Corrective Services Act 2006

An Act to provide for corrective services, and for other purposes

Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Corrective Services Act 2006.

2 Commencement

- (1) Chapter 7, part 8 commences on the date of assent.
- (2) The remaining provisions of this Act commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Purpose

- (1) The purpose of corrective services is community safety and crime prevention through the humane containment, supervision and rehabilitation of offenders.
- (2) This Act recognises that every member of society has certain basic human entitlements, and that, for this reason, an offender's entitlements, other than those that are necessarily diminished because of imprisonment or another court sentence, should be safeguarded.
- (3) This Act also recognises—
 - (a) the need to respect an offender's dignity; and
 - (b) the special needs of some offenders by taking into account—

- (i) an offender's age, sex or cultural background; and
- (ii) any disability an offender has.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 4 defines particular words used in this Act.

5 References to prisoner and corrective services facility

In a provision of this Act about a prisoner, a reference to a corrective services facility is a reference to the corrective services facility in which the prisoner is detained.

5A Relationship with Human Rights Act 2019

- (1) This section applies to the chief executive's or a corrective services officer's consideration of—
 - (a) the Human Rights Act 2019, section 30(2) in relation to a prisoner admitted to a corrective services facility for detention on remand or a prisoner detained without charge; or
 - (b) the Human Rights Act 2019, section 30 in relation to managing a prisoner in a corrective services facility where it is not practicable for the prisoner to be provided with the prisoner's own room under section 18.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the chief executive or officer does not contravene the Human Rights Act 2019, section 58(1) only because the chief executive's or officer's consideration takes into account—
 - (a) the security and good management of corrective services facilities; or
 - (b) the safe custody and welfare of all prisoners.

Chapter 2 Prisoners

Part 1 Custody and admission of prisoners

6 Where a person is to be detained

- (1) A person sentenced to a period of imprisonment, or required by law to be detained for a period, must be detained for the period in a corrective services facility.
- (2) However—
 - (a) if the period is 21 days or less—the person may be detained in a watch house for part or all of the period; or
 - (b) if the period is more than 21 days—the person may be detained in a watch house until the person can be conveniently taken to a corrective services facility.
- (3) This section applies subject to—
 - (a) the provisions of this Act that allow a prisoner to be lawfully outside a corrective services facility; and
 - (b) the Criminal Code; and
 - (c) the Youth Justice Act 1992; and
 - (d) the Mental Health Act 2016; and
 - (e) the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001, section 40(4)(a).

Note—

The Parliament of Queensland Act 2001, section 40 deals with proceedings for punishment by the Legislative Assembly for contempt.

7 When a person is taken to be in the chief executive's custody

- (1) If a person sentenced to a period of imprisonment or required by law to be detained for a period is, while being taken to a corrective services facility for detention, under the control of a corrective services officer, the person is taken to be in the chief executive's custody.
- (2) When admitted to a corrective services facility for detention, a person is taken to be in the chief executive's custody.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply despite the provisions of a warrant committing the person into someone else's custody.
- (4) Except for any time when the person is lawfully in another person's custody, the person remains in the chief executive's custody until discharged, even if the person is lawfully outside a corrective services facility.

Example of when a person is lawfully in another person's custody—

while the person is in the custody of a police or prison officer as mentioned in the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 (Cwlth), section 26

Examples of when a person is lawfully outside a corrective services facility—

- while the person is released on parole
 - while the person is being transferred between corrective services facilities or is attending court
 - while the person is on health leave
- (5) In a warrant committing a person to a corrective services facility, or requiring a prisoner to be produced to the keeper or officer in charge of a corrective services facility, a reference to the keeper or officer in charge of the facility is a reference to the chief executive.
 - (6) The chief executive is taken to have custody of a person even if the person is in the physical custody of, or being supervised by, an engaged service provider.

8 When a person is taken to be in the commissioner's custody

- (1) If a person sentenced to a period of imprisonment or required by law to be detained for a period is, while being taken to a corrective services facility for detention, under the control of a police officer, the person is taken to be in the commissioner's custody.
- (2) When admitted to a watch house for detention, a person is taken to be in the commissioner's custody, even if the person is lawfully outside the watch house, until the person—
 - (a) is discharged; or
 - (b) is lawfully given into another person's custody.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply despite the provisions of a warrant, record or order committing the person into someone else's custody.

9 Authority for admission to corrective services facility

- (1) A person (the detainee) must not be admitted to and detained in a corrective services facility unless the person responsible for admitting prisoners at the facility is given—
 - (a) a warrant for the detainee's detention; or
 - (b) a verdict and judgment record under the Criminal Practice Rules 1999 containing the name of the detainee and particulars of the judgment pronounced on the detainee; or
 - (c) a record, under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, of the order committing the detainee into custody.
- (2) Despite the provisions of a warrant, record or order committing a person to a specified corrective services facility or to a watch house, the person may be taken to and detained in a corrective services facility specified by the chief executive.

10 Record of prisoner's details

- (1) The chief executive must establish a record containing each prisoner's details, including details about the identification of the prisoner.
- (2) For the identification of a prisoner, a corrective services officer may collect and store the prisoner's biometric information, including by way of a biometric identification system.
- (3) The prisoner's biometric information, and any data about the biometric information stored in a biometric identification system, must be destroyed if—
 - (a) the prisoner is found not guilty of the offence for which the prisoner is being detained, other than on the ground of unsoundness of mind; or
 - (b) proceedings for the offence for which the prisoner is being detained are discontinued or dismissed.
- (4) However, the prisoner's biometric information, and any data about the biometric information stored in a biometric identification system, must not be destroyed if, for any part of the period of detention for the offence, the prisoner was also being detained for another offence—
 - (a) of which the prisoner has been convicted; or
 - (b) for which proceedings have not been discontinued or dismissed.
- (5) In this section—

prisoner includes a person subject to a community based order.

11 Prisoner to be informed of entitlements and duties

- (1) When a prisoner is admitted to a corrective services facility for detention, the chief executive must inform the prisoner about—
 - (a) the prisoner's entitlements and duties under this Act; and

- (b) the administrative directions and procedures relevant to the prisoner's entitlements and duties.
- (2) If the prisoner is illiterate or does not understand English, the chief executive must take reasonable steps to ensure the prisoner understands the things mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The chief executive—
 - (a) must make a copy of this Act available to all prisoners; and
 - (b) may make a copy of other legislation available to a prisoner.

12 Prisoner security classification

- (1) When a prisoner is admitted to a corrective services facility for detention, the chief executive must classify the prisoner into one of the following security classifications—
 - (a) maximum;
 - (b) high;
 - (c) low.
- (1A) However, when a prisoner is admitted to a corrective services facility for detention on remand for an offence and is not serving a term of imprisonment for another offence, the prisoner must only be classified into a security classification of—
 - (a) high; or
 - (b) if the chief executive decides—maximum.
- (2) When deciding a prisoner's security classification, the chief executive must have regard to each of the following—
 - (a) the nature of the offence for which the prisoner has been charged or convicted;
 - (b) the risk of the prisoner escaping, or attempting to escape, from custody;

- (c) the risk of the prisoner committing a further offence and the impact the commission of the further offence is likely to have on the community;

- (1) The chief executive may give a written direction to a corrective services officer for the carrying out of a search requiring the removal of clothing of prisoners as stated in the direction, including, for example, at the times stated in the direction.
- (2) The search must be carried out as required under the direction.
- (3) However, a direction under subsection (1) does not apply to a particular prisoner if the chief executive reasonably considers it unnecessary for the search to be carried out on the prisoner because of the prisoner's exceptional circumstances.

Example for subsection (3)—

A direction requires a search requiring the removal of clothing of a prisoner to be carried out when a prisoner enters a corrective services facility. A pregnant prisoner returns to the facility from an escorted antenatal visit and the corrective services officer who escorted the prisoner advises that the prisoner had no likely opportunity to obtain a prohibited thing while on the visit. The chief executive may consider it unnecessary for the search to be carried out on the prisoner.

- (4) A search requiring the removal of clothing under this section may be preceded by another less intrusive search.

36 Search requiring the removal of clothing of prisoners on chief executive's order—generally

- (1) The chief executive may order a search requiring the removal of clothing of 1 or more prisoners if the chief executive is satisfied the search is necessary for either or both of the following—
 - (a) the security or good order of the corrective services facility;
 - (b) the safe custody and welfare of prisoners at the facility.

Example—

A knife is missing from the kitchen of a corrective services facility. The chief executive may be satisfied that a search requiring the removal of clothing of each prisoner who worked in the kitchen that day is necessary for the security or good order of the facility or for the safe custody and welfare of prisoners at the facility.

- (2) A search requiring the removal of clothing under this section may be preceded by another less intrusive search.

37 Search requiring the removal of clothing on reasonable suspicion

- (1) The chief executive may order a search requiring the removal of clothing of a prisoner if the chief executive reasonably suspects the prisoner has a prohibited thing concealed on the prisoner's person.
- (2) A search requiring the removal of clothing under this section may be preceded by another less intrusive search.

38 Requirements for search requiring the removal of clothing

- (1) A search requiring the removal of clothing of a prisoner must be carried out by at least 2 corrective services officers, but by no more officers than are reasonably necessary to carry out the search.
- (2) Each corrective services officer carrying out the search must be of the same sex as the prisoner.
- (3) Before carrying out the search, one of the corrective services officers must tell the prisoner—
 - (a) that the prisoner will be required to remove the prisoner's clothing during the search; and
 - (b) why it is necessary to remove the clothing.
- (4) A corrective services officer carrying out the search—
 - (a) must ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the way in which the prisoner is searched causes minimal embarrassment to the prisoner; and
 - (b) must take reasonable care to protect the prisoner's dignity; and

- (c) must carry out the search as quickly as reasonably practicable; and
 - (d) must allow the prisoner to dress as soon as the search is finished.
- (5) A corrective services officer carrying out the search must, if reasonably practicable, give the prisoner the opportunity to remain partly clothed during the search, including, for example, by allowing the prisoner to dress his or her upper body before being required to remove clothing from the lower part of the body.
- (6) If a corrective services officer seizes clothing because of the search, the officer must ensure the prisoner is left with, or given, reasonably appropriate clothing.
- (7) A regulation may prescribe other requirements and procedures for ensuring the effective carrying out of searches requiring the removal of clothing of prisoners.

39 Body search of particular prisoner

- (1) The chief executive may authorise a doctor to conduct a body search of a prisoner if the chief executive reasonably believes—
- (a) the prisoner has ingested something that may jeopardise the prisoner's health or wellbeing; or
 - (b) the prisoner has a prohibited thing concealed within his or her person that may potentially be used in a way that may pose a risk to the security or good order of the facility; or
 - (c) the search may reveal evidence of the commission of an offence or breach of discipline by the prisoner.
- (2) A nurse must be present during the body search, and if the doctor is not of the same sex as the prisoner, the nurse must be of the same sex.
- (3) If the doctor reasonably requires help to conduct the body search, the doctor may ask another person to help the doctor.

- (4) Except in an emergency, the other person must be of the same sex as the prisoner.
- (5) The doctor may seize anything discovered during the body search if—
 - (a) seizing the thing would not be likely to cause grievous bodily harm to the prisoner; and
 - (b) the doctor reasonably believes the thing may be evidence of the commission of an offence or breach of discipline by the prisoner.
- (6) The doctor must give a seized thing to a corrective services officer as soon as practicable after seizing it.

40 Register of searches

- (1) The chief executive must establish a register, for each corrective services facility, recording the details of each search carried out at the facility requiring the removal of clothing, and each body search, of a prisoner.
- (2) The details must include the following—
 - (a) the reason for the search;
 - (b) the names of the persons present during the search;

 - (a) a prisoner;
 - (b) an offender if—
 - (i) the giving of the test sample is required by a parole order or court order; or

- (ii) for an offender who is released on parole—the chief executive reasonably believes the offender poses a serious and immediate risk of harm to himself or herself.
- (2) The chief executive must give the person the results of the final tests conducted on the test sample as soon as practicable after the chief executive receives the results of the final tests.

42 Giving test sample

- (1) The chief executive, a doctor or a nurse may give a prisoner or an offender mentioned in section 41(1)(b) directions about the way the prisoner or offender must give a test sample.
- (2) Only a doctor or nurse may take a sample of blood.
- (3) A doctor or nurse, and anyone acting in good faith at the direction of the doctor or nurse, may use the force that is reasonably necessary to enable the doctor or nurse to take the test sample.
- (4) A regulation may prescribe—
 - (a) the number of corrective services officers that must be present when a test sample stated in the regulation is being taken from a prisoner; and
 - (b) how a test sample stated in the regulation, other than a sample of blood, must be taken.

43 Consequences of positive test sample

- (1) If a prisoner gives a positive test sample—

Example of a reasonable excuse—

 - a medical condition preventing the prisoner from supplying the test sample in the time it might reasonably take another prisoner who does not have the medical condition to supply the sample
 - (c) alters or invalidates, or attempts to alter or invalidate, the results of the test sample; or

- (6) During the period of the safety order, the prisoner may be accommodated separately from other prisoners, including, for example, in a health centre at the corrective services facility.
- (7) If the prisoner is separated from other prisoners during the period of the safety order, the chief executive may provide for the prisoner's reintegration, before the period ends—

- (3) The further safety order must be made not more than 7 days before the end of the existing safety order.

- (4) Also, if the existing safety order is taken to be for a period of more than 1 month under subsection (5), the chief executive must not make the further safety order unless—
 - (a) not more than 14 days before the end of the existing safety order, the chief executive gives written notice to the prisoner advising the prisoner that—

- (6) After completing a review, an official visitor must recommend to the chief executive whether the safety order should be confirmed, amended or cancelled.
- (7) If the official visitor recommends that the safety order be amended by reducing the period of the order, or that the order be cancelled, the official visitor must also recommend to the chief executive what should be done about any privileges forfeited by the prisoner while the order applied to the prisoner.

- (8) The chief executive must consider the recommendations and either confirm, amend or cancel the safety order.

- (4) A parole order for a prisoner may start on or after the prisoner's parole eligibility date.

181 Parole eligibility date for prisoner serving term of imprisonment for life

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for life.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served the following period of time—

- (a) if the Criminal Code, section 305(2) applied on sentence—30 years or the longer time ordered under that section;
 - (b) if the Criminal Code, section 305(4) applied on sentence—25 years or the longer time ordered under that section;
 - (c) if the prisoner is serving a term of imprisonment for life for an offence of murder and paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply—20 years;
 - (d) otherwise—15 years.
- (2A) However, if the term of imprisonment for life was imposed as the base component of a sentence under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2), the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding 7 years to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2).
- (2B) Also, if a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for life is sentenced under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2) for a prescribed offence, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding, to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2) or (2A), the lesser of the following periods—
- (a) 7 years;
 - (b) the period of imprisonment provided for under the maximum penalty for the prescribed offence.
- (3) Despite subsections (2), (2A) and (2B), if a later parole eligibility date is fixed for the period of imprisonment under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the later date fixed under that division.

181A Parole eligibility date for prisoner serving term of imprisonment for life for a repeat serious child sex offence

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for life under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161E for a repeat serious child sex offence.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served 20 years and not 15 years as prescribed under section 181.
- (3) However, if the term of imprisonment for life under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161E was imposed as the base component of a sentence under section 161R(2) of that Act, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding 7 years to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2).
- (4) Also, if a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for life under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161E is sentenced under section 161R(2) of that Act for a prescribed offence, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding, to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2) or (3), the lesser of the following periods—
 - (a) 7 years;
 - (b) the period of imprisonment provided for under the maximum penalty for the prescribed offence.

182 Parole eligibility date for serious violent offender

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for a serious violent offence.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served the lesser of—
 - (a) 80% of the prisoner's term of imprisonment for the serious violent offence; or
 - (b) 15 years.

- (2A) However, if the term of imprisonment for the serious violent offence was imposed under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2), the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding the relevant further period to the notional parole eligibility date fixed for the prisoner under subsection (2B).
- (2B) The notional parole eligibility date is the day that would apply under subsection (2) if the term of imprisonment imposed on the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2) consisted only of the base component of the sentence imposed under that section.
- (3) Despite subsections (2) and (2A), if a later parole eligibility date is fixed for the period of imprisonment under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the later date fixed under that division.
- (4) This section is subject to section 185.

182A Parole eligibility date for prisoner serving term of imprisonment for other particular serious offences

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who—
 - (a) is serving a term of imprisonment for a drug trafficking offence; and
 - (b) was sentenced for the offence under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 5(2) as in force before the commencement of the Serious and Organised Crime Legislation Amendment Act 2016, section 164.
- (2) Also, this section applies to a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment, other than a term of imprisonment for life, for an offence against the Criminal Code, section 314A.
- (3) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served—
 - (a) if the prisoner is serving a term of imprisonment for a drug trafficking offence—80% of the term; or

- (b) if the prisoner is serving a term of imprisonment for an offence against the Criminal Code, section 314A—the lesser of the following—
 - (i) 80% of the term;
 - (ii) 15 years.
- (3A) However, if the term of imprisonment for the offence against the Criminal Code, section 314A was imposed under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2), the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding the relevant further period to the notional parole eligibility date fixed for the prisoner under subsection (3B).
- (3B) The notional parole eligibility date is the day that would apply under subsection (3) if the term of imprisonment imposed on the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2) consisted only of the base component of the sentence imposed under that section.
- (4) Despite subsections (3) and (3A), if a later parole eligibility date is fixed for the period of imprisonment under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the later date fixed under that division.
- (5) This section is subject to section 185.

183 Parole eligibility date for prisoner detained for a period directed by a judge under Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, pt 3

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who is being detained, for an offence, in an institution for a period as directed by a judge under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, part 3.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has been detained for half the fixed period.
- (2A) However, subsection (2B) applies if—
 - (a) the offence for which the prisoner is being detained is a prescribed offence committed with the circumstance of aggravation stated in the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q; and

- (b) the prisoner has been sentenced for the offence under section 161R(2) of that Act.
- (2B) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding the relevant further period to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2).
- (3) Despite subsections (2) and (2B), if a later parole eligibility date is fixed for the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the later date fixed under that division.
- (4) This section is subject to section 185.

184 Parole eligibility date for other prisoners

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner who—
 - (a) has been sentenced for an offence—
 - (i) before the commencement—to a period of imprisonment of more than 2 years or, if the offence was committed before 1 July 2001, to a period of imprisonment of any length; or
 - (ii) after the commencement—to a period of imprisonment of more than 3 years (excluding the mandatory component of any sentence of imprisonment imposed on the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2)); or
 - (b) is serving a period of imprisonment of not more than 3 years for an offence (excluding the mandatory component of any sentence of imprisonment imposed on the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2)), if the period includes a term of imprisonment for a sexual offence; or

- (c) is serving a period of imprisonment ordered to be served under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 147(1)(b) or (c); or
 - (d) was the subject of a court ordered parole order that has been cancelled under this Act.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served half the period of imprisonment to which the prisoner has been sentenced, despite any grant of remission.
- (3) However—
 - (a) if an earlier or later parole eligibility date is fixed for the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the date fixed under that division; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the prisoner is a prisoner mentioned in subsection (1)(d), the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the date that was fixed for the prisoner's release under that parole order.
- (3A) Despite subsections (2) and (3)(a), if the prisoner has been sentenced for the offence under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2), the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding the relevant further period to the notional parole eligibility date fixed for the prisoner under subsection (3B).
- (3B) The notional parole eligibility date is the day that would apply under subsection (2) or (3)(a) if the term of imprisonment imposed on the prisoner under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2) consisted only of the base component of the sentence imposed under that section.
- (4) This section is subject to section 185.
- (5) In this section—
 - commencement means the commencement of this section.
 - offence, in relation to a prisoner, does not include the following offences—

- (a) an offence for which the prisoner has been sentenced to life imprisonment;
- (b) a serious violent offence;
- (c) an offence for which the prisoner is being detained in an institution for a period fixed by a judge under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, part 3;
- (d) an offence to which section 182A applies.

185 Parole eligibility date for prisoner serving terms of imprisonment in particular circumstances

- (1) This section applies if, apart from this section, more than 1 of sections 182, 182A, 183 and 184 would apply to a prisoner.
- (2) If the imprisonment mentioned in the sections is to be served concurrently, the prisoner's parole eligibility date for the prisoner's period of imprisonment is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served the longer of the periods calculated under the sections.

Example—

A prisoner is serving a term of 8 years imprisonment for a serious violent offence concurrently with a term of 5 years imprisonment for an offence that is not a serious violent offence. The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served the period of 6.4 years (being the period that is 80% of 8 years, and being longer than the period that is one-half of 5 years).

- (3) If any of the imprisonment mentioned in the sections is to be served cumulatively with imprisonment mentioned in another of the sections, the prisoner's parole eligibility date for the prisoner's period of imprisonment is the date mentioned in subsection (4) calculated after applying the following rules—

Rule 1—

Consider first each term of imprisonment (concurrent term) that is not cumulative on another term of imprisonment and calculate the period the prisoner must serve for the concurrent term by applying whichever of sections 182, 182A, 183 or 184 apply. For these rules, the prisoner's notional parole date is the day the period, or the longest of the periods, so calculated ends.

Rule 2—

Next, consider each term of imprisonment (cumulative term) that is cumulative on another term of imprisonment and calculate the period the prisoner must serve for each cumulative term by applying whichever of sections 182, 182A, 183 or 184 apply.

Rule 3—

Next, add the period the prisoner must serve for a cumulative term to the period the prisoner must serve for the term of imprisonment the cumulative term is cumulative on (the additional eligibility period).

- (4) The prisoner's parole eligibility date for the prisoner's period of imprisonment is the day after the later of the following dates—
- the notional parole date
 - the latest date the additional eligibility periods end.

Example—

A prisoner is serving a period of 13 years imprisonment, comprising a term of 8 years imprisonment for a serious violent offence and a term of 5 years imprisonment for an offence that is not a serious violent offence which was ordered to be served cumulatively with the term of imprisonment for the serious violent offence. Applying rule 1, the prisoner's notional parole date is the day after the period of 6.4 years the prisoner must serve before reaching the prisoner's parole eligibility date for the serious violent offence under section 182. Rule 2 is then applied. The period the prisoner must serve before reaching the prisoner's parole eligibility date for the second offence is 2.5 years under section 184. Rule 3 requires the periods of 6.4 years and 2.5 years to be added together. In this example, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served the period of 8.9 years.

- (5) In this section—

period of imprisonment, a prisoner must serve, means a period of imprisonment the prisoner must serve before reaching the prisoner's parole eligibility date for the prisoner's period of imprisonment.

185A Parole eligibility date for particular prisoners granted exceptional circumstances parole

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner if—
 - (a) whether before or after the commencement of this section (the commencement), a date for the prisoner's release on parole in relation to the prisoner's period of imprisonment (the parole release date) was or is fixed under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 160B(3); and
 - (b) on or after the commencement but before the parole release date, the prisoner is granted exceptional circumstances parole in relation to the same period of imprisonment.
- (2) For this Act, the prisoner's parole release date becomes the prisoner's parole eligibility date in relation to the same period of imprisonment.
- (3) Any entitlement or expectation the prisoner had to be released on parole on the parole release date under a court ordered parole order is extinguished.
- (4) This section does not affect the fact that a parole release date was fixed for the prisoner's period of imprisonment for the purposes of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992.

185B Parole eligibility date for prisoner serving term of imprisonment for an offence against Weapons Act 1990, s 50, 50B or 65

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a prisoner is serving a term of imprisonment for an offence against the Weapons Act 1990, section 50, 50B or 65; and

- (b) a minimum penalty applies to the offence under the following provisions of that Act—
 - (i) section 50(1), penalty, paragraph (d) or (e);
 - (ii) section 50B(1), penalty, paragraph (d) or (e);
 - (iii) section 65(1), penalty, paragraph (c) or (d); and
 - (c) apart from this section, the prisoner would be eligible for parole under this subdivision before the prisoner has served a term of imprisonment that is the minimum penalty for the offence.
- (2) The prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day after the day on which the prisoner has served a term of imprisonment that is the minimum penalty for the offence.
- (3) However, if the term of imprisonment was imposed under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161R(2) for an offence against the Weapons Act 1990, section 50B or 65, the prisoner's parole eligibility date is the day that is worked out by adding the relevant further period to the parole eligibility date that would otherwise apply to the prisoner under subsection (2).

Division 2 Hearing and deciding application for parole order

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

186 Definition for div 2

In this division—

parole order does not include a court ordered parole order.

Subdivision 2 Procedure

188 Submission from eligible person

- (1) After receiving a prisoner's application for a parole order (other than an exceptional circumstances parole order) under section 180, the parole board must give the chief executive written notice of the application.
- (2) Within 7 days after receiving the notice, the chief executive must give each eligible person in relation to the prisoner written notice of the application.
- (3) The notice given to the eligible person must be dated and advise the person that—
 - (a) the prisoner has applied for a parole order; and
 - (b) the parole board is about to consider whether the parole order should be made; and
 - (c) the person may, within 21 days after the date of the notice, make written submissions to the parole board about anything that—
 - (i) is relevant to the decision about making the parole order; and
 - (ii) was not before the court at the time of sentencing; and
 - (d) the person may apply to the parole board to extend the period under paragraph (c) for making written submissions to the parole board.
- (4) The eligible person may apply to the parole board to extend the period under subsection (3)(c) for making written submissions to the parole board.
- (5) The parole board may extend the period if the parole board considers it reasonable in the circumstances.
- (6) The parole board may have regard to any submissions made to the board under subsection (3)(c) or in the further period allowed under subsection (5).

189 Appearing before parole board

- (1) A prisoner's agent may, with the parole board's leave, appear before the board to make representations in support of the prisoner's application for a parole order that may be heard and decided by the board.
- (2) This section does not stop the parole board deciding an application for a parole order if the prisoner or the prisoner's agent fails to appear before the board.
- (3) In this section—
appear, before the parole board, means—
 - (a) appear by using a contemporaneous communication link between the board and the prisoner or the prisoner's agent; or
 - (b) if the person appearing is a prisoner with a special need—appear personally.

190 Applying for leave to appear before parole board

- (1) An application for leave to appear before the parole board must be made in the approved form to the board.
- (2) The secretariat must tell the prisoner of—
 - (a) the board's decision on the application; and
 - (b) if the board grants the leave—the time and place at which the prisoner or the prisoner's agent may appear before the board.

191 When application for parole order lapses

A prisoner's application for a parole order lapses if, before the application is decided, the prisoner is sentenced to another term of imprisonment.

192 Parole board not bound by sentencing court's recommendation or parole eligibility date

When deciding whether to grant a parole order, the parole board is not bound by the recommendation of the sentencing court or the parole eligibility date fixed by the court under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3 if the board—

- (a) receives information about the prisoner that was not before the court at the time of sentencing; and a psychologist's report obtained during the prisoner's period of imprisonment

- (b) after considering the information, considers that the prisoner is not suitable for parole at the time recommended or fixed by the court.

193 Deciding parole applications—general

- (1) After receiving a prisoner's application for a parole order, the parole board must decide—

- (a) to grant the application; or
 - (b) to refuse to grant the application.

- (1A) If, at the time the application is made by the prisoner, the prisoner is both a no body-no parole prisoner and a restricted prisoner, the application must be decided under—

- (a) section 193A; and
 - (b) if after deciding the application under section 193A, the parole board does not make a no cooperation declaration—section 193AA.

- (2) However, subject to subsection (3), the parole board may defer making a decision until it obtains any additional information it considers necessary to make the decision.

Note—

See also section 193C(1).

- (3) The parole board must decide the application within the following period after receiving the application—
 - (a) for a decision deferred under subsection (2)—150 days;
 - (b) otherwise—120 days.

Note—

See also section 193C(2).

- (3A) Subsection (3) applies subject to chapter 6, part 15B.
- (4) The parole board may grant the application even though a parole order for the same period of imprisonment was previously cancelled.
- (5) If the parole board refuses to grant the application, the board must—
 - (a) give the prisoner written reasons for the refusal; and
 - (b) if the application is for a parole order other than an exceptional circumstances parole order—decide a period of time within which a further application for a parole order (other than an exceptional circumstances parole order) by the prisoner must not be made without the board's consent.
- (5A) The period of time decided under subsection (5)(b) must not be more than—
 - (a) for a prisoner serving a life sentence—3 years; or
 - (b) otherwise—6 months.

193A Deciding parole applications—no body-no parole prisoner

- (1) This section applies to a no body-no parole prisoner's application for a parole order.
- (2) If a no cooperation declaration is in force for the prisoner, the board must refuse the application.
- (3) If the prisoner has been given a notice under section 175Q, the board must consider the application under section 193.

- (4) If subsections (2) and (3) do not apply, the parole board must defer the hearing of the application and request a commissioner's report under section 175M(2).

193AA Deciding parole applications—restricted prisoner

- (1) This section applies in relation to a restricted prisoner's application for a parole order.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), as soon as practicable after receiving the application, the parole board must—
- (a) give the president a notice stating that the prisoner has applied for parole; and
 - (b) give the chief executive a notice stating—
 - (i) the board has deferred deciding the application until the board receives a notice from the president under section 175J(2)(c); and
 - (ii) under section 175F the chief executive must give the president a restricted prisoner report.
- (3) If the board has received a notice about the prisoner under section 175J(2)(c), the parole board may defer making a decision until it obtains any other information it considers necessary to make the decision.

Note—

See also section 193C(2).

- (4) If the application is deferred under subsection (2)(b) and the president makes a restricted prisoner declaration about the prisoner, the application is taken to have been refused by the parole board on the day the declaration is made.
- (5) If a restricted prisoner declaration is not in force for the prisoner, the parole board must refuse to grant the application unless the board is satisfied the prisoner does not pose an unacceptable risk to the public.

193B Deciding applications for parole orders made by prisoners with links to terrorism

- (1) This section applies in relation to a prisoner's application for a parole order if—
- (a) the prisoner has, at any time, been convicted of a terrorism offence; or
 - (b) the prisoner is the subject of a Commonwealth control order; or
 - (c) the parole board is satisfied the prisoner has promoted terrorism; or
 - (d) a report in relation to the prisoner given by the commissioner under section 193E states there is a reasonable likelihood the prisoner may carry out a terrorist act and any of the following apply—
 - (i) the prisoner has been charged with, but not convicted of, a terrorism offence;
 - (ii) the prisoner has been the subject of a Commonwealth control order;
 - (iii) the parole board is satisfied the prisoner is or has been associated with a terrorist organisation, or with a person who has promoted terrorism.

Note—

For when a person promotes terrorism, see section 247A.

- (2) The parole board must refuse to grant the application under section 193(1) unless the board is satisfied exceptional circumstances exist to justify granting the application.
- (3) In considering whether exceptional circumstances exist to justify granting the application, the parole board may have regard to any relevant matter.
- (4) In considering a matter mentioned in subsection (1)(c) or (d)(iii), the parole board may have regard to—
 - (a) a report in relation to the matter given by the commissioner under section 193E; and

- (b) any other information the board considers relevant.
- (5) If the parole board decides to grant the application, the board must give the prisoner written reasons for the decision.

Note—

See also section 193(5)(a).

- (6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that—
 - (a) this section does not limit or otherwise affect the power of the parole board to refuse the application under section 193(1); and
 - (b) a decision under subsection (2) that exceptional circumstances exist to justify granting the application is not a decision for section 194(1)(a) that exceptional circumstances exist in relation to the prisoner.

193C Deferring decision to obtain information about terrorism links

- (1) The parole board may defer making a decision on a prisoner's application for a parole order to obtain information the board considers necessary to determine whether section 193B applies in relation to the application.
- (2) Despite section 193(3), if the parole board defers making a decision under subsection (1), the board must decide the application within 200 days after receiving the application.

193D Parole board may ask commissioner for reports about prisoners' links to terrorism

The parole board may, by written notice given to the commissioner, ask the commissioner to give the board, for use under this division or division 5, a report in relation to any of the following matters—

- (a) whether a prisoner has, at any time, been convicted of or charged with a terrorism offence;
- (b) whether a prisoner is or has been the subject of a Commonwealth control order;

- (c) any promotion by a prisoner of terrorism;
- (d) the likelihood of a prisoner carrying out a terrorist act;
- (e) any association a prisoner has or has had with—
 - (i) a terrorist organisation; or
 - (ii) a person who has promoted terrorism.

Note—

For when a person promotes terrorism, see section 247A.

193E Reports about prisoners' links to terrorism

- (1) The commissioner must comply with a request made under section 193D by giving the parole board a written report in relation to the matters the subject of the request.
- (2) However, subsection (1) applies only to the extent information in relation to the matters—
 - (a) is in the commissioner's possession; or
 - (b) can be accessed by the commissioner through an arrangement with a law enforcement agency.
- (3) Also, the commissioner is not required to give information in relation to a matter mentioned in section 193D(c), (d) or (e) if—
 - (a) the information is information mentioned in the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 803(2)(a) to (e) and the commissioner is satisfied that withholding the information will not adversely affect public safety; or
 - (b) the commissioner accessed the information through an arrangement mentioned in subsection (2)(b) and the arrangement prevents the commissioner from disclosing the information to the parole board.
- (4) If the report is in relation to a matter mentioned in section 193D(a), the information in the report may include a reference to, or a disclosure of, a conviction mentioned in the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, section 6.

- (5) If the request is in relation to a prisoner's application for a parole order—
 - (a) the notice given under section 193D must state the day the parole board proposes to hear the application (the proposed hearing day); and
 - (b) the commissioner must give the report to the parole board at least 28 days before the proposed hearing day.

194 Types of parole orders granted by parole board

- (1) The parole board may, by a parole order—
 - (a) release any prisoner on parole, if the board is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist in relation to the prisoner; or
 - (b) release an eligible prisoner on parole.
- (2) If the prisoner is to be released on parole as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), the board must note on the order that it is an exceptional circumstances parole order.
- (3) The board must give a copy of the parole order to the prisoner.
- (4) In this section—

eligible prisoner means a prisoner, who—

 - (a) may apply for the parole order under section 180(1); and
 - (b) is eligible for the parole order under section 181, 181A, 182, 182A, 183, 184, 185 or 185B.

Division 3 Court ordered parole order

199 Court ordered parole order

- (1) The chief executive must issue a court ordered parole order for a prisoner in accordance with the date fixed for the prisoner's release on parole under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 9, division 3.

- (2) However, if the prisoner is being detained on remand for an offence, the chief executive can not issue the court ordered parole order unless—
 - (a) the prisoner is granted bail in relation to the offence under the Bail Act 1980; or
 - (b) the charge for the offence is withdrawn.
- (3) The chief executive must give a copy of the court ordered parole order to the prisoner.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a prisoner to whom section 185A applies.

Division 4 Conditions of parole and directions to prisoners

200 Conditions of parole

- (1) A parole order must include conditions requiring the prisoner the subject of the order—
 - (a) to be under the chief executive's supervision—
 - (i) until the end of the prisoner's period of imprisonment; or
 - (ii) if the prisoner is being detained in an institution for a period fixed by a judge under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, part 3—for the period the prisoner was directed to be detained; and
 - (b) to carry out the chief executive's lawful instructions; and
 - (c) to give a test sample if required to do so by the chief executive under section 41; and
 - (d) to report, and receive visits, as directed by the chief executive; and

- (e) to notify the chief executive within 48 hours of any change in the prisoner's address or employment during the parole period; and
- (f) not to commit an offence.
- (2) A parole order may contain a condition requiring the prisoner to comply with a direction given to the prisoner under section 200A.
- (3) A parole order granted by the parole board may also contain conditions the board reasonably considers necessary—
 - (a) to ensure the prisoner's good conduct; or
 - (b) to stop the prisoner committing an offence.

Examples—

- a condition about the prisoner's place of residence, employment or participation in a particular program
 - a condition imposing a curfew for the prisoner
 - a condition requiring the prisoner to give a test sample
- (4) The prisoner must comply with the conditions included in the parole order.

200A Directions to prisoners subject to parole order

- (1) The purpose of this section is—

 - (b) if the offender was not detained in a corrective services facility when the alleged contravention happened—at least 4 months after the offender makes a written complaint about the alleged contravention to the chief executive at the community corrections office where the offender was required to report to a corrective services officer.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the offender is notified in writing by the chief executive that the chief executive has finished dealing with the offender's complaint.

319G When treatment of offender by protected defendant is not direct discrimination

- (1) This section applies if a protected defendant treats, or proposes to treat, an offender with an attribute less favourably than another offender without the attribute in circumstances that are the same or not materially different.
- (2) For the Anti-Discrimination Act, section 10 the protected defendant does not directly discriminate against the offender if the treatment, or proposed treatment, is reasonable.
- (3) In considering whether the treatment, or proposed treatment, is reasonable, the tribunal must consider any relevant submissions made about any of the following—

 - (i) whether the treatment, or proposed treatment, unfairly prejudices other offenders;
 - (j) any other matter the tribunal considers relevant.

- (1) This section applies if a protected defendant imposes, or proposes to impose, a term—
- (a) with which an offender with an attribute does not or is not able to comply; and
 - (b) with which a higher proportion of offenders without the attribute comply or are able to comply.
- (2) In considering whether for the Anti-Discrimination Act, section 11(1)(c) the term is reasonable, the tribunal must consider any relevant submissions made about any of the following—
- (a) the security and good order of any corrective services facility in which the offender was detained when the protected defendant imposed, or proposed to impose, the term;
 - (b) the cost to the protected defendant of imposing an alternative term;

 - (b) considers that no non-compensatory order effectively redresses the offender for the contravention.
- (3) If the tribunal decides to make a compensation order, it must give the protected defendant and the offender written reasons that no non-compensatory order effectively redresses the offender for the contravention.
- (4) Also, if the tribunal decides to make a compensation order—

- (a) the tribunal can not require that payment of an amount of compensation, or interest on an amount of compensation, be paid directly to the offender; and
 - (b) the order has effect as an award of compensation only for part 12B; and

Schedule 2 Continuing provisions of Corrective Services Act 2000

section 478

268A All release to be dealt with under this Act

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner sentenced for an offence committed before 1 July 2001, whether or not the prisoner was sentenced for the offence before 1 July 2001.
- (2) On and from 1 July 2001—
 - (a) chapters 2 and 5 are the only provisions under which the prisoner may be released before the end of the period of imprisonment to which the prisoner was sentenced; and
 - (b) the only requirements for the granting of the release are the requirements that apply under this Act.
- (3) If, before 1 July 2001, the prisoner had any expectation to be able, after 1 July 2001, to be released before, or to be considered for a release taking effect before, the end of the period of imprisonment to which the prisoner was sentenced, the expectation is extinguished to the extent that the release is not provided for under subsection (2).

Examples of operation of subsections (2) and (3)—

- 1 Suppose before 1 July 2001 a prisoner had an expectation to be released on home detention on 1 August 2001 under section 86 of the repealed Corrective Services Act 1988. However, by applying subsection (2), the prisoner could only expect to be released under chapter 5 on 1 December 2001, having regard to the requirements of section 135(2). Subsection (3) extinguishes the prisoner's expectation to be released on 1 August 2001 without affecting any expectation the prisoner may have to be released on 1 December 2001 under chapter 5.
- 2 Suppose before 1 July 2001 a prisoner had an expectation to be considered for release on home detention under section 86 of the repealed Corrective Services Act 1988, the release to take effect on 1 August 2001. However, by applying subsection (2), the prisoner could only expect to be considered for release under chapter 5, with, having regard to the requirements of section 135(2), the release to take effect on 1 December 2001. Subsection (3) extinguishes the prisoner's expectation to be considered for release to take effect on 1 August 2001 without affecting any expectation the prisoner may have to be considered for release under chapter 5, with the release to take effect on 1 December 2001.

- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) apply in relation to an application made by the prisoner and dealt with on or after 1 July 2001 even if the application was made before 1 July 2001.
- (5) If a form of release for which the prisoner made an application before 1 July 2001 corresponds to a form of release that, after 1 July 2001, is available under chapter 5, the application must be dealt with, to the greatest practicable extent, as an application for the form of release under chapter 5, but this subsection does not authorise release before a date prescribed by section 135.
- (6) This section prevails to the extent it is inconsistent with section 268 or 273.
- (7) In this section—
expectation includes right, privilege, entitlement and eligibility.

268B Further provisions about transitional release circumstances

- (1) Section 268A has no effect in relation to—
 - (a) a post-prison community based release order granted on or after 1 July 2001 but before 30 October 2001 on the basis of an application made before 1 July 2001 for a form of release that corresponds to a form of release available under chapter 5; or
 - (b) a decision made by a court before 30 October 2001 upholding, in action brought by a particular prisoner, that prisoner's expectation to be released, or to be considered for release; or
 - (c) the terms of a release instrument made before 1 July 2001, or any decision relating to the making of the release instrument, giving a prisoner an expectation to be further released after, or to be considered for a further release taking effect after, 1 July 2001.

Example for subsection (1)(c)—

Suppose on 1 June 2001 a prisoner was released on leave of absence to engage in employment (commonly known as ‘leave of absence (release to work)’). The terms of the release instrument included a statement that the prisoner would be considered for release on home detention after the prisoner had successfully completed 3 months release to work. Section 268A has no effect on the statement’s operation.

- (2) For giving effect to terms mentioned in subsection (1)(c), a prisoner may be released at any time the prisoner may have been released under the terms if the repealed Corrective Services Act 1988 had not been repealed.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) and without limiting section 268A, any requirement that may have existed after the repeal of the repealed Corrective Services Act 1988 and before the commencement of this section that a person be dealt with in a way inconsistent with section 135(2) is extinguished.
- (4) Section 268A and subsection (3) prevail to the extent they are inconsistent with the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, sections 20 and 20C(3), the Criminal Code, section 11(2), the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 180(1) or any other law of similar effect.

 - (a) a person was sentenced to imprisonment and subsequently was released on parole as provided for under a previous Act; and
 - (b) the person’s parole was cancelled as provided for under a previous Act, whether by order or otherwise.

- (2) It is declared that no part of the time, including any time on or after 1 July 2001, between the person's release on parole and the person recommencing to serve the unexpired portion of the person's period of imprisonment is to be regarded as time served in respect of that period of imprisonment (other than any period during which the person was kept in custody consequent upon the person's parole being suspended under a previous Act).
- (3) For subsection (2), the following are irrelevant—
 - (a) whether any relevant warrant is or was issued or executed in relation to the person before, on or after 1 July 2001;
 - (b) whether any relevant warrant is or was executed in Queensland or elsewhere;
 - (c) whether particular provisions of this Act were applied to the person for a particular matter, including, for example, giving an information notice under section 150.
- (4) Further, it is declared that subsection (2) is, and has always been, the law about the matters it deals with, and that law was unaffected by the enactment of sections 152(2), 268 and 268A.
