Employment Regulation 1991*

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION, TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT REGULATION 1991

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 12 January 2001]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This regulation may be cited as the Vocational Education, Training and Employment Regulation 1991.

Commencement

2. This regulation commenced on 28 October 1991.

Definitions

3. The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

Meaning of “ACE course”

4. An “ACE course” is an adult community education course, offered at a State college, that is not run for profit and for which a person completing the course does not receive an award.

Meaning of “at cost”

5. “At cost”, for a service, means the amount (not more than the reasonable cost of providing the service) the college director considers reasonable.

Meaning of “nominal hours”

6. “Nominal hours” means—

- (a) for a government funded subject—the number of hours stated for the subject in an official syllabus; or
- (b) for an ACE course—the number of hours stated for the course in an official college publication.

Meaning of “official college publication”

7. “Official college publication” of a college means a publication, or advertisement, about the college, approved by the director and available for purchase or inspection at the college.

Examples—

- an approved college diary or handbook
- an approved course information sheet or brochure.

Meaning of “student services”

8. “Student services” means any of the following services available to all students enrolled in a government funded subject at a college—

- student counselling or job placement service
- student activities coordination service
- student security service
- library service
- course information service
- recreational facilities and activities service
- disability support service.

Meaning of “tuition fee”

9. “Tuition fee” means—

- (a) for a government funded subject—the fee payable as the student’s

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

- contribution to the cost of tuition in the subject; or
- (b) for an ACE course—the fee for tuition in the course.

PART 2—FEES OTHER THAN FOR THE AUSTRALIAN RECOGNITION FRAMEWORK

Division 1—Fees for State college services and other services

Fees for State college services and other services

10.(1) The fees payable under the Act, other than for the Australian Recognition Framework, are in schedule 1, parts 1 to 3.

(2) A student must pay a tuition fee or student services fee when enrolling.

(3) However, a student may not have to pay a tuition fee or student services fee, or may be given time to pay the fee, under division 2.¹

(4) A fee for an ACE course is chargeable at an hourly rate only if an official college publication states the fee is chargeable at an hourly rate.

Facilities fee for ACE courses

11.(1) A student in an ACE course must pay a facilities fee for the course.

(2) The amount of the fee—

- (a) is worked out by dividing the cost of running the course by the number of students for the course stated in an official college publication; and
- (b) is the amount stated in an official college publication as payable by each student in the course as the student's share of the cost of

¹ Division 2 (Fee exemptions, refunds and time to pay)

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

running the course.

(3) The cost of enrolment or tuition is not counted in working out the facilities fee.

(4) If the course is not an adult and community education course under the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cwlth), the cost of running the course may be increased to take account of GST payable for the supply of the course.

Division 2—Fee exemptions, refunds and time to pay

Government funded subjects for which there are no tuition or student services fees and free tests

12. There is no tuition fee or student services fee for the following government funded subjects or tests—

- (a) a subject for which the Commonwealth or the State requires there be no fee;
- (b) a subject for tutors undertaken by someone who has agreed to tutor at a college free of charge;
- (c) a test (other than for a special entry apprentice) to decide placement in a literacy or numeracy program;
- (d) a learning support subject;
- (e) a subject undertaken at a college as part of the student's secondary education.

Government funded subjects for which there are no tuition fees

13. There is no tuition fee for an adult literacy or numeracy program funded by the State.

Replacement of non-CBT program with CBT program

14.(1) This section applies if—

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

- (a) a student receives a subject result in a program that is not a CBT program; and
- (b) the subjects to complete the program are no longer offered by the college; and
- (c) the student enrolls in a comparable CBT subject simply to receive a result in the CBT subject.

(2) There is no tuition or student services fee for the comparable CBT subject.

Director may waive fees for professional development of college staff

15. A director may waive payment of the tuition or student services fee for a subject approved by the director and taken by a staff member as professional development.

Industry placement hours—25% of fees payable for nominal industry placement hours

16. Only 25% of the tuition and student services fee is payable for the nominal industry placement hours for a subject.

Fee adjustment for certain transfers and cancellations of enrolment in Government funded subjects

17.(1) This section applies if a student enrolled in a government funded subject at a college—

- (a) transfers the enrolment to substantially the same subject at another college; or
- (b) cancels the enrolment and enrolls in another subject at the same college no later than 2 weeks after the start of the cancelled subject.

(2) Any tuition or student services fee payable on the original or cancelled enrolment must be applied to reduce the total amount of tuition and student services fees payable on the later enrolment.

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

(3) Any balance of the tuition and student services fees paid on the original or cancelled enrolment must be refunded.

Fee exemption on grounds of extreme financial hardship

18.(1) The director may exempt a student from a tuition fee or student services fee.

(2) However, the director may grant the exemption only if the director is satisfied the student is suffering extreme financial hardship.

(3) The student must apply for the exemption in the approved form when enrolling.

Tuition fee exemptions for government funded subjects

19.(1) The director may exempt a student from 75% of the tuition fee for a government funded subject if—

- (a) the student has not completed year 12 and was or will be under 17 at the end of February in the year in which the subject is taken; or
- (b) for a subject taken at a senior college—the student was or will be under 18 at the end of February in the year in which the subject is taken; or
- (c) the student is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; or
- (d) the student—
 - (i) holds a health care card or pensioner concession card issued under Commonwealth law; or
 - (ii) is—
 - (A) the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a health care card or pensioner concession card; and
 - (B) named on the card; or
 - (iii) has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a health care card

Employment Regulation 1991*

or pensioner concession card.

(2) The student must apply for the exemption in the approved form when enrolling.

(3) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply if the student obtained a refund of fees for the subject.

(4) A student applying for exemption under subsection (1)(d) must also, when applying, produce—

- (a) the card or a copy of it certified to be a true copy by a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations; or
- (b) the document mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(iii).

Half fee exemption for ACE courses for students entitled to concessions under Commonwealth law

20.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a student holds a health care card issued under Commonwealth law; or
- (b) a student—
 - (i) holds a pensioner concession card issued under Commonwealth law; and
 - (ii) is entitled to the maximum rate of pension; or
- (c) a student—
 - (i) is the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a health care card; and
 - (ii) is named on the card; or
- (d) a student—
 - (i) is the partner or a dependant of a person who—
 - (A) holds a pensioner concession card; and
 - (B) is entitled to the maximum rate of pension; and
 - (ii) is named on the card.

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

(2) This section also applies—

- (a) if a student has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a health care card; or
- (b) if—
 - (i) a student has a document issued in an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to concessions under a pensioner concession card; and
 - (ii) the student, the student's partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant is entitled to the maximum rate of pension.

(3) If the tuition fee for an ACE course is chargeable at an hourly rate, the student may apply to the director for exemption from half of the tuition fee for the course.

(4) The student must when enrolling apply for the exemption in the approved form and produce—

- (a) the card or a copy of it certified to be a true copy by a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations; or
- (b) the document mentioned in subsection (2).

(5) In this section—

“maximum rate of pension” means the maximum rate of pension payable under the Commonwealth law under which a pensioner concession card or document mentioned in this section is issued.

Allowing time to pay fees for government funded subjects

21.(1) A student may apply to the director for time to pay tuition fees or student services fees for a government funded subject if the total amount of tuition fees or student services fees payable when enrolling is more than $75.00.

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

- (2) The student must apply in the approved form when enrolling.
- (3) If the director allows the student time to pay the fees the director may enter into a written arrangement for payment of the fees.
- (4) The fees must be paid as required under the arrangement.
- (5) If the student does not pay the fees for a subject under the arrangement the director may withhold the student's results for the subject until the fees are paid.
- (6) Subsection (5) is in addition to any other remedy available to the director.

Refund if subject or course cancelled by director

22. If the director cancels a government funded subject or ACE course before it starts, the director must refund the fees paid for the subject or course.

Refund if enrolment cancelled before subject or course starts

23.(1) If a student cancels enrolment in a government funded subject or ACE course before it starts, the director must refund the fees the student paid for the subject or course after deducting—

- (a) for an ACE course—the enrolment fee for the course; or
- (b) for a government funded subject—an administration charge of $10.00 for all subjects cancelled at the same time.

(2) However, there is no refund for an ACE course unless the enrolment is cancelled no later than 2 days before the course starts.

(3) This section does not apply if a tuition or student services fee payable on the cancelled enrolment must be applied to reduce fees payable on a later enrolment.²

² See section 17(2) (Fee adjustment for certain transfers and cancellations of enrolment in Government funded subjects)

Refund after government funded subject starts

24.(1) If any of the following things happen while the student is undertaking a government funded subject, the student may apply to the director for a refund of the fees for the subject—

- (a) the student accepts a place offered through the Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre;
- (b) the student suffers an illness or injury preventing the student from completing the subject;
- (c) exceptional circumstances prevent the student from completing the subject.

(2) The student must apply in the approved form before the assessment for the subject ends.

(3) The director may refund the fees after deducting an administration charge of $10.00 for all subjects to which the application relates.

Refund if academic exemption received

25.(1) If a student has received an academic exemption from a government funded subject since enrolling in it, the student may apply to the director for a refund of fees for the subject.

(2) The student must apply in the approved form within 5 weeks after the subject starts.

Refund if re-evaluation successful

26. The director must refund the fee for re-evaluation of a result of a government funded subject to a student whose re-evaluation is successful.

Refused applications for fee exemptions, refunds and time to pay

27.(1) If the director refuses an application for a fee exemption, refund or time to pay, the director must give the applicant written notice of the reasons for refusal.

(2) A person who is refused an exemption, refund or time to pay may,

*Vocational Education, Training and
Employment Regulation 1991*

within 7 days after the written notice is given, apply to the director for a reconsideration of the refusal.

(3) The refusal must be reconsidered by a person more senior than the person who refused the original application.

Delegation of director's powers

28. A director may delegate the director's powers under this regulation to a member of the college's staff.
