Nature Conservation (Macropod Harvest Period) Notice 2004

Reprinted as in force on 1 January 2005

Reprint No. 1

This reprint is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel
Warning—This reprint is not an authorised copy

NOT FURTHER AMENDED
LAST REPRINT BEFORE REPEAL
See 2005 SL No. 114 s 9

Information about this reprint

This notice is reprinted as at 1 January 2005. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 mentioned in the following list have also been made to—

- use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35)
- correct minor errors (s 44).

This page is specific to this reprint. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in the reprint, including table of corrected minor errors.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

[reprinted as in force on 1 January 2005]

1 Short title

This notice may be cited as the Nature Conservation (Macropod Harvest Period) Notice 2004.

2 Commencement

This notice commences on 1 January 2005.

3 Macropods to which notice applies

This notice applies to the following (each a harvest macropod)—

- (a) an eastern grey kangaroo (Macropus giganteus);
- (b) a red kangaroo (Macropus rufus);
- (c) a wallaroo (Macropus robustus);
- (d) a whiptail wallaby (Macropus parryi).

4 Definitions

In this notice—

animal food means a substance ordinarily consumed, or intended for consumption, by animals.

estimated population size, for a harvest macropod, for a region, means the population size estimated by the chief executive for the macropod for the region.

harvest macropod see section 3.

human food means a substance ordinarily consumed, or intended for consumption, by humans.

*Nature Conservation (Macropod Harvest Period)
Notice 2004*

maximum amount, for a harvest macropod, for a relevant region for the macropod, means—

- (a) for an eastern grey kangaroo—
 - (i) for the central region—14.9% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
 - (ii) for the eastern region—10% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
 - (iii) for the western region—10% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
- (b) for a red kangaroo—
 - (i) for the central region—18.6% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
 - (ii) for the eastern region—10% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
 - (iii) for the western region—10% of the estimated population size for the kangaroo; or
- (c) for a wallaroo—
 - (i) for the central region—14.8% of the estimated population size for the wallaroo; or
 - (ii) for the eastern region—10% of the estimated population size for the wallaroo; or
 - (iii) for the western region—10% of the estimated population size for the wallaroo; or
- (d) for a whiptail wallaby for all of the relevant regions for the wallaby—1% of the estimated population size for the wallaby.

relevant region, for a harvest macropod, means each region mentioned and described in the schedule for the macropod.

5 Harvest period for harvest macropods

- (1) A harvest period for a harvest macropod starts, for each relevant region for the macropod, on 1 January 2005 and ends on—

*Nature Conservation (Macropod Harvest Period)
Notice 2004*

- (a) if the chief executive has published a notice stating the chief executive is satisfied the maximum amount for the macropod for the region will have been taken by a particular day—the particular day; or
 - (b) otherwise—31 December 2005.
- (2) A notice mentioned in subsection (1)(a) must be published—
- (a) in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State; and
 - (b) on or before the day the harvest period ends.¹
- (3) If the chief executive publishes, or intends to publish, a notice mentioned in subsection (1)(a) for a macropod, the chief executive must also give each holder of a commercial or recreational wildlife harvesting licence for the macropod a written notice stating—
- (a) the chief executive is satisfied the maximum amount for the macropod for a relevant region will have been taken by a particular day; and
 - (b) the harvest period for the macropod for the region ends on that day.
- (4) The chief executive must give the notice mentioned in subsection (3) at least 7 days before the day the harvest period ends.

6 Condition about size of harvest macropods taken for skin only

- (1) This section applies if a person intends to take a harvest macropod for its skin only.
- (2) The person may take the macropod only if the skin of the macropod has an area of at least—
 - (a) if the macropod is a whiptail wallaby—0.32 m²; or
 - (b) otherwise—0.37 m².
