Division 2A Pension entitlements of former Governors

10A Judges pension scheme applies to former Governor

The Judges Pensions Act, other than sections 15 and 15A, applies to a former Governor, with the changes set out in this division and any other necessary changes, as if—

- (a) a reference to a judge in that Act included a reference to the former Governor; and
- (b) a reference to the Minister in that Act were a reference to the Minister who administers this Act.

10B Period for which former Governor holds the office

- (1) This section applies in relation to the application of the Judges Pensions Act to a former Governor under this division, other than section 10C(1)(a) or 10D(1)(a).
- (2) Any period, before the person's appointment as Governor, that would be counted as service as a judge for the Judges Pensions Act, is to be counted as a period for which the person held the office.

10C Pension if former Governor holds office for 5 years or more

- (1) The Judges Pensions Act, sections 3 and 4 applies to a former Governor—

- (a) if the former Governor held the office for 5 years or more; and
 - (b) regardless of the age of the former Governor when the former Governor ceased to hold the office.
- (2) However, the annual pension to which the former Governor is entitled is an annual pension—
- (a) at a rate equal to 6% of the prescribed salary for each year for which the former Governor held the office; but
 - (b) up to a maximum of 60% of the prescribed salary.

10D Pension if former Governor holds office for less than 5 years

- (1) The Judges Pensions Act, section 5(2) applies to a former Governor if—
- (a) the former Governor held the office for less than 5 years; and
 - (b) the Minister is satisfied the former Governor ceased to hold the office because, at the time of ceasing to hold the office, the former Governor was incapable of performing the duties of the office.
- (2) If the Minister decides that the former Governor ceased to hold the office for a reason other than the former Governor was incapable of performing the duties of the office, the Minister must give the former Governor written reasons for the decision.

10E Pension of spouse and children on death of former Governor

- (1) The Judges Pensions Act, sections 7 to 8A applies to a former Governor if the former Governor is entitled to an annual pension under the Judges Pensions Act, as applying under this division, but with the changes set out in this section.

- (2) If a Governor dies while holding the office, the Judges Pensions Act, sections 7 and 8A applies to a spouse or child of the Governor—
 - (a) in the way the sections apply to a spouse or child of a judge who dies before retirement; and
 - (b) as if a reference to retirement were a reference to 5 years after the Governor started to hold the office; and
 - (c) as if a reference to retiring were a reference to the Governor ceasing to hold office.
- (3) If a former Governor dies after ceasing to hold the office, the Judges Pensions Act, sections 8 and 8A applies to a spouse or child of the former Governor—
 - (a) in the way the sections apply to a spouse or child of a retired judge; and
 - (b) as if a reference to a retired judge were a reference to a former Governor; and
 - (c) as if a reference to retirement were a reference to when the former Governor had ceased to hold the office.

10F Provision about agreements and court orders under Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth)

The Judges Pensions Act, part 2, division 2 applies to a former Governor as follows—

- (a) the reference to a retired judge in section 9 of that Act, definition entitled former spouse is taken to be a reference to a former Governor;

- (b) information allowed to be given under section 10 of that Act includes information about a benefit for a person who holds the office;
- (c) sections 11 and 12 of that Act apply whether the person is the Governor or a former Governor, at the operative time mentioned in the section;
- (d) section 13 of that Act applies in relation to a person who is the Governor at the operative time mentioned in the section and dies while holding the office.

- (2) The person is not liable civilly, criminally or under an administrative process for disclosing the information.
- (3) If subsection (2) prevents civil liability attaching to a person, the liability attaches instead to the State.
- (4) This section does not apply to the extent the person is protected from civil liability under—
 - (a) section 10.5; or
 - (b) the Public Sector Act 2022, section 269.

10.2CE Further disclosure of alleged offender information prohibited

- (1) This section applies in relation to a person who gains, or has access to, alleged offender information disclosed to an accredited media entity under section 10.2CC for an offence.
- (2) The person must not—
 - (a) intentionally disclose the name of the alleged offender to anyone, other than under this section; or
 - (b) recklessly disclose the name of the alleged offender to anyone.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (3) However, the person may disclose the name of the alleged offender to another person (the recipient) if—
 - (a) the recipient is an employee, contractor or agent of the accredited media entity; and
 - (b) the disclosure is necessary to enable the recipient, or another employee, contractor or agent of the accredited media entity, to attend a court proceeding relating to the offence.
- (4) Also, the person may disclose the name of the alleged offender—
 - (a) if the name of the alleged offender is publicly accessible in connection with the offence; or
 - (b) in compliance with a lawful process requiring production of documents to, or giving evidence before, a court or tribunal; or
 - (c) to the extent the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted under an Act or law.

for Justice and Other Legislation Amendment
Act 2026

72 Definitions for division

In this division—

amended section 20 means section 20 as amended by the Justice and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2026.

itemised licence means a licence mentioned in the repealed regulation, schedule, for which an application for renewal could have been made.

relevant fee, for an application for renewal of a relevant licence, means the fee set, under section 54(2)(c), for the renewal of the licence.

relevant licence means—

- (a) an itemised licence; or
- (b) an unrestricted licence.

relevant period, for an application for renewal of a relevant licence, means—

- (a) if the relevant licence is an itemised licence—the period starting on 3 December 2003 and ending on 30 June 2008, both days inclusive; or
- (b) if the relevant licence is an unrestricted licence—the period starting on 1 July 2008 and ending immediately before the commencement of the Justice and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2026.

repealed regulation means the repealed Security Providers Regulation 1995 as in force from time to time during the relevant period for an application for renewal of an itemised licence.

73 Relevant licence renewal applications made during relevant period for applications

- (1) This section applies to an application for renewal of a relevant licence made, or purportedly made, during the relevant period for the application.
- (2) The payment of the relevant fee for the application is taken to have been, and to have always been, a requirement for the renewal of the licence.
- (3) Anything done during or after the relevant period in relation to the relevant fee for the application is taken to have been, and to have always been, as valid as it would have been if the payment of the relevant fee for the application were a requirement for the renewal of the licence.

Examples of a thing that may be done in relation to a relevant fee for an application—

- demand for payment of the relevant fee
- payment of the relevant fee

74 Unrestricted licence renewal applications not decided before commencement

- (1) This section applies to an application for renewal of an unrestricted licence made but not decided before the commencement.
- (2) Amended section 20, other than amended section 20(2), applies to the application as if a reference in amended section 20(4)(c) to the fee under subsection (2) were a reference to the fee set under section 54(2)(c) for the renewal of the licence.

75 Particular proceedings not decided before commencement

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding in relation to an application for renewal of an unrestricted licence if the proceeding had not been decided before the commencement.
- (2) The payment of the relevant fee for the application is taken to have been, and to have always been, a requirement for the renewal of the licence.

After section 72—

insert—

72A Disclosure of alleged offender information to accredited media entities

- (1) A registrar may disclose alleged offender information to an accredited media entity.
- (1A) The registrar may disclose the alleged offender information to the accredited media entity in the way the registrar considers appropriate.

Example—

The registrar may give an accredited media entity a list containing alleged offender information about multiple alleged offenders.

- (2) The accredited media entity may use the alleged offender information only to the extent necessary to enable the entity to attend a court proceeding relating to the offence.
- (6) In this section—

accredited media entity means an entity listed as an accredited media entity in the court's media accreditation policy.

alleged offender means an adult who has been charged with an offence by a police officer.

alleged offender information means the following information about an alleged offender for an offence—

- (a) the name of the alleged offender;
- (b) the charges brought against the alleged offender for the offence;
- (c) details of court proceedings for the offence, including the proposed date, location and court file number;

- (d) any reference number assigned by the police service to the alleged offender in relation to the offence.

72B Protection from liability

- (1) This section applies if a person, acting honestly and without negligence, discloses alleged offender information to an accredited media entity under section 72A(1).
- (2) The person is not liable civilly, criminally or under an administrative process for disclosing the information.
- (3) If subsection (2) prevents civil liability attaching to a person, the liability attaches instead to the State.
- (4) This section does not apply to a person who is a prescribed person under the Public Sector Act 2022, section 268 to the extent the person is protected from civil liability under section 269 of that Act.

146 Amendment of sch 1 (Subject matter for rules)
