Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 5 May 2000.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

See endnotes for information about when provisions commenced.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, 'lodgement' has replaced 'lodgment').

Attorney-General Regulation 2000

[reprinted as in force on 5 May 2000]

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Attorney-General Regulation 2000.

2 Application for a fiat—Act, s 7(1)(g)(ii)

- (1) An application for the Attorney-General to grant a fiat to start a proceeding in the Attorney-General's name to enforce or protect public rights must contain the following information—
 - (a) the applicant's name, address, telephone number and fax number;
 - (b) the reasons why the applicant can not obtain complete relief in the proceeding if the fiat is not granted;
 - (c) whether the applicant has pursued other forms of relief, for example, mediation.
- (2) The application must be accompanied by the following documents—
 - (a) the proposed originating process;
 - (b) a certificate signed by counsel stating that—
 - (i) the proceeding is appropriate to be started in the Attorney-General's name; and
 - (ii) the originating process is appropriate for the Attorney-General's fiat; and
 - (iii) the applicant can not obtain complete relief if the fiat is not granted;
 - (c) an opinion from counsel as to the likelihood of success of the proceeding that details the facts of the case and explains the proceeding;

- (d) a certificate signed by the applicant's solicitor stating that the applicant is an appropriate person to act as relator in the proceeding;
 - (e) a document signed by the applicant or the applicant's solicitors undertaking that—
 - (i) the proceeding is at the sole risk and cost of the applicant; and
 - (ii) the applicant will pay all of the Attorney-General's costs of the proceeding including any costs payable by the Attorney-General to a party; and
 - (iii) the applicant indemnifies the Attorney-General for the proceeding; and
 - (iv) the applicant will give the Attorney-General copies of all pleadings and other court documents for the proceeding; and
 - (v) the applicant will only take any of the following steps with the Attorney-General's approval—
 - (A) amend the originating process for the proceeding;
 - (B) discontinue the proceeding or withdraw part of it;
 - (C) withdraw all or part of any answer to a counterclaim;
 - (D) settle all or part of the proceeding.
- (3) If a proceeding has already started—
- (a) this section applies, with necessary changes, to an application in the proceeding; and
 - (b) the application under this section must state the stage of the proceeding.
