VOCATIONAL EDUCATION, TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION RULE 1992

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 26 March 1999]

Short title

1. This rule may be cited as the Vocational Education, Training and Employment Commission Rule 1992.

Definitions

2. In this rule—

“approved form” see section 5.

“National Agreement” means the agreement relating to vocational education and training—

- (a) that is entitled ‘Agreement for a National Framework for the Recognition of Training’; and
- (b) that was made between the Commonwealth, the States and the Territories; and
- (c) that took effect on 1 August 1992.

“nationally accredited course” means a vocational education and training course that has been accredited by the Accreditation Council under the Act in accordance with the principles and processes contained in the National Agreement.

“quality review”, of a course, means a review conducted by the Accreditation Council in the performance of its function to ensure maintenance of standards and portability of awards.

“recognition authority”, of another State, means an entity having the function, under an Act of that State, of recognising or accrediting courses, or registering course providers, in that State.

Fees

3. The fees set out in the Schedule are the fees payable for the matters set out in the Schedule.

Vocational areas and levels for courses

4. For the purpose of fees—

- (a) the Accreditation Council decides the vocational area a course is in; and
- (b) the Commission decides the level of a course.

Approval of forms

5. The Commission may approve a form for use under this rule.

Applications

6.(1) A person may apply for the following—

- (a) accreditation of a course;
- (b) recognition of a training program or short course;
- (c) registration to provide a course for an award;
- (d) to make a minor or technical amendment to an accredited course or recognised training program or short course.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must be—

- (a) in the approved form; and
- (b) made to the Accreditation Council.

(3) However, an application for registration to provide a course for an award need not be in the approved form if—

- (a) the applicant is registered, in another State by its recognition authority, to provide a course for an award; and

(b) the application is sent through the authority.<sup>1</sup>

(4) The Accreditation Council must—

(a) accredit the course, recognise the training program or short course, register the person or record the amendment; or

(b) refuse the application.

(5) If the Accreditation Council accredits the course, recognises the training program or short course or registers the person, it must give the person an appropriate certificate.

(6) If the application is refused, the Accreditation Council must give the person written notice of the reasons for refusal.

Fee concession for quality assurance

7. The Accreditation Council may reduce the fee for a quality review of a course by 60% if the course provider holds a certificate of quality assurance for the provider approved by the Council.

Fee exemption for interstate registered provider

8. There is no fee for an application for recognition of a vocational education and training establishment as an approved training organisation<sup>2</sup> if the establishment is conducted by a person who is registered, in another State by its recognition authority, to provide a course for an award.
