section 285(5), to which the permit relates.

389E Effect of decision of relevant court on application for review

If the relevant court substitutes another decision, the chief executive may give effect to the decision
