James Cook University Act 1997

An Act about the James Cook University

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the James Cook University Act 1997.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this Act.

Part 2 The university and its council

Division 1 University establishment and general functions and powers

4 Establishment of university

- (1) The James Cook University is established.
- (2) The university—
 - (a) is a body corporate; and
 - (b) has a seal; and

- (c) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

5 Functions of university

The university's functions are—

- (a) to provide education at university standard; and
- (b) to provide facilities for study and research generally and, in particular, in subjects of special importance to the people of the tropics; and
- (c) to encourage study and research generally and, in particular, in subjects of special importance to the people of the tropics; and
- (d) to provide courses of study or instruction (at the levels of achievement the council considers appropriate) to meet the needs of the community; and
- (e) to confer higher education awards; and
- (ea) to disseminate knowledge and promote scholarship; and
- (eb) to provide facilities and resources for the wellbeing of the university's staff, students and other persons undertaking courses at the university; and
- (f) to exploit commercially, for the university's benefit, a facility or resource of the university, including, for example, study, research or knowledge, or the practical application of study, research or knowledge, belonging to the university, whether alone or with someone else; and
- (g) to perform other functions given to the university under this or another Act.

6 General powers of university

- (1) The university has all the powers of an individual, and may, for example—
 - (a) enter into contracts; and

- (b) acquire, hold, dispose of, and deal with property; and
 - (c) appoint agents and attorneys; and
 - (d) engage consultants; and
 - (e) fix charges, and other terms, for services and other facilities it supplies; and
 - (f) do anything else necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, its functions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the university has the powers given to it under this or another Act.
 - (3) The university may exercise its powers inside or outside Queensland.
 - (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the university may exercise its powers outside Australia.

Division 2 Council establishment and general functions and powers

7 Establishment of council

There is a council of the university.

8 Functions of council

- (1) The council is the university's governing body.
- (2) The council has the functions conferred on it under this or another Act.

9 Powers of council

- (1) The council may do anything necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, its functions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the council has the powers given to it under this or another Act and, in particular—

- (a) to appoint the university's staff; and
- (b) to manage and control the university's affairs and property; and
- (c) to manage and control the university's finances.

10 Council to promote university's interests

The council must act in the way that appears to it most likely to promote the university's interests.

11 Delegation

- (1) The council may delegate its powers under this Act to—
 - (a) an appropriately qualified member of the council; or
 - (b) a committee consisting of appropriately qualified persons, but which must include 1 or more members of the council; or
 - (c) an appropriately qualified member of the university's staff.
- (2) However, the council may not delegate its power—
 - (a) to make an election policy; or
 - (b) to adopt the university's annual budget.
- (3) A delegation of a power under subsection (1) to the vice-chancellor may permit the subdelegation of the power to an appropriately qualified member of the university's staff.

Division 3 Council membership

12 Membership of council

The council consists of official members, appointed members, elected members and additional members.

13 Official members

The official members are—

- (a) the chancellor; and
- (b) the vice-chancellor; and
- (c) if the chairperson is not the vice-chancellor—the chairperson.

14 Appointed members

- (1) There are 6 appointed members.
- (2) The Governor in Council is to appoint the appointed members.

15 Elected members

- (1) There are 5 elected members.
- (2) The elected members are—
 - (a) 2 members of the academic staff of the university; and
 - (b) 1 member of the professional and technical staff of the university; and
 - (c) 1 undergraduate student; and
 - (d) 1 postgraduate student.
- (3) Each elected member is to be elected at a council election.

16 Additional members

- (1) There are 2 additional members.
- (2) The council must appoint the additional members.
- (3) An additional member must not be a member of the university's staff or a student.

17 When council is taken to be properly constituted

- (1) The council is taken to be properly constituted if the total number of members holding office under this division is—
 - (a) if there is an official member under section 13(c)—at least 9; or
 - (b) otherwise—at least 8.
- (2) For subsection (1), it does not matter whether the members are official, appointed, elected or additional members.

18 Appointed member's term of office

An appointed member is to be appointed for a term of not more than 4 years.

19 Elected member's term of office

- (1) An elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) or (b) holds office for 4 years.
- (2) An elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) or (d) holds office for 2 years.
- (3) An elected member's term of office starts—
 - (a) if the member is re-elected—the day after the day when the member's previous term of office ends; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the day after the day when the term of office of the member's predecessor ends.

20 Additional member's term of office

An additional member is to be appointed for a term of not more than 4 years decided by the council.

20A Dealing with casual vacancy in office of an elected member

- (1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member.
- (2) If the elected member was elected at a council election, the council must appoint to the office the one person, if any, who—
 - (a) was a candidate for the office in the council election; and
 - (b) was not elected; and
 - (c) received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected; and
 - (d) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (e) is willing to be, and available to perform the functions of, a member.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) the elected member was not elected at a council election; or
 - (b) no-one is eligible for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) A person is to be elected to the office at a council election.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), if the elected member was an undergraduate or postgraduate student, the council may appoint a student of that type to the office.
- (6) A person appointed under subsection (2) or (5) is taken, other than for subsection (2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election.

21 Failure to elect elected members

- (1) This section applies if, by the end of the relevant day—
 - (a) insufficient persons are elected for a class of elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(a) or (b) (each a relevant class) to comply with section 15(2); or

- (b) a person is not elected for a class of elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(c) or (d) (also each a relevant class).
- (2) The Minister may appoint, as elected members for the relevant class, the number of persons required to comply with section 15(2).
- (3) The council may, if asked by the Minister, nominate a person for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) A person appointed under subsection (2) is taken, other than for section 20A(2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election for the relevant class.
- (5) This section applies to the periodic election of members and an election required because of a casual vacancy.
- (6) In this section—

relevant day, in relation to a relevant class, means the last day of the period notified under the election policy for the holding of a council election for an elected member of the relevant class.

22 Casual vacancies

A person appointed or elected to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a member is appointed or elected for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor.

Division 3B Matters relating to offices of appointed, elected and additional members

23 Ineligibility for membership of council

- (1) A person is not eligible to become an elected, appointed or additional member if—
 - (a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

- (b) the person has a conviction for an indictable offence, other than an offence in relation to which the person is not eligible under paragraph (a).
 - (2) Also, a person is not eligible to be elected or appointed as an elected, appointed or additional member if the person's election or appointment as the member would result in the person being a member for more than 12 years, whether continuously or not.
 - (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person if a majority of members agree the person may be elected or appointed as an elected, appointed or additional member.
 - (4) Subsection (1)(b) is subject to sections 25 and 26.

24 Vacation of office

- (1) The office of an elected, appointed or additional member becomes vacant if—
 - (a) the member dies; or
 - (b) for an elected member of a class mentioned in section 15(2)(a) to (d)—
 - (i) if the election policy in effect when the member was elected included nomination requirements for the class—the member ceases to meet the nomination requirements under the policy; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the member ceases to be an eligible person for the class; or

Example—

An elected member of a class mentioned in section 15(2)(d) ceases to be a postgraduate student.

 - (c) for an additional member—the member becomes a member of the university's staff or a student; or
 - (d) the member is absent, without the council's leave, from 3 consecutive meetings of the council of which proper notice has been given to the member; or
 - (e) the member becomes an official member; or

- (f) the member resigns from office by signed notice—
 - (i) if the member is an appointed member—given to the Minister; or
 - (ii) if the member is an elected or additional member—given to the chancellor; or
- (g) the member is removed from office under section 26B; or
- (h) the member is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or
- (i) the member is convicted of an indictable offence, other than an offence in relation to which the member’s office becomes vacant under paragraph (h).

Note—

See section 62D for the requirement to disclose a matter mentioned in paragraph (h) or (i).

- (2) Subsection (1)(i) is subject to sections 25 and 26.
- (3) A resignation takes effect on the day the notice of resignation is given to the Minister or the chancellor or, if a later day of effect is stated in the notice, the later day.

25 Discretion where appointed member convicted of indictable offence

- (1) If the Minister considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in section 23(1)(b) or 24(1)(i) of which a person has been convicted, the Minister may—
 - (a) if the person was an appointed member when convicted—give notice to the chancellor and the person that the person is restored as an appointed member, and may be subsequently reappointed, despite the conviction; or
 - (b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become an appointed member despite the conviction.

- (2) On the day the chancellor receives a notice under subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) the person is restored as an appointed member; and
 - (b) if another person has been appointed to fill the vacancy, the other person's appointment ends.
 - (3) If a person is restored as an appointed member under subsection (2), the person's term of office as a member ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

26 Discretion where elected or additional member convicted of indictable offence

- (1) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in section 23(1)(b) or 24(1)(i) of which a person has been convicted, the council may—
 - (a) if the person was an elected or additional member when convicted—give notice to the person that the person is restored as an elected or additional member, and may be subsequently re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or
 - (b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become an elected or additional member despite the conviction.
- (2) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) the person is restored as an elected or additional member; and
 - (b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy, the other person's membership of the council ends.
- (3) If a person is restored as an elected or additional member under subsection (2), the person's term of office as a member ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

Division 3C Council elections

26AA Election policy

- (1) The council must—
 - (a) make a policy (an election policy) about the conduct of elections required under sections 15 and 20A; and
 - (b) publish the election policy on the university’s website.
- (2) The election policy must include—
 - (a) provisions to ensure the integrity and security of the voting system; and
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), provisions to ensure—
 - (i) only persons who are eligible to vote may vote; and
 - (ii) a person can not vote more than once in an election; and
 - (iii) voting is done by secret ballot; and
 - (iv) a person is not improperly influenced in voting; and
 - (c) provisions stating the procedure for voting, including the procedure for issuing ballots; and
 - (d) provisions about—
 - (i) notifying the period during which an election is to be held; and
 - (ii) nominating candidates, including calling for and making nominations, and fixing the day by which nominations must be made; and
 - (iii) publishing the results of an election, including the day by which the results must be published; and

- (iv) making and resolving complaints.
- (3) Also, the election policy may include provisions stating requirements for—
 - (a) eligibility to be nominated as a candidate for a particular class of elected members; and
 - (b) eligibility to vote, including eligibility to vote for a particular class of elected members.
- (4) The election policy takes effect on the day it is published on the university's website or any later day stated in the policy.

26AB Conduct of election

An election required under section 15 or 20A must be held under the election policy.

26AC Eligibility to vote

A person is eligible to vote in an election for a class of elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(a) to (d) only if the person—

- (a) is an eligible person for the class of elected members; and
- (b) otherwise meets any requirements under the election policy for eligibility to vote.

Division 4 Members' function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office

26A Member's function, and obligations about function

- (1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.
- (2) In performing the function, a member—

- (a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and
- (b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and
- (c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member's personal interests and the interests of the university; and
- (d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

26B Council may remove member from office

- (1) The council may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least two-thirds of its members are satisfied the member has not complied with—
 - (a) section 26A(2); or
 - (b) a conduct obligation.
- (2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—
 - (a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and
 - (b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.
- (3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member's term of office ends on the later of the following—
 - (a) the day the member receives the notice;
 - (b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.
- (4) The council's power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council's powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).

Division 5 Extending terms of office

26C Minister may extend terms of office

- (1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of the elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—
 - (a) is in the best interests of the university; and
 - (b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.
- (2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.
- (3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).
- (4) This section—
 - (a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and
 - (b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.

Division 6 Meetings of the council

27 Who is to preside at meetings

- (1) The chancellor must preside at meetings of the council.
- (2) However, if the chancellor and deputy chancellor are both absent from a meeting of the council or the offices are vacant, the members present must elect a member to preside at the meeting.

28 Quorum

A quorum exists at a meeting of the council if at least half its members are present.

29 Conduct of meetings

The council may otherwise regulate its proceedings as it considers appropriate.

Part 3 Certain officers of the university

30 Chancellor

- (1) There is a chancellor of the university.
- (2) The council must elect a chancellor whenever there is a vacancy in the office.
- (3) The person elected need not be a member.
- (4) The person elected must not be a student or a member of the university's staff.
- (5) The chancellor holds office for the term, not longer than 5 years, fixed by the council.

31 Deputy chancellor

- (1) There is a deputy chancellor of the university.
- (2) The council must elect a member as deputy chancellor whenever there is a vacancy in the office.
- (3) The deputy chancellor holds office for the term, not longer than 4 years, fixed by the council.
- (4) The deputy chancellor is to act as chancellor—
 - (a) during a vacancy in the office of chancellor; and

- (b) during all periods when the chancellor is absent from duty or, for another reason, can not perform the functions of the office.

32 Vice-chancellor

- (1) There is a vice-chancellor of the university.
- (2) The council must appoint a vice-chancellor whenever there is a vacancy in the office.
- (3) The terms of appointment are as decided by the council.
- (4) The vice-chancellor is the chief executive officer of the university and may exercise the powers and perform the functions conferred on the vice-chancellor by this or another Act or the council.
- (5) The vice-chancellor may delegate powers of the vice-chancellor under this or another Act to an appropriately qualified member of the university's staff.

Note—

See also section 11(3) in relation to the subdelegation by the vice-chancellor of a power delegated by the council.

Part 4 Bodies connected with the university

Division 1 Convocation

33 Establishment of convocation

- (1) A convocation of the university is established.
- (2) The council is to decide the membership of the convocation.
- (3) The council is to decide—
 - (a) how meetings of the convocation are to be called; and
 - (b) how the convocation is to conduct its proceedings; and

- (c) if and how members of the convocation are to be appointed as members of the council; and
- (d) the quorum of a meeting of the convocation; and
- (e) the powers and functions of the convocation.

Division 2 Union

34 Establishment of union

- (1) The James Cook University Union is established.
- (2) The union—
 - (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
 - (b) has a common seal; and
 - (c) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

35 Composition

The persons who are eligible to be members of the union are—

- (a) students; and
- (b) persons eligible for membership under the union's constitution.

36 Role

- (1) The union has the role and powers stated in its constitution.
- (2) The union also has the role and powers decided by the council.
- (3) However, the union is not the employee or agent of the council.

37 General powers

Without limiting section 36, the union has all the powers of an individual, including, for example, the power to acquire, hold, dispose of, and deal with, property.

38 Constitution

- (1) The union must have a written constitution.
- (2) The union's constitution, and each amendment of the constitution, must be submitted to the council for its approval.
- (3) The constitution or amendment has no effect until approved by the council.

Division 4 Academic board

40 Establishment of academic board

- (1) The council may establish an academic board of the university.
- (2) The council is to decide—
 - (a) the membership of the academic board; and
 - (b) the functions of the academic board in relation to academic matters, including teaching and learning, academic policies and research.

40A Chairperson of academic board

- (1) There is to be a chairperson of the academic board.
- (2) The council must decide who is the chairperson.
- (3) The chairperson holds office for the term, not longer than 3 years, decided by the council.

- (b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

Note—

See section 62D for the requirement to disclose the disqualification or conviction.

- (2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—
 - (a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—
 - (i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and
 - (ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or
 - (b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson despite the conviction.
- (3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—
 - (a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and
 - (b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person's term of office ends.
- (4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under subsection (3), the person's term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

40D Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office

- (1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office if at least two-thirds of its members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson has not complied with—
 - (a) section 26A(2); or
 - (b) a conduct obligation.
- (2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson notice of the decision and the reasons for it.
- (3) The chancellor's, vice-chancellor's or chairperson's term of office ends on the later of the following—
 - (a) the day he or she receives the notice;
 - (b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

40E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

- (1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D despite the vice-chancellor's terms of appointment.
- (2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D—
 - (a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor's right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and
 - (b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—
 - (i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

- (ii) his or her term of office had ended.

40F Vacation of office

- (1) The office of the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson becomes vacant if he or she—
- (a) can not continue as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under section 40C; or
 - (b) is removed from office under section 40D.
- (2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.

Part 5 Property and finance

Division 1 Property held on trust or conditions

41 Definition for div 1

In this division—

property includes income from property and a part or residue of the property.

42 Amendment of terms of trusts and gifts

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) property is held by the university on terms requiring the property to be used for a particular purpose (the donor's purpose); and
 - (b) the council is satisfied—
 - (i) the donor's purpose—
 - (A) has been wholly or substantially achieved; or

- (B) no longer exists; or
 - (C) has been adequately provided for in another way; or
 - (D) is uncertain, can not be identified, or is insufficiently defined; or
 - (E) becomes impossible, impractical or inexpedient to carry out; or
- (ii) the property is inadequate for the donor's purpose.
- (2) The council may set up and maintain a scheme for the use of the property for another purpose (the designated purpose).
 - (3) The scheme must be in writing.
 - (4) The university must without charge give a copy of the scheme to anyone who asks for it.

43 Selection of designated purpose

- (1) In selecting the designated purpose, the council must prefer a purpose that—
 - (a) is as nearly similar as practicable to the donor's purpose; and
 - (b) can practically and conveniently be achieved.
- (2) However, the scheme is not invalid merely because another designated purpose may have been more properly selected under subsection (1).

44 Property to be held for designated purpose

Property to which the scheme applies is to be held by the university for the property's designated purpose instead of the donor's purpose.

45 Certain persons to be given notice of scheme

If the scheme applies to land, the university must, as soon as practicable after the scheme is set up, give a copy of the scheme to the registrar of titles.

46 Amendment of scheme

- (1) The council may amend the scheme.
- (2) Sections 42 to 45 apply to the amendment of a scheme as if a reference to the donor's purpose is a reference to the designated purpose of the scheme that is to be amended.

47 University's powers under other laws not limited

This division does not limit the university's powers and rights under any other law about property held on trust by the university.

48 University may carry out conditions of gift etc.

The university may agree to and carry out any conditions of a gift, grant, bequest or devise of property to the university.

Division 2 Dealing with State land by council

49 Application of Land Act 1994

- (1) State land is held and may be disposed of under the Land Act 1994.
- (2) However, the university may grant an interest in State land only by way of lease.
- (3) Despite the Land Act 1994, a trustee lease or sublease for land under that Act that is subject to an operational reserve or operational deed of grant in trust may be for up to 100 years.

- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the purpose for which a reserve was dedicated or for which land was granted in trust under the Land Act 1994 includes a reference to—
 - (a) ‘university’; or
 - (b) ‘university and college’.
- (5) The purpose is taken to include anything that is consistent with the university’s functions under section 5.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) apply whether the reserve was dedicated or the land was granted in trust before or after the commencement of this section.
- (7) In this section—

operational deed of grant in trust see the Land Act 1994, schedule 6.

operational reserve see the Land Act 1994, schedule 6.

Division 3 Finance

50 University is statutory body under the Financial Accountability Act 2009

To remove any doubt, it is declared that the university is a statutory body under the Financial Accountability Act 2009.

51 University is statutory body under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982

- (1) Under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, the university is a statutory body.
- (2) The Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, part 2B sets out the way in which the university’s powers under this Act are affected by the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.

52 Trust funds

The university may establish or administer trust funds.

53 Investment common fund

- (1) The university may establish an investment common fund for the collective investment of trust funds or other amounts held by it.
- (2) The university may add amounts to or withdraw amounts from the investment common fund, without incurring any liability for breach of trust.
- (3) The university must periodically distribute the income of the investment common fund among each of the funds forming the investment common fund (a component fund) having regard to the share of each component fund in the investment common fund.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), if a component fund consists of an amount received for use for a stated purpose and the amount can not or will not be used for the purpose immediately, income attributable to the share of the amount in the investment common fund may be paid into the general funds of the university if the income is not needed immediately for the stated purpose.
- (5) Also, despite subsection (3), the university may—
 - (a) add a part of the income of the investment common fund to the fund's capital; or
 - (b) use a part of the income to establish or augment another fund to make provision against capital depreciation or reduction of income.

54 Application of revenue

- (1) Subject to the terms of a relevant trust, amounts received by the university from any source are to be applied solely to university purposes.

[s 55]

- (2) To remove any doubt, each of the following purposes is a university purpose—
 - (a) enabling a student or staff member, or former student or staff member, of the university to undertake study or research at the university or elsewhere;
 - (b) the advancement of learning generally;
 - (c) helping a body affiliated or associated with the university.

55 Financial review

- (1) The council must, in each year, adopt a budget for the university for the next year.
- (2) In framing the budget the council need not take account of amounts mentioned in subsection (4).
- (3) The council must control its spending as nearly as possible within the limits of the approved budget.
- (4) The council must undertake an annual review of—
 - (a) amounts available, or expected to be available, to the university by way of bequest, donation or special grant; and
 - (b) the spending of the amounts.

56 University's financial year

The university's financial year is a calendar year.

Part 7 Miscellaneous

61 Forming and taking part in corporations

- (1) The university may be a member of, form, take part in forming or manage a corporation whose objects include any of the following—

- (a) making available facilities for study, research or education;
 - (b) providing teaching, research, development, consultancy or other services for public or private entities;
 - (c) helping or engaging in the development or promotion of the university's research or the application or use of the results of the research;
 - (d) preparing, publishing, distributing or licensing the use of literary or artistic work, audio or audiovisual material or computer software;
 - (e) exploiting commercially a facility or resource of the university, including, for example, study, research or knowledge, or the practical application of study, research or knowledge, developed by or belonging to the university, whether alone or with someone else;
 - (f) seeking or encouraging gifts to the university or for the university's purposes;
 - (g) another object, consistent with this Act, that the council considers is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2) The university, or a corporation managed by the university or of which the university is a member, may enter into an agreement or arrangement with a corporation whose objects include an object mentioned in subsection (1) for achieving the object.
- (3) This section applies despite the Corporations Act.

62 Use of facilities and staff

The university may enter into a contract or other arrangement with an entity for the use of the university's facilities and the provision of services by the university's staff.

62A Protection from liability

- (1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

62B Report about person's criminal history

- (1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—
 - (a) a written report about the person's criminal history; and
 - (b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.
- (2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—
 - (a) a written report about the person's criminal history; and
 - (b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.
- (3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.
- (5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner's possession or to which the commissioner has access.
- (6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

(7) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person's criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

62C Delegation by Minister

The Minister may delegate the Minister's power under section 62B(1) to an appropriately qualified officer of the department.

62D Requirement to disclose particular matters

- (1) This section applies if a person who is a member—
- (a) is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or
 - (b) is convicted of an indictable offence mentioned in section 24(1)(i) or 40C(1)(b).
- (2) The person must, unless the person has a reasonable excuse, immediately give notice of the disqualification or conviction to—
- (a) if the person is the chancellor when disqualified or convicted—the vice-chancellor; or
 - (b) if the person is an appointed member when disqualified or convicted—the Minister; or
 - (c) otherwise—the chancellor.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The notice must include the following information—
- (a) if the notice is of the person's disqualification—
 - (i) the existence of the disqualification; and
 - (ii) when the disqualification took effect; and

- (iii) sufficient details to identify the grounds for the disqualification;
 - (b) if the notice is of the person's conviction—
 - (i) the existence of the conviction; and
 - (ii) when the offence was committed; and
 - (iii) sufficient details to identify the offence; and
 - (iv) the sentence imposed on the person.
- (4) The Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor must ensure a notice given to the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purposes of this Act.

62E Restrictions on disclosing protected information

- (1) This section applies to a person who possesses protected information because the person is or was—
 - (a) the Minister; or
 - (b) a member; or
 - (c) a person involved in the administration of this Act, including, for example, as a public service employee; or
 - (d) a person helping the Minister, the council or a member to perform a function under this Act, including by providing administrative or other support.
- (2) The person must not, directly or indirectly, disclose the protected information to another person unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (3) or (4).
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (3) The person may disclose the protected information to another person—
 - (a) to the extent necessary to perform the person's functions under this Act; or
 - (b) if the disclosure is authorised under an Act; or

- (c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law; or
 - (d) if the person to whom the information relates consents to the disclosure; or
 - (e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not identify the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (f) if the information is, or has been, lawfully accessible to the public.
- (4) Also, without limiting subsection (3), the Minister, chancellor or vice-chancellor may disclose the protected information to any of the following to the extent necessary for the proper performance of the council's functions—
- (a) the council;
 - (b) a committee of the council;
 - (c) a member;
 - (d) another person.
- (5) In this section—
- function* includes power.
- perform*, a function, includes exercise a power.
- protected information* means—
- (a) a report, or information contained in a report, given under section 62B; or
 - (b) a notice, or information contained in a notice, given under section 62D.

63 Control of traffic and conduct on university land

Schedule 1 has effect.

64 Regulation-making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

65 Repealed Act references

In an Act or document, a reference to the James Cook University of North Queensland Act 1970 may, if the context permits, be taken to be a reference to this Act.

Part 8 Repeal and transitional provisions

Division 1 Repeal provision

67 Repeal

The James Cook University of North Queensland Act 1970 No. 19 is repealed.

Division 2 Transitional provisions for the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

68 Definitions for div 2

In this division—

commencement means the commencement of the provision in which the term is used.

new additional member see section 74.

new appointed members see section 70(2).

pre-amended Act means this Act as in force before the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4.

Subdivision 2 Provisions about council membership

69 Continuation of official members

Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(2)(c), (e) or (f) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members' terms of office start.

70 Appointment of new appointed members

- (1) The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 8 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.
- (2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).

71 Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members

- (1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.
- (2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—
 - (a) the person's term of office ends under subsection (3); or
 - (b) the person's office sooner becomes vacant.
- (3) Despite section 18, the person's term of office ends when the new appointed members' terms of office start.

72 Continuation of elected members

- (1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.
- (2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—

- (a) the person's term of office ends under section 73; or
 - (b) the person's office sooner becomes vacant.
- (3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person's term of office is 3 years.

73 Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

- (1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.
- (3) The person's term of office ends when the person who is the member's successor is elected under the ballot.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the pre-amended Act.
- (5) The person's term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.
- (7) The person's term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.
- (9) The person's term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(f) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

- (10) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members' terms of office start.
 - (11) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members' terms of office start.
 - (12) Subsections (3), (5), (7) and (9) apply despite section 72(3).
 - (13) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4.

74 Appointment of new additional member

The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint a person as the additional member (the new additional member) under section 16.

75 Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

- (1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—
 - (a) the person's term of office ends under subsection (2); or
 - (b) the person's office sooner becomes vacant.
- (2) Despite section 20, the person's term of office ends when the new additional member's term of office starts.

76 Council need not include additional members

Despite section 12, the council need not include an additional member before the new additional member's term of office starts.

77 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

- (1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 73(1) is conducted.
- (2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4, had not commenced.

Subdivision 3 Constitution of council

78 Constitution of council

- (1) This section applies until the new appointed members' terms of office start.
- (2) Despite section 17, the council is taken to be properly constituted when it has 15 or more members, whether they be additional, appointed, elected or official members.

Division 3 Transitional provisions for University Legislation Amendment Act 2017

79 Definitions for division

In this division—

previous, for a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from time to time before the commencement.

transition period means the period—

- (a) starting when the council passes its first membership resolution; and
- (b) ending when the membership resolution has taken effect for each membership class.

80 Particular references to council election

A reference in the following provisions to a council election includes a reference to a ballot under previous section 15(3)—

- (a) section 20A(2) and (3)(a);
- (b) section 22O(2) and (3)(a);
- (c) schedule 2, definition elected member.

81 Majority required for first membership resolution

- (1) This section applies for the passing of the first resolution under section 22J.
- (2) Despite section 22J(7), the resolution must be passed by at least two-thirds of the total number of members provided for under sections 13 to 16 as in force immediately before the resolution is voted on.

82 Council must give Minister notice of first membership resolution

- (1) The council must, after passing the first membership resolution, give the Minister a notice stating—
 - (a) the number stated in the resolution for appointed members; and
 - (b) the date the resolution was passed.
- (2) The notice must be given at least 6 months before the earliest end day of the appointed members who hold office when the membership resolution is passed.

83 Membership and constitution of council during transition period

- (1) A person who was an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f) when the council passed its first membership resolution continues to hold office as an elected member until—

[s 84]

- (a) the term for which the person held office under section 19(1) ends; or
 - (b) the person's office sooner becomes vacant under section 24.
- (2) Despite sections 22C(c) and 22F(1), during the transition period the council also consists of any person—
- (a) whose office as an elected member is continued under subsection (1); or
 - (b) who is appointed under section 85 to the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f).
- (3) Despite section 22I(1)(b), the council is taken to be properly constituted during the transition period if it has the number of members provided for under section 17 as in force immediately before the start of the transition period.

84 Convocation elected members to be disregarded for s 22J(6)(a)

During the transition period, the following persons must be disregarded in calculating the number of elected members for section 22J(6)(a)—

- (a) a person whose office as an elected member is continued under section 83(1);
- (b) a person who is appointed under section 85 to the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f).

85 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of convocation elected member at start of, or during, transition period

- (1) This section applies if a casual vacancy in the office of an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(f)—
- (a) exists at the start of the transition period; or
 - (b) arises during the transition period.

- (2) If the elected member was elected by a ballot under previous section 15(3) or at a council election, the council may appoint to the office the one person, if any, who—
 - (a) was a candidate for the office in the ballot or election; and
 - (b) was not elected; and
 - (c) received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected; and
 - (d) is eligible, under this Act, to be a member; and
 - (e) is willing to be, and available to perform the functions of, a member.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) the elected member was not elected by a ballot under previous section 15(3) or at a council election; or
 - (b) no-one is eligible for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) The council may appoint to the office a member of the convocation who—
 - (a) is eligible under this Act to be a member; and
 - (b) otherwise meets any nomination requirements under the election policy for the class of elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(f).
- (5) A person appointed under this section—
 - (a) is appointed for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor; and
 - (b) is taken, other than for subsection (2) or (3)(a), to have been elected at a council election.

86 Repeal of university statutes

- (1) This section applies to a university statute made under previous section 57 that was in force immediately before the commencement.

- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, on the commencement, the university statute is repealed.

Division 4 Transitional provisions for Electrical Safety and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2026

87 Definitions for division

In this division—

continuing member see section 88(2).

new, in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from the commencement.

repealed, in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as in force from time to time before the commencement.

88 Existing members

- (1) Each person who held office as a member immediately before the commencement continues to be a member on the commencement.
- (2) A person who continues to be a member under this section on the commencement is a continuing member.
- (3) On the commencement—
- (a) for new part 2, division 3, each continuing member is taken to be a member of the same type the person was immediately before the commencement; and
- (b) a continuing member who was appointed under repealed section 22E is taken to be a member appointed under new section 14; and
- (c) a continuing member who was appointed under repealed section 22G is taken to be a member appointed under new section 16.

- (4) On the commencement, a continuing member's term of office is taken to be the same term for which the member was appointed or elected under repealed part 2, division 3A.

89 Particular appointments of additional members do not take effect

- (1) This section applies to a person who was appointed as an additional member under repealed section 22G before the commencement but whose term of office was to start after the commencement.
- (2) The person's appointment does not take effect and is taken never to have been made.

90 Number of additional members during transitional period

- (1) From the commencement, the number of additional members is taken to be equal to the number of continuing members mentioned in section 88(3)(c) whose terms of office have not ended.
- (2) This section—
- (a) applies despite new section 16(1); but
 - (b) stops applying on the earlier of—
 - (i) the first day after the commencement on which there are not more than 2 continuing members in relation to whom subsection (1) applies; or
 - (ii) 20 April 2026.

91 Minister may appoint elected member in particular circumstances

- (1) This section applies if, during the period starting on the day of the commencement and ending on 20 April 2026—
- (a) no person is elected for a class of elected members mentioned in new section 15(2)(c) or (d) (each a student

- class*), other than because a casual vacancy has arisen;
or
- (b) both of the following apply—
- (i) a casual vacancy arises in the office of a continuing member who is a student;
 - (ii) as a result of the vacancy, the council requires an elected member of a particular student class to comply with new section 15(2).
- (2) The Minister may appoint a person as an elected member for the student class.
- (3) The council may, if asked by the Minister, nominate a person for appointment under subsection (2).
- (4) A person appointed under subsection (2) is taken to have been elected at a council election for the student class.
- (5) This section applies despite new section 20A.

Schedule 1 Control of traffic and conduct on university land

section 63

Part 1 Authorised persons and security officers

1 Appointment of authorised persons and security officers

- (1) The vice-chancellor may, in writing, appoint a person who the vice-chancellor is satisfied has the necessary training, or knowledge and experience, to be an authorised person under this Act.
- (2) The vice-chancellor may, in writing, appoint a person who the vice-chancellor is satisfied has the necessary training, or knowledge and experience, to be a security officer under this Act.
- (3) A person may be appointed both an authorised person and a security officer.

1A Limitation of authorised person's or security officer's powers

The powers of an authorised person or a security officer may be limited—

- (a) under a condition of appointment; or
- (b) by notice of the vice-chancellor given to the authorised person or security officer.

2 Terms of appointment

- (1) An authorised person or security officer holds office on the conditions stated in the instrument of appointment.
- (2) An authorised person or security officer—

- (a) if the appointment provides for a term of appointment—ceases to hold office as an authorised person or security officer at the end of the term; and
- (b) may resign by signed notice given to the vice-chancellor.

3 Identity cards

- (1) The vice-chancellor must issue an identity card to each authorised person and security officer.
- (2) The identity card must—
 - (a) contain a recent photograph of the authorised person or security officer; and
 - (b) be in a form approved by the vice-chancellor; and
 - (c) be signed by the authorised person or security officer.
- (3) A person who ceases to be an authorised person or security officer must, as soon as practicable, return the person's identity card to the vice-chancellor, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not returning it.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units.

4 Proof of authority

- (1) An authorised person or security officer may exercise a power under this Act in relation to someone else only if the authorised person or security officer—
 - (a) first produces his or her identity card for inspection by the other person; or
 - (b) has his or her identity card displayed so that it is clearly visible.
- (2) If, for any reason, it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the authorised person or security officer must produce the identity card for inspection by the person at the first reasonable opportunity.

- (3) If subsection (2) is relevant and is complied with by an authorised person or security officer, the exercise of a power in relation to someone else by the authorised person or security officer is not invalid merely because of subsection (1).

Part 2 Traffic control

5 Persons authorised to control traffic on university's land

- (1) An authorised person may control traffic on the university's land and, for this purpose, may give directions to persons on the land.
- (2) A person must not fail to comply with a direction given under subsection (1), unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—10 penalty units.

6 Regulatory notice

- (1) The university may erect or display at or near any vehicular entrance to the university's land, a notice (a regulatory notice) regulating the driving, parking or standing of vehicles on the land, including, for example—
- (a) fixing a maximum speed limit; or
 - (b) indicating a pedestrian crossing; or
 - (c) indicating a place where the driving, parking or standing of a vehicle is restricted or prohibited.
- (2) A person on the university's land must comply with a regulatory notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (3) A regulatory notice—
- (a) must state the limits of the area to which the notice applies; and

- (b) may state that a contravention of a requirement of the notice is an offence against the Act and the penalty for the offence.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (1), the university may erect and display regulatory notices in the form of official traffic signs.
- (5) Evidence that a regulatory notice was erected or displayed at a place mentioned in subsection (1) is evidence that the notice was erected or displayed by the university.
- (6) A regulatory notice erected or displayed under this section must be easily visible to passers-by.

7 Information notices

- (1) This section applies if a regulatory notice does not state that a contravention of a requirement of the notice is an offence against this Act and the penalty for the offence.
- (2) The university must erect or display at or near each vehicular entrance to the university's land to which the regulatory notice relates, and other places the vice-chancellor considers appropriate, information notices stating that a contravention of a requirement of a regulatory notice is an offence and the penalty for the offence.
- (3) An information notice may contain any other information the vice-chancellor considers appropriate.
- (4) An information notice erected or displayed under this section must be easily visible to passers-by.
- (5) In this section—
regulatory notice does not include an official traffic sign.

8 Removal and detention of illegally parked or abandoned vehicles

- (1) An authorised person may seize, remove and hold, a vehicle that the authorised person believes on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) is parked in contravention of a regulatory notice; or
 - (b) is abandoned.

- (2) The vehicle must be held at a safe place.
 - (3) An authorised person may exercise the powers given under subsection (1)(a) only if—
 - (a) the authorised person believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary or desirable to seize and remove the vehicle having regard to the safety and convenience of traffic on the university's land; and
 - (b) the authorised person—
 - (i) can not immediately locate the driver of the vehicle; or
 - (ii) believes on reasonable grounds that the driver of the vehicle is not willing or able to remove the vehicle immediately.
 - (4) As soon as is practicable and no later than 14 days after the vehicle is seized, the university must give to the owner of the vehicle a notice stating how the owner may recover the vehicle.
 - (5) If the owner can not be ascertained or located within 14 days after the vehicle is seized, the notice may be given by publishing it in a newspaper circulating generally in the State.
 - (6) If the vehicle was parked in contravention of a regulatory notice, the owner of the vehicle must pay to the university the cost of seizing, removing, holding and returning the vehicle.
 - (7) In this section—

vehicle includes a part of the vehicle and anything attached to, or contained in, the vehicle.

9 Disposal of unclaimed vehicles

- (1) This section applies if the owner of a seized vehicle does not recover the vehicle within 2 months after notice is given to the owner under section 8(4) or (5).
- (2) After publishing a notice in a newspaper circulating generally in the State, the university may sell the vehicle by public auction.

- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) identify the vehicle; and
 - (b) state that the vehicle is to be sold by auction; and
 - (c) state how the owner may recover the vehicle before the auction; and
 - (d) state the time and place of the auction.
- (4) Compensation is not recoverable against the university for the sale of a vehicle under this section.
- (5) In this section—

vehicle includes a part of the vehicle and anything attached to, or contained in, the vehicle.

10 Application of proceeds of sale

- (1) The proceeds of the sale must be applied in the following order—
 - (a) in payment of the reasonable expenses incurred in the sale;
 - (b) in payment of the reasonable cost of seizing, removing and holding the vehicle;
 - (c) if there is an amount owing to an entity under a security interest registered for the vehicle under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cwlth)—in payment of the amount owing under the security interest;
 - (d) in payment of any balance to the owner.
- (2) Compensation is not recoverable against the university for a payment under this section.

Part 3 Conduct on university land

11 Conduct causing a public nuisance

A person must not be disorderly or create a disturbance on the university's land.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

12 Power to deal with persons causing a public nuisance

- (1) This section applies if a security officer—
 - (a) finds a person contravening section 11; or
 - (b) finds a person in circumstances that leads the security officer to suspect on reasonable grounds that the person has just contravened section 11; or
 - (c) has information that leads the security officer to suspect on reasonable grounds that a person has just contravened section 11; or
 - (d) reasonably believes, having regard to the way a person is behaving, that the person's presence may pose a threat to the safety of someone else on, entering or leaving the land; or
 - (e) has information that leads the security officer to believe, on reasonable grounds, that a person's presence may pose a threat to the safety of someone else on, entering or leaving the land; or
 - (f) reasonably believes that a person is on the land without lawful justification or excuse.
- (2) The security officer may direct the person to leave the university's land or a part of the university's land.
- (3) A person must comply with a direction given to the person under subsection (2), unless the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
