Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary in schedule 7 defines particular words used in this Act.

4 Act binds all persons

- (1) This Act binds all persons including the State and, as far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and all the other States.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not make the State, the Commonwealth or another State liable for an offence.

5 Object of Act

The object of this Act is to promote and protect the rights, interests and wellbeing of children and young people in Queensland through a scheme requiring—

- (a) the development and implementation of risk management strategies; and
- (b) the screening of persons employed in particular employment or carrying on particular businesses.

6 Principles for administering this Act

This Act is to be administered under the following principles—

- (a) the welfare and best interests of a child are paramount;
- (b) every child is entitled to be cared for in a way that protects the child from harm and promotes the child's wellbeing.

8 Chief executive's main functions

The chief executive's main functions under this Act are—

- (a) to administer the scheme under chapter 8 for screening—
 - (i) persons employed, or proposed to be employed, in certain child-related employment; and
 - (ii) persons carrying on, or proposing to carry on, certain child-related businesses; and
- (b) to audit or monitor compliance with that chapter.

Chapter 8 Screening for regulated employment and regulated businesses

Part 1 Preliminary

- (1) This chapter concerns—
 - (a) employment of a type mentioned in schedule 1, part 1 (regulated employment); and
 - (b) the carrying on of a business of a type mentioned in schedule 1, part 2 (a regulated business).
- (2) Schedule 1, part 3 provides for employment, or the carrying on of a business, to which this chapter does not apply.

157 This chapter applies despite the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986

This chapter applies to a person despite anything in the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986.

158 Declaration relating to exemption to category of regulated employment

- (1) This section applies if, under a section of schedule 1, part 1, the employment of a person is regulated employment.
- (2) The employment is regulated employment even if—
 - (a) another section of schedule 1, part 1 expressly provides that employment of the person is not regulated employment; or
 - (b) a section of schedule 1, part 2 expressly provides that a business carried on by the person is not a regulated business.

Example—

An Australian lawyer is employed at a school as a student counsellor and the lawyer is not an approved teacher or a volunteer who is a parent of a child attending the school. The employment of the Australian lawyer at the school is regulated employment under schedule 1, section 3 even though, under schedule 1, section 6(3)(a), the employment of the Australian lawyer is not regulated employment.

159 Declaration relating to exemption to category of regulated business

- (1) This section applies if, under a section of schedule 1, part 2, a business carried on by a person is a regulated business.

Division 9 Steps after exemption notice application decided

290 Application of div 9

This division applies if the chief executive decides an exemption notice application about a person.

291 Additional information to be given if negative exemption notice issued

If the chief executive issues a negative exemption notice to the person, the negative exemption notice must be accompanied by a written notice stating the following—

- (a) the reasons for the chief executive's decision to issue a negative exemption notice to the person;
- (b) the relevant review and appeal information;
- (c) that it is an offence for a person who holds a current negative exemption notice to—

 - (iii) apply for, or start or continue in, regulated employment; or
 - (iv) carry on a regulated business.

292 Notifiable person to be notified of decision

- (1) After the chief executive issues an exemption notice to the person, the chief executive must give each notifiable person for the person a written notice stating whether the person was issued a positive exemption notice or negative exemption notice.
- (2) If the person is issued with a negative exemption notice on the basis the person is or was a relevant disqualified person and a notice about the person is given to the chief executive (child safety) under subsection (1), the notice must also state the provision of this chapter under which the negative exemption notice was issued.

Note—

See sections 224 and 225 (as applied to exemption notice applications under section 285) for circumstances in which a negative exemption notice may be issued to a person on the basis the person is or was a relevant disqualified person.

293 Department to be given particular advice

- (1) This section applies if—

- (2) The chief executive may advise the other executive that the other executive may need to undertake a further assessment of the person under the Public Service Act 2008, chapter 5, part 6, division 3A to decide whether or not the other department should engage the person.

Note—

The Public Service Act 2008, chapter 5, part 6, division 3A does not apply in relation to the engagement of particular persons by a department. See section 164 of that Act.

- (3) However, the chief executive may give the advice mentioned in subsection (2) only if the chief executive is aware that the person has a criminal history.
- (4) If the chief executive gives advice under subsection (2), the advice must be accompanied by a written notice stating that no adverse inference about the person's criminal history or suitability for engagement, or continued engagement, by the other department may be drawn by the fact the advice was given.

Division 10 Cancellation or suspension of exemption notices etc.

294 Cancelling negative exemption notice etc. on holder's application

- (a) the chief executive has issued a negative exemption notice to a person and the notice is current; and
 - (b) the person is not a relevant disqualified person.
- (2) The person may apply to the chief executive to cancel the notice.
- (3) The application may not be made less than 2 years after the issue of the negative exemption notice or any previous application by the person under this section, unless—
 - (a) the decision to issue the negative exemption notice was based on wrong or incomplete information; or
 - (b) the negative exemption notice was issued on the basis the person was a relevant disqualified person and the person is no longer a relevant disqualified person.
- (4) The application must be—
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) signed by the person.
- (5) The person may state in the application anything the person considers relevant to the chief executive's decision including, in particular, any change in the person's circumstances since the negative exemption notice was issued.
- (6) Division 8 applies to the application as if—
 - (a) the application were an exemption notice application; and
 - (b) a reference in the division to issuing a positive exemption notice were a reference to granting the application; and
 - (c) a reference in the division to issuing a negative exemption notice were a reference to refusing the application.
- (7) If the chief executive grants the application, the chief executive must cancel the negative exemption notice to which the application relates.

- (8) If the chief executive refuses the application, the chief executive must give the person a written notice stating—
- (a) that the application has been refused and the person's negative exemption notice continues in effect subject to section 289; and

 - (c) the relevant review and appeal information.

295 Cancellling positive exemption notice and substituting it with negative exemption notice

- (1) The chief executive may cancel a person's positive exemption notice (the cancelled notice) and substitute a negative exemption notice if the chief executive is satisfied that—
- (a) the decision on the application for the cancelled notice was based on wrong or incomplete information and, based on the correct or complete information, the chief executive should issue a negative exemption notice to the person; or
 - (b) subject to section 298, it is appropriate to cancel the positive exemption notice having regard to—
 - (i) disciplinary information, or information received under part 6, division 2 to 4, about the person, other than information known to the chief executive at the time the positive exemption notice was issued; or
 - (ii) a decision of a court made after the positive exemption notice was issued, including the reasons for the decision, relating to an offence committed by the person.

Note—

Section 298 provides for the suspension of a person's positive exemption notice, in particular circumstances, before the chief executive decides whether to issue a further positive exemption notice or a negative exemption notice to the person.

[s 295]

- (2) In making a decision under subsection (1), the chief executive must make the decision as if it were a decision about an exemption notice application and, for that purpose, division 8 applies in relation to making the decision.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), if the chief executive must decide whether or not there is an exceptional case for the person and is proposing to substitute a negative exemption notice as mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) the chief executive must comply with section 229(2) to (5); and
 - (b) for that purpose, the reference in section 229(4) to deciding the application is taken to include a reference to deciding whether to substitute a negative exemption notice for a positive exemption notice under this section.

Note—

Section 229 is about inviting a person to make submissions about the existence of an exceptional case for the person.

- (4) If, under subsection (1), the chief executive cancels a person's positive exemption notice and issues a negative exemption notice to the person, the chief executive must—
 - (a) give the person a written notice stating—

- (6) If the chief executive's decision under subsection (2) is that the person should be issued a positive exemption notice—
- (a) the chief executive must not cancel the person's positive exemption notice under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the person's positive exemption notice continues in effect subject to section 289.

296 Cancelling negative exemption notice and issuing positive exemption notice

- (1) The chief executive may cancel a person's negative exemption notice (the cancelled notice) and, subject to subsection (3), substitute it with a positive exemption notice if—
- (a) the chief executive is satisfied that the decision on the application for the cancelled notice was based on wrong or incomplete information and, based on the correct or complete information, the chief executive should issue a positive exemption notice to the person; or
 - (b) the negative exemption notice was issued on the basis the person was a relevant disqualified person and the person is no longer a relevant disqualified person; or
 - (c) the chief executive is satisfied that it is appropriate to cancel the negative exemption notice having regard to information not known to the chief executive at the time the negative exemption notice was issued.
- (2) In making a decision under subsection (1), the chief executive must make the decision as if it were a decision about an exemption notice application and, for that purpose, division 8 applies in relation to making the decision.
- (3) If the chief executive's decision under subsection (2) is that the person should be issued a positive exemption notice, the chief executive may issue a positive exemption notice to the person only if the chief executive is satisfied the person is proposing, if the positive exemption notice is issued—

- (b) to carry on a regulated business.

Note—

See, however, sections 257(1)(c) and 259.

 - (b) a positive exemption notice is never issued to the person under subsection (3).
- (5) If the chief executive's decision under subsection (2) is that the person should be issued a negative exemption notice—

 - (b) the person's negative exemption notice continues in effect subject to section 289.
- (6) The chief executive may—
 - (a) act under subsection (1) on the chief executive's own initiative; or

297 Cancelling positive exemption notice if relevant disqualified person

- (1) This section applies if a person who is the holder of a positive exemption notice, including a positive exemption notice that is suspended under section 298, becomes a relevant disqualified person other than only because the person is subject to either or both of the following—
 - (a) a temporary offender prohibition order;

- (1) This section applies if a person who is the holder of a positive exemption notice (the suspended person)—

Note—

If the holder of a positive exemption notice becomes a relevant disqualified person for another reason, the positive exemption notice must be cancelled under section 297.

- (7) Also, the chief executive must consider whether notice must be given under section 342(2)(f).
- (8) A person to whom a notice is given under subsection (6) or (7) must not allow the suspended person to perform work that is regulated employment while the suspended person's positive exemption notice is suspended.

- (8) Also, the chief executive must consider whether notice must be given under section 342(2)(g).
- (9) Despite an application made by the person as mentioned in subsection (2)(b)(ii), the chief executive is not required to decide the application—

 - (b) this section applies in relation to an expert's report despite the Mental Health Act 2016, section 160.
- (10) A decision of the Mental Health Court not to give an expert report about the charged person under this section does not prevent the chief executive applying under the Mental Health Act 2016, section 160(2) for leave of the court to give the report to the registered health practitioner.
