Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Local Government (Maroochy and Noosa) Regulation 2003

Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Local Government (Maroochy and Noosa) Regulation 2003.

2 Commencement

Section 6 and chapter 4¹ commence on the changeover day.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

4 Gazettal of changeover day

- (1) The Minister must, by gazette notice, advise the changeover day.
- (2) The gazette notice must be published as soon as practicable after the changeover day.

¹ Section 6 (External boundary changes) and chapter 4 (Amendment of Local Government (Areas) Regulation 1995)

Chapter 2 External boundaries

Part 1 Objects and delayed implementation of reviewable local government matter

5 Objects

- (1) The objects of this chapter are—
 - (a) to provide for the delayed implementation of a reviewable local government matter recommended by the commission in the report; and
 - (b) to facilitate the implementation of the reviewable local government matter.
- (2) The reviewable local government matter involves changing the external boundaries of the shires of Maroochy and Noosa by excluding a part of the Shire of Maroochy and including the part in the Shire of Noosa.

6 External boundary changes

- (1) The external boundaries of the shires of Maroochy and Noosa are changed by excluding the transferred area from Maroochy Shire Council's local government area and including the area in Noosa Shire Council's local government area.
- (2) Map number LGB 82 edition 7 shows the external boundaries of the Shire of Maroochy's local government area with the transferred area excluded.
- (3) Map number LGB 100 edition 6 shows the external boundaries of the Shire of Noosa's local government area with the transferred area included.

Division 2 Instruments

13 Existing instruments continue in force

- (1) This section applies to an instrument, other than a local law or an instrument made under IPA—
 - (a) made by Maroochy Shire Council under an Act or a local law before the changeover day about—
 - (i) a resident in the transferred area; or
 - (ii) an owner of land in the transferred area; or
 - (iii) land in the transferred area; or
 - (iv) a person's entitlement to carry out an activity in the transferred area; and
 - (b) in force immediately before the commencement of this section.
- (2) For Noosa Shire Council dealing, from the changeover day, with an instrument made under a local law—
 - (a) the local law under which the instrument was made is taken to be a local law of Noosa Shire Council; and
 - (b) the instrument is taken to have been made by Noosa Shire Council under the local law and in force for the transferred area; and
 - (c) Noosa Shire Council is responsible for administering the local law to deal with the instrument; and
 - (d) the instrument continues in force until—
 - (i) it would, if the transferred area had not been transferred, have ceased to have effect under the local law; or
 - (ii) it is amended or repealed by Noosa Shire Council.
- (3) For Noosa Shire Council dealing, from the changeover day, with an instrument made under an Act (the Act), the instrument is taken to have been properly made under the Act by Noosa Shire Council and continues in force until it would,

if the transferred area had not been transferred, have ceased to have effect under the Act.

14 Bathing reserves

- (1) The instrument ceases to have effect in relation to any of the seashore, land under the sea and the sea, that are included in the transferred area or are adjacent to the transferred area.
- (2) In this section—

instrument means the order in council made under the Local Government Act 1936, and gazetted on 28 November 1987 at page 1247, declaring parts of the Shire of Maroochy to be bathing reserves.

Division 3 Financial matters

Subdivision 1 Assets and liabilities

15 Assets transfer to Noosa Shire Council

- (1) This section applies to Maroochy Shire Council assets that are specifically used for or in relation to the transferred area.
- (2) The joint transitional committee must identify the assets that are to transfer to Noosa Shire Council.
- (3) If an asset to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council is, immediately before the changeover day, held as cash, the asset must be paid to the council within 30 days after the changeover day.
- (4) An amount may, at the request of Maroochy and Noosa shire councils, be paid by way of adjustment of the accounts of the councils with Queensland Treasury Corporation.
- (5) Queensland Treasury Corporation must make the adjustment as soon as practicable after receiving the request.
- (6) On the changeover day each asset to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council, other than an asset under subsection (3), is transferred to, and becomes the asset of, the council.

16 Liabilities transfer to Noosa Shire Council

- (1) This section applies to Maroochy Shire Council liabilities to the extent that they were incurred for the transferred area.
- (2) The joint transitional committee must identify the liabilities that are to transfer to Noosa Shire Council.
- (3) On the changeover day each liability to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council is transferred to, and becomes the liability of, the council.

17 Amount for accrued annual and long service leave for Maroochy Shire Council officers

- (1) Maroochy Shire Council must, within 30 days after the changeover day, pay to Noosa Shire Council the accrued leave amount for the council's officers (the transferred officers) who are, under section 26,³ to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council.

- (2) In this section—

accrued leave means accrued annual and long service leave.

accrued leave amount, for transferred officers, means the amount Maroochy Shire Council would, immediately before the changeover day, be liable to pay for the officers' accrued leave.

18 Sewerage infrastructure and supply of sewerage services

- (1) Sewerage infrastructure in the transferred area that is, immediately before the changeover day, owned by Maroochy Shire Council remains the property of the council.
- (2) Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council must enter into an agreement about—
 - (a) the supply by Maroochy Shire Council of sewerage services to residents in the transferred area; and
 - (b) maintenance of the sewerage infrastructure; and

3 Section 26 (Rationalisation of staff)

- (c) payment by Noosa Shire Council to Maroochy Shire Council of a fee for the sewerage services that is not more than the reasonable cost of providing the services.
- (3) The agreement must be effective on the changeover day.

Subdivision 2 Rates

19 Levying rates

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the changeover day, Maroochy Shire Council—
 - (a) had made or imposed a rate on land in the transferred area for the quarter starting on 1 April 2004; but
 - (b) had not given a notice levying the rate on a person.
- (2) Maroochy Shire Council must give the person a notice levying the rate.
- (3) Maroochy Shire Council must give amounts it receives in payment of the rate to Noosa Shire Council as soon as practicable after receiving the amounts.

20 Recovery of unpaid rates

- (1) If a person fails to pay a rate made or imposed by Maroochy Shire Council under section 19(2) on land in the transferred area, Noosa Shire Council—
 - (a) may take action against the person to obtain payment of the rate; and
 - (b) is taken to have made or imposed the rate.
- (2) If a person pays an amount to Noosa Shire Council after the council has taken action under subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) the person is taken to have complied with the notice or other demand given by Maroochy Shire Council under section 19(2) to the extent of the amount paid; and
 - (b) if the rate on the land includes the rate for a quarter starting before 1 April 2004, Noosa Shire Council must give Maroochy Shire Council amounts it receives in payment of the rate for the quarter, less the Noosa Shire Council's reasonable costs of taking action under subsection (1)(a).

Division 4 Planning schemes and related matters

21 Existing planning schemes continue

- (1) The existing planning scheme—
 - (a) from the changeover day, continues to apply to the transferred area until—
 - (i) Noosa Shire Council amends its planning scheme to include the area; or
 - (ii) a new planning scheme for the area prepared by Noosa Shire Council is approved under IPA; and
 - (b) is to be implemented, administered and enforced by Noosa Shire Council; and
 - (c) for paragraph (b), is taken to be part of Noosa Shire Council's planning scheme for the area; and
 - (d) binds Noosa Shire Council.
- (2) If, immediately before the changeover day, an instrument is in force under the existing planning scheme, the instrument continues in force from the changeover day until whichever of the following first happens—
 - (a) the instrument expires or is repealed under the existing planning scheme;
 - (b) the scheme, or a relevant part of it, is replaced.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not stop a new planning scheme for the transferred area providing for the instrument continuing in force after the changeover day.

22 Decisions of Maroochy Shire Council taken to be decisions of Noosa Shire Council

- (1) This section applies to a decision about land in the transferred area made under the existing planning scheme by Maroochy Shire Council before the changeover day.
- (2) From the changeover day, the decision continues to apply to the land and for that purpose is taken to have been made by Noosa Shire Council.

23 Outstanding applications about land in transferred area

- (1) This section applies to an application about land in the transferred area that—
 - (a) was, before the changeover day, made to the Maroochy Shire Council under an Act or the existing planning scheme; but
 - (b) was not finally decided before the changeover day.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the changeover day, Maroochy Shire Council must—
 - (a) if Maroochy Shire Council has, before the changeover day, started to assess the application—
 - (i) give Noosa Shire Council the results of Maroochy Shire Council's assessment of the application; and
 - (ii) pay Noosa Shire Council the fees received by it for the application, less a reasonable amount for the costs of its assessment; or
 - (b) otherwise—pay Noosa Shire Council the fees received by it for the application.
- (3) Noosa Shire Council must deal with the application from the changeover day.

24 Outstanding applications requiring impact assessment

- (1) This section applies if, before the changeover day—
 - (a) Maroochy Shire Council receives a development application for land in the transferred area; and

- (b) an impact assessment is required for the proposed development.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), Maroochy Shire Council must decide the application.
- (3) Maroochy Shire Council must, before deciding the application, give written notice of the development application to, and consider submissions made by, Noosa Shire Council.
- (4) In this section—
development application means an application for development approval under IPA.

impact assessment see IPA, schedule 10.⁴

25 Appeals

- (1) This section applies to an appeal—
 - (a) started before the changeover day against a decision of Maroochy Shire Council made under the existing planning scheme; but
 - (b) not finished before the changeover day.
- (2) From the changeover day, Noosa Shire Council takes the place of Maroochy Shire Council in the appeal.

Division 5 Staff

26 Rationalisation of staff

- (1) The joint transitional committee must decide the Maroochy Shire Council officers, if any—

⁴ IPA, schedule 10 (Dictionary)— impact assessment means the assessment (other than code assessment) of—

- (a) the environmental effects of proposed development; and
- (b) the ways of dealing with the effects.

*Local Government (Maroochy and Noosa) Regulation
2003*

- (a) whose duties, immediately before the changeover day, directly relate to the transferred area; and
 - (b) who are, because of the transfer, to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council or retrenched or made redundant on the changeover day.
- (2) If an officer is retrenched or made redundant because of a decision under subsection (1)(b)—
- (a) the officer is entitled to be paid an amount for the retrenchment or redundancy in accordance with the retrenchment or redundancy arrangements applying to the officer immediately before the changeover day; and
 - (b) Maroochy Shire Council is responsible for paying the part of the amount attributable to the officer's accrued entitlements; and
 - (c) Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council are equally responsible for paying the balance of the amount.

27 Entitlements of transferred officers

- (1) This section applies to a Maroochy Shire Council officer who is transferred under a joint transitional committee decision to Noosa Shire Council (the new position).
- (2) The officer is entitled to—
- (a) all existing and accruing rights of employment applying to the officer immediately before the transfer; and
 - (b) employment in the new position on conditions that are no less favourable to the officer than the conditions under which the officer was employed immediately before the transfer.
- (3) Subsection (2)(b) applies only until Noosa Shire Council enters, after the transfer, into an agreement under the Industrial Relations Act 1999 that applies to the officer.
- (4) If the officer's salary for the new position is less than the salary to which the officer was entitled for the substantive position the officer held immediately before the transfer (the former position), the officer must be paid an allowance that is enough to maintain the officer's salary at the salary applying to the former position.

- (5) Subsection (4) applies only until—
- (a) the officer ceases to be an employee of Noosa Shire Council; or
 - (b) the officer is appointed to a position in Noosa Shire Council and the salary for the position is equal to, or more than, the salary for the former position; or
 - (c) the end of 1 year after the officer's appointment to the new position.

Division 6 General

28 Valuation of lands

- (1) The valuation of land in the transferred area immediately before the changeover day continues, from the changeover day, to be the valuation of the land until a further valuation applies to the land.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies subject to an objection or appeal under the Valuation of Land Act 1944 about the valuation, but the objection or appeal may not be based on the fact that the land is no longer in the same local government area as it was at the time of the valuation.
- (3) In this section—
- valuation, of land, means the unimproved value of the land under the Valuation of Land Act 1944.

29 Roads and bridges

To remove any doubt, it is declared that the materials of all roads and bridges in the transferred area belong to Noosa Shire Council from the changeover day.

30 References in documents to Maroochy Shire Council

In a document about the transferred area, including, for example, a contract to which Maroochy Shire Council is a party, a reference to Maroochy Shire Council may, if the context permits, be taken to be a reference to Noosa Shire Council.

31 Record of transfer of assets

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) under section 15,⁵ an asset is transferred to Noosa Shire Council; and
 - (b) under another Act, a person is responsible for keeping a register about dealings with the asset.⁶
- (2) Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council must do all acts and things necessary to record the transfer in the register.

32 Pending legal proceedings

- (1) This section applies to a legal proceeding by or against Maroochy Shire Council that—
 - (a) is not finished before the changeover day; and
 - (b) is identified by the Minister by gazette notice.
- (2) The legal proceeding may, from the changeover day, be continued and finished by or against Noosa Shire Council.

33 Duty to facilitate changes in boundaries

- (1) Maroochy Shire Council must do all acts and things necessary or desirable to facilitate external boundary changes made under this regulation.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), Maroochy Shire Council must give Noosa Shire Council the records that are necessary to enable compliance with this regulation.

⁵ Section 15 (Assets transfer to Noosa Shire Council)

⁶ See section 159 (Liability for State taxes) of the Act.

Part 4 Joint arrangements

Division 1 Joint transitional committee

34 Establishment of committee

- (1) To facilitate the external boundary changes mentioned in section 6,⁷ the joint transitional committee is established.
- (2) The committee consists of the following members—
 - (a) 2 councillors from Maroochy Shire Council;
 - (b) 2 councillors from Noosa Shire Council;
 - (c) an independent chairperson agreed to by Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council.
- (3) The independent chairperson must have extensive knowledge and experience in local government, public administration, law, public finance or community affairs.
- (4) If the councils can not agree on an independent chairperson within 1 month after the commencement of this section, the independent chairperson is the person decided by the Minister, and appointed by the Minister by gazette notice.
- (5) The independent chairperson has a deliberative and a casting vote in the committee's decisions.

35 Joint transitional committee's functions

- (1) The joint transitional committee's functions are—
 - (a) to decide the assets and liabilities that are to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council; and
 - (b) to settle joint agreements between Noosa Shire Council and Maroochy Shire Council for matters to be decided because of the transfer, including, for example, the following—

⁷ Section 6 (External boundary changes)

*Local Government (Maroochy and Noosa) Regulation
2003*

- (i) capital works costs;
 - (ii) supply of sewerage services to the transferred area;
 - (iii) waste collection;
 - (iv) water charges;
 - (v) maintenance of boundary roads;
 - (vi) use of library and community facilities by residents in the transferred area;
 - (vii) catchment management;
 - (viii) services, including, for example, road and park maintenance, waste and water services and sewerage, for the transferred area; and
- (c) to decide the employees, if any, who are, because of the transfer, to be transferred to Noosa Shire Council or retrenched or made redundant; and
 - (d) to make recommendations about other matters the committee considers appropriate.
- (2) The committee must, on or before 1 February 2004, settle a joint agreement between Noosa Shire Council and Maroochy Shire Council about the supply of sewerage services to the transferred area.

36 Conduct of meetings

- (1) The joint transitional committee may conduct its meetings in the way it considers appropriate.
- (2) Committee meetings are to be held at the times and places the committee decides.
- (3) The following 3 members form a quorum—
 - (a) 1 councillor from Maroochy Shire Council;
 - (b) 1 councillor from Noosa Shire Council;
 - (c) the chairperson.
- (4) The joint transitional committee must have a committee meeting within 21 days after its establishment.

37 Term of committee

The joint transitional committee ceases to exist on the day 3 months after the changeover day.

Division 2 Decision-making by joint transitional committee

38 Notice of decisions

The joint transitional committee must, after making a decision, immediately give written notice of the decision to Maroochy Shire Council's and Noosa Shire Council's chief executive officers.

39 Local governments may oppose decisions

- (1) Maroochy Shire Council or Noosa Shire Council may, within 14 days after receiving a notice under section 38, give the Minister written notice that it opposes the decision and the reasons it opposes the decision.
- (2) The council must, at the same time, give a copy of the notice to the chief executive officer of the other local government represented on the joint transitional committee (the other local government).
- (3) The other local government may, within 14 days after receiving a copy of a notice under subsection (2), give the Minister a written submission about the decision.

40 Failure to make decision

- (1) This section applies if, in the opinion of the Maroochy Shire Council or Noosa Shire Council, the joint transitional committee fails, within 28 days after its establishment, to make a decision about a matter mentioned under section 35.⁸

8 Section 35 (Joint transitional committee's functions)

- (2) The council may give the Minister written notice that the joint transitional committee has failed to make the decision.
- (3) The council must, at the same time, give a copy of the notice to the chief executive officer of the other local government represented on the joint transitional committee (the other local government).
- (4) The other local government may, within 14 days after receiving a copy of a notice under subsection (2), give the Minister a written submission about the matter.

41 Adjudication by Minister

- (1) This section applies if the Minister receives—
 - (a) a notice under section 39(1) about a joint transitional committee decision (the opposed decision); or
 - (b) a notice under section 40(2) about a failure to make a decision.
- (2) The Minister must, after considering each submission properly made by a local government about the opposed decision or the failure to make a decision—
 - (a) for an opposed decision—confirm, amend or revoke the decision; or
 - (b) for a failure to make a decision—make the decision.
- (3) The Minister must give written notice of the Minister's decision to Maroochy Shire Council's and Noosa Shire Council's chief executive officers.
- (4) The Minister may recover from Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council the reasonable costs incurred by the Minister in taking action under this section, in the proportions decided by the Minister.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

42 Inspection of maps

A map mentioned in this chapter may be inspected at the following—

- (a) the department's head office;⁹
- (b) Maroochy Shire Council's head office;¹⁰
- (c) Noosa Shire Council's head office.¹¹

Chapter 3 Divisional boundaries

43 Objects

- (1) The objects of this chapter are—
 - (a) to implement reviewable local government matters recommended in electoral and boundaries review commission reports;¹² and
 - (b) to facilitate the implementation of the reviewable local government matters.
- (2) The reviewable local government matters involve, for Maroochy Shire Council and Noosa Shire Council, 1 or more of the following—
 - (a) divisional arrangements;
 - (b) assignment of councillors to divisions.

⁹ The department's head office is at 41 George Street, Brisbane.

¹⁰ Maroochy Shire Council's office is at the corner of Currie and Bury Streets, Nambour.

¹¹ Noosa Shire Council's office is at 9 Pelican Street, Tewantin.

¹² Each report identified in this regulation may be inspected at the office of the Electoral Commission of Queensland at 160 Mary Street, Brisbane and the public office of the local government to which the report relates.

44 When implementation takes effect

Each reviewable local government matter mentioned in this chapter for a local government takes effect—

- (a) for the purposes of the 2004 quadrennial elections for the mayor and councillors of the local government—on the day this section commences; and
- (b) for any other purpose—on the changeover day.

45 Inspection of maps

A map mentioned in this chapter may be inspected at the following—

- (a) the department;
- (b) the public office of the local government to which the map relates.

46 Maroochy shire

- (1) This section implements the reviewable local government matters recommended in the local government electoral and boundaries review commission report of August 2003 called ‘Review of divisional boundaries, Maroochy Shire Council, Final determination’.
- (2) The Maroochy shire is divided into 12 divisions as shown on map number LGB82 edition 8.
- (3) The local government for the shire consists of a mayor and 12 other councillors.
- (4) One councillor is assigned to each division.

47 Noosa shire

- (1) This section implements the reviewable local government matters recommended in the local government electoral and boundaries review commission report of July 2003 called ‘Review of divisional boundaries, Noosa Shire Council, Final determination’.

*Local Government (Maroochy and Noosa) Regulation
2003*

- (2) The Noosa shire is divided into 4 divisions as shown on map number LGB100 edition 7.
- (3) The local government for the shire consists of a mayor and 9 other councillors.
- (4) The number of councillors assigned to each division are as follows—
 - (a) division 1—3;
 - (b) division 2—2;
 - (c) division 3—2;
 - (d) division 4—2.
