 - (ii) a ratepayer who has not previously voted in the election and has a reasonable explanation for using someone else's voting material;

the returning officer must then put the declaration and the ballot envelope into separate containers.

- (a) note the acceptance of the explanation on the declaration; and
- (b) record the correct ballot number on the roll against the name of the ratepayer who signed the declaration.

(5) If the returning officer is not satisfied about a matter mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b), the returning officer must keep the unsatisfactory voting material separate from the satisfactory voting material.

(6) The returning officer must then mark off the ratepayer's name on the roll.

Counting votes

17.(1) After separating the declaration forms and ballot envelopes, the returning officer must do the following in order—

- (a) seal the container holding declaration forms;
- (b) open the ballot envelopes;

(2) The returning officer must not include an informal vote in the count.

(3) A vote is not informal if the ratepayer's intention is clear.

What happens if votes for 2 or more candidates are equal

18. If the votes for 2 or more candidates are equal, the candidate elected must be decided by lots drawn by the returning officer.

Declaring election result

19.(1) The returning officer must give each candidate a signed declaration of the result of the election.

(2) If the election involved a ballot, the declaration must state the following—

- (a) how many ratepayers were on the roll when voting closed;
- (b) how many ballot papers were printed;
- (c) how many ballot papers were issued;
- (d) how many duplicate ballot papers were issued;
- (e) how many ballot papers were returned;
- (f) how many ballot papers were returned as unclaimed mail;
- (g) how many ballot papers were not returned;

Water Resources (Avondale Water Supply Area and Water Board) Regulation 1996

- (h) how many ballot papers were rejected during scrutiny and the reasons for rejection;
- (i) how many ballot papers were counted;
- (j) the percentage of ratepayers who voted.

Examples of reasons for rejection mentioned in paragraph (h)—

1. The declaration form was not returned.
2. The ratepayer did not sign the declaration form.
- (3) A scrutineer may countersign the declaration.

Term of office of elected board members

- 20. An elected board member holds office for 3 years.

Filling casual vacancies

21.(1) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected board member, the office must be filled by the election of someone else under this part.⁶

(2) However, the person elected to fill the vacancy holds office only for the rest of the term of the office that became vacant.

Re-electing members

22. An elected member is eligible for re-election, unless the member is disqualified from becoming a member.⁷

⁷ Under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(c), the power of the Governor in Council to appoint a member who is not elected includes a power to reappoint if the member is eligible to be appointed. Section 141 of the Act deals with the disqualification for board membership.
