- (2) Subsection (1) does not make the State, the Commonwealth or another State liable for an offence.

5 Main object of Act

The main object of this Act is to provide for the adoption of children in Queensland, and for access to information about parties to adoptions in Queensland, in a way that—

- (a) promotes the wellbeing and best interests of adopted persons throughout their lives; and
- (b) supports efficient and accountable practice in the delivery of adoption services; and
- (c) complies with Australia's obligations under the Hague convention.

6 Guiding principles

- (1) This Act is to be administered under the principle that the wellbeing and best interests of an adopted child, both through childhood and the rest of his or her life, are paramount.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), this Act is to be administered under the following principles—
 - (a) the purpose of an adoption is to provide for a child's long-term care, wellbeing and development by creating a permanent parent-child relationship between the child and the adoptive parents;
 - (b) adoption is an appropriate long-term care option for a child if—
 - (i) the child's parents choose adoption for the child's long-term care; or
 - (ii) the child does not have a parent who is willing and able to protect the child from harm and meet the child's need for long-term stable care;
 - (c) each of the parties to an adoption or proposed adoption should be given the information the party reasonably

- needs to participate effectively in processes under this Act;
- (d) a child should be kept informed of matters affecting the child in a way and to an extent that is appropriate, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand;
 - (e) the process for a child's adoption should include considering the views of—
 - (i) the child's parents; and
 - (ii) the child, if the child is able to form and express views about the adoption, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand;
 - (f) an adopted child of a particular ethnic or other cultural background should have—
 - (i) access to information about the child's ethnic or cultural heritage; and
 - (ii) opportunities to develop and maintain a connection with the child's ethnicity or culture; and
 - (iii) opportunities to maintain contact with the child's community or language group;
 - (g) a child's adoptive parents have the primary responsibility for the child's upbringing, protection and development;
 - (h) an adopted child should be cared for in a way that—
 - (i) ensures a safe, stable and nurturing family and home life; and
 - (ii) promotes openness and honesty about the child's adoption; and

 - (i) the same protection, support and resources should be available to an adopted person regardless of whether the adoption was a local adoption, intercountry adoption or adoption by a step-parent;

 - (i) the child's emotional connections with members of the child's birth family to continue; or
 - (ii) the child to have ongoing contact with members of the child's birth family; or
 - (iii) the child or the child's adoptive parents to exchange information with members of the child's birth family.

7 Additional principles concerning Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander persons

- (1) This Act is also to be administered under the following principles—
 - (a) because adoption (as provided for in this Act) is not part of Aboriginal tradition or Island custom, adoption of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child should be considered as a way of meeting the child's need for long-term stable care only if there is no better available option;

Note—

The Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazipa (Torres Strait Islander Traditional Child Rearing Practice) Act 2020 provides for the legal recognition of Torres Strait Islander traditional child rearing practice where parental responsibility for a child is permanently transferred from the child's birth parents to the child's cultural parents.

- (b) it is in the best interests of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child—
 - (i) to be cared for within an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community; and

- (ii) to maintain contact with the child's community or language group; and
 - (iii) to develop and maintain a connection with the child's Aboriginal tradition or Island custom; and
 - (iv) for the child's sense of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identity to be preserved and enhanced.
- (2) If the Childrens Court exercises a power under this Act in relation to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, the court must have regard to the views, about the child and about Aboriginal tradition or Island custom relating to the child, of an appropriate Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person.
- (3) As far as is reasonably practicable, the chief executive and other officers of the department must try to conduct consultations, counselling, negotiations and other proceedings involving an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander in a way and in a place that is appropriate to Aboriginal tradition or Island custom.

8 Act applies despite Anti-Discrimination Act 1991

- (1) Despite the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991, a person may make a decision or do another act that is necessary to comply with, or is specifically authorised by, this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a person may make a decision or do another act under this Act to comply with the main guiding principle under section 6(1).

9 References to child's wellbeing or best interests

Unless a contrary intention appears, a reference in this Act to a child's wellbeing or best interests is a reference to the child's wellbeing or best interests through both childhood and the rest of his or her life.

9A References to person's spouse if living separately and apart

For this Act, if a person and the person's spouse have separated and are living separately and apart, the spouse is taken not to be the person's spouse.

27 Meaning of qualified person for div 4

In this division—

28 Assessing whether a non-adult parent has capacity to consent

- (2) Before the parent may consent to the adoption, the chief executive must have a qualified person assess whether the parent has capacity to give the consent.

29 Declaration of QCAT whether an adult parent has capacity to consent

- (1) This section applies to an adult parent of the child if—

Note—

See the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000, section 146.

- (3) However, if the parent is not in Queensland at the time the parent's consent is proposed to be given, the chief executive must take the following steps instead of making an application under subsection (2)—
- (a) if it is possible for the chief executive to make an application, equivalent to an application mentioned in subsection (2), in the jurisdiction where the parent is, the chief executive must make that application;
 - (b) otherwise, the chief executive must ensure a qualified person assesses whether the parent has capacity to give the consent.

- (3) In this section—
- dispensation means dispensation with the need for the parent's consent.

Division 5 Identifying child's father and related matters

32 Establishing father's identity and location

If the chief executive does not know the identity and location of the child's father, the chief executive must take reasonable steps to establish those matters.

33 Giving notice to father or person suspected to be father

- (1) If the chief executive knows or reasonably suspects a person is the child's father, the chief executive must give him a notice stating—
 - (a) the other consent or consents to the child's adoption have been given; and

 - (ii) take steps to establish whether he is the child's father; or
 - (iii) apply under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth) for a parenting order for the child.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the chief executive is satisfied—
 - (a) the person is a lineal relative of the child's mother; or
 - (b) the child's conception was a result of an offence committed by the person; or

- (c) there would be an unacceptable risk of harm to the child or mother if the person were made aware of the child's birth or proposed adoption.

34 Chief executive may apply for declaration of paternity

For the Status of Children Act 1978, section 10(1)(c), the chief executive is a person having a proper interest in the result of the question whether the relationship of father and child exists between the child and another person.

- (1) The chief executive, or a person who has made an application to the chief executive under part 5, may apply to the Childrens Court for an order dispensing with the need for the consent of a stated parent of the child (the relevant parent) to the child's adoption.
- (2) The application must state the grounds on which it is made.

36 Notice of application

- (1) As soon as practicable after filing the application in the court, the applicant must serve a copy of it on the relevant parent and, if the applicant is not the chief executive, serve a copy on the chief executive.
- (2) A served copy must state where and when the application is to be heard.
- (3) A copy served on the relevant parent must also state that the application may be heard and decided even though the relevant parent does not appear in court.

- (4) The court may dispense with the requirement to serve a copy of the application on the relevant parent if the court is satisfied of any of the following matters—
 - (a) the applicant can not establish the identity of the relevant parent after making all reasonable enquiries;
 - (b) the applicant can not locate the relevant parent after making all reasonable enquiries;
 - (c) the relevant parent is a lineal relative of the child's mother;
 - (d) the child's conception was a result of an offence committed by the relevant parent;
 - (e) there would be an unacceptable risk of harm to the child or mother if the relevant parent were made aware of the child's birth or proposed adoption;
 - (f) there are other special circumstances for giving the dispensation.

37 Respondent

- (1) If the relevant parent is served with a copy of the application, the parent is a respondent in the proceeding.
- (2) If the chief executive is not the applicant, the chief executive may apply to the court to be included as a respondent in the proceeding.

38 Hearing of application in absence of relevant parent

- (1) The court may hear and decide the application in the absence of the relevant parent only if—
 - (a) the relevant parent has been given reasonable notice of the hearing and failed to attend or continue to attend the hearing; or
 - (b) the court dispenses with the requirement to serve a copy of the application on the relevant parent under section 36(4).

- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the court's jurisdiction to exclude a person from a proceeding.

39 Court may dispense with need for consent

 - (b) QCAT has made a declaration that the relevant parent does not have capacity to give the consent; or

 - (e) the court is satisfied the relevant parent—
 - (i) is not, and will not be within a time frame appropriate to the child's age and circumstances, willing and able to protect the child from harm and meet the child's need for long-term stable care; and
 - (ii) is unreasonably—
 - (A) withholding consent to the adoption; or
 - (B) refusing to engage with the chief executive in relation to the issue of whether to give consent to the adoption; or
 - (f) the court is satisfied there are other special circumstances for giving the dispensation.
- (2) However, if the relevant parent is or is believed to be the child's father, the court may not give the dispensation—

- (a) within 30 days after notice is given to the relevant parent under section 33; or
 - (b) if the court has reason to believe there is—
 - (i) a current application under the Status of Children Act 1978, section 10, by the relevant parent or someone else, for a declaration of paternity for the child; or
 - (ii) a current application under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth) by the relevant parent for a parenting order for the child.
- (3) Also, the court must not give the dispensation unless satisfied it would be in the child’s best interests for arrangements for the child’s adoption to continue to be made.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)—
- (a) if the applicant is a person who has made an application under part 5, the court must be satisfied the grounds for making an adoption order in favour of the applicant are likely to exist; and
 - (b) if the child is in the custody or guardianship of the chief executive (child safety) or someone else under the Child Protection Act 1999, the court must—
 - (i) have regard to anything in a case plan in force for the child under chapter 2, part 3A of that Act about—
 - (A) adoption as a way of meeting the child’s need for long-term stable care; or
 - (B) re-uniting the child with the child’s family; and
 - (ii) consider whether there is another way of meeting the child’s need for long-term stable care that would better promote the child’s wellbeing and best interests.

- (5) If the child has any views about the relevant parent and is able to express the views, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand, the court must consider the views.

Note—

If a care agreement ends and the child is a child in need of protection under the Child Protection Act 1999, the chief executive (child safety) may take the action under that Act that the chief executive (child safety) considers appropriate.

Division 3 Transfer of guardianship between chief executive and corresponding officer for another State

 - (ii) asking the chief executive to renounce the chief executive’s guardianship of the child.

[s 65]

- (2) If the chief executive is satisfied it would be in the child's best interests, the chief executive may, by a signed document, renounce the chief executive's guardianship of the child.

Part 4 Recruitment and selection of prospective adoptive parents

Division 1 Planning

66 Chief executive must plan for future need

The chief executive must plan continually for the future need for adoptive parents by—

- (a) anticipating the numbers and characteristics of children likely to need an adoptive placement by local adoption; and
- (b) anticipating the numbers and characteristics of children likely to be placed for an intercountry adoption from each country with which arrangements have been made or with which it is anticipated arrangements will be made; and
- (c) anticipating what are likely to be the placement needs of the children; and
- (d) identifying the numbers and profiles of prospective adoptive parents likely to be needed, having regard to the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c).

67 Deciding number of parents to be assessed

- (1) At least once in each financial year, the chief executive must decide the numbers of persons with different profiles that it would be reasonable to assess for suitability to ensure there are enough suitable prospective adoptive parents to meet the needs identified under section 66(d).
- (2) In deciding the number of persons it would be reasonable to assess, the chief executive must have regard to the numbers and profiles of persons currently listed in the suitable adoptive parents register, and to the considerations that—

- (a) if too few persons with appropriate profiles are assessed, the need for adoptive parents may not be met within a reasonable time; and
- (b) if too many persons with appropriate profiles are assessed, this—
 - (i) may be an inefficient use of resources; and
 - (ii) may unnecessarily raise the expectations of some of the assessed persons about the likelihood of their adopting a child; and
 - (iii) may unnecessarily intrude on the privacy or personal affairs of the persons assessed who are not likely to be required.

Division 2 Making expressions of interest

68 Who may make an expression of interest

- (3) A regulation may set a fee payable for an information session or other thing relating to a requirement under this section.

72 Person may express an interest despite previous expressions

- (b) the person's name was removed from the expression of interest register.

Division 4 Closing and re-opening expression of interest register

84 Chief executive may close register

- (1) The chief executive may close the expression of interest register, or a part of the register, if satisfied the number of persons listed in the register, having regard to their profiles, is significantly higher than the number needed to meet the anticipated need for adoptive parents.

88 Selection to meet anticipated future need

- (4) The chief executive must be satisfied the persons selected are, based on their profiles, likely to meet the anticipated placement needs of children to be adopted.

Note—

The placement needs of children to be adopted by an intercountry adoption are determined having regard to matters that include the requirements of the competent authority for the country that apply to prospective adoptive parents of children from the country. See schedule 3, definition placement needs, paragraph (c).

- (5) Subject to subsection (4), the chief executive may, in deciding whom to select, give priority to—

Division 6 Effect of final adoption order

214 Effect on relationships

- (1) This section applies on the making of a final adoption order for the adoption of a child (the adopted child) by a person (the adoptive parent).
- (2) The adopted child becomes a child of the adoptive parent and the adoptive parent becomes a parent of the adopted child.
- (3) The adopted child stops being a child of a former parent and a former parent stops being a parent of the adopted child.
- (4) Other relationships are determined in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).
- (5) A former guardian stops being a guardian of the adopted child.
- (6) A former adoption order stops having effect.
- (7) Despite subsections (3) to (6), if the final adoption order is for the adopted child's adoption by the spouse of a parent of the adopted child, the relationship between the adopted child and that parent is not affected.
- (8) Also despite subsections (3) to (6), for the purpose of a law relating to a sexual offence for which relationships are relevant, a former relationship continues, despite the final adoption order, in addition to other relationships created by the order.

- (9) This section applies subject to another law that expressly distinguishes between adopted children and other children.
- (10) In this section—

former adoption order means an order for the adoption of the adopted child, made under this Act or another law of Queensland or another jurisdiction, in force immediately before the making of the final adoption order.

former guardian means a person who was a guardian of the adopted child immediately before the making of the final adoption order.

former parent means a person who was a parent of the adopted child immediately before the making of the final adoption order.

former relationship means a relationship between the adopted child and another person that existed immediately before the making of the final adoption order.

215 Child's name

- (1) A final adoption order for a child—
- (a) must include an order that the child keep the child's existing first given name as the child's first given name; and
 - (b) may include an order that the child keep the child's existing surname or have the same surname as an adoptive parent; and
 - (c) in relation to the child's other given names—may include an order that the child—
 - (i) keep an existing given name; or

- (ii) have another given name agreed by the child's adoptive parents as well as an existing given name; or
 - (iii) have another given name agreed by the child's adoptive parents instead of an existing given name.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), a final adoption order may include an order that the child have another first given name agreed by the child's adoptive parents instead of the child's existing first given name if the court is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances that warrant the making of the order.
- Example of exceptional circumstances—*
- a child's existing first given name is harmful to their wellbeing because the name may be culturally inappropriate
- (3) In making an order under this section, the court must—
- (a) make the order that will best promote the child's wellbeing and best interests; and
 - (b) have regard to the child's right to preserve the child's identity; and
 - (c) consider whether the child is generally known by, or identifies with, any of the child's existing names.
- (4) This section does not prevent a change of the child's name under another law after the final adoption order is made.

216 Effect of adoption orders in relation to property

- (1) Section 214 has effect in relation to—
- (a) dispositions of property whether by will or otherwise; and
 - (b) devolutions of property in respect of which a person dies intestate.

- (3) This section applies subject to section 346.

217 Bequest by will to an unascertained adopted person

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) under a will, the testator makes a disposition of property to a person who is described—
 - (i) as being a child of the testator or of another person; and
 - (ii) as having been adopted by another person; and
 - (b) the personal representative of the testator is unable to find out the name and address of the adopted person.
- (2) The personal representative must give the public trustee a copy of the will and a notice stating that the personal representative is unable to find out the name and address of the adopted person.
- (3) On receipt of the copy of the will, the public trustee must give the chief executive a notice asking the chief executive to take steps to find out the name and address of the adopted person.
- (4) On receipt of the request, the chief executive must take steps to find out the name and address of the adopted person and, if the adopted person has died, the date of the death by—
 - (a) checking the chief executive's records; and
 - (b) asking the registrar.
- (5) If the chief executive finds out the name, address or date of death, the chief executive must give the information to the public trustee.
- (6) If the chief executive is unable to find out the name, address or date of death, the chief executive must advise the public trustee.
- (7) On receiving information or advice from the chief executive under subsection (5) or (6), the public trustee must give a notice to the personal representative stating—
 - (a) whether the name or address has been ascertained; or
 - (b) if it has been ascertained that the adopted person has died, the date of death.

- (8) The public trustee is a trustee for the adopted person on the trusts stated in, or arising under, the will.
 - (9) If the personal representative transfers property to the public trustee as trustee for the adopted person, the personal representative is taken to have transferred the property to the adopted person.
 - (10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not apply if the adopted person died before the testator or, for another reason, is not entitled to an interest under the will.
 - (11) If the public trustee gives the personal representative a notice that the adopted person has disclaimed property to which the adopted person was entitled under the will, the notice is, for the purpose of administering the estate, sufficient evidence that the adopted person has disclaimed the property.
 - (12) This section applies only to a will made after the commencement of the repealed Act, section 29A.

218 Transfer or distribution of property by trustee or personal representative

- (1) Subject to this section, a trustee may transfer or distribute property to persons who appear entitled to it without finding out whether or not an adoption has happened because of which a person is or is not entitled to an interest in the property.
- (2) A trustee who transfers or distributes property under subsection (1) is not liable to a person claiming directly or indirectly because of an adoption unless the trustee has notice of the claim before the transfer or distribution.
- (3) This section does not affect a person's right to follow property into the hands of a person, other than a purchaser for value, who has received it.
- (4) In this section—

notice means written notice or other notice.

trustee includes a personal representative.

- (4) A served copy must state where and when the application is to be heard.
- (5) A copy served on a person who is a party to the adoption, other than the adopted person, must also state that the application may be heard and decided even though the person does not appear in court.
- (6) The court may dispense with the requirement to serve a copy of the application on a person who is a party to the adoption, other than the adopted person, if the court is satisfied the applicant—

 - (b) can not locate the person after making all reasonable enquiries.

222 Respondent

- (1) A person, other than the chief executive, served with a copy of the application is a respondent in the proceeding.
- (2) If the chief executive is not the applicant, the chief executive may apply to the court to be included as a respondent in the proceeding.

 - (b) the court dispenses with the requirement to serve a copy of the application on the person under section 221(6).
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not limit the court's jurisdiction to exclude a person from a proceeding.

225 Court orders

- (1) The court may discharge the final adoption order only if satisfied of a ground mentioned in section 219.
- (2) If the applicant is not the adopted person, the court must not discharge the order if it considers the discharge is likely to be contrary to the adopted person's wellbeing and best interests.
- (3) The order may be discharged even if the adopted person is an adult.
- (4) If the adopted person is a child and has any views about the proposed discharge and is able to express the views, having regard to the child's age or ability to understand, the court must consider the views.

- (5) If the court makes an order discharging the final adoption order, it may also make any other order it considers appropriate in the interests of justice or to ensure the adopted person's wellbeing and best interests including, for example, an order about—
- (a) the ownership of property; or
 - (b) the adopted person's name; or
 - (c) if the adopted person is a child, custody or guardianship of the child.

- (3) In this section—
State includes New Zealand.

 - (b) an adoption compliance certificate, issued in the convention country in which the adoption is granted, is in force for the adoption.
- (2) The adoption has effect as if it were an adoption order made under this Act.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the Childrens Court makes a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption.
- (4) The Childrens Court may make a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption if satisfied the adoption is manifestly contrary to public policy, taking into account the child's wellbeing and best interests.
- (5) An interested person may apply to the Childrens Court for a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption.
- (6) Before applying for the declaration, the person must give written notice—
 - (a) if the person is the chief executive—to the Commonwealth central authority; or

- (4) However, a court may refuse to recognise an adoption as being an adoption to which this section applies if it appears to the court that the procedure followed or the law applied in connection with the adoption involved a denial of natural justice or did not comply with the requirements of substantial justice.
- (5) A document purporting to be the original or a certified copy of an order or record of adoption made by a court or a judicial or public authority in a non-convention country is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, sufficient evidence—

CONVENTION ON PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND COOPERATION IN RESPECT OF INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION

The States signatory to the present Convention,

Recognising that the child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding,

Recalling that each State should take, as a matter of priority, appropriate measures to enable the child to remain in the care of his or her family of origin,

Recognising that intercountry adoption may offer the advantage of a permanent family to a child for whom a suitable family cannot be found in his or her State of origin,

Convinced of the necessity to take measures to ensure that intercountry adoptions are made in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights, and to prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children,

Desiring to establish common provisions to this effect, taking into account the principles set forth in international instruments, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, of 20 November 1989, and the United Nations Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally (General Assembly Resolution 41/85, of 3 December 1986),

Have agreed upon the following provisions—

CHAPTER I—SCOPE OF THE CONVENTION

Article 1

The objects of the present Convention are—

- a* to establish safeguards to ensure that intercountry adoptions take place in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights as recognised in international law;
- b* to establish a system of cooperation amongst Contracting States to ensure that those safeguards are respected and thereby prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children;
- c* to secure the recognition in Contracting States of adoptions made in accordance with the Convention.

Article 2

1 The Convention shall apply where a child habitually resident in one Contracting State ('the State of origin') has been, is being, or is to be moved to another Contracting State ('the receiving State') either after his or her adoption in the State of origin by spouses or a person habitually resident in the receiving State, or for the purposes of such an adoption in the receiving State or in the State of origin.

2 The Convention covers only adoptions which create a permanent parent-child relationship.

Article 3

The Convention ceases to apply if the agreements mentioned in Article 17, sub-paragraph c, have not been given before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

CHAPTER II—REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONS

Article 4

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the State of origin—

- a* have established that the child is adoptable;
- b* have determined, after possibilities for placement of the child within the State of origin have been given due consideration, that an intercountry adoption is in the child's best interests;
- c* have ensured that
 - (1) the persons, institutions and authorities whose consent is necessary for adoption, have been counselled as may be necessary and duly informed of the effects of their consent, in particular whether or not an adoption will result in the termination of the legal relationship between the child and his or her family of origin,
 - (2) such persons, institutions and authorities have given their consent freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing,
 - (3) the consents have not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind and have not been withdrawn, and

 - (1) he or she has been counselled and duly informed of the effects of the adoption and of his or her consent to the adoption, where such consent is required,
 - (2) consideration has been given to the child's wishes and opinions,

- (3) the child's consent to the adoption, where such consent is required, has been given freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing, and
- (4) such consent has not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind.

Where a State has appointed more than one Central Authority, it shall designate the Central Authority to which any communication may be addressed for transmission to the appropriate Central Authority within that State.

Article 7

1 Central Authorities shall cooperate with each other and promote cooperation amongst the competent authorities in their States to protect children and to achieve the other objects of the Convention.

2 They shall take directly all appropriate measures to—

Article 9

Article 10

Accreditation shall only be granted to and maintained by bodies demonstrating their competence to carry out properly the tasks with which they may be entrusted.

- b* be directed and staffed by persons qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption; and
- c* be subject to supervision by competent authorities of that State as to its composition, operation and financial situation.

Article 12

A body accredited in one Contracting State may act in another Contracting State only if the competent authorities of both States have authorised it to do so.

Article 13

The designation of the Central Authorities and where appropriate, the extent of their functions, as well as the names and addresses of the accredited bodies shall be communicated by each Contracting State to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

CHAPTER IV—PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS IN INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION

Article 14

Persons habitually resident in a Contracting State, who wish to adopt a child habitually resident in another Contracting State, shall apply to the Central Authority in the State of their habitual residence.

Article 15

1 If the Central Authority of the receiving State is satisfied that the applicants are eligible and suited to adopt, it shall prepare a report including information about their identity, eligibility and suitability to adopt, background, family and medical history, social environment, reasons for adoption, ability to undertake an intercountry adoption, as well as the characteristics of the children for whom they would be qualified to care.

2 It shall transmit the report to the Central Authority of the State of origin.

Article 16

1 If the Central Authority of the State of origin is satisfied that the child is adoptable, it shall—

- a* prepare a report including information about his or her identity, adoptability, background, social environment, family history, medical history including that of the child's family, and any special needs of the child;
- b* give due consideration to the child's upbringing and to his or her ethnic, religious and cultural background;
- c* ensure that consents have been obtained in accordance with Article 4; and

- d* determine, on the basis in particular of the reports relating to the child and the prospective adoptive parents, whether the envisaged placement is in the best interests of the child.

2 It shall transmit to the Central Authority of the receiving State its report on the child, proof that the necessary consents have been obtained and the reasons for its determination on the placement, taking care not to reveal the identity of the mother and the father if, in the State of origin, these identities may not be disclosed.

Article 17

Any decision in the State of origin that a child should be entrusted to prospective adoptive parents may only be made if—

- a* the Central Authority of that State has ensured that the prospective adoptive parents agree;
- b* the Central Authority of the receiving State has approved such decision, where such approval is required by the law of that State or by the Central Authority of the State of origin;
- c* the Central Authorities of both States have agreed that the adoption may proceed; and
- d* it has been determined, in accordance with Article 5, that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt and that the child is or will be authorised to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 18

The Central Authorities of both States shall take all necessary steps to obtain permission for the child to leave the State of origin and to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 19

1 The transfer of the child to the receiving State may only be carried out if the requirements of Article 17 have been satisfied.

2 The Central Authorities of both States shall ensure that this transfer takes place in secure and appropriate circumstances and, if possible, in the company of the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents.

3 If the transfer of the child does not take place, the reports referred to in Articles 15 and 16 are to be sent back to the authorities who forwarded them.

Article 20

The Central Authorities shall keep each other informed about the adoption process and the measures taken to complete it, as well as about the progress of the placement if a probationary period is required.

Article 21

1 Where the adoption is to take place after the transfer of the child to the receiving State and it appears to the Central Authority of that State that the continued placement of the child with the prospective adoptive parents is not in the child's best interests, such Central Authority shall take the measures necessary to protect the child, in particular—

- a* to cause the child to be withdrawn from the prospective adoptive parents and to arrange temporary care;
- b* in consultation with the Central Authority of the State of origin, to arrange without delay a new placement of the child with a view to adoption or, if this is not appropriate, to arrange alternative long-term care; an adoption shall not take place until the Central Authority of the State of origin has been duly informed concerning the new prospective adoptive parents;
- c* as a last resort, to arrange the return of the child, if his or her interests so require.

2 Having regard in particular to the age and degree of maturity of the child, he or she shall be consulted and, where appropriate, his or her consent obtained in relation to measures to be taken under this Article.

Article 22

1 The functions of a Central Authority under this Chapter may be performed by public authorities or by bodies accredited under Chapter III, to the extent permitted by the law of its State.

2 Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that the functions of the Central Authority under Articles 15 to 21 may be performed in that State, to the extent permitted by the law and subject to the supervision of the competent authorities of that State, also by bodies or person who—

- a* meet the requirements of integrity, professional competence, experience and accountability of that State; and
- b* are qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption.

3 A Contracting State which makes the declaration provided for in paragraph 2 shall keep the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law informed of the names and addresses of these bodies and persons.

4 Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that adoptions of children habitually resident in its territory may only take place if the functions of the Central Authorities are performed in accordance with paragraph 1.

5 Notwithstanding any declaration made under paragraph 2, the reports provided for in Articles 15 and 16 shall, in every case, be prepared under the responsibility of the Central Authority or other authorities or bodies in accordance with paragraph 1.

CHAPTER V—RECOGNITION AND EFFECTS OF THE ADOPTION

Article 23

1 An adoption certified by the competent authority of the State of the adoption as having been made in accordance with the Convention shall be recognised by operation of law in the other Contracting States. The certificate shall specify when and by whom the agreements under Article 17, sub-paragraph c, were given.

2 Each Contracting State shall, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, notify the depositary of the Convention of the identity and the functions of the authority or the authorities which, in that State, are competent to make the certification. It shall also notify the depositary of any modification in the designation of these authorities.

Article 24

The recognition of an adoption may be refused in a Contracting State only if the adoption is manifestly contrary to its public policy, taking into account the best interests of the child.

Article 25

Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that it will not be bound under this Convention to recognise adoptions made in accordance with an agreement concluded by application of Article 39, paragraph 2.

Article 26

- 1 The recognition of an adoption includes recognition of—
- a* the legal parent-child relationship between the child and his or her adoptive parents;

- b* parental responsibility of the adoptive parents for the child;
- c* the termination of a pre-existing legal relationship between the child and his or her mother and father, if the adoption has this effect in the Contracting State where it was made.

2 In the case of an adoption having the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, the child shall enjoy in the receiving State, and in any other Contracting State where the adoption is recognised, rights equivalent to those resulting from adoptions having this effect in each such State.

3 The preceding paragraphs shall not prejudice the application of any provision more favourable for the child, in force in the Contracting State which recognises the adoption.

Article 27

1 Where an adoption granted in the State of origin does not have the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, it may, in the receiving State which recognises the adoption under the Convention, be converted into an adoption having such an effect—

- a* if the law of the receiving State so permits; and
- b* if the consent referred to in Article 4, sub-paragraphs c and d, have been or are given for the purpose of such an adoption.

2 Article 23 applies to the decision converting the adoption.
