Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Public Sector Regulation 2023.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 March 2023.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

Part 2 Secondments, transfers or redeployments, and appeals

4 Application of secondment provisions to particular public sector entities—Act, s 159

- (1) For section 159(1)(a) of the Act, chapter 4, part 4, division 2 of the Act is to apply to a public sector employee mentioned in subsection (3) employed in either of the following public sector entities—
  - (a) the Queensland Ambulance Service;
  - (b) the Queensland Fire and Emergency Service.
- (2) For section 159(1)(b) of the Act, chapter 4, part 4, division 2 of the Act is to apply to—

- (a) a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (1) as if it were a public service entity; and
  - (b) the head of a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (1) as if the head were the chief executive of a public service entity; and
  - (c) each public sector employee mentioned in subsection (3) as if the employee were a public service officer.
- (3) For section 159(2) of the Act, subsections (1) and (2) apply to—
- (a) for the Queensland Ambulance Service—
    - (i) the service; and
    - (ii) the chief executive of the service; and
    - (iii) persons employed in the service under the Ambulance Service Act 1991, section 13; and
  - (b) for the Queensland Fire and Emergency Service—
    - (i) the service; and
    - (ii) the commissioner of the service; and
    - (iii) persons employed in the service under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1990, section 25.

5 Application of transfer or redeployment provisions to particular public sector entities—Act, s 159

- (1) For section 159(1)(a) of the Act, chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act is to apply to a public sector employee mentioned in subsection (6) employed in any of the following public sector entities—
- (a) Queensland Health;
  - (b) a Hospital and Health Service;
  - (c) the Queensland Ambulance Service;
  - (d) the Queensland Fire and Emergency Service;

- (e) the Queensland Building and Construction Commission;
  - (f) the Queensland Building and Construction Employing Office;
  - (g) the Residential Tenancies Authority;
  - (h) the Residential Tenancies Employing Office;
  - (i) Trade and Investment Queensland.
- (2) For section 159(1)(b) of the Act, chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act is to apply to—
- (a) a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (1) as if it were a public service entity; and
  - (b) the head of a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (1) as if the head were the chief executive of a public service entity; and
  - (c) each public sector employee mentioned in subsection (6) as if the employee were a public service officer.
- (3) However—
- (a) chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act does not apply to the transfer or redeployment of a health service employee of a Hospital and Health Service to another position as a health service employee, unless the transfer or redeployment is required under a directive; and
  - (b) section 161(1)(a) of the Act does not apply to a public sector employee employed in the Queensland Building and Construction Commission or the Queensland Building and Construction Employing Office.
- (4) For section 159(1)(b) and (3) of the Act, on the transfer or redeployment, under chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act, of a public sector employee of a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (6) to a public service entity—
- (a) the employee is employed under the Act; and

- (b) the employee retains and is entitled to all rights that have accrued to the employee because of the employee's employment with the public sector entity; and
  - (c) the employee's service as an employee of the public sector entity is taken to be service of a like nature in the public service entity for deciding the employee's rights as a public service employee; and
  - (d) the transfer or redeployment does not break the employee's continuity of service.
- (5) Also, for section 159(1)(b) and (3) of the Act, on the transfer or redeployment, under chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act, of a public service employee to a public sector entity mentioned in subsection (1)—
- (a) the employee is employed—
    - (i) if the entity is Queensland Health—under the Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011; or
    - (ii) otherwise—under the Act under which the entity is established; and
  - (b) the employee retains and is entitled to all rights that have accrued to the employee because of the employee's employment as a public service employee; and
  - (c) the employee's service as a public service employee is taken to be service of a like nature in the public sector entity for deciding the employee's rights as an employee of the public sector entity; and
  - (d) the transfer or redeployment does not break the employee's continuity of service.
- (6) For section 159(2) of the Act, subsections (1) to (5) apply to—
- (a) for Queensland Health—
    - (i) the department; and
    - (ii) the chief executive of the department; and

- (iii) the health service employees of the department; and
- (b) for a Hospital and Health Service—
  - (i) the service; and
  - (ii) the chief executive of the service; and
  - (iii) the employees of the service; and
- (c) for the Queensland Ambulance Service—
  - (i) the service; and
  - (ii) the chief executive of the department in which the Ambulance Service Act 1991 is administered; and
  - (iii) persons employed in the service under the Ambulance Service Act 1991, section 13; and
- (d) for the Queensland Fire and Emergency Service—
  - (i) the service; and
  - (ii) the commissioner of the service; and
  - (iii) persons employed in the service under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1990, section 25; and
- (e) for the Queensland Building and Construction Commission—
  - (i) the commission; and
  - (ii) the commissioner of the commission; and
  - (iii) the employees of the commission; and
- (f) for the Queensland Building and Construction Employing Office—
  - (i) the office; and
  - (ii) the executive officer of the office; and
  - (iii) the employees of the office; and
- (g) for the Residential Tenancies Authority—
  - (i) the authority; and

- (ii) the chief executive officer of the authority; and
  - (iii) the employees of the authority; and
- (h) for the Residential Tenancies Employing Office—
  - (i) the office; and
  - (ii) the executive officer of the office; and
  - (iii) the employees of the office; and
- (i) for Trade and Investment Queensland (the entity)—
  - (i) the entity; and
  - (ii) the chief executive officer of the entity; and
  - (iii) the employees of the entity.

6 Right of appeal in relation to transfer decisions—Act, s 129

For section 129 of the Act, definition transfer decision, paragraph (b)(ii), the following provisions of the Act apply to an employee of a public sector entity to whom chapter 4, part 4, division 3 of the Act applies under section 5(1)—

- (a) chapter 4, part 4, division 3;
- (b) chapter 3, part 10, in relation to a decision made under chapter 4, part 4, division 3.

7 Application of Act, ch 3, pt 10 and directives about appeals to movement of health service employees

Chapter 3, part 10 of the Act and directives about appeals apply to decisions made in relation to health service employees under the Hospital and Health Boards Regulation 2012, part 3 as if a reference to a transfer decision in chapter 3, part 10 of the Act includes a decision about the movement of a health service employee under the Hospital and Health Boards Regulation 2012, part 3.

Part 3 Employee records

8 Definitions for part

In this part—

employee record see section 9.

possession, for an employee record, see section 10.

prescribed employee means—

- (a) a public service employee; or
- (b) a health service employee.

prescribed entity means—

- (a) a public service entity; or
- (b) a Hospital and Health Service.

relevant investigation or inquiry means an investigation or inquiry into—

- (a) an allegation about conduct that, if proved, may make a prescribed employee liable to disciplinary action; or
- (b) a grievance involving a prescribed employee lodged under a directive or industrial instrument.

9 Meaning of employee record

(1) Each of the following documents is, to the extent the document contains information about a prescribed employee, an employee record—

- (a) a report, correspondence item or other document about the employee's work performance, work conduct or work history;
- (b) a medical report about the employee;
- (c) a written allegation of misconduct by the employee.

- (2) However, none of the following documents is an employee record about the prescribed employee—
- (a) a medical report about the employee indicating that disclosure of information in the report to the employee might be prejudicial to the employee’s mental or physical health or wellbeing;
  - (b) a document created by an appropriately qualified person for the primary purpose of providing a professional counselling service to another public service employee that contains information about the employee;
  - (c) a document about the employee that—
    - (i) is a public interest disclosure, or a record of a public interest disclosure, made under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010; or
    - (ii) was brought into existence for the administration of that Act;
  - (d) a document about the employee relating to suspected corrupt conduct under the Crime and Corruption Act 2001 or an investigation of the conduct;
  - (e) a document about the employee relating to a suspected criminal offence or an investigation of the offence;
  - (f) a document that is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (3) In this section—
misconduct see section 91(5) of the Act.

10 When an employee record is in an entity’s possession

- (1) An employee record is in an entity’s possession if—
- (a) the entity has the record in its possession, under its control, or is otherwise entitled to have access to the record; or

- (b) the record is in the possession, or under the control, of an employee of the entity in the employee's official capacity.
- (2) For subsection (1)—
  - (a) if the entity is the Minister, a person is an employee of the Minister if the person is an employee of the department administered by the Minister; or
  - (b) if the entity is the chief executive of a prescribed entity, a person is an employee of the chief executive if the person is an employee of the prescribed entity.

11 Dealing with employee record if detrimental to employee's interests

- (1) This section applies if a prescribed employee's chief executive intends to take either of the following actions (each a detrimental action)—
  - (a) use an employee record about the employee in a way that could be considered to be detrimental to the employee's interests;
  - (b) include in a record about the employee's employment history an employee record about the employee that could be considered to be detrimental to the employee's interests.
- (2) The chief executive must ensure that, at least 14 days before taking the detrimental action—
  - (a) the prescribed employee is given the opportunity to read the employee record and to acknowledge having read it by initialling it; and
  - (b) the prescribed employee is given a copy of the record; and
  - (c) if the prescribed employee refuses to read the record or to acknowledge having read it by initialling it—the refusal is noted on the record; and

- (d) the prescribed employee is given a reasonable opportunity to respond in writing to the record's contents; and
  - (e) any written response by the prescribed employee is attached to the record.
- (3) However, the chief executive may accept a response mentioned in subsection (2)(d) made at any other time.
- (4) Also, if the chief executive considers that giving the prescribed employee access to the employee record under subsection (2) would be likely to prejudice an existing relevant investigation or inquiry, the chief executive must comply with subsection (2) immediately after whichever of the following happens first—
- (a) the chief executive no longer considers that giving the employee access to the record would be likely to prejudice the relevant investigation or inquiry;
  - (b) the end of the period of 6 months after the detrimental action is taken.

12 Employee record in possession of another chief executive

- (1) This section applies if an employee record about a prescribed employee is in the possession of a chief executive of a prescribed entity (the other chief executive) who is not the employee's chief executive.
- (2) The other chief executive must give the employee record to the prescribed employee's chief executive as soon as practicable.
- (3) However, if the prescribed employee has been seconded to another prescribed entity for a total period of less than 6 months, subsection (2) only applies if the other chief executive and the employee's chief executive agree in writing that the other chief executive give the record to the employee's chief executive.

Note—

The other chief executive may also need to comply with a directive about giving the prescribed employee's personal and employment details to the employee's chief executive.

- (4) Also, subsection (2) does not apply to a referee's report or other document received for a selection process to fill an employment vacancy in the prescribed entity.

13 Access to employee record

- (1) This section applies if a chief executive has possession of an employee record about a prescribed employee.
- (2) The prescribed employee may, on request—
  - (a) inspect the record; or
  - (b) take an extract from, or copy, the record.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) to (7), the inspection, taking of the extract or copying (the requested action) must be allowed at a time and place convenient to the chief executive within 21 days after the request.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the record contains personal information of a person (the other person) other than the employee.
- (5) The chief executive may refuse the prescribed employee access to all or part of the record—
  - (a) if the chief executive is satisfied the access—
    - (i) would be an unreasonable invasion of the privacy of the other person or someone else; or
    - (ii) may cause harm to the other person or someone else; or
    - (iii) would be contrary to a law; or
    - (iv) would likely be refused if the request for access was an access application made by the employee

- (b) the Queensland Police Service.

16 Prescribed persons for protection from civil liability—Act, s 268

For section 268(1)(g) of the Act, each person mentioned in schedule 1 is a prescribed person.

17 Meaning of public sector disciplinary law for particular persons—Act, sch 2

- (1) This section applies in relation to—
  - (a) a person who the chief executive of the Queensland Ambulance Service proposes, under the Ambulance Service Act 1991, to employ in, or second to, the Queensland Ambulance Service; or
  - (b) a person who the commissioner under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1990 proposes, under that Act, to employ in, or second to, the Queensland Fire and Emergency Service.
- (2) For schedule 2 of the Act, definition public sector disciplinary law, paragraph (g), the following laws are prescribed—
  - (a) a law of another State that provides for the same, or substantially the same, matters as the Act;
  - (b) for a person mentioned in subsection (1)(a)—a law of another State that provides for the discipline of persons engaged in employment that is equivalent, or substantially equivalent, to employment under the Ambulance Service Act 1991, section 13;
  - (c) for a person mentioned in subsection (1)(b)—a law of another State that provides for the discipline of persons engaged in employment that is equivalent, or substantially equivalent, to employment under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1990, section 25;

- (d) a code of practice or other instrument under a law mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) providing for disciplinary matters.
