Part 6 Positive behaviour support and restrictive practices

Division 1 Preliminary

139 Purpose of part

 - (i) has regard to the human rights of those adults; and
 - (ii) safeguards them and others from harm; and
 - (iii) maximises the opportunity for positive outcomes and aims to reduce or eliminate the need for use of the restrictive practices; and
 - (iv) ensures transparency and accountability in the use of the restrictive practices.

- (3) A service provider is a relevant service provider to the extent this part applies in relation to the provider under subsections (1) and (2).
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this part applies in relation to a relevant service provider in relation to the provision of disability services or NDIS supports or services to all adults with an intellectual or cognitive disability receiving disability services or NDIS supports or services from the provider even if particular disability services or NDIS supports or services are not provided with funding received from the Commonwealth or the State.

 - (c) ensures the adult and their family and friends are given an opportunity to participate in the development of strategies for the care and support of the adult; and
 - (d) involves—
 - (i) positive behaviour support planning informed by evidence-based best practice; and
 - (ii) the implementation of strategies, to produce behavioural change, focussed on skills development and environmental design; and
 - (e) ensures transparency and accountability in the use of restrictive practices; and
 - (f) recognises that restrictive practices should only be used—
 - (i) when necessary to prevent harm to the adult or others; and
 - (ii) if the use is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others; and
 - (g) recognises that restrictive practices should not be used punitively or in response to behaviour that does not cause harm to the adult or others; and

- (h) aims to reduce the intensity, frequency and duration of the adult's behaviour that causes harm to the adult or others; and
- (i) aims to reduce or eliminate the need to use restrictive practices; and
- (j) if there is a positive behaviour support plan for the adult—ensures restrictive practices are only used consistent with the plan.

Note—

Harm to a person includes physical harm to the person and a serious risk of physical harm to the person. See section 144, definition harm.

 - (ii) is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others; and
 - (iii) complies with the positive behaviour support plan for the adult.

Note—

Some other requirements must also be complied with for the relevant service provider to be authorised to use the restrictive practice. See section 151 (for containment or seclusion) or 166 (for use of other restrictive practices).

- (4) Also, use of a restrictive practice may be authorised if—
- (a) the restrictive practice is used in the course of providing respite services or community access services to the adult; or

156 Chief executive to decide whether multidisciplinary assessment of adult will be conducted

- (1) The chief executive must decide whether a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted.
- (2) The chief executive may decide a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted if the chief executive considers it may be necessary for the relevant service provider to contain or seclude the adult to safeguard the adult or others from harm.
- (3) In deciding whether a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted, the chief executive must consult with, and consider the views of, the following entities—

 - (a) consult the adult’s treating doctor; and
 - (b) inform the adult’s treating doctor about—

- (i) the findings and theories of the persons who conducted the multidisciplinary assessment about the adult's behaviour that causes harm to the adult or others, including the factors contributing to the behaviour; and

159 Participation of psychiatrist or senior practitioner in development of plan

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the chief executive is aware the adult is—
 - (i) subject to a forensic order, treatment support order or treatment authority under the Mental Health Act 2016; or
 - (ii) a forensic disability client; and
 - (b) the chief executive develops a positive behaviour support plan for the adult under this division.

- (2) The chief executive must ensure a following person is given the opportunity to participate in the development of the positive behaviour support plan—
- (a) for an adult mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i)—the authorised psychiatrist responsible for treating the adult under the Mental Health Act 2016;
 - (b) for an adult mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(ii)—a senior practitioner responsible for the care and support of the adult under the Forensic Disability Act 2011.

Subdivision 3 Changing a positive behaviour support plan

160 Application of sdiv 3

This subdivision applies if an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval.

161 Who may change positive behaviour support plan

The positive behaviour support plan for the adult may be changed only by the chief executive.

162 When chief executive must decide whether positive behaviour support plan should be changed

The chief executive must decide whether a change to the adult's positive behaviour support plan should be made if—

- (a) a relevant service provider asks the chief executive, in writing, to make a change to the plan; or
- (b) the chief executive becomes aware the adult is subject to a forensic order, treatment support order or treatment authority under the Mental Health Act 2016.

Examples of when a relevant service provider might ask for a change—

- A new relevant service provider wants to use a restrictive practice in relation to the adult, including chemical, mechanical or physical restraint or restricting access.
- The relevant service provider to which the containment or seclusion approval applies wants to change a detail stated in the positive behaviour support plan for the adult.
- The containment or seclusion approval is about to expire and the relevant service provider to which the approval applies wishes to apply for a new approval.

163 Requirements for chief executive's decision about whether change should be made

- (1) The chief executive may decide a change should be made to the adult's positive behaviour support plan only if satisfied the change would not—
 - (a) increase the risk of the adult's behaviour causing harm to the adult or others; or
 - (b) decrease the extent to which the adult's needs are met or the adult's capabilities and quality of life are improved.
- (2) For deciding whether a change should be made, the chief executive may arrange for all or part of a multidisciplinary assessment to be conducted, or consult any of the entities listed in section 156(3), as the chief executive considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) However, if the chief executive is deciding whether a change should be made because the adult is subject to a forensic order, treatment support order or treatment authority under the Mental Health Act 2016, the chief executive must consult the authorised psychiatrist responsible for treating the adult under that Act.
- (4) Also, if the chief executive is deciding whether a change should be made because the adult is a forensic disability client, the chief executive must consult a senior practitioner responsible for the care and support of the adult under the Forensic Disability Act 2011.

- (5) Subsection (2) applies subject to any order or direction of the tribunal.

164 Action of chief executive after deciding whether change should be made

- (1) If the chief executive decides a change to the adult's positive behaviour support plan should be made, the chief executive must decide whether the change requires a GAA application to be made.
- (2) The change requires the making of a GAA application if it—
- (a) is inconsistent with the terms of an existing containment or seclusion approval; or

Examples—

- The existing containment or seclusion approval approves seclusion for periods of not more than 15 minutes. The change is to increase the maximum period to 30 minutes.
 - The existing containment or seclusion approval applies to relevant service provider A. The change is for relevant service provider B to use a restrictive practice in relation to the adult.
 - The existing containment or seclusion approval is for seclusion. The change is for the additional use of mechanical restraint.
- (b) is requested because an existing containment or seclusion approval is about to expire and the relevant service provider proposes to apply for a further approval.
- (3) If the change does not require the making of a GAA application, the chief executive must make the change and give a copy of the amended plan to the following—
- (a) the tribunal;
- (b) the adult;
- (c) if the adult has a guardian or informal decision-maker—the guardian or informal decision-maker;

- (d) the relevant service provider to which an existing containment or seclusion approval applies.
- (4) However, the chief executive is not required to give a copy of the amended plan to a person who is an informal decision-maker for the adult if—
- (a) the chief executive is not, and could not reasonably be expected to be, aware the person is an informal decision-maker for the adult; or
- (b) after taking all reasonable steps, the chief executive can not locate the person.
- (5) As soon as practicable after making the decision mentioned in subsection (1), the chief executive must give a prescribed notice to—
- (a) if the chief executive was required to decide whether a change should be made because of a request made by a relevant service provider—the relevant service provider; or
- Note—*
- If the chief executive decides the change should not be made and the relevant service provider is dissatisfied with the decision, the relevant service provider could apply to the tribunal under the GAA, section 80ZA for review of the existing containment or seclusion approval.
- (b) if the chief executive was required to decide whether a change should be made because the adult is subject to a forensic order, treatment support order or treatment authority under the Mental Health Act 2016, or is a forensic disability client—
- (i) the relevant director; and
- (ii) the relevant service provider to which an existing containment or seclusion approval applies.
- (6) In this section—
- GAA application means an application to the tribunal for—
- (a) the giving of a new containment or seclusion approval; or

(b) review of an existing containment or seclusion approval.

prescribed notice means a notice stating the chief executive's decisions about—

(a) whether a change should be made to the positive behaviour support plan for the adult; and

(b) if the chief executive decides a change should be made—whether the change requires the making of a GAA application.

relevant director means—

(a) if the adult is a forensic disability client—the director of forensic disability; or

(b) otherwise—the chief psychiatrist.

Subdivision 4 General requirements for containment or seclusion

165 Relevant service provider to ensure adult's needs are met

 - (b) use of the restrictive practice is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others; and

- (c) either—
 - (i) if the adult is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval—use of the restrictive practice complies with—

- (2) For subsection (1)(d)(ii), the restrictive practice is not used in compliance with the respite/community access plan if the relevant service provider does not implement the positive strategies stated in the plan.
- (3) This section does not apply if the adult is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval.
- (4) This section does not apply to chemical restraint (fixed dose) used in the course of providing respite services to the adult.

168 Using chemical restraint (fixed dose) for respite services

- (1) A relevant service provider may use chemical restraint (fixed dose) on an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability in the course of providing respite services to the adult if use of the chemical restraint complies with the consent of a relevant decision-maker (respite) for the adult.

- (2) This section does not apply if the adult is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval.

169 Using chemical, mechanical or physical restraint, or restricting access, if consent ended

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the guardian for a restrictive practice matter for an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability is the public guardian; and
 - (b) the public guardian has given consent (the existing consent) to the use of a restrictive practice, other than containment or seclusion, in relation to the adult.
- (2) A relevant service provider may use the restrictive practice after the existing consent ends if—
- (a) at least 30 days before the existing consent ends, the relevant service provider asks the public guardian, in writing, to consent to the use of the restrictive practice in relation to the adult; and
 - (b) at the time the existing consent ends, the public guardian has not decided whether to give the consent; and
 - (c) use of the restrictive practice—
 - (i) is necessary to prevent the adult’s behaviour causing harm to the adult or others; and
 - (ii) is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others; and
 - (iii) complies with the existing consent and the positive behaviour support plan or respite/community access plan for the adult.
- (3) However, the relevant service provider may only use the restrictive practice under this section until the earlier of the following—
- (a) the public guardian gives the relevant service provider notice about the public guardian’s decision whether to give the consent;

- (b) 30 days after the existing consent ends.

170 Using chemical, mechanical or physical restraint, or restricting access, under short term approval

- (1) A relevant service provider may use chemical, mechanical or physical restraint on, or restrict access of, an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability if—
- (a) there is an immediate and serious risk of harm to the adult or others; and
