5 Vesting of undertaking

At the commencement time Challenge's undertaking is transferred to and vested in Westpac.

6 Effect of vesting on Challenge contracts

- (1) To the extent Challenge contracts were binding on and enforceable by or against Challenge, the contracts are, on and after the commencement time, binding on and enforceable by or against Westpac, as fully and effectually as if Westpac had been a party to them or bound by them or entitled to the whole or a portion of the benefit of them instead of Challenge.

The relationship between Challenge and each customer of Challenge is taken to be, on and after the commencement time, between Westpac and the customer, and gives rise to the same rights and the same duties (including rights of set-off) as would have existed if the relationship, immediately before the commencement time, had been between Westpac and the customer.

- (2) The security is to be held by, and be available to, Westpac as security for the payment of the debts and liabilities to Westpac.

- (3) However, the security is not security for any debt or liability of the person to Westpac existing immediately before the commencement time.

12 Custody of documents, goods etc. held by Challenge

The custody of all documents, goods or things held by Challenge as bailee for a customer at an office or branch or agency of Challenge is transferred to Westpac at the commencement time, together with the rights, duties and liabilities of Challenge under a contract of bailment relating to the documents, goods or things.

13 Negotiable instruments or orders

- (1) Each negotiable instrument or order for payment of money, expressed to be drawn by or on, or given to, or accepted or endorsed by Challenge, or payable at a place of business of Challenge, has the same effect after the commencement time as it would have if it had been drawn by or on, or given to, or accepted or endorsed by, Westpac, or payable at the same place of business of Westpac.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a negotiable instrument or order mentioned in subsection (1) regardless of when it was drawn, given, accepted or endorsed.

15 Security over money on deposit

- (1) In relation to a security held by Westpac over money on deposit with Challenge immediately before the commencement time, Westpac is entitled to the same rights and priorities and subject to the same liabilities as it would have been had the money on deposit continued to be held by Challenge.
- (2) In relation to a security held by Challenge immediately before the commencement time over money on deposit with Westpac, Westpac is entitled to the same rights and priorities and subject to the same liabilities as Challenge would have been had the security continued to be held by Challenge.
